The Washington Post is the only Washington newspaper publishing the reports of The Associated Press every morning. For home delivery call National 4205.

The Washington Post.

Weather—Cloudy today; Tuesday partly cloudy.
Temperature—Highest, 39; lowest, 36.
Details on Page 15.

NO. 19,905. ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER, POSTOFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C. WASHINGTON: MONDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1930. COPYRIGHT, 1930, BY THE WASHINGTON POST CO. THREE CENTS.

3 DIE, 32 MISSING IN BOAT EXPLOSION

SPAIN CRUSHES JACA UPRISING; TWO EXECUTED

Republican Leaders in Various Sections Are Thrown Into Jail.

CITY OF HUESCA PUT UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Wife of Maj. Franco Seized but Released; Civilians Flee Across Border.

Huesca, Spain, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The Spanish government moved swiftly today to squelch the spirit of revolt which flared at Jaca Friday. Two of the leaders were executed after a brief court-martial here, and in the meantime Republican and Extremist leaders over the country were arrested.

When the rebellion was broken yesterday by loyal troops in a sharp battle near Ayerbe, two of the men captured were Fernyn Galan and Garcia Hernandez, viewed as the outstanding instigators of the movement which followed upon a summer of disorder over Spain. Today they looked into the rifles of a firing squad and died bravely.

Closely guarded, the two men were taken in military trucks from the courthouse where they were tried to an army warehouse on the outskirts of the city. They refused bandages for their eyes, and with firm bearing walked to the wall before which in a few seconds they would lie crumpled.

Plea for Comrade Fails.

Galan smoked a cigarette calmly and made a plea for his comrade, saying he himself was guilty and deserved his fate, but Hernandez was innocent. His plea was rejected and the two firing squads of nine men each loaded their rifles.

Galan's last act was to hand his purse, containing 500 pesetas, to the officer commanding the firing squads. "Give that to the poor," he said, just before the rifles cracked.

Following upon the executions Huesca was placed completely under military rule and it was announced that communications with the outside world would be severed for the night after 8 p. m.

Shops and cafes were closed and the inhabitants were ordered to remain indoors during the night.

Some of the wounded rebels, brought to hospitals here after the battle near Ayerbe yesterday, have since died.

While a number of other rebels have been tried here and are under sentence of death, the local opinion is they may be permitted to live, since the government already has shown a firm hand and because of numerous petitions may wish to show clemency.

Third Leader, Wounded, Dies.

In the meantime it was learned a third leader, Pio Diaz, died last night at Jaca when loyal troops entered the town after crushing the revolutionary army outside.

Diaz, a prominent business man and avowed Republican, became mayor of the town when the revolt opened and established headquarters in the city hall. On the mast overhead he ran up a flag not seen publicly in Spain since the short-lived republic of 60 years ago—the "Republican flag," which bears a bar of purple in addition to the yellow and red of the Spanish national colors.

Just how Diaz was shot was not determined definitely, but it was certain he was not tried by court-martial. There was some resistance when the government's troops entered the town and it was held possible that he was killed in the ensuing fighting.

At Madrid, meanwhile, strong forces of police and civil guards were put on the streets as a precautionary measure against any outbreak which might follow the revolt and the executions. Many arrests were made of suspected persons, while the authorities acted similarly in Seville, Valencia and Barcelona.

Plan to Prevent Strike.

Precautions also were taken against plans for a widespread general strike tomorrow. It was understood that labor leaders in Madrid, Santander and Bilbao were to meet tomorrow to determine whether workers should walk out in protest against the execution of rebel chieftains.

The little mountain town of Jaca, where the movement began, was quiet today and the government forces were in full control. Detachments of loyal soldiery continued to search for rebels who escaped after yesterday's conflict, believing that most of them were attempting to cross the French frontier.

Madrid, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Several of the most prominent figures in the Republican and extremist movements in Spain were arrested in Madrid tonight as a precautionary measure against a general strike or any other

Continued on Page 2, Column 3.

Calvin Coolidge

Says: Immigration is not a simple question. The entire economic effect of restriction is unknown. Every immigrant is a consumer requiring food, clothing and shelter. To that extent work is made for wage earners. But when many are already idle, an influx of wage earners would aggravate the condition of unemployment.

Every race and creed that has come here in numbers has shown examples of unsurpassed loyalty and devotion to our country. But only by coming slowly, avoiding city colonies and spreading over the land, do they arrive in the real United States.

The economic reasons for restricting immigration are not always the most important. We have certain standards of life that we believe are best for us. We do not ask other nations to discard theirs, but we do wish to preserve ours. Standards, government and culture under free institutions are not so much a matter of constitutions and laws as of public opinion, ways of thought and methods of life of the people.

We reflect on no one in wanting immigrants who will be assimilated into our ways of thinking and living. Believing we can best serve the world in that way, we restrict immigration.

(Copyright, 1930.)

CLOSE FIGHT AHEAD ON DROUGHT RELIEF

Progressives Linked With Democrats to Support $60,000,000 Bill.

LA FOLLETTE AIM VEXES

(Associated Press.)

Republican House leaders face a close contest over the administration's drought relief program today, with Democrats and a Republican Progressive element aligned to support the Senate's $60,000,000 measure.

Speaker Longworth is expected to permit Chairman Haugen, of the House agriculture committee, to propose adoption of the $30,000,000 seed and fertilizer loan fund under suspension of rules. This procedure has been attacked by Democrats as "gag rule."

Representative Garner, of Texas, minority leader, believes he can muster enough votes to prevent adoption of the $30,000,000 administration measure so that a vote can be had, probably Tuesday, on the Senate proposal.

It requires a two-thirds majority for the Republicans to obtain consent of the House to suspend the rules. Under this procedure, no amendments can be offered, and the vote will have to be for the $30,000,000 proposal or against it.

Should Republican leadership fail to hold the rank and file in line today the plan calls for bringing the Haugen measure up under special rule Tuesday. However, under this plan the Democrats could force a record vote on a motion to send the administration measure back to the agriculture committee. Garner hopes in this way to secure adoption of the Senate bill.

Not only is the Republican leadership opposed to the amount carried in the Senate proposal, but also to the provision permitting loans to be granted for food for drought-stricken farmers. Representative Tilson, of Connecticut, the majority leader, contends it would lead to establishment of the dole and that unemployed in industrial cities would demand similar loans.

Ready to add final approval to the $116,000,000 emergency employment

Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

MAN SLAIN BY BOMB HIDDEN IN PACKAGE

Wife Is Critically Injured as Christmas Parcel Blows Up.

FARM HOUSE WRECKED

Shickshinny, Pa., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—A dynamite bomb delivered in a Christmas package today wrecked the farm house of Joseph Masteikas, 49, about 3 miles from here. Masteikas was killed and his wife, Catherine, was critically injured.

Masteikas found the bomb on his porch. It was wrapped in a package bearing holiday labels and trimmings. He took the bundle inside to show to his wife. As he opened it, the bomb exploded, shattering the rear of the house and killing him.

State police are holding one man, but his identity has not been revealed, nor the reason for his detention given. Police intimated they were working on the theory that a neighborhood quarrel may have been the basis of the bomb attack.

Three daughters of the Masteikas, who were asleep, were uninjured by the explosion. The eldest, Ann, 16 years old, ran downstairs to find her father had been blown from the kitchen to an adjoining room, where he lay dead. Her mother, the girl said, was unconscious on the kitchen floor.

Mrs. Masteikas said the package carried a gay-colored picture of Santa Claus. "It must be a Christmas present," she told her husband. Together they began unwrapping it. She remembered nothing else.

The rear of the seven-room farmhouse was demolished.

Masteikas worked during the winter months in the coal mines. A year ago his automobile was wrecked by a dynamite explosion at the colliery where he was employed. The explosion occurred as a fellow worker opened a door of the car.

Lisbon Express Jumps Rails; Passengers Hurt

Lisbon, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—A number of passengers were injured tonight when the Vigo-Lisbon Express jumped the rails at Valenca, near the international bridge connecting Spain and Portugal.

Three passenger coaches turned over. The injured were removed to hospitals.

Boy's Plea in Store for Gift Emphasizes Drive for Toys

"Presents for Everyone" Sign Prompts Ragged Urchin to Enter and Ask for His; Chance to Give Closes Sunday.

Outside the big department store a huge electric sign proclaimed to the world that, on the inside, might be found "presents for everyone."

A tattered urchin, keeping close to the buildings as a shelter against the raw December wind, gazed up at the sign and darted into the store. Glancing quickly about, he located the toy department with a speed that was close to genius. Rushing up to the floorwalker on duty, the urchin demanded:

"Give me my present."

"What present?" the floor man inquired.

"Why, the one I've got coming to me. The sign outside says 'Presents for Everyone.'"

Gently, but firmly, the lad was ushered outside despite his protests and made his weary way homeward, having learned what many others have learned in the past, that appearances are deceptive and that signs do not always mean just what they say.

Presents for everyone! True, there are presents for everyone in the stores at this time of year. But not everyone can afford to buy the nice things on display for their children, their friends and their relatives.

Grown-ups may bear up under the disappointment of not receiving gifts at Christmas time, because they realize that circumstances do not always permit doing just what one would like to do. But for a child to be without presents on Christmas morning is a state of affairs for which no one can offer an excuse.

Continued on Page 3, Column 6.

BARNES CLAIMS INDUSTRY GAINS IN MANY LINES

Signs of Improvement Are Seen, Despite World Condition.

SOME FIRMS BALANCE PRODUCTION, DEMAND

Annual Report on Foreign and Retail Commerce Made by Chairman.

(Associated Press.)

Praise for some American industries for surmounting the effects of the business depression was given last night, in a world-wide review of economic conditions for 1930, by Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the national business survey conference, appointed by President Hoover.

Barnes said reports received from the chief lines of American business indicated that the "sanguine expectations generally held early in 1930 of greatly quickened trade before the end of the year have not materialized."

The report pointed out also that the depression had existed throughout the world. Some signs of improvement were seen.

Some Betterment Seen.

"There is evidence of many industries having adapted themselves to current conditions and having successfully balanced production and market consumption," Barnes said in discussing conditions in the United States.

"Through many industries," he continued, "runs the evidence that management, by various resourceful devices, has maintained employment at a higher ratio than the statistical index of operations.

"Even during this recession the aggregate volume of trade has manifestly been of large proportions, and there are indications of individual industries being successful beyond the average, either because of special conditions or because of management qualities, courage, initiative and enterprise, which are typically American."

United Kingdom Gains.

Barnes said some improvement was shown in the United Kingdom, Germany and China, with Belgium, the Netherlands, Canada and Japan unchanged. The remaining nations, including France, showed a decline in general conditions, he said.

Covering in most instances eleven months of the year, the survey showed a continued decline in foreign trade and a 7 per cent drop in retail trade. Postal receipts persisted below 1929 levels.

Short term credit continued in large volume, but about 2 per cent cheaper than last year. Excluding refunding issues, 31 per cent less capital was floated during the eleven

Continued on Page 3, Column 4.

RESCUED MAN TELLS OF WILD SCENE ON BOAT

New York Police Officer Says "Crew Seemed to Be Crazy."

ORCHESTRA HEROIC WHILE PANIC RAGES

Eyewitness Charges That Life-Saving Work Was Woefully Lacking.

Miami Beach, Fla., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Fred G. Norman, New York City police sergeant, was a survivor with his wife and their 13-year-old son, of the burning of the excursion boat Eureka II today.

Norman said the boat was approximately 2 miles off Bug Light on the return trip to Miami.

"We had been headed back from the trip about 20 minutes," he said. "I looked at my watch when the first explosion occurred. It was 5:40 o'clock. My wife, son and I were on the upper deck when I saw some smoke pouring out of the engine room. I rushed to the door, where I was met by a member of the crew. I told him, I think he was the engineer, to close the door.

"The whole crew seemed to be crazy. As I got to the door, flames began to lick up around the paneling. People began to rush madly toward the front and back of the boat, fore and aft, screaming fire. Panic reigned. No one gave orders or tried to organize the situation.

Orchestra Proved Heroic.

"Two men started pulling down life preservers and distributing them. They were in the racks between decks. There were no lifeboats that I saw.

"A three-piece orchestra kept playing like heroes. They were a piano player, a saxophone player and a drummer, and they tried valiantly to save the situation."

"The orchestra was among the last to leave the boat," Norman asserted. "I was among the last of them, too."

Norman's report of the abandoning of the vessel conflicted with earlier reports. He said every one stayed on the boat until flames forced them to jump.

"The crew was among the first to leave," Norman charged. "To the best of my knowledge, there were five members of the crew and the captain."

Norman asserted that at first calls of fire, several men grabbed available water and threw it into the engine room.

20 Children on Boat.

"I saw several glass water containers, and saw a man I thought was the engineer throw three of them, all he could find, into the engine room," Norman related.

He said he believed the passengers

Continued on Page 2, Column 1.

Two Capital Residents Saved In Excursion Boat Disaster

(Associated Press.)

Names of some of the survivors brought in by the Dorothea are:

A. S. Aldrich, Miami Beach; Jimmy Flynn, Miami Beach; Mrs. H. H. Lowry, East Orange, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Romer, Lake Mahipoc, N. Y.; N. Cohen, New York City; W. R. Cooper, Miami; Albert Cooper, Miami; Mr. and Mrs. O. Tennessen, of Philadelphia; Susan Norwood, Coconut Grove; Capt. Styles, MiMami; J. H. Deen, Reading, Pa.; Arthur S. Deen, Reading, Pa.; James W. Elder, Miami; Roy Lovace, Knoxville, Tenn; Evily Alsop, Miami, and a 6-year-old boy.

Ellen Flora, Miami; Vivian Romitz, Miami; Mrs. A. S. Alrich, Miami Beach; a Mr. Cooper and his small son; Orland Hoven, no address; H. Goodwin, no address; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Chatham, Miami; Mrs. Mabel Ackerman, Miami; Mrs. Sadie Chamberlain, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. M. E. Piem, Akron, Ohio; Alma E. Sprung, Miami; Mr. and Mrs. H. Gobel, Jersey City, N. J.; Albert Vistine, East St. Louis, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Butler, Southbridge, Mass.; Ray Lemenin, Southbridge, Mass.; Mrs. Ray Peterson and daughter, Adel Ridge, Pittsburgh.

Mayne R. Coe and Charles H. Coe, Washington, D. C.; Clara S. Johnson, Miami; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Glen, Jersey City; Mary McGann, Miami; Dolores Coconow, Miami; Bernie Welberton, Miami; Binnie Lowery, Cedartown, Ga.; Mary Lee, Atlanta; Alex Gluck, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin, Miami; Mabel Packingham, Granville, Ill.; Mrs. Weeks Smith and two children, Pahucah, Ky.; Mrs. George Stewart, Chicago; S. A. Green, Jerome, Ariz.; Mrs. C. F. Beeger and Mrs. M. J. Berger, Miami; Raymond Daniels, Mrs. R. M. Daniels and Mrs. H. A. Daniels, Miami; Leo F. Gibson, Detroit; Kirby Smith, Cincinnati.

Alice C. Allen, Chicago; Katherine Alden, Chicago; Mrs. W. C. Cearley, Wanah, Tex.; Mrs. Ann Ayiva, New York; Estelle Magel, Miami; Mrs. F. J. Spiles, Miami; James C. Reid, Miami; A. W. Correll, Miami; M. Davis, Sagirs, Mich.; H. E. Lowry, New York; E. J. Kenney, Massachusetts; E. V. Stiles, Miami, member of crew; W. L. Stiles, Miami, member of crew; George Stuart, Atlanta; H. R. Latowski, Detroit; E. T. Haase, Chicago; Isabelle Ryan, Boston; Ed Hale, Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Starkey, Camden, N. J.; J. W. Anderson, Coral Gables, Fla.; H. A. Daniels, Miami; Capt. H. Hills, Miami; E. O. Dubois, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. L. Newhoff, jr., Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. William Isaacs, Baltimore; Adele Edelberg, Louisville, Ky.

Charles H. and Mayne R. Coe, listed among the survivors, live at 2947 Mills avenue northeast. The latter, who is a chemist in the Department of Agriculture, is the son of the former, and was visiting him in Miami, where he spends the winters. Both are married, but their wives did not accompany them South.

When informed of the accident last night by The Post, Mrs. Mayne Coe said that bot hof the men were strong swimmers. Charles Coe is 74 years old and Mayne is 42.

Gangland in Gay Garb Sees Capone Kin Wed

Efforts to Keep Sister's Nuptials Secret Unavailing as 4,000 Crowd Cicero Church; Detectives Seize Five Armed Gunmen.

By RUTH BALDWIN COWAN.

Chicago, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The elite of gangland put on its Sunday best and nosed luxurious motor cars through a snowstorm today to an obscure church in Cicero to see "Scarface Al" Capone's 18-year-old sister, Mafalda, become Mrs. John Maritote in a wedding lavish with chrysanthemums and sinister with an undertone of firearms.

The principals tried to keep the event secret—and succeeded to the extent of having only 4,000 persons packed sardine fashion into St. Mary's Catholic Church, built for a fourth that many. An additional thousand, unable to push, shove or prod their way in, milled about outside.

Among the uninvited guests were detectives who circulated for business purposes. As the tenor sang, "Oh, Promise Me," they abstracted five gunmen from the mob. Each carried a pistol.

Bearers of names prominent in hoodlum's "Who's Who" trod down the aisle, apparently carefree, careless—but not quite. Three sturdy, swarthy men were observed to keep their right hands in their pockets throughout the service. And there were rumors that the elusive Al, who is adept at keeping jumps ahead of all varieties of law enforcers, was in the crowd, flanked by henchmen well armed.

The audience presented a cosmopolitan picture of humanity. A day laborer in a blue shirt elbowed a well-dressed, self-possessed disdainful man wearing a gardenia boutonniere; a white-haired man of scholarly appearance watched beside a chap whose battered features indicated service in the prize ring. The flickering candle lights had a brilliant reflection in the diamonds that encased pudgy fingers and studded shirt fronts.

The occasion brought forth a fashion parade. Early arrivals saw an exceptionally striking outfit—a black sealskin coat trimmed with regal white fur collar and 3-inch bands of white fur above the elbow. The wearer topped the ensemble with a white felt hat with a chic black bow.

Jewelry and rich furs were plentiful. As with the men, intermingled among the expensively gowned women were others—shabby, dowdy, nondescript.

Another note of contrast was that many of the smartly attired men were accompanied by blonde girls—in each instance, very blonde, very attractive and well dressed.

The church flowered with white chrysanthemums and bowls of pink and white carnations decorated the altar rail—a small fortune in flowers. Delicate perfumes mingled with the odor of garlic. The usual custom of silence in a Catholic church was shattered by a continuous mumbling.

The wedding, late to begin with, was retarded still more by the crowds at the door. Four times "Here comes

Continued on Page 4, Column 5.

DANVILLE IS FACING MILL CRISIS TODAY

Militia and Police Are Ready for Trouble if Strikers Seek to Return.

UNION IS STILL DEFIANT

Special to The Washington Post.

Danville, Va., Dec. 14.—Danville awaited with apprehension tonight tomorrow's early shift, which is expected to determine definitely whether the morale of the textile workrs, entering the twelfth week of a strike, has crumbled. Strikers were torn between clinging to the ideal of unionism by standing fast or going back to the mills with the word of the mill president that there would be no discrimination against those who have refused to work if they report tomorrow, leaving their union cards behind them.

On the surface, the strikers appeared more solid and defiant than they have been hurling back to H. R. Fitzgerald his message of affection for the workers and his promise to take them back.

Col. H. L. Opie, in charge of the militia at Schoolfield, and Chief of Police Martin, in charge of a riot squad of 93 shotgun-armed men, were prepared for eventualities tonight. Both civil and military commanders were proceeding on the theory that union workers would seek to bar the gates to nonunion hands and that it would be incumbent on them to disperse such gatherings. The soldiers will have their bayonets and the police will have riot equipment and tear gas, and will be supported by city firemen with hose if necessary.

The strike situation was quiet today, with no clues to those responsible for dynamiting the home of Robert Edwards at Schoolfield, windows being broken and one floor ripped out, with damage to furniture. Edwards is a nonunion worker, but two strikers sleep at his home. The Schoolfield dam and the city pump house and reservoir were carefully guarded tonight. Union members held a rousing mass meeting this evening and sang "The Union Forever."

FORM OF DOMINION IN SIGHT FOR INDIA

Despite Conference Tangles, Modified Status Now Seems Assured.

FORECAST OF RESULTS

By JOHN L. BALDERSTON.

London, Dec. 14 (N.Y.W.N.S.).—While the all-India conference is struggling with great difficulties, the situation has progressed far enough to make possible an informed forecast of its outcome, which carries the indorsement of negotiators on both the British and Indian sides. In general, it seems probable that dominion status, in greatly modified form, will be agreed upon by the British negotiators and embodied in the final act of the round table conference.

When the present unsolved disputes between the Hindus and the Moslems and th Sikhs over proportional representation of their religious groups have been settled, and the conference has passed through a series of crises over the powers to be settled upon the new central government in India, the conference will close, probably late in January, by passing a series of resolutions embodying its decisions.

That much is certain. How vague the phraseology of these resolutions may be will turn upon what vital disagreements still exist.

These resolutions will be addressed to the British Parliament, which will then appoint a commission of both houses to embody the recommendations of the round table conference into legislation. The struggle will then be resumed in this commission and later in Parliament, where matters that can not be agreed upon within the next month will come up for fresh dispute. A small but important committee, representing the different Indian factions, will be left by the round table conference after its adjournment to consult with the parliamentary commission.

Leading Indians have conceded that for a specified term of years control of the army and foreign relations

Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

Chinese Reds Massacre Population of Two Cities

Foreign Ships Plying Yangtze Report Capture of Lichow and Tsingshih in Hunan; Fate of Missionaries Unknown.

Hankow, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Capture of two Hunan Porvince cities with a general slaughter of the inhabitants was credited to Chinese Communists in reports received here tonight.

Foreign ships plying the Yangtze River near Shanshi reported Lichow, one of the important cities of Hunan and Tsingshih had fallen into the hands of the Reds, who ruthlessly massacred the population.

The reports said the Communists indicated they planned to push their operations north of the Yangtze River and attack the important river town of Shansi, in Hupeh Province.

Tsingshih had been under fire for several days, and at one time the Communists were reported to have burned part of the city and threatened death to the inhabitants for the resistance.

The Finland Missionary Society maintained a mission at Tsingshih, but, with only meager information available, it was not known whether missionaries suffered in the attack. It was understood the provincial government had ordered troops from Changsha, more than 100 miles from Lichow, to seek to disperse the Reds.

Meanwhile, Chinese press dispatches reported the Communists victorious against government troops in a battle at Ningtu, in Kiangsi Province. The report said the Reds had escaped into the mountains along the border of Kiangsi and Fukien Provinces, taking 1,000 Ningtu residents as captive hostages.

Hongkong, China, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—

Continued on Page 9, Column 5.

TOURIST YACHT IS BURNED OFF FLORIDA SHORE

One Hundred Sightseers Are Saved in Blast Below Miami.

VESSELS IN VICINITY JOIN IN RESCUE WORK

Coast Guard Craft Rushed to Scene; Bodies of Two Are Identified.

Miami Beach, Fla., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Three persons are dead and 32 are unreported as a result of an explosion and burning of the Eureka II, a sea-bottom boat at Bug Light, 15 miles below Miami Beach tonight.

One hundred persons of hte 136 that departed from Miami this morning on an excursion into the tropic waters near here, were rescued.

Bodies of two of the known three dead persons were identified. One was identified by papers in his coat pocket, as H. C. Grimm, 60, of 824 Main street, McCook, Neb., a baggage master for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad.

The second man was identified as Clarence Vine, 30, Haverhill, Mass., a deckhand on the Eureka II.

The third body was that of a woman. Undertakers said she was between 50 and 60 years old, weighing about 175 pounds and wore a wedding ring with the initials "W.V.L."

Some of the 32 unreported persons were believed to have bene rescued by boats and en route to Miami.

The dead are unidentified, due to the fact there was no passenger list carried by the 105-foot vessel

Swimming to Save Lives.

Thirty passengers picked up by the yacht Dorothea were brought here. The others, men, women and children, were said by the Dorothea's crew at that time to be swimming about in an attempt to save their lives in the early darkness as the Dorothea left to come here for assistance.

The three picket boats from the Fort Lauderdale Coast Guard base and numerous small vessels from here were rushed immediately to the scene of the explosion.

Police said approximately a dozen fishing boats were dispatched from here immediately upon receipt of word from the Dorothea.

Three boats followed the Dorothea into Miami Beach or Miami with survivors.

The stewardess of the yacht Josephine said she picked a small baby from the water.

Estimates of possible deaths could not be gained from any of the survivors brought in in early boat arrivals.

Craft Had Glass Bottom.

The Eureka II was owned by Capt. Clarence Styles, of Miami, and was

Apoplexy Is Fatal To Gore Relative

Senatro Elect's Brother-in-Law Drops Dead on Street.

Howard M. Kay, 54 years old, brother-in-law of the blind Senator-elect Thomas P. Gore, of Oklahoma, died suddenly yesterday, at Thirteenth and F strets northwest, of apoplexy.

He was employed by Senator-elect Gore in his law offices in the Woodward Building. For the last five years he had been crippled from paralysis.

When he dropped to the sidewalk at Thirteenth and F streets northwest, he was taken to Emergency Hospital and pronounced dead upon arrival. Besides his sister, Mrs. Thomas P. Gore, of 3930 Connecticut avenue, he is survived by a brother, who lives in Texas.

NEWS of SUBURBAN Washington and the Surrounding States

Appears on Page 3 Today.

built on two pontoons with the glass bottoms between the pontoons.

The Eureka II had gone on its customary tour of nearby tropical waters with a Sunday boatload of excursionists. It was believed to be returning to Miami to disembark the passengers when the explosion occurred.

Earlier survivors to return were apparently confused about the time of the explosion. Many said it occurred at 5:30 (E. S. T.), while others placed the time at nearer 6 o'clock.

Commander T. W. Klinger of the Fort Lauderdale Guard base sent a second group of three picket boats to the scene of the explosion tonight and ordered all available men to duty to man additional boats.

WITNESS PORTRAYS BOAT PANIC SCENE

Continued from Page 1.

had been in the water about 20 minutes when a gasoline tank blew up.

"Some 15 or 20 minutes later, the Dorothea arrived and picked us up. My family and I were the last to get on the boat," Norman said.

"The Dorothea was the first to come to the rescue and two others appeared shortly afterward. Mr. Barrett, on the Dorothea, signaled several others on the way in to go to the rescue."

"I have never seen a catastrophe like this," Norman said.

He estimated there were 20 to 25 children aboard the boat.

Arthur S. Deen, of Reading, Pa., winter visitor here, was one of the passengers rescued by the Dorothea. He said he thought there were more than 100 passengers, all of whom were blown or jumped into the water.

"Smoke began coming from the engine room as we sailed along," he said. "Then there was an explosion, followed immediately by two more. Flames began to leap out of the engine room.

The craft began to go to pieces, it looked like. It rocked and seemed like it was sinking. Some of the passengers were blown into the water by the explosion, but when the boat started to sink the rest of us jumped in."

Deen said he had time to go below decks in the vessel between the time he first saw smoke and the time of the explosion.

"It undoubtedly was an explosion of gasoline for the engine," he said, "but aside from that I don't know what happened.

"All of a sudden there was a terrible wave of excitement as the explosion occurred. I don't know how far we were from shore but it wasn't far.

D. E. Barrett, owner of the yacht Dorothea, told of hearing the explosion and seeing the fire from a point where he was fishing 10 miles away. He immediately ordered the boat put to the assistance of the Eureka II.

"As we approached in the coming darkness we saw men, women and children floundering about in the water in frantic efforts to save themselves," he said.

"We took on every person the Dorothea could possibly carry without sinking, and came to Miami Beach," Barrett said.

Barrett's story contained phases of pitiful attempts by the passengers of the exploded boat to get on the Dorothea.

"One man, holding a baby in his arms as he swam about, pulled himself to the side of the Dorothea and begged that the child be taken aboard," Barrett related.

"Don't save me, but save the baby," Barrett said the man pleaded.

Barrett thought 150 persons were in the water.

Student Teachers Vote 'Yes' on Love

Affirmatives Predominate on "Should Unengaged Exchange Affection."

Special to The Washington Post.

Glenville, W. Va., Dec. 14.—Answering a Y. M. C. A. questionnaire, students of the Glenville State Normal School have voted, 112 to 34, in the affirmative on the question:

Should a boy and a girl not engaged exchange affections?

Just what is meant by the latter term was not brought out by the question blank, but it was understood to include those branches of the campus curriculum known as "parkology" and "neckology."

The embryo school marms and masters also indicated by a vote of 97 to 61 that they consider divorce an asset to society and by a vote of 119 to 35 that the art of dancing is useful to anyone. They also voted 66 to 91 against modification of the eighteenth amendment; but on the question as to whether individuals should be privileged to manufacture beverages of alcoholic content for personal use they voted 72 for and 86 against.

Shepard to Renew His Defense Move

Army Officer Is Expected to Testify That He Did Not Poison Wife.

Kansas City, Kan., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Attorneys for Maj. Charles A. Shepard, 59 years old, an Army medical officer, planned tonight to review tomorrow a counter-move to free the surgeon of a charge of wife murder.

The attorneys indicated the major would take the stand late in the week to deny he poisoned his wife because of Miss Grace Brandon, 24 years old, a stenographer, of San Antonio.

Harry S. Class, chief of defense counsel, said medical experts would be called in the presentation of Shepard's case.

Chutes Save Aviators In 4,500-Foot Plunge

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Two naval reserve student fliers, H. W. Gall and L. J. Schrieber, escaped death in parachute leaps here today when their plane plunged 4,500 feet after the elevators were torn off by a sharp dive.

The plane landed in the yard of H. S. Heap, northeast Seattle resident, narrowly missing him and his son, Dr. George R. Heap, who were decorating a Christmas tree on the lawn.

Robbers Get $10,000; Truss Up Watchman

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Robbers blew open two safes in the Kauffmann Straus Store here last night and escaped with loot estimated at $10,000 after trussing up the watchman.

The burglary was discovered early today after the watchman, Conrad Razer, 71, failed to punch the boxes at the regular time.

It will be to your advantage to watch the Real Estate offers in Post Classified Ads.

TURNKEY SHOT DEAD BY INTRUDER IN JAIL

Youth and Girl Disappear After Mysterious Slaying in Missouri.

NO PRISONERS ESCAPE

Carthage, Mo., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Othel E. Bray, 50, acting turnkey, was shot to death with his own revolver in the Jasper County Jail today by a visitor who, after shooting at two other persons, fled with a woman companion.

Bullets fired at a trusty and John Dyer, 17-year-old son of the regular jailer, George Dyer, went wild. No prisoners escaped.

The killer and the girl upon entering the jail asked permission to see Bill Daggett, of Joplin, Mo., who it developed, had been released Friday.

Bray turned to the jail record book, young Dyer said. Then the visitor seized Bray's weapon from its holster and fired three shots into the body of the officer. Two bullets pierced his heart.

Young Dyer fled to the jail arsenal for a gun. A bullet struck the door as he slammed it. A trusty, running to investigate the shooting, also was a target but escaped.

The killer and the girl, both young, left at least two clews. The man dropped his hat and a heel was torn from one of the woman's shoes. Officers believed they escaped in a motor car parked nearby.

Posses formed quickly. With the motive of the crime a mystery, Carthage peace officers asked Joplin police to question Daggett. Roads to nearby towns were blocked. Crowds gathered, inflamed by reports of Bray's death.

Bray had served as a police officer, constable and deputy sheriff. His wife and three children survive.

Seven Theaters Bought In $20,000,000 Deal

San Francisco, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—A. M. Bowles, division manager of the Fox West Coast Theaters, announced today the completion of a $20,000,000 transaction in which seven Pacific Coast theaters were acquired by his organization from the Paramount-Publix Corporation.

The transaction involves three theaters in San Francisco, one under construction in Oakland, two in Portland, Oreg., and one in Seattle.

FORM OF DOMINION IN SIGHT FOR INDIA

Continued from Page 1.

shall remain in British hands. The British delegates, although with great difficulty and against the wishes of some of them, seem to have consented in principle, subject to reservations, that really responsible central government must be granted, and they are prepared to go beyond the Simon report and the viceroy's recommendations in making concessions.

It might thus be said now that modified dominion status is assured but for the question of finances. All important Indians are adamant that India must control her own revenues and expenditures and offer no further security to British capital invested in India than the same sort of guarantees given by Canada and Australia. They are willing to accept a British plan for the setting up of a central bank, but not to leave it under British control.

Some British delegates would consent to this, but I understand that Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald feels that it would be impossible to get any legislation through Parliament which did not reassure British financial interests that their enormous capital is safe. These thorny topics, though much discussed in private, have not yet approached settlement. But the moderates, both Indian and British, are delighted at the general understanding on other points.

On the whole, the conference has made more progress than most of its friends expected. Winston Churchill's die-hard speech the other day, in the view of Indian delegates here, has done good rather than harm because of its prompt repudiation by prominent Tories in private and by the Times and other influential Tory newspapers. Its unpopular reception has shown that the rank and file of the Conservative party understands the necessity for making greater concessions to India than seemed possible even two months ago. Whether those concessions will strengthen or weaken the Independence party in India is, of course, another question.

(Copyright, 1930.)

DROUGHT RELIEF BILL TO FACE CLOSE FIGHT

Continued from Page 1.

measure, Senate leaders turned attention yesterday to another threatened quarrel with President Hoover impending in the La Follette relief resolution.

The conference report adjusting differences between the Senate and House on the huge public improvements appropriation has the indorsement of the party chieftains, and the $116,000,000 is expected to be available for immediate use by the end of the week.

The resolution of Senator La Follette (Republican), Wisconsin, declaring the Senate believes "relief of human suffering in this emergency should take precedence over the consideration of the interests of the wealthy income taxpayers" comes up today.

La Follette introduced it the day President Hoover denounced sponsors of superrelief measures as "playing politics at the expense of human misery." He included a preamble calling attention to Mr. Hoover's statement.

It revives the controversy between the President and the Senate that developed some bitterness, even in the Republican ranks, against the presidential attitude.

Administration leaders are prepared to ask that the resolution be confined simply to the terms of the text without the premable which involves Mr. Hoover. Reports have reached the Capitol that the President is ready to strike back.

The preamble reads:

"Whereas, the President of the United States in a public statement has indicated that consideration for the interests of income tax payers necessitates restriction upon governmental relief measures necessary to aid the jobless."

La Follette has indicated willingness to substitute for this paragraph the exact words used by Mr. Hoover in his statement.

The President said the relief measures he had recommended were "the maximum which can be financed without increase in taxes."

With a new outbreak threatened, Republican Senate leaders are urging cooperation by the President on his tactics.

SPANISH REVOLT NEAR BORDER IS CRUSHED

Associated Press Photo.

A revolt of Spanish troops, which broke out soon after Capt. Franco, aviator, escaped from a Spanish prison, is said to have been crushed. Map shows where revolt started. Pictured at left shows Franco as he appeared in prison. At the right is shown Premier Damasco Berenguer. Above is King Alfonso reviewing an artillery corps.

SPAIN ENDS REVOLT; TWO LEADERS SHOT

Martial Law Is Declared in Huesca; Republican Chiefs Jailed.

FRANCO'S WIFE SEIZED

Continued from Page 1.

subversive movement following the execution of rebel leaders.

Those arrested include Alcal Zamora, a former cabinet minister; Eduardo Ordga y Gasset, a prominent Socialist, and Miguel Maura, former congressman and son of the late Antonio Maura, one time Spanish premier.

The cabinet announced tonight that in addition to the two rebel leaders executed at Huesca this afternoon, four other rebel officers were condemned to life imprisonment by a military court-martial.

In Barcelona a number of leaders in the Catalan independent movement also were arrested. Reports from Valencia told of the arrests of several well-known Republicans.

Franco's Wife Arrested.

The wife of Maj. Ramon Franco, noted Spanish flier, who escaped from a Madrid prison, was taken into custody yesterday when she voiced objection to the constant police surveillance of her home. After questioning at police headquarters she was released and permitted to return home.

All visitors to the Franco home are being questioned by the police, who are attempting to learn his whereabouts and to determine whether he had any connection with the Jaca revolt. Franco had been arrested for writing articles for a newspaper, criticising the government.

Jaca, Spain Dec. 14 (A.P.).—An Associated Press correspondent who arrived here today found the town absolutely quiet and undamaged by yesterday's revolt.

Loyal forces were in full control. It was estimated that 500 rebels were taken prisoner in the Jaca district. The total casualties so far known were 4 rebels and 5 loyal soldiers killed and 29 rebels and 25 loyalists wounded. It is believed, however, these figures will be materially increased when more complete checks are made.

After a long session of the Spanish cabinet it was indicated tonight that martial law soon might be proclaimed over the entire country to stamp out a revolutionary movement.

The cabinet met to consider the situation created by the military revolt which was suppressed in a battle yesterday, and announced it would use every means at its disposal to crush severely "the nation-wide revolutionary movement."

This was regarded as a threat to wipe out radical and republican agitators completely.

The cabinet meeting attracted much attention, for the fact that the ministers were summoned on Sunday was regarded as important in itself.

A statement issued by the minister, said six rebel leaders had been court-martialed at Huesca as a result of their participations in the revolt at Jaca Friday.

Fernyn Galan and Garcia Hernandez died before firing squads, but sentences of life imprisonment were imposed on Lieut. Manuel Muniz, Lieut. Miguel Fernandez Gomez, Capt. Louis Salinas and Lieut. Ernesto Gisbert Blay. No other death sentences were imposed.

The life sentence for Capt. Salinas presumably relieved the mind of his father, Gen. Salinas, chief of staff of the Saragossa military area. By virtue of his position, Gen. Salinas normally would have been responsible for his son's death had the latter been executed. The general, however, left last night for Madrid to plead for clemency and the government announced he had been transferred elsewhere temporarily that he might not participate in the action against his son.

The statement warned the Spanish people to beware of rebel agitators who might use the Jaca incident as propaganda to provoke another outbreak.

It added that the Jaca revolt showed a nation-wide seditious movement was planned by a series of revolutionary strikes and republican uprisings, but declared the army had once more demonstrated its loyalty by promptly suppressing the trouble.

A note of confidense was sounded, the government stating it was certain that facilities were adequate to prevent further trouble, but it expressed regret that agitation had seriously hampered efforts to stabilize the peseta and return the country to constitutional normalcy.

Civilians Quit Scene.

Pau, France, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Civilian insurgents have been trickling across the frontier from Jaca and Canfranc since yesterday, but no uniformed soldiers have as yet been reported trying to enter France.

The civilians appeared quite hazy as to the outcome of the revolt except that they agreed Jaca no longer was a healthy place for them to remain.

Girl Slain on Wedding Day By Mother Who Kills Self

Stepfather of Young Woman Asserts His Wife Had Opposed Marriage and Also Had Been in Ill Health; Girl Dies in Sleep.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Bodies of Helen Hidinger, 21, and her mother, Mrs. Eugenia Prowant, 48, were found here today, revealing what officers said was the slaying of the girl on her wedding day by the mother, who then took her own life.

E. G. Prowant, stepfather of the young woman, said his wife had opposed the marriage of Miss Hidinger to Earl Penna, and also had been in ill health for several weeks.

The bodies were found in a locked bedroom by police summoned by Prowant when he was unable to rouse the two women.

George Bostwick, deputy coroner, said Mrs. Prowant had evidently placed the pistol close to the sleeping girl's head as she pulled the trigger, since the girl's temple was powder-burned.

Reconstructing further, the coroner said Mrs. Prowant had then apparently laid down on the second bed in the room and shot herself. He said no inquest would be held.

Liner Sails Day Late; Hit Chain in Channel

Liverpool, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The liner Carinthia, with 121 passengers, sailed for New York today after a delay of 24 hours due to a slight mishap. Soon after leaving yesterday afternoon, the Carinthia, moving slowly in Crosby channel, fouled a buoy chain in the propellers.

The captain decided to return to the pier, where divers reported after an inspection that no serious damage had been done. The passengers spent the night aboard the ship.

Pilot, Two Passengers Lost in Alaskan Storm

Iditarod, Alaska, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Unreported since Thursday when they took off from here for McGrath, during a storm, Pilot Matt Nidnimen, of the Alaska Airways Co., and two passengers were the object of a search today by air and dog team. McGrath is about 125 miles northwest of here.

The search planes were piloted by Frank DorBandt and Ed Young, prominent Alaska aviators. Two dog teams were cooperating with the fliers. Iditarod is on the Yukon River about 175 miles inland from Norton Sound.

Childs

SPECIAL $1.00 DINNER

Truly a work of art, good in the eating and good in the remembrance thereof.

MENU

Monday, December 15th

Sea Food or Cranberry Juice Cocktail or Fruit Cup

Chicken or Vegetable Soup

Olives

Fried Scallops with Bacon, Tartar Sauce, French Fried Potatoes
Roast Leg of Lamb, Green Peas, Potatoes, Mint Jelly
Chicken a la King, Steamed Rice, Currant Jelly
Minute Steak, Mushroom Sauce, French Fried Potatoes
Grilled Ham Steak, Fried Sweet Potatoes, Spinach
Fresh Vegetable Blue Plate with Poached Egg

Stuffed Date and Pineapple Salad

Assorted Hot Rolls and Muffins

French Pastry
Apple Pie a la Mode — Orange Layer Cake
Chocolate Cornstarch Pudding with Cream
Mince Pie — Pumpkin Pie
Maple Walnut Sundae
Angel Cake with Ice Cream — Grapefruit

Coffee, Tea, Hot Chocolate, Milk or Buttermilk

Served at the following Childs Restaurants in Washington

1423 Pennsylvania Avenue
600 N. Capitol Street
1340 New York Avenue

THE NATION'S HOST FROM COAST TO COAST

LAGUARDIA ATTACKS PROHIBITION BOOK

Asks Immediate Suppression of Dry Bureau's Tome on Enforcement.

TERMS IT MISLEADING

(Associated Press.)

Immediate suppression of the Prohibition Bureau's booklet, "The Value of Law Observance," was urged yesterday by Representative LaGuardia (Republican), New York, on the ground that it contained misrepresentations and misleading statements.

The New Yorker made the request in a letter to Attorney General Mitchell. He cited what he termed "glaring pieces of deception" and added that "perhaps it was a desperate attempt to conceal the total breakdown of prohibition."

At the same time, he announced he would oppose a $50,000 appropriation proposed for "propaganda and educational purposes" for the Prohibition Bureau.

LaGuardia said the booklet "would have no importance were it not for the fact that on the cover it bears the legend 'The Department of Justice' and on the title page a facsimile of the seal of the great Department of Justice."

"This gives it authority which its contents do not warrant," he added. "Surely the good name of the Department of Justice and the good faith of the United States Government can not be used to indorse a stupid compilation of distorted facts written in poor English containing misrepresentations and willful misstatements for propaganda purposes."

The booklet contains a "startling statement attempting to convey the information as a matter of fact that inebriety is decreasing," while, he added, in the City of Washington under the "nose of Prohibition Bureau" a increase is shown. He said arrests for drunkenness had increased in the Capital from 8,837 in 1914, to 14,400 in 1930.

Throng at Funeral Of Colored Actor

Angel Gabriel, of Green Pastures, Honored in Harlem Church.

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—In Harlem, when they refer to the 1930 Pulitzer prize play not by its title but simply as "The Company," funeral services were conducted today for the big, genial black man whose own people months ago dropped his real name and called him after the role he played, "Gabriel."

More than 1,000 persons filled one of the Negro section's largest churches, for two hours and a half eulogies were read, hymns were sung and rituals intoned over the body of Charles Wesley Hill, the Angel Gabriel of "Green Pastures."

The man who plays the role of Jehovah in "Green Pastures," Richard B. Harrison, read tenderly and in a voice that sometimes broke with grief, a tribute to "God's right hand man," who helped to create a Broadway success by ushering him onto the stage of the Mansfield Theater with a joyous, stentorian command:

"Gangway! Gangway for de Lawd God Jehovah!"

SPECIAL NOTICES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE annual meeting of the stockholders of the Washington American League Base Ball Club will be held at the offices of the club, Base Ball Park, Washington, D. C., on TUESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1931, at 12 o'clock noon for the purpose of electing a board of directors for the ensuing year and for such other business as may be properly brought before said meeting.
EDWARD B. BYNON, Jr., Secretary.

Window SHADES; Floor Coverings; SCREENS; prompt, econ. serv. KLEEBLATT, 11th and N sts. Linc. 0878

Hickey-Freeman
CUSTOMIZED CLOTHES

Gifts for Gentlemen

LOUNGING ROBES

EXQUISITE colorings from the palettes of French master designers . . . motifs reminiscent of the gaiety of Paris . . . luxurious silks, appealing alike to eye or hand . . . robes of true artistry. Or plain colour flannel gowns for the more practical minded.

$15.00 $35.00
$25.00 $50.00

Goldheim's

Apparel for gentlemen—Established 1873
1409 H STREET

SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Fur-Trimmed Coats
Afternoon, Dinner and Evening Gowns
Silk Frocks
Sports Wear
Millinery
Furs
Accessories

All models from regular stock—and offered at sharply reduced prices!

Hickson INC
1215 CONNECTICUT AVE. N.W.

SPECIAL NOTICES

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SHAREholders of the Washington Savings Bank for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting will be held at the banking house on TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1931, at 1 o'clock p. m. Polls to remain open until 2 p. m. Transfer books will be closed from January 5, 1931, to January 13, 1931, both dates included. J. D. LEONARD, Vice President.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCKholders of the Munsey Trust Company, Washington, D. C., will be held at its office in the Munsey Building, on TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1931, at 11 a. m., for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Polls open from 11 a. m. until 12 noon. THOMAS C. WILLIS, Secretary.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREholders of the Federal-American National Bank and Trust Company will be held at its banking house, Fourteenth and G streets northwest, TUESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1931, at 12 o'clock noon for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. Polls open from 12 noon to 1 p. m. JOHN POOLE, President.

OFFICE OF MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE Co. of the District of Columbia, 1301 H street northwest, December 13, 1930. Policy holders are notified that policies expire at noon on the last Monday in December, 30th instant. Please renew early and avoid the crowd. Policies must be presented for indorsement of payments except where held in connection with loans in which case they should be brought in later to have duplicate payments entered. L. PIERCE BOTELER, Secretary.

SPECIAL NOTICES

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE HOLDers of common stock of the Potomac Electric Power Co., for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors to serve for the ensuing year and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting, will be held at the office of the company, 231 Fourteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C., on Saturday, January 17, 1931, at 12 o'clock noon. In connection therewith, the books for the transfer of the common stock of said company, pursuant to the by-laws, will be closed from the close of business on December 31, 1930, to the opening of business on January 3, 1931. H. M. KEYSER, Secretary.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of The Riggs National Bank of Washington, D. C., for the election of Directors and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting, will be held at the Banking House, 1503 Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest, on Tuesday, January 13, 1931. The polls will remain open from 11 o'clock a. m. until 12 o'clock noon.
GEORGE O. VASS, Cashier.

SHORTHAND REPORTING

Prompt, intelligent and faultless service.
219 Nat'l Press Bldg., 24 floor. Dist. 7537.

30-DAY

Shorthand alone; 3-6 months; stenographic course, usual time. Embodies the stenographic speed, efficiency. Latest methods. Positions for graduates.
Enroll Today. BOYD'S, 1333 F

Today's amazing special used 1928 CHEVROLET
5 passenger SEDANS

Ford 1928 Tudor Sedan—A very popular model of this make—just the car for the small family—easy to drive and economical to own—is in exceptionally good condition throughout. Can be seen at Emerson & Orme, 17th & M Sts. Reduced for this special sale to $345

Chevrolet 1929 Coupe—A very handy car to run around in—is in excellent condition, with good tires. Will make a good business car. It is truly an exceptional buy. Can be seen at Stanley H. Horner's, 1015 and 1111 14th st. Reduced for this sale to $295

Released for quick sale today—a limited number of slightly used 1928 Chevrolet sedans—for only $195! These late model cars—as photographed above—have attractive Duco finished Fisher bodies powerful, reconditioned, dependable motors, tires good for many miles, and many other important advantages that cannot be equaled by any other car at near this amazing low price. Grasp this opportunity to save more than $100 on one of these smart-looking cars. Come to 1015 or 1111 14th Street N. W. or 17th and M Streets N. W. today. Get here early. Profit by this sensational one-day offer.

cut from $300 to $195

DELIVERED FULLY EQUIPPED

STANLEY H. HORNER, Inc. 1015 and 1111 14th St. N.W.
EMERSON & ORME 17th and M Sts. N.W.

Fall Stock Reduction Used Car Sale

CURRENT EVENTS IN VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND

E. M. PARKER NAMED AS RHODES SCHOLAR

Washington Woman's Son, West Pointer, Is Among List Annuonced.

VIRGINIA REPRESENTED

Edwin M. Parker, whose family lives in Washington, was among the successful Rhodes scholarship candidates announced yesterday by Dr. Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore College and American secretary to the Rhodes trustees. Parker was appointed from Utah, where he lived prior to entering West Point, where he is now a cadet. His mother, Mrs. F. N. Parker, and two of his brothers, David and John, live at 3809 Van Ness street northwest.

According to Associated Press dispatches, the only other successful candidate with any Washington connection was Charles H. Monesteel 3d, a West Point cadet, whose family formerly lived here.

Patrick Armistead Gibson, a student at Harvard University, was selected from the Virginia candidates, and Dudley Lee Harley, of Lehigh University, was named from West Virginia. There were no appointments from Maryland. Dean Rusk, of Davidson College, was selected as North Carolina's representative.

A record total of 529 candidates were examined under a new plan, under which preliminary competitions were held in every State in the Union, instead of in only two-thirds of the States, as heretofore. The country was divided into eight districts, of six States each. Each State was allowed to recommend its two best men to the district committee, and from the twelve men so nominated the committee chose, without regard to State lines, the four apparently best qualified for Oxford.

Harrison County Banks To Charge Service Fee

Special to The Washington Post.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Dec. 14.—All banks of Clarksburg and other cities and towns in Harrison County have united in a plan, which becomes effective January 1, to charge depositors a service fee for carrying small accounts. Those whose balances fall below $50 at any time during the month will be charged at the rate of 50 cents a month.

A fee of 50 cents will also be charged for each check returned because of insufficient funds.

Lighted Match Kills Oil-Soaked Auto Man

Special to The Washington Post.

Frederick, Md., Dec. 14.—Charles Strallman, 36 years old, died here today from burns suffered Saturday night when gasoline on his clothes caught fire as he was lighting a cigarette.

Strallman, an automobile mechanic, spattered gasoline on himself while he was filling a tank on an automobile near a service station. Striking a light for the cigarette, he burst into flames. He lived in Frederick.

It will be to your advantage to watch the Real Estate offers in Post Classified Ads.

DIED.

CAMPBELL—On Sunday, December 14, 1930, at her residence, 276 Vine street, Takoma Park, D. C., KATHERINE E., beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael K. Campbell.
Funeral (private) from the above residence on Wednesday, December 17, at 11 a. m.

CARDOZO—On Saturday, December 13, 1930, at his residence, 447 Massachusetts avenue northwest, IVAN F., beloved son of Mary A. Cardozo.
Funeral from the Wm. H. Sardo & Co. funeral chapel, 412 H street northeast, on Tuesday, December 16, at 10 a. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Interment private, in Fort Lincoln Cemetery.

COX—On Saturday, December 13, 1930, at Casualty Hospital, LEWIS B., beloved son of Lewis B. and Nellie B. Cox (nee Pennifield), of 202 Eleventh street southeast, aged twelve years.
Funeral from the chapel of T. A. Taltavull, 436 Seventh street southwest, Tuesday, December 16, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment at Cedar Hill Cemetery.

GREGG—On Saturday, December 13, 1930, Dorothy Harris Gregg, beloved wife of Charles M. Gregg, of Crawfordsville, Ind., and daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. William Harris, of Washington, D. C.
Funeral services at the residence, 2500 Rhode Island avenue northeast, on Monday, December 15, at 10:30 a. m. Interment at Loxine Cemetery, Baltimore, Md., at 12:15 p. m.

HARMON—Suddenly, on Friday, December 12, 1930, at her residence, the Beacon Apartment, MARY ANNA, beloved wife of the late John M. Harmon, aged eighty-two years.
Services at the residence of her son, Artemas C. Harmon, 2840 Twenty-seventh street northwest, on Monday, December 15, at 1 p. m. Interment Arlington National Cemetery.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

V. L. SPEARE CO.
Neither the successor of nor connected with the original W. B. Speare establishment.
1009 H St. N.W. Phone Natl. 2895. Formerly 940 F st. nw.

THOS. S. SERGEON
1011 7TH ST. NW Telephone Natl. 1090.

JAMES T. RYAN
317 PA. AVE. SE. Atlantic 1700.

Clyde J. Nichols, Inc.
4709 9th st. nw. Col. 6324.

WM. H. SARDO & CO.
412 H ST. NE. Phone Lincoln 0524.
ESTABLISHED 1876.

JOHN R. WRIGHT CO.
1337 10th st. nw. Phone North 0047.

J. WILLIAM LEE'S SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
CREMATORIUM
332 PA. AVE. NW. NATL. 1384 & 1385.

CHAS. S. ZURHORST
501 EAST CAPITOL ST.
Phone Lincoln 0372.

P. J. SAFFELL
723 5th st. nw. Natl. 0537.

Frank Geier's Sons Co.
1113 SEVENTH ST. NW. Telephone
Modern Chapel. NATIONAL 2473

AMBULANCES
Best in Town. $4.00
Local Call....
Call
Chambers Co. Col. 0432

FUNERAL DESIGNS.

GEO. C. SHAFFER 909 14TH ST. NW.
Expressive Floral Emblems. Natl 0106
Mod. prices. Open eve. & Sun.

GUDE BROS. CO., Florists
1212 F STREET. National 4276.
APPROPRIATE FUNERAL DESIGNS.

CEMETERIES.

GLENWOOD CEMETERY
Choice Lots and Sites For Sale.

Director Named For Apple Fete

Nelson F. Richards Chosen to Plan Festival for Next Season.

Special to The Washington Post.

Winchester, Va., Dec. 14.—Nelson F. Richards last night was chosen director general of the eighth annual Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival to be held here next spring. His election, which was unanimous, took place at a meeting of the executive committee, held in the offices of former Gov. Harry F. Byrd and presided over by William E. Cooper, committee chairman.

Mr. Richards was director general last year, and has been actively identified with the springtime blossom celebration since its inception. He said work would begin at once on appointment of committees. Clifford D. Grim was reelected treasurer, with D. E. Stultz and H. Delmar Robinson finance directors.

Members of the committee voiced their faith in the permanency of the blossom festival, and pledged themselves to give the director general enthusiastic support and cooperation, and urged citizens of the community to respond with their "characteristic loyalty and liberality."

Honor Roll Plan Given Approval

Petersburg Will Detail Employment Program to Other Cities.

Special to The Washington Post.

Petersburg, Va., Dec. 14.—Petersburg's industrial roll of honor, a plan which has been adopted here for the relief of the unemployed, has gained wide national recognition and copies of blank forms will be sent by President Hoover's emergency employment committee to cities where need of employment is urgent and where a really workable relief plan is being sought.

The bulletin prepared by the committee deals with all phases of the plan and treats it as a really workable idea which, if properly administered, will bring real unemployment relief.

In Petersburg the plan has proven very satisfactory. This afternoon an entertainment was given in one of the churches for the benefit of the roll of honor.

Factory Employes Will Compete in Safety Test

Special to The Washington Post.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Dec. 14.—A safety contest for factory employes, the first of its kind ever held here, is announced for December 20 by Maj. A. B. Powell, safety director for the Adamston Flat Glass Co. and the Flat Glass Specialty Co. Twelve teams will compete for prizes.

Robert L. Lambie, head of the State department of mines, will have charge. Charles Riggs, of Pittsburgh, will be chief judge.

Lieut. Col. Robison Promoted.

Morgantown, W. Va., Dec. 14 (Special).—Lieut. Col. C. C. Robison, of this city, has been appointed colonel and commanding officer of the 201st Infantry, West Virginia National Guard, succeeding Col. Earl H. Smith, of Fairmont, who gave up command last February to accept special detail. Col. Robison has been in command of the regiment since that time.

Renovated Church Reopens.

Cumberland, Md., Dec. 14 (Special). Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, which recently underwent renovation, was reopened today with special services in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Merritt Earl. The Rev. Dr. Frank Steelman, superintendent of Frederick District, preached at the morning service. Not only was the church redecorated, but the community hall and the parsonage were also improved.

DIED.

HIGGINS—Suddenly, on Saturday, December 13, 1930, at Sibley Hospital, MARY CATHERINE, beloved wife of the late Dennis Higgins.
Funeral from the Perry & Walsh funeral home, 29 H street northwest, Tuesday, December 16, at 11 a. m. Interment at Leesburg, Va. Relatives and friends invited.

KENDALL—On Friday, December 12, 1930, at 4:30 p. m. JEROME, beloved husband of the late May Ivy Kendall and brother of Mrs. Allie K. Orkin, of Ravenswood, W. Va., and Mrs. Mollie Quinn, of Charleston, W. Va.
Remains resting at the Taltavull funeral home, 928 M street northwest. Funeral Monday, December 15, at 12 noon. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Arlington National Cemetery.

OCKERSHAUSEN—On Sunday, December 14, 1930, at Georgetown Hospital, FREDERICK OCKERSHAUSEN, brother of the late John Ockershausen.
Body resting at Gawler's chapel, 1754 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. Notice of funeral later.

MAHANEY—On Saturday, December 13, 1930, PEARL C. MAHANEY (nee Evans), beloved wife of John F. Mahaney.
Funeral from W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest, on Tuesday, December 16, at 8:30 a. m., thence to St. Peter's Catholic Church, where high requiem mass will be said at 9 a. m. for the repose of her soul. Interment Mount Olivet Cemetery.

MARTONE—On Saturday, December 13, 1930, at Emergency Hospital, CLARENCE, beloved son of Valentine and Anna Martone, of 128 C street northeast.
Services will be held at Zurhorst's funeral parlors, 301 East Capitol street, on Tuesday, December 16, at 11 a. m. Interment Fort Lincoln Cemetery.

MATCHETT—On Sunday, December 14, 1930, at his residence, 3600 Thirteenth street northwest, WILLIAM W., beloved husband of Mabel N. Matchett, in his fifty-fifth year.
Funeral on Tuesday, December 16, at 2 p. m. Interment at Rock Creek Cemetery.

MORGAN—On Sunday, December 14, 1930, at Emergency Hospital, ELLA L., beloved daughter of the late Richard and Margaret Morgan.
Funeral will be held from her late residence, 116 Fifth street southeast, on Wednesday, December 17, at 3 p. m., thence to St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Third and A streets southeast, where services will be held at 3:30 p. m. Interment in Congressional Cemetery.

MOTHERSEAD—Entered into rest on December 13, CHARLES C., beloved husband of Laura Garrett Mothersead.
Funeral from St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Eighth and B streets southwest, Tuesday, December 16, at 2 p. m. Interment at Congressional Cemetery.

ROOT—On Tuesday, December 9, 1930, at Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, WILLIAM A., beloved father of Edgar P. Root, Mrs. Charles J. White, and Mrs. Clive E. Snider.
Services will be held at Zurhorst's funeral parlors, 301 East Capitol street, on Monday, December 15, at 11 a. m. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

SHERWOOD—On Sunday, December 14, 1930, LOVELY B., beloved wife of James R. Sherwood, of 745 Sixth street southeast.
Funeral from William J. Nalley's funeral home, 522 Eighth street southeast, Tuesday, December 16, at 2:30 p. m. Interment at Cedar Hill Cemetery. Relatives and friends invited.

SMITH—On Sunday, December 14, 1930, at 5 a. m., at his residence near Andrew Chapel, Va., GEORGE W., beloved husband of the late Mary E. Smith and father of Mrs. Eva M. Curtis, Ernest E., Temple L., and Lewon R. Smith.
Funeral on Tuesday, December 16, at 2 p. m., from his late residence, thence to Bethel Church. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

TEMPLE—On Saturday, December 13, 1930, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Maude Myers, 909 E street northeast, SARAH B. TEMPLE.
Funeral from above residence on Monday, December 15, at 10 a. m. (strictly private). Interment Loraine Cemetery, Baltimore, Md.

GROUP WILL STUDY SITES FOR COLLEGE

Arlington Is Held Perfect Location for Planned Women's School.

UNIFIED EFFORTS URGED

ARLINGTON COUNTY BUREAU OF THE POST.
Tel. Cla. 500. Clarendon, Va.

Meeting Saturday night, the committee named by the Arlington County Civic Federation in connection with activities of the commission for the establishment of a Liberal Arts College for Women considered the many advantages which would be provided by its location in Arlington County, at the Arlington Chamber of Commerce.

Arlington County being at the entrance to the Nation's Capital, the committee contends that this would be the most logical place for its location. With this end in view, it was stressed that the cooperation of the Chambers of Commerce of Alexandria, Fairfax and Prince William counties, together with all other civic organizations, should be sought. There have already been several sites mentioned, all of which will be studied by the organizations.

The committee making the study for the federation comprises Mrs. Florence E. Cannon, chairman; Mrs. Alice S. Semones, Mrs. Ruby Simpson, the Rev. Ira P. Harbaugh, and Philip Talbott. Among others who attended the meeting on Saturday night were Harry A. Fellows, president of the federation, and E. Lester Bennett, its secretary.

C. J. Rixey, 82 years old, brother of the late Admiral Rixey, died early yesterday morning at his home on Glebe road, near the Washington Golf and Country Club.

Mr. Rixey was born in Culpeper, Va., and resided in Arlington County for the last 20 years. His death was sudden.

Beside his widow he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. S. A. Gibson, of Pullman, Wash.; Mrs. C. E. Bingman, of San Francisco, and Mrs. E. W. Sterns, of Arlington County; two sons, W. Herndon Rixey, of Washington, and Col. T. M. Rixey, of Newport, R. I. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Columbia Lodge, No. 285, A. F. and A. M., will elect officers at its meeting tonight in the Masonic Temple, Clarendon.

Election of officers of the Thrifton Village Improvement League will be the principal business at the meeting to be held tonight in the Parish Hall of the Grace Episcopal Church at 8 o'clock.

The executive committee of the Arlington Citizens Association has voted to suspend meetings during the winter months, according to an announcement made yesterday by the president, Mrs. Florence E. Cannon.

Tomorrow night the newly organized Parent-Teacher Association at the Washington-Lee High School will hold its monthly meeting in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Louis A. McMahon, of Clarendon, is announced as the principal speaker.

A committee selected by the Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department will appear before the county board of supervisors at its meeting today at the courthouse to request that a motorized hook and ladder be puchased for its use.

Those who comprise the committee are Chief Herbert Smith, Lyman M. Kelly and Thomas E. Mechem.

The newly elected executive committee of the Arlington County Civic Federation will hold its first meeting Thursday night at the home of the president, Harry A. Fellows, at Falls Church. The election of a chairman and appointment of a secretary to the federation and the committee will be the principal business to come before the meeting. While it is generally believed that E. Lester Bennett, who has served as the secretary for the past year, will be reappointed, the president will receive applications for the office. According to the constitution, the secretary does not have to be an accredited delegate to the federation.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Nellie Custis School will hold its December meeting tonight in the auditorium of the firemen's hall at 8 o'clock. A program by the pupils will be presented.

B. S. Kidwell, of the Jefferson District Volunteer Fire Department, has been elected representative vice president of the Arlington-Fairfax Counties Volunteer Firemen's Association.

The Progressive Woman's Class of the Ballston Christian Church will hold its meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruth McC. Payne. Officers will be elected.

The meeting of the Arlington-Fairfax Counties Volunteer Firemen's Association, scheduled for tomorrow night, has been postponed until December 23.

The Citizens Association of Ashton Heights will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow night in the Ashton Heights Woman's Clubhouse, at 8 o'clock.

Fire of unknown origin caused damage estimated at $800 to the home of Mrs. Robert Branch, colored, at Halls Hill, yesterday morning. Engines from Ballston, Cherrydale and Halls Hill responded.

DIED.

TYLER—On Saturday, December 13, 1930, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Rayner, 3502 Thirtieth street northwest, NELLIE B., widow of W. W. Tyler, aged sixty-nine years.
Funeral from the above residence on Monday, December 15, at 7:30 p. m. Friends invited to attend. Interment at Plainfield, N. J.

VAN HORN—Suddenly, on Friday, December 12, 1930, at his residence, 942 New York avenue northwest, JOSEPH CLARENCE VAN HORN.
Funeral from Saffell's chapel, Fifth and H streets northwest, on Monday, December 15, at 11 a. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment at Columbia Gardens Cemetery, Va.

WHITE—Suddenly, on Saturday, December 13, 1930, at 3:30 p. m., at her residence, 1234 K street southeast, MARY A., beloved wife of the late Robert H. White.
Services will be held at Zurhorst's funeral parlors, 301 East Capitol street, on Tuesday, December 16, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Congressional Cemetery.

WHITLOCK—On Thursday, December 11, 1930, at 6:15 p. m., at Providence Hospital, FLOYD E., beloved husband of Maude V. Whitlock.
Funeral from W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest, on Monday, December 15, at 2 p. m. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

OPEN A CHARGE ACCOUNT
FINE MEN'S WEAR
EISEMAN'S, 7th & F

PROGRAM OF CAROLS ARRANGED BY PUPILS

Alexandria Public School Children Will Sing During Week.

FIRST EVENT TOMORROW

THE WASHINGTON POST BUREAU.
907 Prince St., Alexandria, Va.
Phone Alexandria 523.

The annual Christmas carol program by pupils of local public schools, directed by Miss Christine Munos, supervisor of music, will be presented this week on this schedule:

Jefferson School, tomorrow at 1:30 p. m.; Mount Vernon School, December 19, in the auditorium of the George Mason High School, the first and second grades at 10:30 a. m.; the third and fourth grades at 11 o'clock; the fifth and sixth grades at 2 p. m.

Maury School, December 23, at 10:30 a. m.; the Seminary School at 2:30 p. m., the same day; Parker-Gray School, December 22, the intermediate and high schools at 10 a. m., and the primary grades at 2 p. m. On December 19 the Parker-Gray pupils will present a cantata entitled "The Christmas Spirit." The program will begin at 8 o'clock in hte evening, and will be for the benefit of the school.

The Kiwanis Club has announced its program for January as: January 2, New Year's celebration, a past president's celebration, of which Elliott F. Hoffman is chairman; January 15, the celebration of the birthday anniversary of Gen. Robert E. Lee, with Col. John H. Teimyer as chairman; January 22, William H. Meeks, chairman, and on January 29 the program will be in charge of Dr. O. A. Ryder, chairman, and Dr. W. Lewis Schaffer.

A number of Alexandrians will attend the forty-first annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans and the thirty-sixth convention of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, which will be held in Montgomery, Ala., in June. Circulars describing the high lights of the affair have just been received by Gen. Edgar Warfield, of Alexandria.

TRADE GAINS SHOWN IN REPORT BY BARNES

Continued from Page 1.

months. Saving deposits were larger than last year.

The report said Christmas savings of more than $600,000,000, of which an estimated 38 per cent will go to holiday spending, awaited distribution December 1.

Installment Buying Drops.

Installment buying was lower, with agricultural sections leading a "not disturbing" trend toward greater delinquencies. Collections were said to be "holding up well" in most lines.

"For the twelve months of 1930, it now seems assured that the new life insurance written by the legal reserve companies will amount to $18,500,000,000, this figure exceeding by $1,100,000,000 the average for the preceding five years," said the survey, adding that mortgage loans by life companies now total $5,986,000,000.

Heavy declines from last year were reported in construction industries. An increase of nearly $200,000,000 in construction of public works and utilities was met with reduction of more than half a billion in both the residential and nonresidential categories. Cement production dropped over 20 per cent though awards for concrete roads increased 5,000,000 square yards.

Sympathetic Drops Shown.

Sympathetic with the building recession were drops in lumber production, a 50 per cent decline in brick shipments and a 30 to 60 per cent fall in the production of plumbing and heating supplies.

The summary reported that class 1 railroads, in the face of reduced car loadings, had capital expenditures that were $125,000,000 greater than last year, during the first nine months. The number of new freight cars and locomotives placed in service also increased.

Merchant ship building of $66,000,000 and naval construction of $26,000,000 were reported to be giving employment to 26,500 persons.

The Barnes survey placed the output of commercial planes at one-third last year's total, though air transportation increased in mileage and carried 55 per cent more persons. Radio sales declined.

Large Drops Shown.

Lower industrial consumption, the summary said, more than offset larger domestic and commercial uses of electricity. Gasoline refineries operated at less than two-thirds capacity, and both anthracite and bituminous coal production declined.

Pig iron production was 30 per cent lower in eleven months of the year than in 1929. During the same period steel mills operated at two-thirds capacity. Over the same months automobile production dropped 23 per cent and foreign motor sales 43 per cent.

All the machinery industries declined, the summary said, with shipments of machine tools reaching a new low in November. The drought was reported to have accentuated the depression in farm implements.

Advertising Holds Up.

Industrial chemicals have maintained production levels during the year, with the output of alcohol increasing in the winter months. Electrical manufactures were 30 per cent lower than last year, while the boot and shoe industry declined by half that.

The report estimated magazine advertising expenditures for the year at approximately last year's total, with a large increase in the radio field.

"Further improvement characterized the textile industry in October, particularly in cotton textiles," Barnes said. "In practically all branches, efforts to relate production to sales are reflected in decreasing inventories."

Most lines of the food industry were reported to have receded, with fruits and vegetables and carbonated beverages the outstanding exceptions. Both hotels and restaurants were said to be doing less business than last year.

Sand Mine Worker Succumbs.

Berkeley Springs, W. Va., Dec. 14 (Special).—George B. Luttman, 48, sand worker, died at his home here yesterday after a two-year illness of silicosis, a disease common to sand mine workers. Surviving are the widow and two sons. Burial will be here tomorrow.

Sunday Show Run Upon Charity Plan

Maryland Theater Opens, but Sells No Tickets; Takes Donations.

Special to The Washington Post.

Cumberland, Md., Dec. 14.—Edward K. MacGruder, proprietor of a motion picture theater on North Mechanic street, the national highway through Cumberland, opened his house for charity this afternoon after the city council refused his request to show Sunday movies, with proceeds of ticket sales to go to a fund for the relief of the needy.

No admission was charged today, however, and the house was packed, with hundreds waiting in front, and many deposited contributions far above the regular price of admission. The film was donated and MacGruder provided the house without charge, while his staff worked without pay.

The show was continued in the evening, at an hour which would not interfere with church services. The police department had two officers stationed at the theater to see that no sales were made. Ministers protested to the council last week after MacGruder proposed to open the theater.

NEW TEACHING PLAN WILL BE TRIED SOON

Clifton School in Fairfax County to Undergo Columbia Test.

TO CONTINUE ONE YEAR

FAIRFAX BUREAU OF THE POST.
P. O. Box 245, Fairfax, Va.
Phone Clarendon 2324-W-2.

A new method of teaching, evolved in the department of education at Columbia University, will be tried in the Clifton School at Clifton Station. The school has been selected as one of 200 schools in the United States to serve as a laboratory for the experiment.

Ten of the schools in which the experiment is to be tested are in Virginia. The State Board of Education has selected Fairfax County as one of the ten most progressive counties to be honored. Prof. W. F. Critchley, of Columbia University, and the divisional superintendent of schools, Wilbert T. Woodson, discussing details of the new scheme, decided the Clifton School would meet the requirements.

Two of the requirements are that the principal has had college training and that the same principal will continue during the next school year. The work will start after the Christmas holidays and continue until December 31, 1931, so it is important that there be no change in leadership of the pupils while the experiment is being conducted.

The basic idea of the experiment calls for adoption by the school of a unit project to have its nucleus in the general science class. The project will branch out through each grade and all the lessons in all of the classrooms will be correlated with the project.

Columbia University will guide the work during the year and each State will have an itinerant professor who shall visit the schools in which the project is being carried on and give general supervision.

The Merrifield Improvement Association will hold its meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Loveless, at Washington, this evening.

Miss Sara E. Thomas, Fairfax County home demonstration agent, will meet with the Better Food Club this morning, and this afternoon she will give a demonstration for the Navy Demonstration Club on the making of Christmas candies.

The Evening Study Club at Falls Church will meet today at the home of Mrs. E. L. McNair. Miss Agnes Smith will read a paper on the origin of the old English Christmas carols.

Accotink Lodge, No. 75, I. O. O. F., will put on degree work, under the direction of Degree Master J. S. Pettitt, at its meeting this evening in the Odd Fellows Hall at Accotink. The new officers of the lodge are Edward Kaiser, Fort Humphreys, past grand; Edward Stevens, Fort Humphreys, noble grand; H. K. Hasle, Fort Humphreys, vice grand; Kenneth Dove, Lorton, recording secretary; A. H. Gebb, Fort Humphreys, finnacial secretary; W. G. Adams, Fort Humphreys, treasurer; J. Stewart Pettitt and George C. Gillingham, Accotink, and Edmund H. Allen, Newington, trustees.

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Columbia Baptist Church, at Falls Church, will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Harmon Green. The annual offering for the Lottie Moon Christmas fund for China will be made.

REDS TAKE CITIES; MURDER CITIZENS

Continued from Page 1.

A detachment of 160 Cantonese troops today was being rushed to Hainan Island, in south China, to protect American and British missionaries who yesterday were reported in danger due to Communist uprising.

A force of 600 troops already has arrived at Hoichow on Hainan Island, and it was hoped to completely surpress the uprising. No anxiety is felt here regarding the safety of the missionaries.

Canton, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Authorities here said tonight recent disorders on the Island of Hainan were caused by the same groups of Communists who attempted to gain control of the government several months ago but were defeated by a force of Canton soldiers.

Reports received here before cable service between the island and Canton was severed, presumably by the Reds, said the important cities of Hoihow and Chiungshan were threatened. The naval headquarters here received cables from merchants and a magistrate in Hoihow asking additional troops be sent to cope with the menace.

Three gunboats bearing Marines were en route to Hoihow and the Canton military headquarters also had dispatched troops. The American destroyer Borie left this morning for Hoihow to protect American nationals in that vicinity.

Cumberland Girl Is Wed.

Cumberland, Md., Dec. 14 (Special). Mr. and Mrs. Powell A. Robinson, 415 South street, yesterday announced the marriage of their daughter, Thelma Pearl, to James David Pugh, son of James L. Pugh. The ceremony was performed October 20 last by the Rev. Merritt Earl, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church.

BRIGHT-LEAF MART HIGH AT PETERSBURG

Average Price Better in This Zone Than Any Other in State of Virginia.

HEAVY RECEIPTS SHOWN

Special to The Washington Post.

Petersburg, Va., Dec. 14.—With the heaviest receipts of any season since 1924, the Petersburg bright tobacco market bids fair again to lead the State in price averages this year. Jumping into the lead at the start of the season, Petersburg has kept top bright leaf price average honors for Virginia, and indications are that when the season closes it again will have shown a higher average price than any other market in the State. So far the price has averaged $11.66 per hundred pounds, as against $11.27 at Danville, its closest competitor.

In quantity handled the Petersburg market is 600,000 pounds ahead of last season, and indications are that the total will be 5,000,000 pounds by the end of the season. The sales of bright tobacco during the past week totaled 426,044 pounds, selling for $35,076.31. The total sales for the season is 3,139,918 pounds, selling for $337,350.11.

According to the records kept by the Secretary of the Petersburg Tobacco Board of Trade, the sales of bright tobacco to date and on the corresponding dates during the past six years have been as follows: 1925 crop, 2,418,721 pounds; 1926 crop, 2,183,152 pounds; 1927 crop, 2,767,946 pounds; 1928 crop, 2,289,220 pounds; 1929 crop, 2,501,773 pounds; 1930 crop, 3,139,918 pounds.

Led State Last Year.

The market here led the entire State in average during last season, and is doing so again this year. According to the monthly report just issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the averages paid on the various bright markets of the State for the month of November are as follows: Petersburg, $11.66; Danville, $11.27; Lawrenceville, $10.87; South Boston, $8.43; South Hill, $8.36; Clarksville, $7.11; Martinsville, $6.66; Kenbridge, $6.06; Chase City, $4.78; Brookneal, $3.58; Rocky Mount, $3.28.

While the average price paid for tobacco this season is not as high as it was last year, which is due to the inferior quality, farmers are getting a higher average for the tobacco here than anywhere else.

The prices being paid here for tobacco are attracting the growers to come to Petersburg from distant points. Much tobacco is being hauled here by farmers who live over 100 miles away. A good deal of leaf has been sold here by farmers who live in eastern portions of North Carolina.

Gets North Carolina Leaf.

A very interesting incident was recalled on the market the past week by a large tobacco grower in Hertford County, North Carolina. He stated that the first tobacco grown in his county, over 40 years ago, was sold on the Petersburg market, when this market was the largest in the State. He stated that he had obtained better prices for his tobacco here this season than on any of the North Carolina markets and that he was glad to be able to sell his tobacco here again after an interval of so many years.

The dark leaf sales here during the past week amounted to 13,136 pounds, most of which was of lower grade tobacco. There were some lots of good leaf which sold well, bringing around 35 cents a pound. Larger sales of dark tobacco are expected after the first of the year.

The market will close here after next Wednesday's sale for the Christmas holidays, and will reopen with sales on January 6.

Sunday Movie Ban Lifted for Charity

Baltimore Police Suspend Law of State; Big Crowds Spendn $50,000.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Every motion picture theater in the city was open today for the sake of charity, the State Sunday closing law being suspended by police officials. It was the first time since the World War that performances for pay were permitted.

Managers of neighborhood houses reported that the matinee crowds were from two to five times the average for week days, and heavy attendance was reported by the downtown theaters.

The entire proceeds are to go to a special fund for unemployment relief, to be administered by Police Commissioner Charles D. Gaither in cooperation with philanthropic agencies. Estimate were that $50,000 or more had been cleared. Virtually all employes gave their services rfe e . TehSunday opening was opposed by the city Baptist and Methodist ministers' conferences.

Third Healy Trial Appears in Doubt

Second Jury Fails to Agree on Evidence Against Tammany Men.

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Uncertainty existed tonight as to whether Martin J. Healy, former Tammany district leader, and Thomas T. Tommaney, formerly a sheriff's clerk, would be brought to trial the third time on charges of conspiracy.

The second "silk stocking" jury to try the men on charges of accepting a $10,000 bribe for assisting George F. Ewald to be appointed city magistrate in 1927, failed to agree and was discharged at 12:18 o'clock this morning after more than eleven hours' deliberation.

A jury three weeks ago also failed to agree. Special Prosecutor Hiram C. Todd said today he would hold conferences Monday to decide on future action. The defense in both trials maintained that the money involved was a loan.

New York Man Reports $60,000 Gem Robbery

Chicago, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Harry Fine, New York jeweler, reported today he had been kidnaped and robbed of diamonds valued at $60,000.

Fine said he was seized in the Loop district by two men, who forced him into a machine, relieved him of the gems and then released him.

The victim said he is a partner in the firm of Max Fine & Sons, New York.

Whether you want to buy, rent or sell, use Post Classified Ads. National 4204.

Loveliness and Charm Come With All The Garfinckel Fashions

NEW SHOWINGS TODAY
Beautiful Afternoon, Street and Travel Dresses . . . Lovely Evening Gowns and Wraps That You Have Not Seen Before

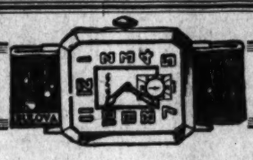
Actually startling in their smart, unusual, new styles, every one of them designed by our noted makers with those individual details that make our dresses the most sought after in the country.

Truly a showing that is one of our outstanding achievements of the season. You will certainly enjoy choosing from this wonderful collection Today.

Women's and Misses' Dresses, Third Floor.
Misses' Dresses, Fourth Floor.

JULIUS GARFINCKEL & CO
F STREET AT FOURTEENTH

14-K. Gold Filled



15-J. Movement

The Gift of the Hour

Handsome, Specially Cased
BULOVA WATCHES
FOR MEN.

15-Jewel Dependable Bulova Movement
$29.75
14-Karat Gold Filled Dust-proof Case

ALSO A WOMAN'S BULOVA MODEL, $29.75

B. Harris & Co.
F Street at 11th
Jewelers and Diamond Merchants for Over Half a Century

Public Servcie Company Names Medical Director

Special to The Washington Post.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Dec. 14.—The Monongahela West Penn Public Service Co. announces the appointment of Dr. James B. Clinton, prominent Marion County physician and surgeon, as medical director of the organization.

Dr. Clinton, who is a native of Scotland, will continue his residence at Fairmont. He formerly practiced at Beaver Falls, Pa. He is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons.

Two of Three Fugitives Retaken in Frederick

Frederick, Md., Dec. 14.—Two of the three colored men who escaped from jail here Friday night were recaptured today. They were caught in bed in a house here and were returned to jail. They are Paul Sides and Steve Allen.

Claude "Diamond" Countee, the third fugutive, is still at large. He is believed to be in Washington.

19 Arrested on Gambling Count.

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 14 (Special). Raiding an alleged gambling house over the Colonial Theater early today, police arrested Peter Boretos, alleged proprietor, and eighteen inmates. Boretos was fined $250 and six inmates $25 each. The other twelve were released. Boretos appealed and gave bond of $1.000.

Winchester Elks Plan Broader Yule Program

Special to The Washington Post.

Winchester, Va., Dec. 14.—Winchester Elks will broaden the scope of Christmas cheer distribution this year, it was announced today by J. Henkel Henry, welfare committee chairman. He said the District Nurse Association is listing all the worthy poor families of the community, and that needed wearing apparel and foodstuffs would be supplied from the lodge's fund for such purposes.

In addition to undertaking such a large task, the lodge will hold a Christmas party for children of the worthy poor and distribute gifts, at the same time continuing liberal contributions to a school milk fund for undernourished pupils.

Ladders Used Rescuing Apartment Occupants

Special to The Washington Post.

Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 14.—Firemen used ladders in rescuing seven persons from the third floor of an apartment at Williamsport, near here, early today, when fire wrecked the building housing a funeral home and apartments occupied by several families, owned by Albert Leaf.

The loss was about $10,000. The fire, which started beneath the stairs to the upper floors, cut off escape. Firemen raised ladders bringing down the seven, including an aged woman and an infant.

Tilt Top Tables
make lovely gifts

Attractive—clever—convenient—such is the role of the Tilt Top Table. Here at Mayer & Co. are many lovely Tilt Tops in choice woods—more than 40 different styles from which to choose. See them today.

Tilt Tops Priced from $10.50 to $125

MAYER & CO.
Seventh St. Bet. D and E

LIFE-TIME GUARANTEED

BUSINESS MERGERS FEWER LAST YEAR

Federal Trade Commission-er, in Annual Report, Tells Consolidation Trend.

BOARD ACTIVITY SHOWN

(Associated Press.)

Indications of a decline in the number of acquisitions, consolidations and mergers of business institutions during the last fiscal year, as compared with the previous one, were seen yesterday by the Federal Trade Commission.

In its annual report to Congress the commission said although no official record had been kept, "observation of activity along this line has indicated a general let-up since the depression of November, 1929."

The commission, however, actively pursued its inquiry into the affairs of utility companies, some of which represented grouping of scores of power producing companies. The American Gas & Electric Co., the Electric Bond & Share Co., the American Power & Light Co., the National Power & Light Co. and the W. B. Foshay Co. were among those to face investigation.

The commission found the scope of its work increasing with the growth of interstate movement of electric energy. A total of 14,500,000,000 kilowatt hours of electric energy moved outward over State boundaries in 1929.

During 1929 exporters operating under the export trade act, commonly known as the Webb-Pomerene act, sent out of the country goods amounting to $724,100,00. The figures compared with $476,200,000 exported in 1928 and $371,500,000 in 1927.

Cease and desist orders were issued against 48 companies charged with various unfair methods of competition, particularly fraudulent advertising. A record number of 270 stipulations was voluntarily entered into by companies agreeing to desist from unfair business practices. Jurisdiction over fraudulent advertising broadcast over the radio was added to the commission's functions.

American business men indicated their willingness to "play ball" with the public by cooperating in 57 trade practice conferences held under commission procedure. This was nearly doubit the number for the previous year.

Limits Are Urged Upon Grain Trade

Speculation in Futures Is Scored in Report to Farm Branch.

(Associated Press.)

Limitations of the volume of daily transactions on grain exchanges, and on holding futures for speculative purposes, were recommended yesterday in the annual report of J. W. T. Duvel, chief of the Agriculture Department's grain futures administration.

Such action, he said, would result in direct benefit to all interests using the futures market for proper purposes. During the last fiscal year Mr. Duvel said transactions in wheat futures aggregated nearly 20,000,000,000 bushels—far more than the entire world production of wheat, and the largest amount ever handled in history. The total transactions in grain futures of all categories was placed at nearly 25,000,000,000 bushels for the year.

Mr. Duvel's report was in line with the position previously taken by Secretary Hyde. During conferences earlier in the year the Secretary said he believed the grain trade itself would be able to so regulate the operations of its members that further legislation might not be necessary.

Mrs. Keith Miller Cracks Plane in Hop to Capital

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Mrs. J. M. Keith Miller, Australian aviatrix, today cracked up her plane in attempting to take off here for Washington. The plane was demolished, but Mrs. Keith Miller was unhurt.

She remained here to await instructions from her advisers, who had taken off earlier in another plane. The accident was reported caused by failure of the motor shortly after the plane had left the ground.

Score Strive to Rescue

Dog Buried Four Days

Mount Pleasant, Iowa, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Imprisoned without food or water for four days, Bingo, wiry little fox hound, was still alive tonight.

A score of men heard Bingo's whines of misery as they dug to free the hound from the hillside cave-in that has been his prison since Wednesday night. They believed they would reach the dog soon.

Bingo scurried into the hole after a raccoon. The hunters, stamping about the opening, caused the cave-in and Bingo was trapped. He has been saved from suffocation by breaths of air seeping through a fissure in the hillside.

The whines indicate the hound is suffering. His master, Lawrence Mills, has worked almost constantly since Wednesday night.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

WOOD'S SCHOOL
for Secretaries
311 EAST CAPITOL ST.
Lincoln 0038

National University Law School
Winter Term Begins January 2, 1931, at 6:30 P. M.
Standard three-year course leading to degrees of LL.B., B. C. L. and J. D.
Graduate courses leading to degrees of LL.M., M. P. L., S. J. D. and D. C. L.
All classes held at hours convenient for employed students.
School of Economics and Government
Degree courses of collegiate grade offered in Political Science, Government, Economics, Psychology, History, Finance, Business and Languages.
Address, Secretary
National 6617. 818 13th St. N.W.

LOSE JEWELS TO BANDITS

Associated Press Photo.

Bandits entered the New York apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Zittel, forced Mrs. Zittel, at the point of a dagger, to open their safe and took jewels valued at between $65,000 and $150,000. To the right of Mr. and Mrs. Zittel is Mrs. Bert Jones, sister of Mrs. Zittel.

Industrial Reserve Fund to Be Urged

New York Senator to Offer Measure to Reduce Unemployment.

(Associated Press.)

A bill to encourage the establishment of unemployment reserve funds in industry will be introduced today by Senator Wagner, Democrat, New York.

The New Yorker explained yesterday his measure would provide that any funds set aside by employers or employes as an unemployment reserve shall be deductible from income subject to taxation, and the earnings from such a fund shall be tax exempt. "The unemployment reserve fund," said Senator Wagner, "will tend to reduce the insecurity of employment and it is, therefore, proper that the Government should encourage it. It also will tend to promote the regularization of the industries establishing such reserves and thus to reduce the amount of unemployment very much as workmen's compensation laws tended to reduce the number of industrial accidents.

Chilean Prison Gets Rebels.

Valparaiso, Chile, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—A number of persons connected with the recent revolutionary attempt at Concepcion were started today toward the Chilean prison on Easter Island, in the Pacific, aboard the steamer Huemul. Gen. Bravo and Col. Grove, two of the leaders, are en route to the island aboard a naval ship.

Connally Assails Claim for Tariff

Senator Jeers at Smoot's Assertion That Receipts Vindicate Bill.

(Associated Press.)

Claims by Chairman Smoot of the Senate finance committee that recent customs receipts were a vindication of the 1930 tariff act were disputed yesterday by Senator Connally (Democrat), Texas.

In a statement through the Democratic national committee, Connally said Smoot had based his claim upon a comparison of customs receipts with a ten-day period in 1929 "during the terrible stock crash when business was suddenly dislocated and temporarily paralyzed."

"The senator ingeniously fails to compare either volume or value of exports for 1929 and 1930," Connally added. "He carefully selects customs receipts instead of volume of trade. Where is the vindication in the decline for the ten months of 1930 under 1929 in exports which has been $1,092,037,000? Think of the brilliant vindication in the decline in imports for the ten months of 1930 under 1929 of $1,101,858,000"

INSURE YOUR CAR with
THOS. E. JARRELL CO.
GENERAL INSURANCE
721 10th St. N.W. National 0765

3% on Savings Accounts

4% on Time Deposits

Over $7,000,000 Paid To Christmas Savings Club Members
This Year by Local Banks

DID you participate in this distribution? If not, insure participation next year by taking out membership in our 1931 Christmas Savings Club, without delay. Four classes:

50c—$1—$2—$5 Weekly
3% Interest

BOTH OFFICES OPEN Until 5:15 p.m., Dec. 15th and 16th, to Accommodate Payday Depositors.

Complete facilities for efficiently serving corporations, firms and individuals.

FRANKLIN NATIONAL BANK
Pa. Ave. at 10th—TWO OFFICES—1111 Conn. Ave.
JOHN B. COCHRAN, Pres. THOS. P. HICKMAN, V. P. & Cashier

FIREPLACE FIXTURES

Brass, Wrought and Cast Iron
The Largest Stock in Washington

Andirons from $2.75
Fire Sets from 4.50
Spark Guards from 3.95
Fire Lighters from 3.55

Fenders, Basket Grates and Radiant Gas Heaters

FRIES, BEALL & SHARP
734 10th St. N.W.
NAtional 1964

CUBAN GROUP PLANS OFFICES IN CAPITAL

Patriotic League to Inform American People of "True" Conditions.

CALLS REIGN "TYRANNY"

The Cuban Patriotic League, an organization formed to "inform the American people as to the true state of affairs in Cuba under Machado," will open offices in Washington and New York within the near future, according to an announcement made yesterday. The group is headed by Alfred Betancourt. Other officers are Octavio Seigle, secretary, and H. Ralph Burton, general counsel.

"A Cuban information bureau is of the greatest importance, particularly at this time," Mr. Seigle said yesterday. "The State Department, for some reason known only to itself, has failed to give the public information as to the true conditions in Cuba.

"This has necessarily made it impossible to present a true picture of the actual situation to the officials and people of the United States so as to bring to the people of Cuba relief from the oppression under which they are suffering through the present regime of tyranny and despotism resulting in constant bloodshed and cruelty."

Vocational Schools Enroll Million in 1930

(Associated Press.)

More than a million persons were enrolled in vocation schools in 1930, taking courses organized and conducted under joint Federal and State supervision.

The annual report of the Federal board for vocational education yesterday said 170,000 studied agriculture, 250,000 home making and 625,000 various positions in trade or industry.

MOVEMENTS OF STEAMSHIPS

New York, Dec. 14.

ARRIVED SUNDAY.

Europa, from Bremen.
Statendam, from Rotterdam.

SAIL MONDAY.

Explorer, for Constanza.
Exchester, for Genoa.
Cabo Villano, for Barcelona.

SAIL TUESDAY.

Europa, for Bremen.
Mauretania, for Southampton.

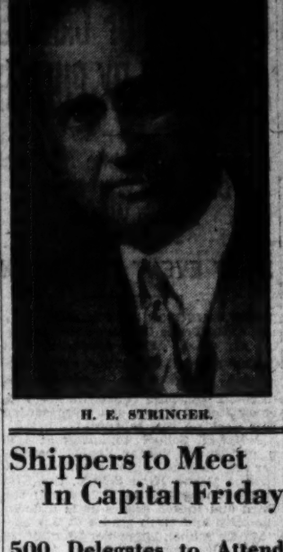
SAILS WEDNESDAY.

Jean Jadet, for Antwerp.

REPORTED BY RADIO.

United States, from Copenhagen; due at Sixth street, Hoboken, Monday.
Mauretania, from Southampton; due at pier 54, North River, Monday.
Kungsholm, from Gothenburg; due at pier 97, North River, Tuesday.
American Merchant, from London; due at pier 39, North River, Tuesday.
Baltic, from Liverpool; due at pier 59, North River, Tuesday.
Pulaski, from Gdynia; due to Thirty-ninth street, Brooklyn, Tuesday.
Minnewaska, from London; due at pier 58, North River, Tuesday.
Dresden, from Bremen; due at pier 42, North River, Wednesday.
Aurania, from Southampton; due at pier 56, North River, Wednesday.
Lafayette, from Havre; due at pier 57, North River, Thursday.

LEADS MEETING



H. E. STRINGER.

Shippers to Meet In Capital Friday

500 Delegates to Attend Atlantic Advisory Board Sessions.

Approximately 500 delegates from the States represented on the Atlantic States Shippers Advisory Board will meet at the Willard Hotel Friday to analyze shipments expected to move during the first quarter of 1931.

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde and Alfred P. Thom, general counsel of the Association of Railway Executives, will be the principal speakers at the one-day session. H. E. Stringer, vice president of the Hydraulic Press Brick Co., of Washington, and general chairman of the shippers' board, will preside.

Spokesmen for the carriers will be headed by J. W. Roberts, assistant vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad and chairman of the railroad contact committee. Representatives of every trunk line railroad in the area represented on the board will be on hand to report for their respective systems.

Suspect in Murders Captured in Far West

Toledo, Oreg., Dec. 13 (A.P.).—James Bannon was arrested at Waldport tonight for authorities at Watford City, N. Dak., where he is charged with first-degree murder in connection with the death of six members of the Albert E. Haven family. He said when he was brought here he "could not believe" his son, Charles Bannon, was guilty of the murders.

Press dispatches from Williston, N. Dak., said the son had confessed the murders.

Ask about the low rates for seven-time orders on Post Classified Ads. Just phone National 4205.

CAPONE'S SISTER WED IN PRESENCE OF 4,000

Continued from Page 1.

the bride" came from the choir loft before the procession was able to move. Perspiring ushers, verging on a loss of Latin poise, begged the throng to fall back that the bride might attend her own wedding.

The low-cut pink taffeta dresses of the five bridesmaids touched the toes of their powder-blue shoes. Down their backs hung a double pearl pendant. They wore wide-brimmed pink picture hats trimmed with a poudre-blue bow. Each carried a large colonial bouquet.

One matron-of-honor stirred the admiration of the crowd as she took her time coming down the aisle. Her chiffon dress of palest pink enhanced her blonde loveliness. A whisper through the crowd identified her—Mrs. Alfonse Capone. She was followed by Mrs. Ralph Capone.

Bridegroom Looked Scared.

The bridegroom looked as all bridegrooms do—unnecessary and sacred. He swallowed his Adams' apple continuously. Ralph Capone, about a half foot taller, smiled encouragement to him and also to the mother of the bride, who, as all mothers do on such occasions, was crying softly. Ralph gave the bride away. Among the bridegroom's seven attendants was a bit of color—a red head.

The audience audibly approved the bride, an attractive brunette. She wore an ivory shimmering satin gown with a 25-foot train. Her bridal veil billowed out beyond. She carried a shower bouquet of 400 lilies of the valley.

After the short ceremony the crowd did a tidal wave for the entrance, again blocking the path of the wedding party. While ushers pushed them back, the bride bowed, smiling, happy. Then the newlyweds sped away in a handsome car—dragging a collection of tin cans.

Souvenir hunters were on the job—some even got busy stripping the flowers before the wedding bell had rung. Three girls drew the wrath of an usher as they stood on a seat to pull down a floral decoration.

FLORIDA RESORTS

THE CLARENDON HOTEL, Ormond Beach, Fla.—Completely modernized and newly furnished throughout. Excellent 18-hole golf course, two blocks distant. American plan. Luke Glennon, Manager.

CUBAN RESORTS

SEE HAVANA AND LIVE
SEVILLA-BILTMORE
HAVANA, CUBA
A Bowman Biltmore Institution

WASHINGTON'S FINEST MEN'S WEAR STORE

LINEN INITIALED HANDKERCHIEFS
Imported from France
$1

Here is another one of the many exclusive style features at the Raleigh . . . smart French linen handkerchiefs with 5 color initials, handsome colored borders on white background and hand-rolled edges.

SHOP EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS

RALEIGH HABERDASHER
1310 F Street

ECONOMICAL WINTER FARES TO CALIFORNIA VIA NEW ORLEANS

A most economical and comfortable route for Winter Tourists—thru the Old South and the Historic Southwest—is provided by the Washington-Sunset Route. Passengers save approximately 50 per cent of sleeping car fare by using Tourist sleeping cars leaving daily from Washington to California via New Orleans, Houston, San Antonio and El Paso. Low rail fares also in effect. Write today for illustrated booklet "Q," time tables and fares.

D. D. COFFMAN, Passenger Agent.
WASHINGTON-SUNSET ROUTE,
Southern Ry. Executive Office Bldg.
McPherson Square, Washington, D. C.
Telephone, National 8688.

MATTRESSES
RENOVATED
Best Service and Prices
COLUMBIA BEDDING CO., INC.
219 G St. N.W. National 5328

INVESTMENT BUILDING

A GARAGE in the basement eliminates your parking problem.

H. L. RUST COMPANY
Agent

IT PAYS TO BUY A CROSLEY RADIO

NEW Beauty Convenience

COMPLETE WITH TUBES $59.50 NOTHING ELSE TO BUY

The Most Sensational of all Radio Receivers suitable for use in every room in any house

The CROSLEY BUDDY BOY

Here is the newest radio sensation. THE CROSLEY BUDDY BOY, suitable for use in every room of the home. The cabinet, 15½" high, 17" wide and 9½" deep, is an exact reproduction of a beautiful wood carving and is complete in one piece—no joints, nails, or screws. The BUDDY BOY uses three Screen Grid tubes type -24, one type -45 and one type -80. The newest Crosley electro dynamic-power speaker is incorporated. See your dealer for a demonstration.

CROSLEY $85.50 CLASSMATE COMPLETE WITH TUBES

EASY TERMS arranged to suit your convenience

CROSLEY $112.50 ADMINISTRATOR LESS TUBES

SOME AUTHORIZED CROSLEY DEALERS

HECHT CO., 7th and F sts. nw.
POST RADIO CO., 9th and F sts. nw.
STANDARD RADIO CO., 423 11th st. nw.
HAZLETON BICYCLE CO., 424 9th st. nw.
BROOKLAND HARDWARE CO., 3500 12th st. ne.
ATLANTIC RADIO & ELEC. CO., 2016 14th st. nw.
LANSBURGH'S, 8th and E sts. nw.
W. B. MOSES, 11th and F sts. nw.
C. W. DAUBER, 2320 18th st. nw.
SPENCER RAT. & ELEC. CO., 3417 Pa. ave. nw.
HUTCHINSON FURNITURE CO., 1814 14th st. nw.
MOORE & CAIN, 4th st. and R. I. ave. ne.
GIBSON CO., 917 G st. nw.
CATLINS, INC., 1324 N. Y. ave. nw.
LES KOHLER, 3419 Conn. ave.
I. P. DINOWITZER, 630 Pa. ave. nw.
HENRY HIGHAM, Jr., 105 B st. ne.
O. C. DORIAN, 702 10th st. nw.
QUACKENBUSH HDW. CO., 3263 M st. nw.
KING'S PALACE, 810 7th st. nw.
WESTERN RADIO & ELEC. CO., 1405 H st. ne.

SUBURBAN DEALERS

T. C. RAWLETT, Alexandria, Va.
A. L. LADD, Alexandria, Va.
HARVEY RADIO & ELEC. CO., Mount Rainier, Md.
F. L. WATKINS, Seat Pleasant, Md.

WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTOR.
DOUBLEDAY-HILL ELECTRIC CO.
715 12th St. N.W. Phone Nat'l 4680-1-2-3

YOU'RE THERE WITH A CROSLEY
CROSLEY RADIO

Give Something Electrical

At "Electrical Headquarters" you will find appliances for every need. No matter what your purchase may be, you are assured of quality merchandise that carries the guarantee of both the manufacturer and of this reliable store. Easy terms may be arranged, with a small down payment and the balance added to your monthly electric service bills.

DELIGHTFUL REPRODUCTIONS OF COLONIAL LAMPS

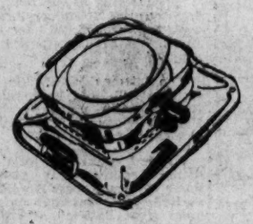
These striking lamps modeled after Colonial patterns make excellent gifts. They are available in copper and pewter finishes. Reasonably priced at—

$3.50 up

ELECTRIC DECORATIONS FOR CHRISTMAS TREES

Enjoy Christmas to the fullest—be sure to use electric lights on your tree—electric wreaths in your windows. Strings of light will last for many years and cost very little.

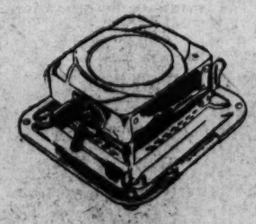
$2.50 up



PROCTOR AUTOMATIC WAFFLE MAKER

Here is the last word in electric waffle makers. Thermostatic control—signal light—and unsurpassed beauty of design. Special Christmas terms until December 24.

Only $2.50 Down



PROCTOR AUTOMATIC TOASTER

Here is another gift that is certain to please. This automatic toaster flashes a signal light that tells you when the toast is ready. The thermostatic control may be set for making toast "as you like it"—light, medium or well browned.

$3.50 Down

POTOMAC ELECTRIC Appliance Company
ELECTRIC APPLIANCE HEADQUARTERS
14th and C Streets N.W.
Phone NAtional 8800

BUSINESS RECORDS OF ANCIENTS FOUND

Clay Tablets Uncovered in Mesopotamia Placed at 3,500 Years Ago.

ADOPTION DEAL SHOWN

Philadelphia, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—How the Mesopotamian business man of about 3,500 years ago kept his records is shown by a collection of antiquities to be placed on exhibition at the University of Pennsylvania Museum tomorrow.

The records are on clay cuneiform tablets, one of which indicates that agriculture had its troubles in ancient Mesopotamia. This tablet records that a farmer named Arilludupti pledged his entire farm as security for a loan of three and one-half pounds of lead.

Another tablet lists in great detail all the houses, clothing, lead, copper and barley, which changed hands when two brothers agreed legally to adopt a boy.

Kept Simple Record.

A cylindrical, hollow clay receptacle, containing 49 pebbles and a long cuneiform inscription, belonged to an illiterate shepherd named Zakaru.

The inscription revealed the pebbles represented 49 sheep intrusted to his care. In preserving a proper balance between the number of pebbles and sheep, the shepherd easily could render an accurate accounting of his flock.

Ancient Customs Revealed.

The records were found near Kirkuk, in northern Mesopotamia, where an archeological expedition from the Harvard-Bagdad School and the University of Pennsylvania Museum spent three years in excavating a deserted mound which once was the site of the City of Nuzi, center of a community noted for its commerce and art.

Horace H. F. Jayne, director of the University of Pennsylvania Museum, reported the expedition had uncovered dwellings, a great palace and a temple, finding numerous objects which enabled the archeologists to picture the lives and customs of the people of Nuzi before its destruction shortly after 1,500 B. C. Some of these objects, including sculpture and pottery, are nearly 5,500 years old.

Frohman, Theater Man, Undergoes Operation

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Daniel Frohman, veteran theatrical producer, underwent an emergency operation late today in the Park East Hospital. Afterward Dr. George Schwartz announced that Mr. Frohman's condition was satisfactory and that he had an excellent chance of complete recovery.

A week ago Mr. Frohman celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary and was guest of honor at an anniversary dinner given him by many prominent theatrical personages. Tonight he was to hvae been guest of honor at a dinner given by the National Arts Club. Mr. Frohman was stricken late in the afternoon.

Judge in Rail Plot Named.

Santiago, Chile, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Gen. Julio Alvarez was appointed military judge to preside at the trials of persons held in connection with last Tuesday's attempt to blow up a train on which President Carlos Ibanez was a passenger. The fifteenth arrest in connection with the plot was that of Alfredo Larrain Neil, a student.

Mending Patients at Children's Hospital Speed Days Planning for Christmas

Arthur Ellis, Post Staff Photographer.

Left to right—Guy Ewell, 11 years old; Nurse Elizabeth Jenkins, little Hulda Cramm, 15 months old, and Martha Geesling, 18 years old, tiny patients at Children's Hospital, who are busy making gifts for their parents and friends.

Convalescents Fashion Gifts for Friends and Parents.

Margaret is full of plans for Christmas. She is busy assembling a large family of paper dolls. Guy is making hand decorated calendars. John is weaving lace on a big pillow, propped up in his bed, while Earl plays with his toys while thinking of a bow and arrow set which he hopes to find in his stocking.

These children are just a few of the 40,000 who have received medical attention in some form or other the last year at Children's Hospital, Thirteenth and W streets northwest, through its various departments.

This group, all of them six or thereabouts, have passed the crisis of their illnesses, and are looking forward to the day when they will be able to go home and share in the excitement of family Christmas trees.

In the meantime, they are finding life not so dull in the convalescent ward, even if there are some pains and aches still lingering in the little bodies which have not yet regained normal strength.

Margaret must cling to her wheelchair a while longer, but she has put in a request to Santa Claus for a doll and its carriage, and the chances are that she will get them.

The convalescent ward, except for the beds, resembles a large cosy living-room. There are fairy tale pictures on the walls, canaries sing cheerily in bright colored cages, offering competition to the radio recently installed. Sunshine streams in at the windows. The nurses give a hand here and there with the colored crayons when an embryo artist needs help badly, or the paint brush gets gummy beyond redemtpion by small fingers.

There is an atmosphere of contentment for the anxious days and nights have passed and the road back to health is surely sighted. But even in this ward no child may stay longer than is absolutely necessary, for others are waiting to take his place as soon as he is able to go home.

The average length of a sick child's stay for the past year has been 7.9 days—shorter by nearly three days than during the previous twelve months.

Demands upon the institutions this year have been the greatest in its history, according to Miss Mattie M. Gibson, superintendent, and its history is a long one.

For 60 years this institution has ministered to the small sufferers of the District of Columbia. It has served without money and without price

Generous Toy Supply Promised for Children

(Associated Press.)

A generous supply of Christmas toys for American children was forecast yesterday by the Commerce Department.

Taking note of the business depression, the department said it might result in gifts of a "more utilitarian color" for grown-ups, but that—

"As a Nation, Americans seem prone to insure the health and happiness of their youngsters, and even where very definite sacrifices on the part of parents are involved the strained family budget will include expenditures for toys."

The toy industry was said to have "felt the general slowing up of business activity but has suffered less than some other industrial fields."

Length of Treatments Smaller But Institution Is Taxed.

where parents can not afford to pay even a nominal fee toward the cost of treatment.

Practically a third of its service has been given to those who could pay nothing, and there have been many instances where the parents could manage but a small sum.

This margin must be met by revenue from the Community Chest, of which the hospital is a member. It is one of the 75 organizations which will combine under the banner of the Community Chest to make an intensive appeal for adequate funds January 26, continuing the drive for a period of ten days.

Neuritis!

There is no pain like Neuritis. There is nothing quite so torturing—so utterly unbearable as Neuritis. It robs life of all joy—and makes people desperate. But Neuritis is not hopeless—it responds to proper treatment. A well-known physician has written us, "Have been drinking Mountain Valley Water for six weeks for Neuritis and am feeling better than I have for two years." Mountain Valley Mineral Water from Hot Springs, Arkansas, brings relief in Neuritis because it gets at the root of the trouble—it tends to neutralize the acids which are irritating the nerves and retards the further accumulation of these acids by aiding healthy, normal elimination through the kidneys. Renew your hope—learn how Nature can help you. Phone for our booklet today. Met. 1062.

Mountain Valley Water

For 75 Years the Prescribed Water at Hot Springs, Ark.

306 District National Bank Bldg.

GIRL SUICIDE'S BODY BROUGHT TO CAPITAL

Miss Trapier, Long Ill, Shot Herself in Tea House at Aldie, Va.

NOTE TELLS OF DEED

The body of Miss Alicia Trapier, 26 years old, of this city, who killed herself Saturday night at Aldie, Va., was brought to Washington yesterday. Funeral services will be announced today by Joseph Gawler's Sons.

Miss Trapier slipped away from her home in the Marlboro Apartments Saturday morning and rode in a taxicab to a tea house owned by Mrs. Gasket di Zeriga, at Aldie. After having dinner with Mrs. Zeriga, whom she knew, Miss Trapier disappeared.

During the search for her a note was found in a room, which said: "I did this myself. Notify Mrs. Calvert." Mrs. Calvert, it was learned, is a cousin of the dead girl. She lives in Washington.

Shortly after the note was found, a shot was heard. Miss Trapier was found a few minutes later with her head nearly blown off by a bullet from a new revolver.

Miss Trapier had been in ill health for more than a year, according to relatives here, and her physical decline is believed to have driven her to end her life. She lived with her mother, Mrs. Richard S. Trapier, and a brother, P. A. Trapier.

Steins Hurled at Meeting Of German Fascists

Gladbach-Rheyet, Germany, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Bedlam was loosed at a Fascist meeting last night when the chairman announced Communists would be excluded from "free debate" after a number of speeches had been made.

Chair legs and beer steins were hurled in the air and one Fascist was seriously stabbed. In subsequent street fighting one man was shot and killed by Arnold Noehles, local Fascist leader, who was arrested. He told police he fired in self-defense. Three of Noehle's companions, including Konrad Goebbels, brother of Paul Goebbels, Hitler's lieutenant, also were arrested.

Styles in Crime Believed Altered

Insurance Man Declares Holdups Cause Most of Present Loss.

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Crime has its style periods, too, W. D. Clark, who for many years has handled the burglary and holdup claims of the Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York, observed today.

"Seventy-five per cent of our burglary claims a few years ago were due to the activities of yeggmen breaking into banks at night and blowing open safes and vaults," he said. "Nowadays 80 per cent of our losses are the outcome of daylight holdups. This is true not only in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, San Francisco and other large cities, but also in the smaller municipalities.

"The average age of the yeggmen was above 40. A 'pete' man served a definite apprenticeship before becoming a cracksman and was always looked up to by other criminals. The criminals of today, however, range from 23 to 27 years of age."

BOY'S PLEA FOR GIFT STRESSES TOY DRIVE

Continued from Page 1.

Believing that every child is entitled to just a wee bit of happiness, regardless of the circumstances of his or her parents or guardian, The Post has been conducting a campaign to raise a Christmas fund with which to purchase toys and other Christmas "goodies" for children who otherwise would not receive anything.

The fund has already reached a total where the money subscribed will buy toys for a great many children. But this year there are more youngsters than ever before who face the prospect of empty stockings on Christmas morning.

Those who have not given have until Sunday to turn in their checks and cash and help "put across" an idea that will bring joy to a great many families to whom at this moment the prospect is only for sorrow during the holiday season.

Children at play. Nothing makes a more beautiful picture on Christmas morning. The Post asks you to help paint this picture in every home in Washington. Mail or bring your contribution to the Toy Fund Editor of The Post. You'll get $5 worth of happiness for every $1 you contribute.

A Source of Gift ideas at

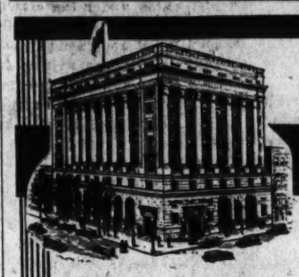
ERLEBACHER

You will find many thoughts for Christmas Gifts . . . in the newest styles and finest of materials.

Coats, Frocks, Suits, Wraps
Evening Gowns, Millinery
Costume Jewelry, Fur Scarfs

Erlebacher

TWELVE-TEN TWELVE-TWELVE F STREET



Southwest corner Fifteenth and H Streets Northwest

EDWARD J. STELLWAGEN PRESIDENT

You Appreciate Life Insurance

as the simplest and surest protection against worry over the future of your dependents.

You can carry more insurance—more easily—if you get together the money for premiums by means of regular weekly deposits in a Savings Account with the Union Trust Company.

2% paid on Checking and 3% on Savings Accounts

UNION TRUST COMPANY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Cold Days Are COAL Days!

The B-R-R Weather Is Here

Keep Your Coal Bins Filled

Though the demand is high, immediate deliveries can still be made of clean, safe, economical AMERICAN QUALITY PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE.

Telephone to have your supply put in. Our delivery men will attend to it in a courteous, clean, orderly way...then you are prepared for any sort of weather.

American ICE Company

COAL OIL

Telephone 4270 6240 District

Make this An ELECTRICAL Christmas

The Christmas gift possibilities of Electrical Gifts are almost numberless. Here you are certain to find something practical as well as pleasing for every member of the family.

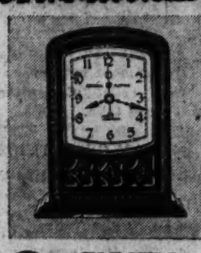
NOMA Christmas Tree Lights

String of 8 with cord and plug as low as $1.30

A complete display of indoor and outdoor lighting sets, wreaths, electric candles, reflectors, etc., at moderate prices.

DISPLAY 2nd FLOOR

Make an outdoor lighting display and help your community win a loving cup for being the most tastefully decorated.



ELECTRIC CLOCKS

A dependable timepiece is particularly appropriate as a Christmas gift. We suggest one of the new General Electric Clocks such as the "Tudor" Desk Type model shown above with molded case in mottled walnut effect and cream colored lacquered dial. The prices range from

$9.75 up

IVES TRAINS SINCE 1868

Something That Every Boy Wants

OPEN ALL DAY SATURDAY UNTIL XMAS

National Electrical Supply Co.

A Washington-Owned Firm Working for the Best Interests of Washington

1328-1330 New York Ave.

The SUNSHINE SPECIAL

Arizona California

The Low Altitude-Mild Weather Route Thru the Balmy Spring-Time Climate of the Great South West

FAST THROUGH SERVICE to Tucson-Phoenix-Los Angeles

	Daily Example
Lv. St. Louis	6:30 pm Sun
Ar. Tucson	6:10 pm Tue
Ar. Phoenix	9:25 pm Tue
Ar. Los Angeles	7:55 am Wed

Drawing Room Compartment-Sleepers · Dining Car Service All the Way De Luxe Lounge-Observation Service

On the way Stopover and see Carlsbad Cavern National Park. The Underground Grand Canyon One Day Side Trip from Van Horn-Texas

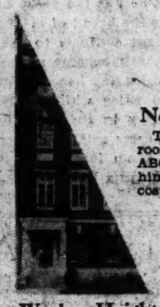
F. E. PENNINGTON Gen. Agent 929 Nat'l Press Bldg. Washington D. C. (Nat'l 2922)

MISSOURI PACIFIC LINES "A Service Institution"

Ask about our Mexico All-Expense Tours

These A.B.C. Oil Burner users say,

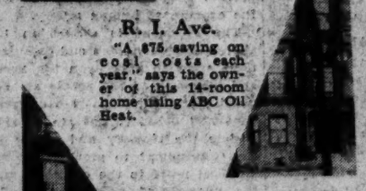
"A. B. C. Oil Heat is cheapest"



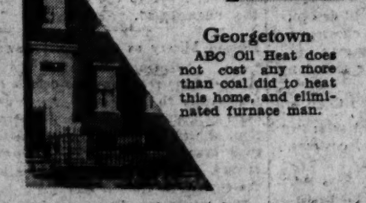
New Ham. Ave. The owner of this 23-room home says that ABC Oil Heat has saved him $50 a year in fuel costs.

Wesley Heights. This ABC user heats an 8-room house and 2-car (inside) garage at a saving over his coal bills.

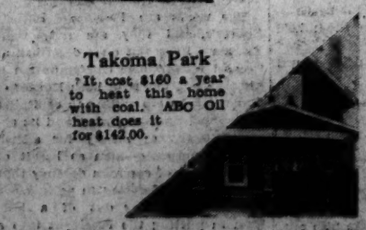
Mt. Pleasant. This home has been heated with an ABC Oil Burner since 1926. "Perfectly satisfied," says this user.



R. I. Ave. "A $75 saving on coal costs each year," says the owner of this 14-room home using ABC Oil Heat.



Georgetown. ABC Oil Heat does not cost any more than coal did to heat this home, and eliminated furnace man.



Takoma Park. It cost $160 a year to heat this home with coal. ABC Oil heat does it for $142.00.

·ABC· Now comes this most satisfactory and economical of all forms of automatic heat at the lowest terms on which it has ever been offered.

Imagine! Initial payments as low as $10 a month with two years to pay! This outstanding offer is made to stimulate sales during a month when people are ordinarily more interested in Christmas shopping. That is why we have made it doubly attractive to buy now.

Also is this low-terms inducement based on our wish to maintain our installation and service crews during these times.

·ABC· Read what these A. B. C. Oil Burner users say about the cost of heating their homes. Many say that A. B. C. Oil Heat is even cheaper than coal.

Hundreds of homes, institutions, office buildings and other establishments in and around Washington are using A. B. C. Oil Heat. And for a period of years. It is still the most perfect of all automatic heating methods.

·ABC· Get the facts. Our offices will be glad to furnish any information desired as to how much money A. B. C. Oil Heat is saving its users . . . as to how much money A. B. C. Oil Heat could save for you.

We resell the coal in the bin. Installation takes less than a day. The Special Offer of initial payments of as low as $10 a month (with two years to pay) expires December 31st. Buy now at these lowest of all terms—

$10 DOWN 2 YRS. TO PAY

TELEPHONE

NATIONAL 8188

A.B.C. Oil Burner Sales Corp.

Factory Branch—1722 H St. N.W. C. S. Watson, Mgr.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

CREOMULSION

FOR THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

The Washington Post.

THE WASHINGTON POST CO.
Washington, D. C.
EDWARD B. McLEAN,
President and Publisher

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
The Washington Post is a member of the Associated Press, receiving the complete service of the world's greatest news-gathering organization.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
Delivered by Carrier in Washington.

Daily, Sunday included, one year	$8.40
Daily, Sunday excepted, one year	6.00
Sunday only, one year	2.40
Daily, Sunday included, one month	.70
Daily, Sunday excepted, one month	.50
Sunday only, one month (with four Sundays)	.20
Sunday only, one month (with five Sundays)	.25

BY MAIL, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
Maryland and Virginia.

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One year...$10.00	One year... $4.00	One year... $7.00
Six months 5.00	Six months 2.00	Six months 3.50
One month. .85	One month .40	One month. .60

ALL OTHER STATES.
(Mexico and Canada, Incl.)

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One year...$12.00	One year... $5.00	One year... $8.00
Six months. 6.00	Six months.. 2.50	Six months. 4.00
One month. 1.00	One month.. .50	One month.. .75

All Subscriptions by Mail Payable in Advance.

New subscriptions for The Post or renewals will not be accepted unless payment accompanies the order. Remittances should be made by drafts, checks, post-office orders, registered letters or express orders, payable to The Washington Post Co.

Entered at the Postoffice, Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.

National Advertising Representative—PAUL BLOCK and Associates, Park-Lexington Building, New York; Palmolive Building, Chicago; Little Building, Boston; General Motors Building, Detroit; Guarantee Trust Building, Philadelphia; Russ Building, San Francisco.

Monday, December 15, 1930.

IF GIBSON COULD SPEAK.

Ambassador Hugh Gibson has faithfully performed the task of covering with diplomatic phraseology the breakdown of the preparatory conference on disarmament. It must have been a most disagreeable task to a man who has honestly endeavored to promote international reduction of armaments and has met with nothing but perfidy and rapacity.

The story that Ambassador Gibson could tell, if his lips were not sealed by discretion, would stun the pacifists who believe that all nations except the United States are peace-loving, generous and anxious to cooperate to prevent war.

If Mr. Gibson would expose to his fellow countrymen the attempt of the British delegates to hamstring the United States in the construction of warships, thereby nullifying the intent of the London Treaty, they would be enlightened. The chief actor in this move was Viscount Cecil, who forms the false facade of Great Britain's pretentions of a desire to scrap navies and lay down arms. This accomplished diplomat is a worthy successor to Sir Henry Wotton.

Mr. Gibson could tell a very interesting story of the embarrassment of the conference when the Soviet delegate asked for a genuine agreement to reduce armaments. The devil's advocate of communism used the truth as a weapon. It was devastating in its destruction of the shams put forth by all the western countries in their effort to conceal the reasons why they refuse to reduce armaments.

There is no occasion for any western country to lie about its determination to remain armed while the reds of Russia train armies and lay up war materials. But the nations are scheming out secret alliances, and no nation trusts any other. Each fears that the others may be in alliance against it—and probably they are.

Premier Mussolini makes no concealment of his readiness to make an alliance with Germany, Turkey, Bulgaria and Austria, with a view to the revision of the Versailles Treaty. All those defeated nations are anxious to escape from the rigors of the treaty, and Italy feels that it did not get its share of the conquered territories, in harmony with the secret treaties parceling out those territories among the allies. Mr. Gibson could tell a good story of his interview with Premier Mussolini, in which the American urged that France and Italy reach a naval accord. The reasons why France and Italy refuse to agree, if made public by Mr. Gibson, would help American pacifists to revise their ideas as to the practicability of the disarmament of Europe.

Mr. Gibson could make a contribution to American political knowledge if he would tell why the nations of Europe are planning to beg off from paying their debts to the United States while spending increasing sums for armaments.

An excellent means of enlightening the people would be the writing of a chapter by Mr. Gibson, explaining how the European governments have reached common accord in one important objective, at least—the objective being to induce the United States to submit to the jurisdiction of the Europeon court established by the League of Nations. The common desire to escape payment of their debts to the United States is the only point upon which European nations are in accord. If they can bring the United States under the jurisdiction of their court they may accomplish their aim.

If Mr. Gibson would tell Americans how many European nations would like to make a secret alliance with the United States his remarks would command attention. It would be useful if he would explain how British diplomats have tried to convince the European powers that Britain has a secret understanding with the United States.

In short, if Mr. Gibson were free from the shackles of diplomacy, and should be disposed to tell the truth to his countrymen concerning European intrigues, he could deliver an address greatly surpassing in interest the funeral oration he delivered over the dead body of the preparatory conference on disarmament.

FEDERAL WORKERS' PAY.

In voting to strike the Wood amendment from the appropriation bill for the Interior Department the House reversed its former stand on granting underpaid Government employes the increases to which they are entitled under the classifications act. This action indicates that the full import of the Wood amendment was not understood at the time it was written into the Treasury-Post-office bill. Congressmen have now had time to think over the results of their action. The majority find that they can not support a measure that clearly violates standards which the Government has been urging private enterprise to uphold.

The debate brought out that more than 140,000 Government employes work for less than $1,600 per year. There can be no valid argument for withholding funds to bring these salaries up to standard as provided by law.

The House has yet to restore to the Interior bill the amount necessary to make part of these increases effective. In view of the heavy vote against the Wood amendment this should not be difficult. The Senate appropriations committee has already restored a provision for the same purpose to the Treasury-Postoffice bill. Doubtless the Senate will adopt the bill in this form, and the House can withdraw from its position in conference.

In view of the abrupt about-face in the House, the attempt to deprive underpaid Federal employes of salaries to which they are entitled ought to be dropped. Congressional sentiment on the subject has been well established.

DISORDERS IN SPAIN.

Premier Berenguer clamped down a rigid censorship on the Spanish press as soon as the revolt in the little mountainous town of Jaca came to his attention. The Spanish people are given no news of the rebellion, and that which reaches the outside world comes from Madrid. The government insists upon telling its own story of the uprising, but the very fact that the press has been muzzled indicates a serious situation.

The Jaca revolt comes as the climax of a series of disorders during recent months. In and of itself this spurt of rebellion is probably not important. The government seems to have gained control after a short battle, and the rebel leaders will doubtless be punished as a warning to others. But this was not a mutiny by a small faction in a loyal and united country. It was a violent expression of the dissatisfaction, unrest and resentment that permeates all Spain. The country is in a mood for revolution, and every minor disturbance threatens to become a signal for a general uprising.

Premier Berenguer tells the public that it will "all end in smoke." But he admits that "no sooner do we stop a little hole in one place than a bigger one occurs elsewhere." A month ago Madrid was in the grip of a strike which resulted in rioting, street fighting and bloodshed. Barcelona, a hotbed of communism, has been brewing a revolt of its own. All Spain is suffering from the depression. Hunger is prevalent and disorders are frequent. Added to this is a growing distrust of the government. The first election since the overthrow of Spain's iron-handed premier, Gen. Primo de Rivera, is in the offing, and every disgruntled faction is seeking to make its influence felt.

The government seems to be well prepared to deal with these attempts at rebellion. The country was subjected to martial law a month ago. Troops are maintained at every point where disturbances are likely to occur. Unless the revolutionary elements join in a common cause, unrest will probably continue to smoulder under a blanket of military suppression until the election is over. Since Spain has been under the thumb of a dictator for seven years, it is impossible to forecast what the restoration of constitutional government will mean, but it should bring about a relief of tension whatever turn events may take.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE STATES.

From any angle that it may be considered, reforestation of denuded areas and land that is not profitable for agriculture is one of the greatest problems confronting the country. The disintegration of soil through erosion, the destruction of property by floods and the depletion of available timber have reached a critical stage. The country can not possibly continue to ignore this problem without precipitating a crisis.

Secretary Hyde has repeatedly called attention of Congress to the subject, advocating purchase by the Government of lands that are suitable for reforestation but not for agriculture. It is generally recognized that private interests can not be relied upon to prevent a timber famine. For the most part commercial timber crops are unprofitable because of the numerous tax assessments that are made against a crop before it is ready for harvest. But the Treasury has no funds with which to purchase vast areas of submarginal land or to finance a gigantic reforestation program. The Government has a big problem on its hands trying to replant national forests that have been despoiled.

A ray of hope is contained in the report of the conservation commissioner for New York. That State has launched a program which calls for planting in forest 1,000,000 acres of abandoned farm lands within the next fifteen years. It is estimated that this program will add $500,000,000 to the wealth of the State at a cost of $20,000,000.

New York is setting an example that other States may follow. The States are in a position of advantage to carry out this work. If it is undertaken on a scientific basis, it should not become a liability to taxpayers, but a rich scource of future revenue. The value of timber products is certain to increase before a commercial crop planted now can be harvested. Virgin forests are being rapidly depleted, and experts predict a world-wide shortage of timber within a few years. The States have an opportunity to perform an invaluable service to their own people and tap a source of great potential revenue.

Reforestation is a legitimate enterprise for the States. It is imperative that they protect their people from floods, that they preserve their watersheds and soil as well as their timber resources. These projects can not be undertaken by private enterprise. Until the States recognize their share of this responsibility the destruction of forests and the enormous waste of natural wealth that such destruction entails will continue.

LARGE RURAL TAXES.

In accordance with the reapportionment of the House of Representatives the States are finding it necessary to realign their political divisions, which means that voting strength will be shifted from rural to urban communities. Rural inhabitants can not justly complain at being deprived of their disproportionate political power, but they may well demand that tax discriminations against them be removed at the same time.

New York recently made a survey of tax burdens in rural and urban communities. Mark Graves, State tax commissioner, reports, as a result of that investigation, that the increase in the tax load during twelve years was two and a half times as great in the purely rural communities as it was in the wealthy, populous counties. Most of this increase, he found, was due to the high cost of schools and highways in the country districts.

Many suggestions are advanced for equalizing taxation as between country and city people, chief of which is reduction of the tax on real property. This kind of tax always falls hardest upon the farmer because he makes a living from real property. The more progressive States are supplementing this tax with other sources of revenue that tend to more equitably distribute the cost of State and local governments.

Another suggestion that is especially advocated by Mr. Graves is the consolidation of local governmental units. He points out that more than 500,000 units of government have to be supported by taxation in the United States. The overhead cost of maintaining such governmental machinery is tremendous. The rural tax burden could be substantially reduced, if a less cumbersome system of county and local administration were adopted.

Each State has its own rural tax problems, and must work them out in its own way. The demand for a change is especially strong in those States which have gained population rapidly, because most of their growth has been confined to industrial centers, and the distribution of taxes is therefore more seriously out of adjustment. While political inequities are being ironed out, it is an excellent time to equalize tax burdens also.

THE RAILROAD DILEMMA

From the Wall Street Journal.

So far, about the only response in Congress to the assertion of leading railroad executives that a crisis threatens the transportation industry has been rather definite intimations from members of both House and Senate committees on interstate commerce that no important legislation affecting the carriers can be expected of the present session. Since it must be assumed that the railroads will wait indefinitely for relief from unregulated competition of waterways, motor busses and trucks, owners of railroad securities can hardly avoid asking themselves, "What of the immediate future?"

One of the weaknesses of our system of regulating all utilities, and most glaring in relation to railroads, is that deserved relief from oppressive requirements can be obtained only in the extremity of need. In this sense regulation remains a political matter. Regulatory bodies are usually too mindful of the political forces cracking the whip of office tenure over them to preserve the judicial mind. Among the results is that if railroads hope to obtain any relaxation of the conditions imposed upon them, even though their right to specific relief is clear, they must represent it as compelled by the alternative of disaster.

So much for generalities. At the moment the ebb tide of traffic renders the hardships of which railroad men complain unusually acute. It reinforces their plea for the correction of fundamental injustices but not to the extent of compelling quick action. Congress is too busy with more pressing matters. So the larger issues must wait.

Meanwhile, the carriers will have to meet the pinch of poor business as they have met it before, by the appropriate economies. If this means adding substantially to the unemployed the result will be beyond the control of railroad managers. It will be the inevitable effect of business recession, plus remorseless pressure for lower and always lower rates and the incessant demand for additional and largely duplicating transport facilities. These affect not only returns on railroad investment and availability of new capital, but personnel and payroll.

One brighter spot in the railroad picture should be noted. The commerce commission's recent annual report reveals, almost for the first time, that that body is alive to the situation. Almost certainly it will accord railroad managers a degree of sympathetic cooperation this winter that has long been lacking. With that the carriers may hope to come through what remains of the depression period without too great damage to their physical or financial condition.

Thereafter the work of overhauling an inconsistent and wasteful national system of transport regulation will still remain to be done.

HEY, DOC, Y' GOT ANY SPARE TIME TO HELP A RELATIVITALLY FELLOW SCIENTIST ? ? ?
EINSTEIN
CRIME, WET-DRY, CONGRESS AND OTHER PROBLEMS
WHY?
$=?

(Copyright, 1930.)

Well, Why Not?

SHORT CIRCUITS.

1930 Version.

Ohio State Journal: All play and no work makes jack scarce.

Hint for Cartoonists.

Ohio State Journal: If grown-ups believed in Santa Claus father would hang up a two-gallon jug.

In the Backwoods.

Detroit News: Ours was a small town, back home, and the local bank had three vice presidents only.

Patron Saint.

Buffalo Courier-Express: In the underworld of bootleggers and gangsters they know there's a Santa Claus because there's a Volstead.

Personal Touch.

San Francisco Chronicle: The boys at gas stations give service, but never yet has one removed our hat and mopped our wet bald spot.

Lost in the Shuffle.

Detroit News: What has become of the old-time midget quarter back—the kind that was picked up occasionally by mistake and punted?

Sentient France.

Detroit Free Press: A nation that can lend London $1,000,000,000 in gold, as France has just arranged to do, can't be so down and out as it would have this country believe.

Probably.

Franklinton News: The consolidation of two well-known razor-blade companies means that in the future one blade will grow where two used to grow, contrary to the old proverb.

Wrong Number.

Cleveland Press: There's no use in our writing any letters to Santa Claus, because he always abuses the information we give him. One time we wanted a set of nonskid chains for our automobile, and he gave us some bedroom slippers.

Using Their Heads.

Baudette Region: Early in the fall you could see deer by the dozen glaring at your headlights along the highways near Baudette, but when the season opened they faded away. With a thousand hunters banging away, the deer probably thought there were too many chances for accidents.

Back to Normal.

Los Angeles Times: Undoubtedly there would be a return to the late lamented home life of America if all business houses followed the example of the St. Louis Gas Co., which has ordered the discharge of all married women whose husbands can afford to support them amply. Also, it might bruise the eye of Judge Lindsey's companionate marriage.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE FREE MAN.

It's no man's business what I say,
And no man's business what I do;
I have the right of choice by day,
The right all pleasure to pursue.
And whether I shall rise or fall
Concerns my neighbor not at all.

Let others in their narrow views
Find comfort if they will or can;
A fuller freedom here I choose,
I'll not be slave to any man.
I'll roam the world; nor friend nor foe
Shall point to me the way to go.

And so he did as he had said;
Scorned laws, opinions, customs, creeds;
Wandered where'er his fancies led.
But lacking money for his needs
This free man turned to those he'd spurned
And asked to share in what they'd earned.

Once snared within a dismal pit
This free man feebly cried for aid;
He who had loudly boasted, it
Was no man's business where he strayed,
Thought in his days of grief and doubt
That every man should help him out.

(Copyright, 1930.)

The Collar Marks on a Dog's Neck Indicate That Somebody Feeds Him.

By ROBERT QUILLEN

THOSE who complain most bitterly of trespass on their rights are the egoists who go through life feeling abused because of their inability to recognize any rights except their own.

They demand for themselves more than they will grant to others. They want liberty without earning it. Their definition of freedom is an advantage for themselves obtained at the expense of somebody else.

In their conception of fair play and their method of reasoning they are like the modern youth who regards parental restraint as a violation of his natural rights.

"I am not a slave," says he, "to go and come at the command of a master. What right has Dad to limit my freedom? If this is a free country, I should be as free as anybody else."

He forgets the ancient adage: "Whose bread I eat, his song I sing."

The free man must stand alone, accepting no favors. A favor places him under obligation. When he eats bread he hasn't earned, some of his rights are ceded to the man who provides the bread.

The youth must learn that freedom and dependence cannot exist together. Obedience is required of him, not in violation of his natural liberties, but as fair return for the bread he eats.

Frequently the public is called upon to sympathize with some stall-fed rebel whose independent ideas are classed as heresy.

"The organization," says he, "is trying to gag me. It denies me the right to think for myself and threatens to deprive me of my living unless I renounce my liberal ideas."

He deserves no sympathy. He is a poor sport who wants the prize without earning it. The insufferable gall of him, demanding the right to denounce his host before he quits the table!

Certainly he has the right to broadcast his heretical ideas, but not while eating the bread of orthodoxy.

If he cannot conform to the organization's rules, let him get out. Let his stomach become as independent as his mind. Then he will be free to voice any heresy that is in him. But he isn't free to break organization rules while breaking organization bread.

You are free to curse the boss the moment after removing yourself from his pay roll, but not until then.

Freedom is an inalienable right, but you can't feed at a manger without wearing a halter.

(Copyright, 1930.)

PRO AND CON

Various Aspects of Political Issues Discussed by the Press.

Raiding the Treasury.

Atlanta Constitution (Dem.).

President Hoover on Tuesday said much with which the people at large will agree when he declared that "prosperity cannot be restored by raids upon the public treasury," and when he said of a lot of projects dumped into Congress that:

Some of these schemes are ill-considered; some represent enthusiasts and some represent the desire of individuals to show that they are more generous than the administration or that they are more generous than even the leaders of their own parties. They are playing politics at the expense of human misery.

The President is correct in the above delineation. Men and organizations eager to play upon the needs and distresses of the people are demanding measures that are extravagant and delusive, but are sure to deplete the treasury and ability of the Government to provide genuine practical relief to the depressed and the unemployed.

Human Misery as a Political Pawn.

Minneapolis Journal.

"And some represent the desires of individuals to show that they are more generous than the administration, or that they are more generous than even the leaders of their own parties. They are playing politics at the expense of human misery."

The words are President Herbert Hoover's, and they are not what Theodore Roosevelt once described as "weasel words." The condemnation is of those politicians in both Houses of Congress who are willing to capitalize widespread unemployment and its accompaniment of misery for selfish political purposes—men so bereft of the instincts of common decency that they are less interested in pulling the unemployed worker out of a hole than in putting the President into a hole.

Relief or Politics?

Christian Science Monitor.

Whether it be the most strategic politics or even the most judicious method of accomplishing his end, President Hoover is preaching sound economics when he tells the Congress of the United States that measures for relief of unemployment and rural distress will gain more potency from promptness of enactment than they will from the inclusion of sums which are beyond the means of the National Treasury.

It is to be regretted that the prospects of cooperation between the President and the Democratic wing in Congress have been so reduced as they have by events of the last few days, and perhaps equally regrettable that members of the President's own party show no more inclination than they do to champion his position, but the new note of aggressiveness and determination in Mr. Hoover's much-debated pronouncement will probably win him a stronger following than ever among the people.

Why Stop There?

Des Moines Register.

Now that the wheels of Congress are again in motion, we suppose there will be plenty of headaches under the dome of the Capitol.

Some of 'Em?

Indianapolis News.

Some of the Democratic senators seem to think that it would be nice to open the Treasury and let the deficit fall where it will.

Fair Enough.

Dallas News.

Us Democrats will help salvage Hoover prosperity, but we don't aim to tack the sign back on for him.

Categoried.

Toledo Blade.

An extra session of Congress would come under the head of useless noises.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Deport All Alien Criminals and All Recently Naturalized Criminals Whose Citizenship Necessarily Was Fraudulently Obtained.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Your editorial, "Alien Criminals," will meet the approval of all loyal citizens and I, for one, thank you for it. The exclusion of known Communists and troublemakers from our shores and the deportation of those already here who violate our laws and seek to tear down our Government deserves prompt and drastic action from Congress and legislation should be immediately enacted which will enable the Department of Labor to keep out undesirables and return to their native land persons guilty of crimes meriting exclusion and deportation.

News items recently appearing are to the effect that some of the criminals have become naturalized and, under present law, can not be deported. Here, also, is need for thought and action. These people have taken an oath to support the Constitution and laws of the land and their violation of their oath should place them in the same category with the unnaturalized alien. The naturalized criminal should be shipped back to where he came from. He is, in fact, more guilty than the recent arrival or the man who has not taken the oath of citizenship, as he has been here longer and has had opportunity to learn of the benefits derived from our Government. The returning of naturalized criminals to the country from which they came will, of course, bring forward a problem for the Congress and the State Department to solve, but that is what they are for; also the Diplomatic Corps.

The President, in his message to Congress, asked for legislation looking to the exclusion of undesirables and the deportation of known evildoers. This is one of the greatest problems confronting the Nation and should be handled by the Congress, the sooner the better. It is little use enacting other laws for the public welfare and permitting aliens to come in here who are avowed enemies of all government and who come with the deliberate intent to do evil. Likewise, those already here who are convicted, or are known to be guilty of lawlessnes and treason, should be speedily shipped back. This is our country. It should be freed of those who will not obey the law and uphold its Constitution.

OVERTON C. LUXFORD.

How Uncle Sam Treats District of Columbia — Forces Cinderella to Live Beyond Her Means.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: I have been thinking about the action of Congress in connection with the municipal center building plan, and it displeases me very much.

The costly Federal building plan is popular. It must be a very close-fisted taxpayer who would object to the expense, and naturally we will all be very proud of Uncle Sam when he greets the world "dressed in his best suit of clothes." When that happens it certainly would not be at all nice for the District of Columbia to appear in the shabby garments of a neglected Cinderella.

But it doesn't look a bit nicer to me when Uncle Sam requires the District to get "dolled up" for the occasion and then settle the bill out of a scanty allowance of spending money.

Suppose I lived with a millionaire uncle who insisted that I dress in a style befitting his luxurious menage and then made me meet all the expense out of my earning as a stenographer? How would you classify that kind of an uncle?

Uncle Sam is that kind of an uncle in his dealings with the District of Columbia. F. J. PITSOR.

Snappy Titles to Forthcoming Talks on Movies and Prohibition.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir—I have often noticed that preachers and reformers are not always good hands at choosing titles for their sermons and discourses. They wouldn't make good newspaper headliners.

But Dr. Clifford Gray Twombly, rector of St. James' Church, Lancaster, Pa., and Dr. Clinton N. Howard, chairman of the national united committee for law enforcement, who will speak at the committee's annual meeting on Friday night, December 12, at the Dodge Hotel, have hit it off to the queen's taste.

The former's title for his remarks on clean movies will be "Damming the Dirt at Its Source," and the latter, discussing prohibition, will illuminate "The Wailing Wall of the Wets."

It seems to me that the gist of the two subjects is epitomized in these headings, the one suggesting an effective key to a difficult moral problem and the other graphically presenting the wets to view as others see them. E. J. P.

Treasury Raid Bills Merit Defeat at the Hand of the President.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Permit me to express my very great pleasure at the editorial, "No Treasury Loot." It is a matter of satisfaction to have one of our Capital dailies speak out in such unequivocal terms against such a scandalous outrage, perpetrated upon the public funds of a country, and I hope the sentiments evidenced by this editorial will echo throughout the entire press of our country.

It is, to my mind, unthinkable that statesmen will try to play politics, seek to capitalize an unfavorable situation such as the country is passing through, and for which no one of the political parties can be held accountable for the benefit of their party. I sincerely hope the bill will be vetoed by the President, and such reprehensible action receive its merited defeat. WILLIAM PIERPOINT.

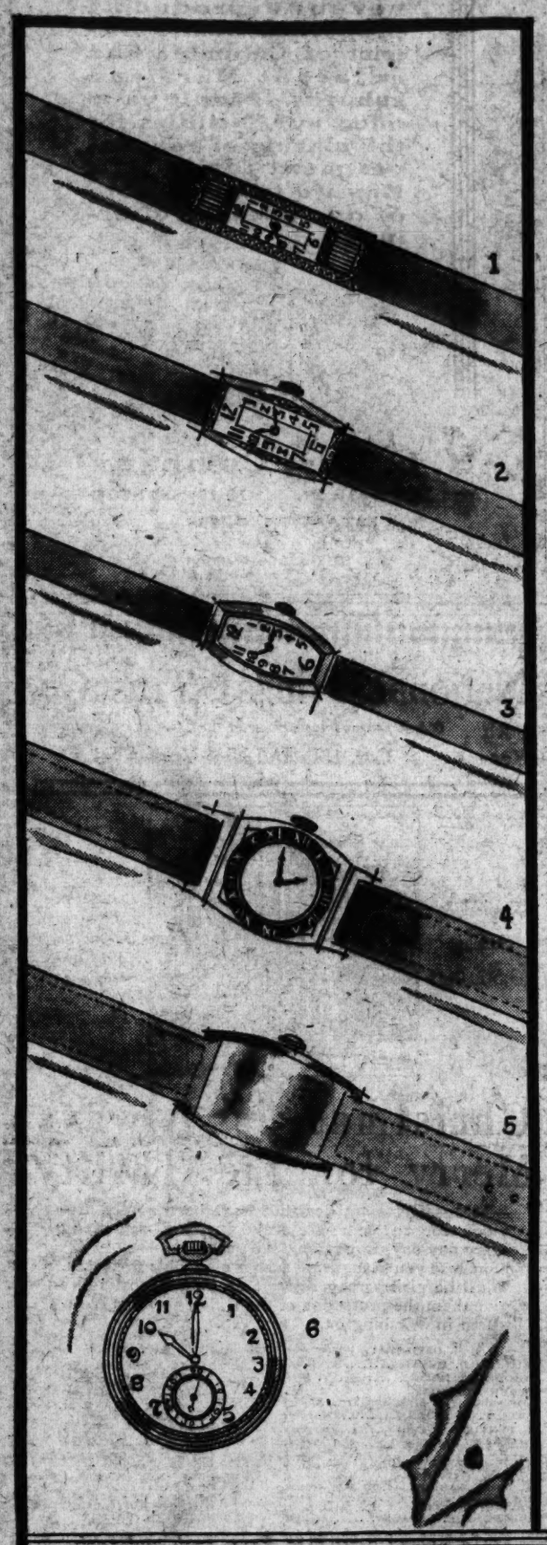
Wants More Oak Trees.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: I have lived in Southeast Washington for over 40 years, before the oak trees were planted.

When I moved to another section, that row of beautiful oak trees was the only thing I missed. There was one pin oak back of the Naval Hospital that I loved to look at. I do hope that more oak trees will be planted. T. C. S.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP

The Christmas Store



Precious Gifts of JEWELRY

Gifts that will be cherished always

Fine Jewelry—that epitomizes the true spirit of the season and that will best express your Christmas wishes to one or a few important persons—will be found here in the latest designs—of the finest workmanship and quality.

Watches

1. Diamond wrist watch of platinum, exquisite with fine-cut diamonds $425
2. Waltham delicately etched wrist watch — white gold filled case; 15-jewel movement ... $50
3. Hamilton 14-carat gold wrist watch; with 17-jewel movement, in a classic style $75
4. Men's Hamilton strap watch with 14-carat gold case; numerals set on black enamel $125
5. A new Hamilton strap watch with a lid; 14-carat gold case; 17-jewel $125
6. Hamilton pocket watch with gold-filled case and 17-jewel movement $50

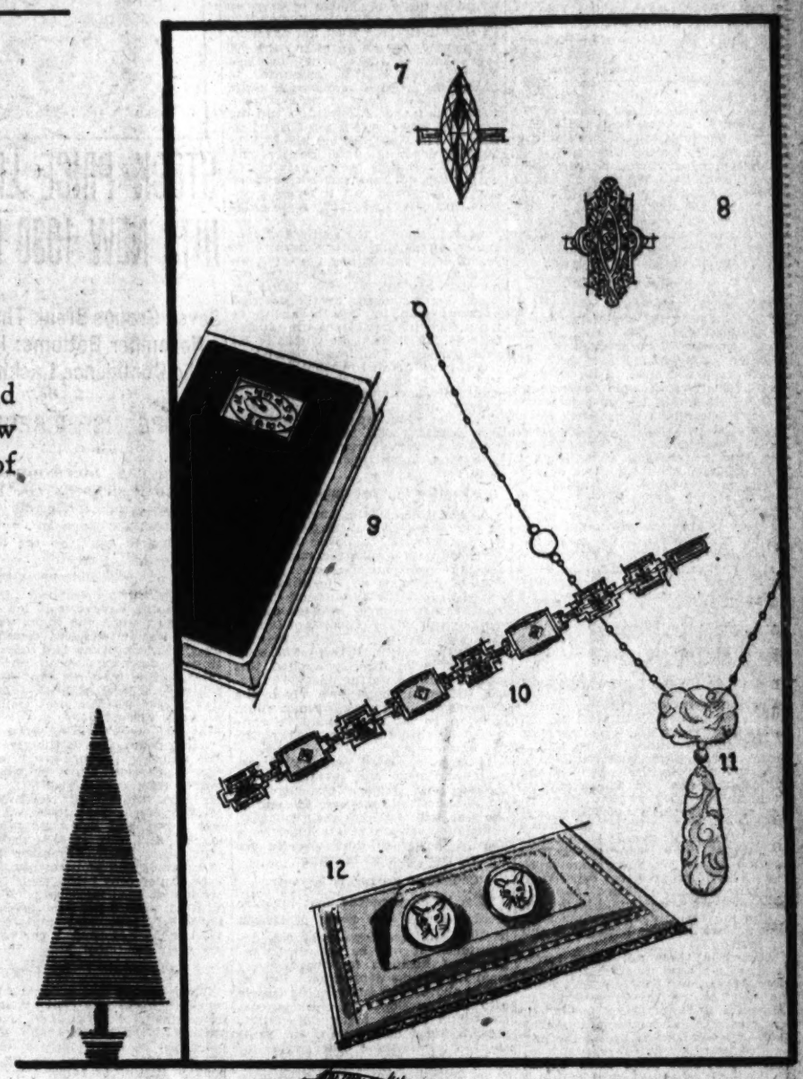
Diamonds

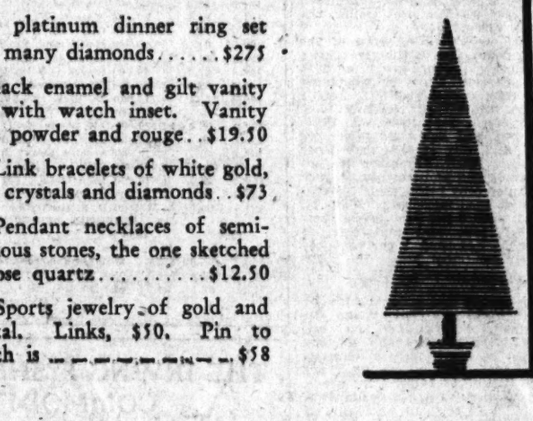
7. Marquis-cut diamond ring—a stone of rare beauty set in platinum $1,680
8. A platinum dinner ring set with many diamonds $275
9. Black enamel and gilt vanity case with watch inset. Vanity holds powder and rouge .. $19.50
10. Link bracelets of white gold, with crystals and diamonds .. $75
11. Pendant necklaces of semi-precious stones, the one sketched of rose quartz $12.50
12. Sports jewelry of gold and crystal. Links, $50. Pin to match is $8

Toilet Sets

13. Child's Sterling Silver Comb and Brush Set—in simple design .. $5.50
14. Three-piece dresser set of sterling silver; a graceful design, $26.75
15. Six-piece sterling silver dresser set with classic lines and design. $50

FINE JEWELRY, FIRST FLOOR





Gifts that Appeal to Men

16. Man's comb and brush set of sterling silver, in dull finish; fine bristles $12
17. Handsome black enamel cigarette case with inlaid monogram block $37.50
18. Studs and links for evening wear; smoked pearl with center pearls $49
19. Cigarette case and lighter set of ostrich ... $35
20. Man's sterling silver belt buckle; 14-carat gold inlaid; with place for a monogram $6.50

FINE JEWELRY, FIRST FLOOR

Gifts from the Optical Section

For Men, Women and Children.

21. Black telescope; leather covered $7
22. A barometer—a gift for every home $5
23. Eldis small opera glasses—in leather case .. $12
24. Boys' Kamp Kup—compass, folding cup and magnifying glass $1.50
25. Boys' Outdoor Kit—including compass, telescope and other outdoor accessories $5

OPTICAL SECTION, FIRST FLOOR

Many other practical gifts may be found in the Optical Section — barometers, hygrometers, altemeters, pedameters, field glasses and binoculars.

HOLIDAY BUYING IS REAL BOOST TO BUSINESS

Year-End Retail Buying Helpful Toward Recovery

Release of $700,000,000 in Christmas Savings Swells Demand for Goods, Fisher Says—1930 Dividends Compare Favorably With Those of 1929.

By IRVING FISHER.
Professor of Economics, Yale University.

Special to The Washington Post.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 14.—Many plans for employment relief and business recovery have been introduced in the form of bills before Congress. Notable among them is the proposal for a bond issue for $1,000,000,000 for public works and improvements by the Federal Government.

This plan, sponsored by the emergency committee for Federal public works, numbering prominent business men, bankers and civic, religious and social welfare leaders, is urged as a parallel in peacetime to the plan for Liberty Loans during wartime. It would be an emergency measure.

Loans Produce Inflation.

Of course, the effect of wartime loans, necessary as they were, was to produce inflation. That would be the tendency, also, of peacetime loans for emergency purposes. But if the measure were practicable, if it could be put into effect in time to serve its purpose, it would be quite improper to go in the direction proposed so far as to produce inflation. If proper at all, it should go only so far as to stop the opposite tendency of deflation.

At most, we should go back only to the price level of commodities a year ago, before the slump in trade and in prices changed the meaning of all manner of long and short-term contracts, bankrupted many men, and threatened the solvency of many more. There should be stabilization at a point about where we were in July, 1929, when commodity prices began going down hill.

It is not too much to say that before we can have business recovery the deflation of the commodity price level must be stopped.

Clean Up the Back Yards.

For this reason the movement, which has been slow in starting and delayed in execution, to construct needed public works; to substitute decent dwellings for slums and obsolete tenements; to repair, remodel and rebuild factories and equipment; to clean up the back yards of the Nation, should be supported with proper safeguards and within reasonable limits. The great danger is that this program will be accepted as the final solution of the unemployment problem. The great weakness consists in this very element of delay. A public planning committee should have been on the job early in 1929, when such measures would have been tonic and preventive.

Meanwhile there are other forces working to rescue us from the business depression. The greatest force has been the continued manifestation of consumer purchasing power in the form of retail buying throughout 1930. This is shown in the Federal Reserve Board statement which shows that department store sales during 1930, up to November, were within 6 per cent of the aggregate value of sales during the first ten months of 1929. Department store sales during October rose by 9 per cent over September. It will be of profound interest to observe whether this gain is held, or surpassed, during November and December.

Dividends Near 1929 Mark.

Three factors are potent in swelling the volume of retail sales. First, the dividends of 1930 are found to be near the total of 1929, our most prosperous year of the seven years preceding 1930. Such a large share of earnings had been plowed back into business and had been held over as surpluses that most corporations found it quite profitable to keep up their dividend distribution during 1930 at close to the peak level. For example, dividend payments on more than 600 representative stock issues declared on December 1, 1930, amounted to nearly $300,000,000, comparing quite favorably with those of 1929. Out of 10,582 dividend declarations during the year there was a total distribution of $4,450,000,000; against $4,488,000,000, covering 9,206 declarations, for 1929. That is only a part of the entire list of American corporations paying dividends, but it seems probable that this list is fairly representative of the whole.

Second, there is the element of consumer purchasing power devoted to installment payments on price levels obtaining a year ago, before the depression got under way. Debts for goods contracted for by the deferred payment plan in 1929 began to be liquidated in large measure during October, 1930, and are virtually all paid up now. That must mean that a deal of suspended purchasing power tied up during the year in installment debt payments has been freshly released upon the retail market, just at a time when worn-out wardrobes and buildings and household equipment on which repairs have been postponed urgently call for replenishment.

Stimulus in Christmas Buying.

As installment sales amount yearly to something like $7,000,000,000, the item of purchasing power for goods on account of discharged installment debts, released on the present lower level of prices, is not inconsiderable. Added to it is the stimulus of Christmas buying, strongly fortified during recent years by the proceeds of Christmas club savings. These savings, amounting during 1930 to $700,000,000, are being directly applied this month to retail buying, instead of going the roundabout way which the proceeds of a billion-dollar loan would have to go before it could be converted into payments for food, clothing and shelter.

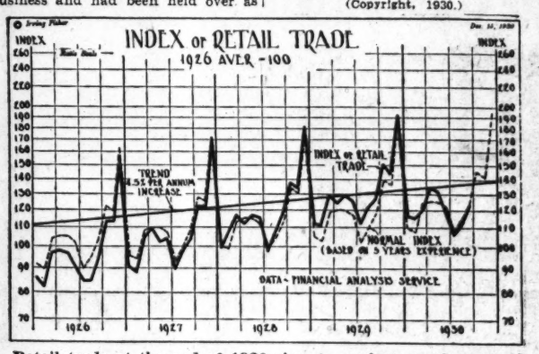
It might be added that the interest on Government and private bonded indebtedness, rolling up into the hundreds of millions near the end of the year, will also help swell this vast, augmented stream of consumer purchasing power so much needed for the rejuvenation of business.

Consumer Buying Is Keynote.

It is by such means that business recovered from the worse depression of 1921, and from previous bad depressions. It will be the strong reliance of business for the recovery from its present depression. But, as stated above, loan funds going largely into pay envelopes of workers employed on private and public buildings, likewise help toward the same end, as do all these other means of adding to the demand for goods, and so of restoring the commodity price level.

What is of prime importance just now is, not that new public works be erected, or that purchasing power on the part of consumers should be increased, so much as that further deflation of the general price level should be stopped. With this stoppage, most of the mischief being done to business will be blotted out, and the great forces of supply and demand will be permitted to work their benefits unimpeded. Stabilization, thus achieved, will prove the most potent of all forces for business recovery and for the maintenance of prosperous conditions.

(Copyright, 1930.)



Retail trade at the end of 1930 rises to conform to the normal index of five years' experience, which shows a yearly increase of 4.5 per cent.

Bonds Reach Lowest Level, 98.8, Since November, 1929

Prices in General List Continue to Drop, Industrials Especially Being Weak; Utilities and Government Issues Hold Steady.

(Irving Fisher Service.)

Bond prices on the New York Stock Exchange dropped by 0.96 per cent last week, continuing the sharp decline that began following the peak of the latest rally on November 21, when the index was 100.4. In the last seventeen sessions the level of bond prices has dropped by 1.6 per cent, showing an average daily loss of nearly 0.1 per cent, with the level at last week's close at 98.8, the low since November 13, 1929.

From the year's high on September 30, of 102.2, the all-bonds index showed a total decline of 3.3 per cent at last week's close. This decline is marked by four cycles. From the high to October 11 the level dropped by 1.2 per cent. This low was followed by a short rally and a secondary break, with the index at 100.7 on October 24, showing a loss of 0.3 per cent from the previous low.

From October 24 to November 13 the level dropped by 0.7 per cent, and from November 13 to date the loss has totalled 1.2 per cent. During this entire period daily trading has been comparatively steady, varying less than $5,000,000, with the high for the week ended October 16 of $13,000,000, and the low for the week ended November 6, of $8,400,000. The average daily values traded in bonds rose by 19 per cent last week to $10,200,000.

The bond groups have shown irregular movements over this period of general decline in bond price levels, with railroad and industrial bonds the chief offenders. Second-grade rails dropped by 1.6 per cent last week to a new low for the year of 92.7, showing a total loss from the September high of 11.5 per cent. First-grade rails have moved in line with the average, showing a total loss from October 6 to date of 5.2 per cent, and closing last week at the level of April 23.

From this point the six months' rise in prices began. Industrial bonds closed last week with a loss of 1.5 per cent over the week and a total loss of 4 per cent from the September 17 high, and 2.5 per cent below the July 1 low.

Utility and Government bonds have shown marked steadiness in price in the face of the sharp decline in the price levels of other bonds.

Foreign government bonds have been steady at a low level during the last six weeks, closing last week 0.3 per cent above the year's low of 98.7 on November 13.

(Copyright, 1930.)

Durant Sells Plant To Former Partner

San Francisco, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Norman Deveaux announced today the purchase from W. C. Durant, automobile manufacturer with whom he has long been associated, of the Oakland, Calif., manufacturing plant of the Durant Motor Co. of California.

The information was contained in a telegram received here by associates of Deveaux, who is in Grand Rapids, Mich. The telegram said he had also purchased a factory at Grand Rapids and would soon start the manufacture of a new automobile to be known as the Deveaux Six. Associated with him will be Col. Elbert J. Hall, automobile and airplane motor designer.

The announcement confirmed rumors during the past week of a business break between Durant and Deveaux.

WALL STREET "SKY-LINE" OF MARKET TRANSACTIONS

CROSS-SECTIONS REPRESENT VALUE OF SHARES TRADED. HEIGHTS REPRESENT GROUP PRICE LEVELS. WIDTHS REPRESENT NUMBER OF SHARES TRADED.

BONDS TOTAL	PREFERRED TOTAL	RAILS COMMON	UTILITIES COMMON	Irving Fisher	Dec. 13, 1930	MISCELL. COMMON	STORES COMMON	FOODS COMMON	COPPERS COMMON	STEELS COMMON	MOTORS COMMON	ACCESS. COMMON	OILS COMMON
				Average daily value of tradings: (Millions of dollars)
10.2	3.0	7.0	15.4	Last week		35.7	2.9	5.2	5.0	13.9	4.0	1.8	4.0
8.6	2.4	3.4	12.9	Previous week		22.6	2.8	3.1	3.8	8.3	3.3	1.3	2.2
				Investors' price index: (1926 equals 100)
99.3	104.3	92.1	131.8	Last week		102.0	87.7	112.8	91.1	127.2	102.6	56.9	72.0
99.9	105.3	97.3	137.8	Previous week		106.8	92.9	117.1	98.5	131.4	106.9	60.6	75.4

STOCK PRICE LEVEL HITS NEW 1930 LOW

Seven Groups Break Through November Bottoms; Public Confidence Lacking.

EUROPE IS IRREGULAR

By E. W. DIEFENDORF.
(Irving Fisher Service.)

The increase in trading on the New York Stock Exchange last week had an undesired effect on the level of stock prices, indicating continued lack of public confidence as the level of all industrials dropped. It broke through the November 10 low of 97.2 on Friday, when the index was 96.5. In the last ten sessions common industrial stock prices had held a continuous downward trend, showing a total decline by 9 per cent from the December 2 level of 105.7, and closed last week 0.7 per cent below the previous 1929-1930 low.

At last week's close, seven of the group indexes were at the year's lows. The building supplies group, at 65.9, was 5 per cent below its November low of 69.3; coppers, at 86.6, were 3 per cent below their November low of 89.5; farm machinery, at 171.9, was 5 per cent below its November low of 181.3; oils, at 69.4, were 5 per cent below their November low of 73.0; radios and amusements, at 79.6, were 10 per cent below their November low of 88.2; miscellaneous stocks, at 107.3, were 3 per cent below their November low, and preferreds, at 103.3, were less than 1 per cent below their November low.

Copper Off 7½ Per Cent.

Those groups that suffered a loss by more than 5.3 per cent in the all-industrials stock price level last week were building supplies and soppers, off by 10 per cent; farm machinery, off by 8 per cent; oil, off by 7 per cent; radios, off by 14 per cent; stores, off by 5 per cent; miscellaneous stocks, off by 4 per cent, and rails, off by 6 per cent.

The average daily value of tradings in common industrial stocks rose by 53 per cent to $72,500,000 last week, with the all-stocks values traded up by 57 per cent to $99,900,000.

The increase in trading was universal in the twenty groups, with the steels, rails, electrical equipment, miscellaneous, chemicals, utilities and foods groups each up by between $2,000,000 and $6,000,000.

The stock price level in Berlin suffered a sharp break last week of 2.5 per cent. The London index was off by 1.9 per cent, while prices in Paris were steady, dropping by less than 1 per cent.

The break in Berlin was not unusual, as it followed a 5 per cent rise during the preceding week.

London stock prices have shown increasing weakness during the last five weeks, breaking to a new low of 89.7 last week, for a total loss in the last five weeks of over 6 per cent.

Paris stocks have shown remarkable firmness since their November 7 low. The price level has fluctuated, but maintained a rising trend to show a gain of 3 per cent last week over the year's low.

Speculative Stocks Weaken.

Selling was the heaviest in the speculative issues last week, as the index suffered a loss of 11 per cent in comparison with a loss of 6 per cent in semiinvestment stocks and 4 per cent in investment stocks.

Since the early November lows the speculative group has shown the greatest activity marked by greater gains and heavier losses, while semi-investment and investment stocks showed more conservative movements.

Each of the graded industrial group indexes closed last week at the year's low, with investment stocks off by 0.1 per cent from their November 10 low, having suffered a 7 per cent loss in the last ten sessions.

Semi-inventment stocks were off by 0.5 per cent from their November 10 low, with a 10 per cent loss since December 2, and speculative stocks at 56.9, 4.5 per cent below their November 12 low, having suffered a 14 per cent drop in the last ten sessions.

Below are shown index numbers of prices of common industrials on the New York Stock Exchange, arranged in classes derived from Moody's ratings:

(1926 equals 100) Week ended—	1st grade (investment).	2d grade (intermediate).	3d grade (speculative).
December 13	134.8	76.4	60.1
December 6	140.3	80.5	64.9
November 29	141.1	81.1	66.7
Year ago	175.6	126.6	113.7
November average	139.9	79.5	65.3
October average	150.0	85.5	72.4
1929 average	193.0	164.1	168.6
1928 average	151.8	132.0	134.3
1927 average	116.8	109.3	102.5
1926 average	100.0	100.0	100.0
High ('28-'30)	234.9	186.7	199.8
	(Aug'29)	(Sept'29)	(Mar'29)
Low ('28-'30)	129.1	77.3	61.8
	(Feb'28)	(Nov'30)	(Nov'30)

(Copyright, 1930, Irving Fisher Syndicate, Inc.)

Tariff Induces Inflation.

Although the "favorable balance" of trade created by a tariff is temporary, it leaves behind a permanent increase of money and of prices. This is, perhaps, the chief reason why a protective tariff seems to many a cause of prosperity. It furnishes a temporary stimulus, not only to protected industries, but to trade in general, which is in reality simply the stimulus of money inflation.

Business Background And Market Summary

New York stock prices	Down
Value of tradings	Up
Purchasing power of the dollar	Up
of the farmer	Down
Commodity prices	Down
Raw materials	Down

The stock price level fell last week, together with the commodity price level. Details appear elsewhere on this page.

(Copyright, 1930.)

THE IRVING FISHER WEEKLY STOCK EXCHANGE PRICE INDEX

1930 High	1930 Low	Av. Daily Tradings ($)	Avg. for week ended Dec. 13, 1926 Average Price Equals 100.	Last Week.	Prev. Week.	% Change.
			NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE STOCKS.
165.6	96.5	72,488,000	Industrials, common (225 stocks)	98.9	103.6	—5.34
124.4	51.7	1,750,000	Auto Accessories (18)	56.9	60.6	—4.76
130.3	65.9	869,000	Building Supplies (7)	70.0	74.8	—9.35
271.8	154.9	8,130,000	Chemicals (16)	159.2	168.4	—4.03
103.2	80.6	4,956,000	Coppers and Misc. Metals (21)	91.1	92.5	—0.99
379.6	185.1	8,513,000	Electrical Equipment (5)	188.7	198.3	—4.32
411.5	171.9	2,478,000	Farm Machinery (2)	178.3	191.5	—7.65
147.7	109.4	5,174,000	Foods and Sugars (20)	112.8	117.1	—4.79
156.2	84.4	708,000	Household Goods (6)	88.0	89.9	—5.27
165.8	105.8	1,327,000	Machine and R. R. Equip. (20)	111.5	115.4	—4.31
178.9	96.1	4,082,000	Motors (13)	148.2	154.5	—4.35
298.9	139.2	339,000	Office Equipment (5)	72.0	75.4	—6.66
125.5	69.4	4,049,000	Oils (23)	96.8	95.3	—14.00
263.7	70.6	3,550,000	Radio and Theaters (12)	127.2	131.4	—3.30
201.3	125.4	14,904,000	Steels (11)	134.9	83.9	—5.35
134.9	83.9	2,986,000	Stores (Chain, Mail & Dept.) (19)	87.7	92.9	—3.07
157.7	120.3	1,576,000	Tobaccos (14)	122.6	125.7	—3.66
180.2	107.2	7,917,000	Miscellaneous (13)	108.9	113.2	—3.42
217.7	129.5	15,439,000	Utilities, common (20)	131.8	137.8	—5.86
138.9	90.1	7,012,000	Rails, common (25)	92.1	97.3	—1.81
117.9	103.3	2,979,000	All Preferred (50)	104.3	105.3
			NEW YORK CURB EXCHANGE STOCKS.
188.0	106.9	3,294,000	Industrials, common (160)	109.4	112.7	—4.56
152.5	74.6	44,000	Auto Accessories (8)	80.2	85.2	—11.68
720.6	237.2	44,000	Aviation (14)	245.2	254.1	—5.09
234.2	144.5	100,000	Chemicals (8)	149.8	151.4	—4.39
182.5	85.7	262,000	Coppers and Misc. Metals (15)	88.1	91.6	—6.21
105.4	78.8	123,000	Foods and Sugars (14)	81.1	82.4	—4.74
180.9	148.3	30,000	Machine and R. R. Equip. (15)	149.6	150.9	—1.20
104.5	40.8	93,000	Motors (4)	41.6	44.6	—5.88
136.6	72.0	1,372,000	Oils (16)	74.5	77.0	—6.00
214.8	67.6	25,000	Radio and Theaters (13)	71.6	82.1	—12.84
207.8	144.7	2,000	Steels (3)	146.1	145.7	—1.34
126.6	67.3	42,000	Stores (Chain, Mail & Dept.) (15)	69.0	70.7	—1.60
140.6	82.5	1,256,000	Miscellaneous (35)	83.8	85.9	—3.77
460.8	211.1	4,776,000	Utilities, common (25)	217.3	231.7	—5.61
			BONDS ON NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.
102.2	98.8	10,229,000	All Bonds (70)	99.3	99.9	—0.96
106.1	99.8	3,012,000	First Grade Rails (10)	101.7	102.9	—1.37
106.7	92.7	3,012,000	Second Grade Rails (10)	93.6	95.2	—1.60
103.7	100.0	1,666,000	Utilities (15)	102.3	102.6	—0.65
100.2	96.0	1,626,000	Industrials (15)	96.7	97.6	—1.51
100.6	98.7	3,284,000	Foreign Government (10)	99.0	99.1	—0.08
101.9	99.0	594,000	U. S. Government (10)	101.6	101.7	—0.19
			FOREIGN STOCK MARKET PRICES.
1929 High	1929 Low	1930 High	1930 Low
140.2	105.9	112.8	89.7	London (revised)	89.7	91.4	—1.86
181.3	134.1	156.3	95.6	Paris	98.5	99.3	—0.71
117.6	83.5	94.0	66.3	Berlin	61.8	63.4	—2.52

(Copyright.)

THE IRVING FISHER WEEKLY COMMODITY PRICE INDEX

1928 High	1928 Low	1929-1930 High	Avg. for week ended Dec. 13, 1926 Average Price Equals 100.	Last Week.	Prev. Week.	% Change.
			DOMESTIC COMMODITY PRICES.
100.3	95.1	99.1	98.8 All Commodities (120 items)	79.8	80.7	—1.12
105.0	96.6	98.8	77.0 Raw Materials (34)	77.0	78.0	—1.28
99.5	98.3	100.4	74.0 Semimanufactured goods (22)	74.0	75.6	—2.12
100.9	92.0	100.5	82.7 Finished goods (64)	82.7	83.3	—0.72
115.9	96.5	106.7	75.5 Agricultural (30)	75.5	76.9	—1.82
112.9	100.8	110.3	80.5 Farm Products (13)	80.5	81.8	—1.59
105.5	97.5	104.8	84.6 Foodstuffs (17)	84.6	85.8	—1.40
98.0	93.2	98.3	80.2 Nonagricultural (90)	80.2	80.5	—0.37
136.2	108.8	121.6	85.3 Hides and Leathers (8)	85.3	88.6	—3.72
99.2	95.1	99.0	72.3 Textiles (15)	72.7	72.5	+0.28
86.6	79.8	87.1	70.8 Fuel and Lighting (10)	70.8	71.0	—0.14
104.5	96.9	112.0	83.8 Metal Products (17)	89.4	90.3	—1.22
97.3	89.0	96.3	84.8 Building Materials (19)	84.8	84.9	—0.12
97.2	92.4	95.8	86.0 Chemicals (14)	86.7	86.7	0.00
87.6	79.0	93.1	61.3 Miscellaneous (7)	66.8	66.6	+0.30
			DOMESTIC PURCHASING POWER.
105.1	99.7	125.3	100.9 Dollar (in wholesale markets)	125.3	123.9	+1.13
116.2	98.8	112.8	94.2 Farmer (on fixed crop basis)	94.2	95.5	—1.36
			FOREIGN COMMODITY PRICES.
96.7	91.8	94.4	70.4 England	70.4	70.8	—0.56
92.3	86.4	94.1	77.0 France	77.0	77.1	—0.13
107.1	102.1	103.7	89.6 Germany	89.6	90.3	—0.78
				Dec. 6	Nov. 29
76.1	74.1	76.4	57.0 Italy	57.0	57.3	—0.52

(Copyright.)

International Trade Shows Loss Near $2,000,000,000

Analysis for Eleven Months Reveals Commerce Behind 1929 Figures, Although About 16 Per Cent Ahead of 1926; U. S. Exports Decline.

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—International commerce, for the first time since 1921, showed a decrease this year, but still is about 16 per cent greater in volume than it was in 1926, an annual analysis by the National Foreign Trade Council disclosed yesterday.

World export trade for 1930, according to figures up to December 1, amounted to approximately $22,500,000,000, in comparison to $24,427,000,000 for 1929, both figures being reduced to 1913 prices.

European export trade was less affected than any other section of the world, the 1930 volume remaining very close to that of the previous year. United States exports during the first ten months of the year fell off approximately 15 per cent, although they still remained 35 per cent greater than before the war and about even with exports in 1926.

With the exception of the automotive industry, export of finished manufactured goods by the United States for the first six months of the year was carried on at more than 92 per cent of the volume of same period last year. Exports in the automotive industry decreased almost one-half from 1929.

Europe in 1930 took more than 90 per cent of the amount of exports she bought from the United States in 1929, which was the best showing our exports made in any market.

During the year, France, Russia, Roumania, the Irish Free State and a number of other European nations actually gained ground in the volume of their exports. Germany came within 1 or 2 per cent of her 1929 export volume, while Great Britain, in spite of heavy losses early in the year, came within about 10 per cent of her 1929 figure.

Manufactured goods constituted the greater part of the world exports, and with few exceptions continued in approximately the same volume as in previous years. To this is attributed the steadiness of the European export trade, four-fifths of which, predominantly of a manufactured character, is from the nations of Western Europe. Europe achieved an advance of more than 14 per cent in export volume since 1925 and carried on practically half the world's export trade.

Decreases in 1930 were almost entirely in countries which chiefly produce raw materials. Both Canada and Japan, second and third, respectively, to the United States in the amount of foreign trade gained since the war, suffered losses of approximately 10 per cent over 1929.

South American exports, notably those of Argentina and Brazil, also suffered a decrease of about 10 per cent, while Latin America in general continued to see a diminution of exports which, with few exceptions, had already appeared in 1929. Latin-American exports, however, were fully 20 per cent greater than before the war and about equal to those of 1926.

Asia, which provides one and three-quarter times the exports of Latin America, increased its exports by the end of 1929 to fully 60 per cent over 1913. Although Japan, China, India and the Dutch and British East Indies suffered losses in 1930, the total recession was not expected to exceed 12 or 15 per cent.

Australian foreign trade fell off heavily and the loss is expected to cut in half the 25 per cent gain made since the war.

Consolidation Forms Large Brokerage House

San Francisco, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Consolidation of Walsh, O'Connor & Co. and H. J. Barneson & Co. into one of the largest brokerage houses in the far West was announced officially today. The new firm will open for business tomorrow under the name of Walsh, O'Connor & Barneson. Headquarters will be in San Francisco with offices in several Pacific Coast cities.

The consolidation holds two New York Stock Exchange memberships as well as seats on the San Francisco Stock and Curb Exchanges, Los Angeles Stock and Curb Exchanges, Chicago Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade, and associate membership on the New York Curb Exchange.

Prices Move in Sympathy.

Prices of goods in series move in sympathy. It is evident, for instance, that given a high price for wool the prices in the supply schedule (or curve) for woolen cloth will be higher than otherwise, and as a consequence the market price of woolen cloth will rise.

COMMODITY PRICES MEET HEAVY FALL

Improved Trend of Preceding Week More Than Wiped Out in Pessimism.

RAW MATERIALS WEAK

After a short period of comparative steadiness, the Irving Fisher wholesale commodity price index last week broke downward by 1.12 per cent to a new low of 79.8 (1926 equals 100). This was a sizable fall, and more than wiped out the improved trend of the week before.

The optimism that was founded on the good action of wholesale commodity prices during August, September and October has been abruptly changed to pessimism in the last month.

During the weeks ended October 25, November 15 and December 6, wholesale commodity prices held their ground to show no change or slight improvement. But there were sharp price declines during the other six weeks of the period since October 11, with the index making new lows in four out of these six weeks. The level has dropped by 3.7 per cent since October 11, when the index was at 82.9.

The purchasing power of the dollar last week rose to 125.3, or a 25 per cent increase over its 1926 value in wholesale markets.

Foreigns at Year's Low.

Wholesale commodities in the leading foreign markets showed marked weakness in price last week, as the indexes for England, France and Germany reached their year's lows.

The English wholesale commodity index dropped by 0.56 per cent to complete the sixth week of declining prices and to show a total loss in this period of 3.2 per cent.

The situation has been similar in France, with the level off by 0.13 per cent last week. The total drop in France from November 1 to date is 1.8 per cent.

Prices in Germany held up through November 15, but broke sharply to date, showing a loss of 2.1 per cent in the last four weeks, with a drop of 0.87 per cent last week.

Week ended—	Price index (1926 equals 100).	Index of buying power of $ (1926 equals 100 cents).
December 13	79.8	125.3
December 6	80.7	123.9
November 29	80.6	124.1
Year ago	92.6	107.9
November average	81.4	122.8
October average	82.6	121.0
1929 average	96.3	103.9
1928 average	98.2	101.8
1927 average	94.2	106.2
1926 average	100.0	100.0
1925 average	105.2	95.1
1924 average	98.9	101.1
1923 average	101.1	98.9

Commodity Groups at New Lows.

The decline in wholesale commodity prices last week was almost universal, with only textiles, miscellaneous products and chemicals showing any resistance to lower levels.

Semimanufactured goods and raw materials were the weak spots, dropping by 2.12 and 1.28 per cent, respectively. Finished goods were off by 0.72 per cent.

Agricultural products continued to be the chief offender, taking a loss of 1.82 per cent last week. A loss of 0.37 per cent was scored by nonagricultural products. On the basis of the marked weakness in agricultural products, the purchasing power of farm products dropped by 1.36 per cent to the years low of 94.2.

Farm products and foods were off by 1.6 and 1.4 per cent, respectively, last week, with cotton, eggs, grains, beef, hogs, coffee, butter, lard and pork largely responsible for the break.

Hides and leathers, off by 3.7 per cent, and metal products, off by 1.2 per cent, carried the nonagricultural index down, while fuel and building materials dropped by less than 0.2 per cent. The entire hides and leathers list was weak. Copper, tin, rosin, turpentine and linseed oil were the weak spots in the other groups.

(Copyright, 1930, Irving Fisher Syndicate, Inc.)

Wall Street Briefs

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—New municipal financing scheduled for award this week amounts to $43,705,476, compared with public offerings in this group of $16,939,000 last week, the Bond Buyer reports. The largest issue to be placed is $15,000,000 City of Philadelphia 50-year bonds; callable in twenty years, to be placed Monday. Boston will sell an issue of $6,680,000 4 and 3½ per cent bonds Tuesday; Houston, Tex., $3,730,000 improvement bonds Monday; Atlantic City, $3,250,000 tax revenue notes Thursday; Providence, R. I., $3,000,000 in 4s Friday; New Rochelle, N. Y., $2,071,000 improvement bonds Tuesday, and Salt Lake City, $2,000,000 tax anticipation notes Wednesday.

John J. O'Brien, president of Standard Gas & Electric Co., announced that the company's construction budget for 1931 will total $43,596,257, including an additional generating unit of 35,000 kilowatts capacity at the Riverside plant of the Northern States Power Co. in Minneapolis; a hydroelectric station of 40,000 kilowatts capacity for the California-Oregon Power Co., and two transmission lines connecting the Minnesota Valley steam plant at Granite Falls, Minn., with other parts of the Northern States Power Co. system.

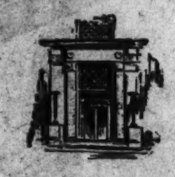
The Kroger Grocery & Baking Co. announced that, beginning Monday, January 5, it will use the thirteen-month calendar and will operate under thirteen periods of four weeks each, each period consisting of 28 days. The announcement pointed out that the arrangement will aid in making more accurate comparisons of sales, will eliminate split pay rolls and will aid in establishing the basis for a more accurate cost system.

New bond issues scheduled for offering tomorrow include $6,000,000 first-mortgage and refunding 20-year 5 per cent gold bonds, series B, of Virginia Public Service Co.; $4,134,000 City of Baltimore, Md., 4 per cent bonds, due 1938 to 1957, and $3,750,000 West Texas Utilities Co. first-mortgage 5 per cent bonds, due October 1, 1957.

Safe
Profitable
Convenient

FIRST MORTGAGE NOTES

Secured on homes and revenue producing properties in the District of Columbia and adjacent Maryland suburbs. Permit us to offer our facilities for the placing of your investment funds . . . May we tell you more of our present offerings.



H. L. Rust Company
1001 Fifteenth St. National 8100
ESTABLISHED 1889

National Savings & Trust Co.
64th Year
Oldest Savings Institution in the District of Columbia
Cor. 15th and New York Ave.

Capital & Surplus $3,500,000

Christmas Cash Sent to All Parts of the World

Christmas is Always Merry for the Thrifty

—because its extra demands have been amply provided for through zealously banking something every pay day, throughout the year.

¶Suppose you inaugurate such a plan This Fifteenth. We'll be glad to pay interest on your deposits and give them the protection of the Oldest Savings Institution in Washington.

OFFICERS:	DIRECTORS:
WILLIAM D. HOOVER.....President	JAMES J. BECKER
WOODBURY BLAIR.....1st V. Pres.	WOODBURY BLAIR
FRANK STETSON, 2nd Vice Pres. and Trust Officer	WM. A. H. CHURCH
CHAS. C. LAMBORN.....Treasurer	WALTER C. CLEPHANE
E. PERCIVAL WILSON.....Secretary	H. ROZIER DULANY, Jr.
FRANK E. ULLMER.....Asst. Treas.	FRANKLIN H. ELLIS
BRUCE BAIRD.....Asst. Tr. Officer	H. PRESCOTT GATLEY
DAVID BORNEY.....Asst. Tr. Officer	WILLIAM D. HOOVER
JOHN W. CALVERT.....Asst. Treas.	WALTER BRUCE HOWE
W. BILES FARDOE.....Asst. Treas.	REGINALD S. HUIDEKOPER
ALEXANDER J. FANT.....Asst. Secy.	VICTOR KAUFFMANN
JOHN M. BOTELER.....Asst. Secy.	EDMUND D. SHEEHY
AUDLEY A. F. SAVAGE.....Auditor	FRANK STETSON
	WILLIAM H. WALKER
	WILLIAM B. WILLARD
	HARLEY P. WILSON

Open Until 5:30 P.M. Dec. 15th and 16th

LOANS ON HOMES and Business Property
5½ & 6%
Run for 5 Years Without Curtailment
Wm. H. Saunders Co., Inc.
Founded 1887
District 1016 1519 K
Loan Correspondent for the Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia

Real Estate Loans
(D. C. Property Only)
6%
No Commission Charged
You can take twelve years to pay off your loan without the expense of renewal. $1,000 for $10 per month, including interest and principal. Large or small loans at proportionate rates.
PERPETUAL BUILDING ASSOCIATION
Established 1831
LARGEST IN WASHINGTON
Assets Over $23,000,000
Cor. 11th and E N.W.
JAMES BERRY, President
EDWARD C. BALTZ, Secretary

SPECIAL DINNER 11:30 to 8:30 P.M. $1.25
BUSINESS MENS 75 CENTS LUNCH
HOTEL HARRINGTON
11½ AND E STS. N.W.

AMERICAN TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY
Ten-Year Convertible 4½% Gold Debenture Bonds Due July 1, 1939

Coupons of these bonds, payable on January 1, 1931, will be paid in New York at the office of the Treasurer, 195 Broadway, or in Boston at his office, 125 Milk Street.

These bonds by their terms are convertible at the option of the holder into stock of the Company but not beyond December 31, 1937. The conversion price for the balance of the year 1930 is $166.88 per share; beginning January 1, 1931 it is $175.46 per share. A circular setting forth the terms of conversion will be furnished upon application to the Treasurer.
H. BLAIR-SMITH, Treasurer.

EQUITABLE
Co-Operative Building Association
Organized 1879
51ST YEAR COMPLETED
Surplus and Profits.....$1,815,855.92
Assets.....$5,901,122.48
Save While You Have the Opportunity
Join the Equitable and save systematically. Our Plan will meet with your approval.
Subscriptions of the 100th Issue of Stock Being Received
Shares $2.50 Per Month
EQUITABLE BUILDING
915 F Street N. W.
JOHN JOY EDSON, President
WALTER S. PRATT, Jr., Secretary

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN SOCIETY CIRCLES OF CAPITAL

Bibesco Play Will Be Made Grand Opera

Former Minister of Roumania Winning Recognition.

PRINCE ANTOINE BIBESCO, quondam Roumanian Minister to the United States, is receiving somewhat belated recognition in this country. His comedy, "Ladies All," is an established success on Broadway, and now comes word that a grand opera is to be based upon it, the work of Donati Campezze, a distinguished Italian composer.

The opera will be called "Laquelle," the original name of the play, which was produced in Paris before it had its American debut. It will have a libretto by Luigi Pirandello, perhaps the most distinguished Italian playwright of today. The world premiere of "Laquelle" will be held at La Scala Opera House in Milan.

Since leaving Washington, Prince Bibesco has been serving as Roumanian Minister to Spain, but he spends part of each year in Paris, where he occupys a suite in an historic hotel on the Ile St. Louis. There he and Princess Bibesco dispense frequent hospitality to Parisian cosmopolites.

The daughter of the late Lord Asquith, once British Prime Minister, and of the famous Margot Asquith, Princess Bibesco has achieved considerable literary distinction in her own right as the author of several successful novels.

Mrs. Gann Guest At Club Luncheon.

Mrs. Edward E. Gann, sister and official hostess of the Vice President, is the guest in whose honor Mrs. Harry K. Daugherty will entertain at luncheon today at the National Woman's Country Club. There will be 40 in the company.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Stimson will be guests of honor at a dinner tomorrow evening to be given by the German Ambassador and Frau von Prittwitz.

Frau von Prittwitz attended the Russian concert at Constitution Hall on Saturday evening. With her was Mrs. Tracy Dows.

Minister of Denmark Will Arrive Today.

The new Minister of Denmark, Otto Wadstead, and Mrs. Watstead will arrive in New York today and will be met by the Danish Consul in New York. M. and Mme. Wadstead will come immediately to Washington, where the former will assume his new duties at once. Mme. Wadstead is a South American, having lived in Montevideo, Uruguay, before her marriage. They will make their home at the Mayflower.

M. Wadstead is successor to M. Constantin Brun, who recently retired from the Diplomatic Corps, although he will continue to live in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar T. Crosby have closed their country home, View Tree Hall, Warrenton, Va., for the winter. Mrs. Crosby has gone to join her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hornblow, jr., in Beverley Hills, Calif., and Mr. Crosby will spend several weeks in Washington and New York and later make a short visit to London.

Mrs. Howell Peoples has as her guest, Mrs. Morton G. Douglas, of Warrenton, Va., who will spend several months here.

Patronesses for the Washington concert of the Cornell University Musical Clubs at the Shoreham Hotel December 29, a concert to be followed by a dance, are announced by the Cornell Club, of Washington, as follows:

Mrs. Edward E. Gann, Mrs. Harlan F. Stone, Mrs. Charles P. Adams, wife of the Secretary of the Navy; Mrs. Ray Lyman Wilbur, wife of the Secretary of the Interior; Mrs. Charles S. Baker, Mrs. Delos Blodgett, Mrs. Herbert D. Brown, Mrs. H. Edmund Bullis, Mrs. W. A. Graham Clark, Mrs. Lewis Painter Clephane, Mrs. Charles Conradis, Mrs. L. C. Corbett, Mrs. Frederick V. Coville, Mrs. Charles Henry Curry, Mrs. W. F. Darling, Mrs. Henry M. Eaton, Mrs. Wade Ellis, Mrs. Frederick P. Espenschied, Mrs. A. Ward Evans, Mrs. Creed W. Fulton, Mrs. Warren C. Funk, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. F. A. Holton, Mrs. K. Kellerman, Mrs. Paul E. Lesh, Mrs. George W. Lewis, Mrs. David Lumsden, Mrs. Adams Stratton McAllister, Mrs. Frank W. Mondell, Mrs. Furman Lloyd Mulford, Mrs. J. Nelson Nevius, Mrs. Frank K. Nebeker, Mrs. H. G. Nichols, Mrs. James S. Parker, Mrs. James Parmelee, Mrs. Lewis Radcliffe, Mrs. Walter H. Rastall, Mrs. L. D. Sisco, Mrs. John M. Stedman, Mrs. Harrison Stidham, Mrs. Mark Sullivan, Mrs. William White, Mrs. Meredith Chester Wilson, Mrs. O. L. Vershoff and Mrs. William Hector von Bayer.

The Governor of the Panama Canal Zone and Mrs. Harry Burgess are the guests in whose honor the Chief of the Bureau of Efficiency and Mrs. Herbert D. Brown entertained at dinner Friday night.

Dr. William Gerry Morgan has returned from Los Angeles, where he delivered an address at the dedication of the new Los Angeles County Hospital. While in Los Angeles he was the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Wellborn, jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus W. Peckham, of New York, entertained a company at the Club Chantecler supper dance on Saturday evening.

Other Chantecler hosts on Saturday evening were Mr. Hugh Riley, Mr. J. H. Cranford, Mr. F. H. Bryan and Mr. S. E. Cochran.

Maj. Gen. John L. Clem, U. S. A., retired, will leave today for San Antonio, where he will join Mrs. Clem for the winter.

The President of the University of Wisconsin and Mrs. Glenn Frank will arrive in Washington today and will be the honor guests at tea this afternoon of Miss Elizabeth Patterson, who will entertain at her home in Stoneleigh Court.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank will be the guests for whom Miss Patterson will give a dinner tomorrow night.

Miss Alice L. Fowler, of New York, is a guest at the Powhatan for several days.

Mr. Stephen Bonsal, war-time correspondent, will be the speaker at the Congressional Club on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Frances Homer will give a talk at the club, January 9.

Members of Official Family

Harris & Ewing.

MRS. CHARLES P. GEORGE, wife of Maj. George and daughter of Vice President Curtis, with her two attractive children, Ann and Charles Curtis. Maj. George came here in the autumn for duty at Fort Myer.

Italian Envoy Will Entertain Mr. Toscanini

Philharmonic Conductor Will Be Guest at Embassy Board.

The Italian Ambassador and Donna Nobile de Martino will entertain at dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Arturo Toscanini, who will conduct the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra at a concert tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 at Constitution Hall.

Always one of the gayest of the musical treats offered during the season in Washington, a number of box parties have been planned by Capital matrons for the concert.

Miss Dorothy Nicholson and Miss Louise Campbell have returned from New York, where they went to attend the Army-Navy game on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Post Wheeler have arrived in New York from the former's post at the United States Embassy, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Mrs. Post Wheeler, known in the world of romance readers as Hallie Erminie Rives, will spend a few days in Washington, the guest of Mrs. Ollie James, widow of Senator James, of Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Lawson-Johnston, who are in New York with the latter's daughter, Mrs. George Grant Mason, jr., will accompany her to Havana for the Christmas holidays to be with Mr. Mason. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson-Johnston will come to Washington and open their place, Kentsdale, in January.

Mr. and Mrs. David A. Pine entertained a small company at dinner at the Shoreham on Saturday evening, the guests remaining later for the supper dance. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Garnett, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Sexton and Capt. and Mrs. Aaron Bradshaw.

A card party for the benefit of St. Thomas Church and its rural mission work will be given at the Shoreham Hotel January 15. It is planned to have 150 tables for bridge with prizes for each table and two door prizes.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the event includes Mrs. Nellie Bartholomew, Mrs. Robert Bourke, Miss Jane Bradley, Miss Mary Burke, Mrs. Harry Carroll, Mrs. D. J. Callahan, Mrs. Adelaide Cavanagh, Mrs. D. B. Casley, Mrs. John Cammack, Mrs. Bernadette Dore, Miss Margaret Dore, Mrs. Alexander Eustace, Miss Raphael Ellis, Mrs. Samuel Hoover, Miss Sarah Hickey, Miss Nan Hickey, Mrs. L. Gardner Moore, Miss Mary McInerney, Miss Mary Rover, Miss Katharine Rover, Mrs. M. Frank Ruppert and Mrs. D. E. Spangler.

Miss Janet Richards at her weekly talk this morning on "History in the Making" will discuss the age-long conflict between the executive and legislative branches of government, which has been resumed in the present Congress. The outstanding events in the most turbulent of foreign countries will also be reviewed, followed by a list of half a dozen current books of exceptional interest in relation to public questions. The talk will be given in the Masonic Temple, Thirteenth street and New York avenue at 10:45 o'clock, and will be the last talk until after Christmas.

Attending School Here

Underwood & Underwood.

MISS MARY ISAM, of Scarsdale, N. Y., who is attending school here this season. She is the niece of Mrs. C. S. McReynolds, of 3725 R street.

Boy Scouts to Erect Tree.

Boy Scouts of Troop 23, which is connected with the Eastern Presbyterian Church, will erect a Christmas tree on the church lawn Saturday. The tree will stand throughout the holidays.

British Nobles To Be Guests Of Lindsays

Marquess and Marchioness of Milford Are Due This Winter.

Interest of the diplomatic set is centered about the forthcoming visit of the Marquess and Marchioness of Milford Haven, who will arrive in this country this winter to be guests for a week or more of the British Ambassador and Lady Lindsay at the embassy here. This will be their first visit to the United States, and during their sojourn in Washington several fetes will be given in their honor by the Ambassador and Lady Lindsay, as well as by members of the embassy staff.

Lord Milford Haven is a near kinsman of the British royal family, and his wife, Lady Milford Haven, is a daughter of the late Grand Duke Michael of Russia. Born the Countess Nada Torby, she is noted in London for her beauty and charm.

The Italy-America Society of Washington will hold its first meeting of the season tonight at the home of Mrs. Thomas W. Phillips, jr. Dr. Franco Bruno Averardi will speak on "Eleanore Duse as I Have Known Her." Italian Ambassador and Mme. de Martino are expected to attend.

Our Grandfathers' Models in
ELECTRIC CLOCKS
Are Infallible Gifts

Sketched—Time keeper of Colonial design; mahogany case, $60.

Mahogany Corner Clock, pier cabinet style $40

Colonial Hall Clock with Chimes. Electric; mahogany case $130

Midget Size Electric Hall Clock; mahogany case.....$60

Other Electric Clocks, $7.95 to $250

DULIN & MARTIN
Connecticut Ave. and L
PARKING SERVICE—Connecticut Avenue Entrance

Read The Post's New Classified Ads

Just This Week Left For Christmas Sittings

Six previous days during which to make your appointment. And how easy it is to get glorious portraits for Christmas gifts. Just phone now to Decatur 4100. Arrange a convenient time. See your proofs the next day and receive your finished prints right on time.

Lovely Christmas portraits, $20 the dozen up. And exquisite frame just to fit. Really quite the nicest kind of gift you could choose. Studio hours 8:30 to 5:30.

UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD
Portraits of Quality
1230 Connecticut Avenue — Telephone Decatur 4100

Breslau
1307-9-11-13 G St. N.W.
Even This Year's Low Prices For the Finest
Women's & Misses
Fur-Trimmed
COATS
Cut In Half
½ Price COAT SALE
$25 Coats Now $12.50
$35 Coats Now $17.50
$49.50 Coats Now $24.50
Other Coats Proportionately Reduced
BRESLAU'S—
1307-13 G St. N. W.

Apartment
PIANOS
FOR RENT
WORCH'S
1110 G N.W.

For Christmas
A PERMANENT WAVE
Regularly $10.00... $6.50
Eugene or Realistic. Expert Operators. Includes hair trim, two shampoos and finger wave.
Phone Nat. 8225
WHELANS
1105 F St.
"Beauty Shoppe," Third Floor

FIREPLACE EQUIPMENT
D. L. BROMWELL, Inc.
723 12th St. N. W.

Hundreds of Styles to Choose From GRUEN WATCHES
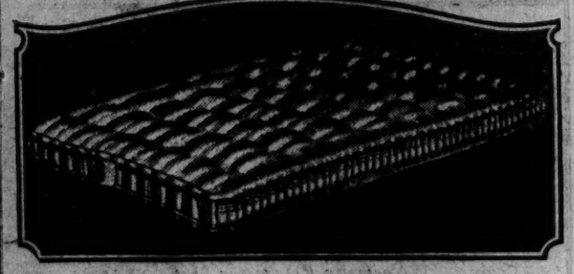
NATIONALLY KNOWN
For Christmas Gifts

From $35 up
From $27.50 up
Paul's
WATCH SHOP
REPAIRING
Phone Natl. 0757
1322 G St. N.W.



Make Your Mattress New

Let us put your mattress in our electric oven where 230 degrees of heat will kill any lurking germs. Then the felt or hair is thoroughly cleaned—its resiliency restored.

A charming new ticking is put on and you have a new mattress at very little cost. For as little as $4 to $9, we will make your old one new, or we will convert it into the new coil spring type at a cost of only $12.50 to $22.50.

ZABAN'S
903 E St. N. W.
National 9410-9411

As You Near the End of the Trail . . .

Complete your Christmas Quest happily—for yourself and all concerned—with Leather
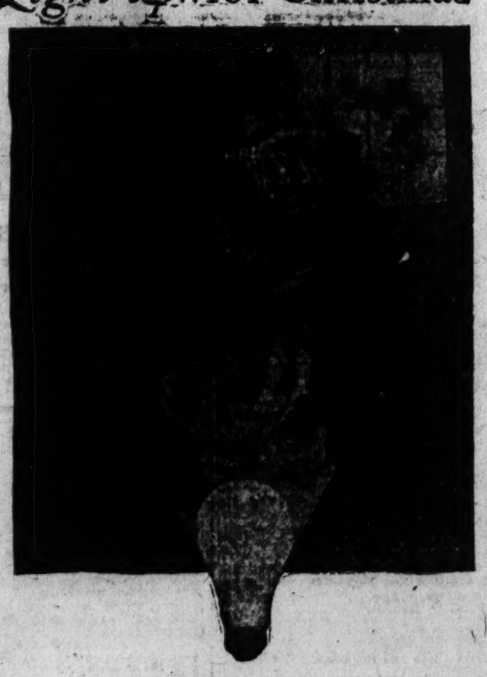
GIFTS
of Lasting Loveliness

WHETHER you have one or a dozen gifts remaining on your list—what could be more appropriate to express your good wishes than some lovely and useful leather gift from Camelier & Buckley? Chosen as inexpensively as you like, gifts from this store are sure to please the most discriminating man or woman on your list.

Camalier & Buckley
Fine Leatherware
1141 CONNECTICUT AVENUE
Two doors above the Mayflower.

All Gifts Tastefully Monogrammed Without Additional Charge

Light up . . for Christmas



2 LOVING CUPS TO BE AWARDED FOR BEST DISPLAY

A committee of judges will award two beautiful loving cups to the most tastefully decorated home and business communities. You are urged not to make your display pretentious or expensive. Awards will be based upon originality and decorative beauty only. Complete details may be secured by calling The Electric League of Washington, District 1899.

Cups on Display in Eleventh St. Window, R. Harris & Co., 11th and F Sts. N.W.

This year, let the friendly warmth of twinkling lights say "Merry Christmas" to your friends and passers-by. The decoration of lawns and shrubberies of homes with colored lights for Christmas, is now as much of a Yuletide custom as is the Christmas tree.

Strings of colored lights for decorating porch columns, trees, house eaves, flower boxes and windows are very inexpensive, as are also electric candoliers and wreaths. They will last for many years to come and may also be used to decorate at various other times during the year. Any Electric League member or your neighborhood electric dealer will gladly offer suggestions without obligation to you.

THE ELECTRIC LEAGUE of WASHINGTON, D. C.

Listen in on WRC, Tuesday, Dec. 16, at 7:15 P. M.

RADIO
GARDEN HINTS
BRIDGE

FEATURES of INTEREST to WOMEN

HOME HINTS
HOROSCOPE
FASHIONS

DIAL FLASHES

By ROBERT D. HEINL

IF Gen. Charles McK. Saltzman, chairman of the Federal Radio Commission, will uncork some of his humorous remarks tonight, as he did when addressing the Broadcasters in Cleveland, he might pull in a few fan letters instead of being tuned out if he tries anything too deep. (WRC—8:15 p. m.).

It is to be regretted that the talk by Isabel MacDonald, daughter of the Prime Minister of Great Britain, from London yesterday could not have been next Sunday, a little nearer to Christmas. Although not a ready speaker, Miss MacDonald's appeal was nevertheless a moving one and will doubtless do much good.

Every one of the more than 600 broadcasting stations in the United States are urged by Col. Thad Brown, head Radio Commission lawyer, to aid in effecting a business revival by engaging speakers to assure listeners of the fundamental soundness of American industry.

In the meantime Guy Lombardo and orchestra will knock off broadcasting in Chicago long enough to collect $5,000 for playing one night at a dance in Wilmington, Del.

ALOIS HAVRILLA probably the first announcer thus to become immortal, will be the subject of an oil painting and subsequently an etching by Miss Margery Ryerson.

Paderewski is reported to be about ready to fall for the radio in the United States. Profiting by an experience he had in England he is said to be shrewdly making his concert tour at box office prices before giving listeners a chance to hear him free.

The call letters of station WACO, Columbia's newest chain link, spell the name of the town in which it is located—Waco, Tex.

A member of the women's emergency employment committee, Mrs. Vincent Astor, will speak tonight (WRC, 10:30 p. m.).

THE higher they are the harder they fall. Paul A. Greene, 6-foot bachelor, has quickly paid the penalty for the prominence thrust upon him of being night manager at the Columbia broadcasting studios in New York City.

From the beginning, Paul, formerly of Station WSAI, Cincinnati, has been looked upon with envious eyes by the feminine visitors, but the end to this is in sight with the announcement that he has been captured by no lass a celebrity than Adele Vasa, opera songbird, and one of the most popular radio sopranos.

Great Britain's head traveling salesman, the Prince of Wales, will give sales executives in the British Isles a few pointers at their meeting in Guildhall, London, tomorrow afternoon (WJZ, 4:40 p. m.).

Tuning in from Central Europe, a listener may hear broadcasting stations using twenty different languages. In the United States, at the most, it is only possible to hear two languages besides our own—French in Canada and Spanish in Mexico and Cuba.

President Roosevelt, who probably never heard a voice broadcast through the air, once remarked that the strength of the United States was largely based upon the fact that we had but one language.

ANDY: I see where they may have another filibuter in Washington.

Amos: What's a filibuster?

Andy: That's where everybody in the Senate re-splodes at once.

RADIO PROGRAMS

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15.

LOCAL STATIONS.

(Eastern Standard Time.)

WRC—National Broadcasting Co.
(316 Meters, 950 Kilocycles.)

6:45 a. m.—Health Exercises.
8:00 a. m.—Phil.
8:15 a. m.—Morning Devotions.
8:30 a. m.—Cheerio.
9:00 a. m.—Morning Melodies.
9:45 a. m.—A. & P. Program.
10:00 a. m.—"Safeguarding Your Food and Drug Supply."
10:15 a. m.—Hits and Bits.
10:30 a. m.—Jean Carroll.
10:45 a. m.—Hits and Bits.
11:00 a. m.—Blue Streaks.
11:15 a. m.—Radio Household Institute.
11:30 a. m.—Organ Melodies.
12 (noon)—Eglineers.
12:15 p. m.—Farm Flashes.
12:30 p. m.—National Farm and Home Hour.
1:30 p. m.—Mayflower Orchestra.
2:00 p. m.—Organ Recital.
2:30 p. m.—Melody Three.
3:00 p. m.—Current Events.
3:15 p. m.—Musicalites.
3:30 p. m.—Sixteen Singers.
4:00 p. m.—Concert by the United States Marine Band, Capt. Taylor Branson conducting.
5:00 p. m.—Lady Next Door.
5:30 p. m.—Tea Timers.
5:50 p. m.—Report of the National Industrial Conference Board.
6:00 p. m.—News Resume.
6:10 p. m.—Start and Stop.
6:15 p. m.—Mormon Tabernacle Choir and Organ.
6:30 p. m.—Dan-Dee Bakers.
6:00 p. m.—Amos 'n' Andy.
7:15 p. m.—Tastyeast Jesters.
7:30 p. m.—Phil Cook.
7:45 p. m.—Roxy Theater Program.
8:00 p. m.—"How's Business?" by Merle Thorpe.
8:15 p. m.—"Radio and the Federal Government," by Gen. Charles McK. Saltzman, Federal Radio Commission.
8:30 p. m.—A. & P. Gypsies.
9:30 p. m.—General Motors Family Party.
10:00 p. m.—Adventures of Sherlock Holmes—"The Crooked Man."
10:30 p. m.—Talk by Mrs. Vincent Astor, under auspices of Women's Emergency Employment Committee.
10:45 p. m.—Symphonic Rhythm Makers.
11:01 p. m.—Astor Orchestra.
12:00 (mid.) to 1:00 a. m.—Edgewater Beach Orchestra.

WMAL—Columbia Broadcasting System.
(475.9 Meters, 630 Kilocycles.)

8:00 a. m.—Tony's Scrap Book.
8:15 a. m.—Brad and Al.
8:30 a. m.—Morning Devotions.
8:45 a. m.—Newsy Jingles.
9:00 a. m.—"Opening the Morning Mail."
9:30 a. m.—United States Navy Band Educational Concert.
10:00 a. m.—Ida Bailey Allen.
10:30 a. m.—Harmonies and Contrasts.
10:45 a. m.—Mirrors of Beauty.
11:00 a. m.—"Christmas Cookies."
11:15 a. m.—The Market Basket.
11:30 a. m.—Timely Topics—Senator Arthur Capper.
11:45 a. m.—Mr. Fixit.
12 noon—Paul Tremaine's Orchestra.
12:30 p. m.—Revue.
1:00 p. m.—Musical Aviators.
1:30 p. m.—Ambassador Orchestra.
2:00 p. m.—Evan Evans, Barytone, and Marion McAfee, Soprano.
2:30 p. m.—School of the Air—"Alexander Hamilton."
3:00 p. m.—Columbia Salon Orchestra.
3:30 p. m.—Ann Leaf, Organist.
4:00 p. m.—United States Army Band Concert.
4:30 p. m.—Herbert Gordon's Orchestra.
5:00 p. m.—Gypsy Music Makers.
5:30 p. m.—My Bookhouse Story Time.
5:45 p. m.—News Flashes.
6:02 p. m.—WSPD Commodores — Dance Music.
6:31 p. m.—Paul Tremaine's Orchestra.
6:45 p. m.—Tony's Scrap Book.
7:00 p. m.—Current Events.
7:15 p. m.—Vagabonds.
7:30 p. m.—Thelma Callahan, pianist.
7:45 p. m.—"Listening-in on Jimmy and Jane."
8:00 p. m.—Voice of Columbia.
8:30 p. m.—Arabesque.
9:00 p. m.—Mardi Gras.
9:30 p. m.—An Evening in Paris.
10:00 p. m.—Robert Burns Program.
10:30 p. m.—Nit Wit Hour.
11:00 p. m.—Herbert Gordon's Orchestra.
11:30 p. m.—Fletcher Henderson's Orchestra.

WOL—American Broadcasting Co.
(229 Meters, 1,310 Kilocycles.)

7:30 a. m.—Musical Clock.
8:00 a. m.—Chimes and Birthdays.
8:10 a. m.—Musical Clock.
10:00 a. m.—"Holiday Cookies," by Peggy Clarke.
10:20 a. m.—Public Service Man.
10:30 a. m.—Ron and Don, at the Organ.
11:00 a. m.—Chimes.
11:01 a. m.—Helpful Hints to Parents.
11:20 a. m.—Clothes Personality.
11:30 a. m.—Half Hour with Famous Composers.
12:00 noon—Luncheon Music.
3:30 p. m.—Good Afternoon.
3:45 p. m.—Tea Time Chat.
4:15 p. m.—Bill Herron, Guitarist.
4:30 p. m.—Edith Reed's Children.
5:15 p. m.—Courtland Ferguson, Aerial Columnist.
6:20 p. m.—Musical Interlude.
6:30 p. m.—Jerry Cook's Ambassadors.
6:02 p. m.—Public Service Man.
6:05 p. m.—Sambo and Ed.
6:15 p. m.—Fox Theater Program.
6:30 p. m.—Howard Moore, Barytone; Gladys Marks, Soprano.
6:45 p. m.—Jewel Downs.
7:30 p. m.—William F. Samayoa, Pianist.
7:20 p. m.—News Flashes.
7:30 p. m.—Jerry Harp's Orchestra.

Monday Microphonings

9:30 a. m. (WMAL)—Navy Band educational concert.

6:30 p. m. (WRC)—Dan-Dee Bakers.

7:30 p. m. (WMAL)—Thelma Callahan, pianist.

800 p. m. (WRC)—"Is Business Better?" Merle Thorpe, United States Chamber of Commerce.

8:15 p. m. (WRC)—"Radio and the Federal Government," by Gen. Charles McK Saltzman.

9:00 p. m. (WMAL)—Mardi Gras.

10:00 p. m. (WRC)—Adventures of Sherlock Holmes, "The Crooked Man."

10:00 p. m. (WJZ) — Rochester Civic Orchestra.

WJSV—Independent Publishing Co.
(205 Meters, 1,460 Kilocycles.)

9:00 a. m.—Down South.
9:05 a. m.—The Town Crier.
9:30 a. m.—Musical Program.
9:40 a. m.—Our Creed for Today.
9:45 a. m.—Hints to Housewives.
10:00 a. m.—Cookies and Small Cakes.
10:30 a. m.—Style Talk.
11:00 a. m.—Making Christmas Worth While.
11:15 a. m.—Old-Fashioned Gospel Song Service.
12:05 p. m.—Musical.
12:15 p. m.—Kiddies' Letters to Santa Claus.
12:45 p. m.—Radio Revival.
2:00 p. m.—Afternoon Musicale.
3:00 p. m.—Studio Program.
3:30 p. m.—Whoopee Party.
4:15 p. m.—Children's Hour.
5:00 p. m.—Science and History.
5:15 p. m.—Musical Novelties.
5:45 p. m.—Congress of Today.
6:00 p. m.—News Flashes.
6:15 p. m.—Classified Hour.
6:45 p. m.—Police Bulletin.
7:00 p. m.—Dinner Music.
7:31 p. m.—Alexandria's Hour.
8:00 p. m.—Chimney Villa Orchestra.
8:30 p. m.—Kaiua Boys.
8:45 p. m.—Margaret Ringrose, soprano.
9:00 p. m.—Alexandria American Legion Program.
9:30 p. m.—Monty and Skippy.
10:00 p. m.—Tropical Islanders.
10:30 p. m.—Dance Program.

CHAIN STATIONS.

(Associated Press.)

Program in Eastern standard time. P. M. unless otherwise indicated.

454.3—WEAF New York—660 (NBC Chain).

6:00—Dinner Music.
6:30—Who's Behind a Name?
7:00—To be announced.
7:15—World Today.
7:30—Queerialities.
8:00—How's Business?
8:15—In the Nation's Capital.
8:30—Gypsies.
9:30—Family Party.
10:00—Sherlock Holmes.
10:30—Rhythm Makers.
11:00—Florence Richardson's Orchestra.
11:30—Heidt's Orchestra.
12:00—Spitalny's Orchestra Hour.

348.6—WABC New York—860 (CBS Chain).

6:45—Schutt and Cornell.
6:45—Tony's Scrap Book.
7:00—Current Events.
7:15—The Vagabonds.
7:30—Evangeline Adams.
8:00—Topics in Brief.
8:00—Voice of Columbia.
8:30—Arabesque, Modern Stories.
9:00—Mardi Gras.
9:30—An Evening in Paris.
10:00—Guy Lombardo's Orchestra.
10:30—The Nit Wits.
10:30—The Wizard.
11:00—Musical Aviators.
11:15—Broun's Radio Column.
11:30—Henderson's Orchestra.
12:00—Dance Music.

394.5—WJZ New York—760 (NBC Chain).

6:00—The Goldbergs.
6:15—Mormon Choir.
6:45—Topics in Brief.
7:00—Amos 'n' Andy.
7:15—The Jesters.
7:30—Phil Cook.
7:45—Roxy and His Gang.
8:30—Shavers.
9:00—Victor Young's Orchestra.
9:30—Real Folks, Sketch.
10:00—Rochester Civic Orchestra.
10:30—Empire Builders.
11:00—Slumber Hour.
11:00—Amos 'n' Andy.

272.6—WPG—1110.

8:00—Soprano; Tenor.
9:00—Concert Orchestra.
10:30—Sports Talk.
11:30—Dance Music.

282.8—WTIC—1060.

7:00—Strings.
7:15—Talk; News.
7:30—Concert.
10:00—The Cameos.
10:30—Classic Concert.
11:00—News; Madcaps.

422.3—WOR—710.

6:30—Sports; Orchestra.
7:15—Music Doctor.
7:30—Piano Twins.
7:45—Songs and Comedy.
8:00—Enchanting.
8:30—Sponsored Program.
9:00—Weber & Fields.
9:15—Russian Revels.
9:45—Minstrels.
10:15—Riviera.
10:45—Globe Trotter.
11:00—Orchestra.

428.3—WLW—700.

6:00—University Talk.
6:15—Hotel Orchestra.
6:30—Variety.
7:15—Sponsored Program.
7:30—Orchestra; Feature.
10:00—Vision-Aires.
11:00—Variety (2½ hours).

270—WEVA—1110.

7:30—Orchestra.
8:00—Timely Tips.
9:00—Pianist; News.
9:30—Concert.
10:30—Dixie Singers.
11:00—Hotel Orchestra.

Jane Interprets the Mode

This afternoon frock has its own beguiling simplicity, and is of black crepe de chine, with novel yoke and cuffs of white. (Courtesy of Philippe et Gaston, Paris).

Paris, Dec. 14.

IT is a relief to know that after the gay and hectic holiday season we can (the lucky we's) flutter down to the balmy Southlands for a month or so of play in the sun.

On the all-important question of our clothes, little jackets are very prominent. These jackets are short, often with a peplum and often, too, simulating a bolero. Most of the suits are complemented by a gay scarf of contrasting color.

Bathing suits and beach pajamas are more brilliant and exotic than ever before, and bright, glowing orange is the favored color. And the material? Transparent velvet! Yes, my deahs—even for the bathing suit trunks. They are specially waterproofed, or rather made proof against spoilage by water!

The material situation for the Southland is an amusing one this year. Printed fabrics are used in every conceivable way! Suits of plain lightweight wool have their blouses and packet linings and scarfs of printed crepe. A smart and youthful suit of black linen printed with large white dots has an accompanying blouse of white linen with black dots. Dotted organdie is used conspicuously for evening frocks. Daintily flowered organdie forms charming little afternoon frocks with tiered skirts and jaunty little peplums. Brilliantly printed crepes and chiffons are important, too, for afternoon frocks, and a much wiser choice for lovely ladies who are not of the youthfully slender type so flattered by organdie.

And for those languorous evenings 'neath a drifting moon, what lovelier than long, softly full lace gowns, of white or dainty pastels?

* * * *

Once you get the children's presents off your mind, and your list, you can really settle down to enjoy the Christmas season, can't you? And all the things you see in the stores are certainly awfully expensive, too, this time of the year. So your own Dah-ray just sat her down and worked out directions for making children's presents this year—and o-o-o-oh how charming they turned out to be! Do send your stamped, self-addressed envelope right off to the Dare Department of The Washington Post for this illustrated leaflet. You'll be surprised—and delighted—to see how these attractive toys can be made so inexpensively!

* * * *

What about this scarf question? Goodness knows, it's a very important one these days, because no wardrobe is complete without two or three of them, at least. And who can wonder, when one sees how unusual and intricate they are. One of wool crepe, for instance, is shirred at the ends and at intervals along its length. Another one in three shades of the same color has godets set into one corner of each end. Little wool crepe scarfs with ends of fur to match a little fur beret are becoming very popular, and they're so-o-o becoming to the jeune fille.

In these and other ways too numerous to mention do scarfs dress themselves in bright colors and interesting fabrics, and combine their practicality with the utmost in chic.

* * * *

Black and white again? Yes, and did you ever see it combined more delightfully than it is in this Philippe et Gaston afternoon frock of black crepe de chine? I couldn't resist the opportunity to show you the quaint little way the pleats go right from the yoke to the hem, where they flare noticeably. The unusual yoke and the wide cuffs are white, of course. O-o-h, it's dresses like this that make the feminine world acknowledge the artistry of Paris!

* * * *

In addition to all this, there's always worth-while information in Dare's weekly fashion letter. It's always worth-while information in Post.

Au Revoir!

(Copyright, 1930.)

Uncle Sam's Home Hints

BROILED HAMBURG STEAK ON ONION RINGS.

(Bureau of Animal Industry.)

2 cups of ground lean raw beef.
¼ cup ground suet.
1 cup soft, fine bread crumbs.
7 strips of bacon.
7 slices Spanish onion one-half inch thick.
3 tablespoons butter.
2 teaspoons onion juice.
½ teaspoon salt.
⅛ teaspoon pepper.
1 tablespoon water.

Lay the slices of onion in a buttered shallow baking dish. Pour over them two tablespoons of melted butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper, add water, cover closely and bake in a moderate oven for 30 minutes or until tender.

In the meantime, cook the chopped parsley in one tablespoon of butter and combine with the beef suet, crumbs and seasonings.

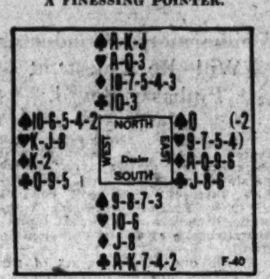
Knead until thoroughly mixed. Mold into seven flat cakes and wrap each in a slice of bacon. Place each cake on an onion slice in the baking dish and broil under direct heat for five minutes on each side. Baste occasionally with the drippings. Serve at once from the baking dish. If it is not convenient to broil the meat cakes by direct heat, pan broil them in a hot skillet and serve on onion slices.

American Toys Win Market.

Manila, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—American-made toys, because they are stronger and of better materials, are gaining in the Philippine market in competition with German and Japanese toys, says the United States trade commissioner's office here.

WORK ON BRIDGE

A FINESSING POINTER.



With the above hand South bid one Club and after West's pass, North bid three No Trumps. That completed the Contract Bridge bidding.

At Auction, after South's Club, North would have become the Declarer with a bid of one No Trump.

In the play, East led the Four of Hearts, and West's King was captured by North's Ace. North then led a Club, winning in dummy; and the Trey of Spades was the next lead from dummy, the Jack finesse being taken. East won with the Queen and continued the Hearts, establishing the suit. After that, all that the Declarer took was two Spades and one Club; so he won only six tricks in all.

Do you see how this catastrophe could have been avoided?

THE CORRECT PLAY.

North, winning the first trick, should have appreciated that even if he could succeed in establishing South's fourth Spade and his Spade Jack finesse would win, it would give him a total of eight tricks only—four Spades, two Hearts and two Clubs. The chances were against the establishment of the Spade because six adverse cards are usually divided 4-2. Exactly the same percentage of chance was against establishment of dummy's Clubs, but success in an effort to make them good would have netted two extra tricks instead of one, and only three Spades would have been needed for game.

A Club from North and a duck in dummy should have been the play to trick 2. When the adversaries won that and led a Heart, North winning should have led the Ace of Spades before continuing the clubs. Supposing that he succeeded in taking four Club tricks, he would want to take three Spade tricks in addition. It is always wise if possible to postpone a finesse until the second round, so North should have led the Ace of Spades before South led small for the finesse. East's singelton Spade Queen furnishes a good illustration of the wisdom of this move; as the Clubs were evenly divided, it would have resulted in game.

(Copyright, 1930.)

GOOD NEWS, BRIDGERS.

We are pleased to announce we can now renew the offer of Milton C. Work's great Contract and Auction bpoklet entitled the PLAYING PROBLEMS. Bridgers who received copies from previous offers are most enthusiastic over it.

PLAYING PROBLEMS presents eighteen hands, the complete auction and contract bidding for each hand with reasons for each bid, the answers to every question and the reason for each answer in complete detail.

PLAYING PROLEMS which will be of much greater value to the auction and contract player than many high-priced textbooks, is not for sale. It has been prepared exclusively for readers of The Washington Post by special arrangement with Mr. Work. One copy will be mailed to you upon request if you send self-addressed stamped return envelope, together with 6 cents in stamps to defray part of the cost of printing and handling this 48-page booklet. Requests not complying with these conditions will be ignored. Address Milton C. Work, care Washington Post.

What Today Means to You

By MARY BLAKE

"SAGITTARIUS."

IF December 15 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8 a. m to 10 a. m., and from 6 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. The danger periods are from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 10 p. m. to 11 p. m.

Astrological influences on this date will have a quieting effect on your mind, and some deep study may uproot hidden truths. A little physical danger from ill health or accident. A friend upholds your good name.

The child born on this December 15 will have a quiet, unassuming nature and a lovable disposition. It will have high principles, and will know how to play a straight game. It will be burdened with responsibilities at an early age, but its back will not become bent.

You possess many of the qualities which win life's victories. You can, and do rely upon yourself, your own skill and ability, instead of relying upon the support of others. You have initiative and resourcefulness and do not wait for others to head the line. You do not intend to walk in anybody else's shadow. You can concentrate your mind on anything you wish, and your memory is a reliable one.

To many you seem a little bit "high brow," because you are interested in the serious things of life, and are a deep thinker. Superficial people and you have very little in common with each other. You are awkward when you try to jest and play—tragedy is more your role than comedy. You never mind how foolish other people may be, so long as they do not drag you off from your dignified perch to join them. A "picnicky" life does not appeal to you; your life must be an orderly and a systematic one. You have many favorite ruts, and you are going to cling to them. You think you jeer at love, but what you are really jeering at is sentimentality. Your heart is as breakable as any other person's, and it will not always remain whole. You are not entirely immune from jealousy, although all your emotions are well under control.

Successful people born December 15:

Samuel Johnston, Governor of North Carolina.
Thomas H. Perkins, philanthropist.
Edwin H. Blashfield, artist.
Frederick Harris Goff, banker.
Gilbert Colgate, soap manufacturer.
Cecil Arden, mezzo-soprano.

(Copyright, 1930.)

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. W. A. EVANS

To the limit of space questions pertaining to hygiene and prevention of disease will be answered in this column. Personal replies will be made to inquiries, under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual disease.

CATCHING COLD.

THOSE who hold that getting the feet wet, becoming chilled, and sitting in a draft make them catch cold are finding considerable support in the reports which come from physiological laboratories. These same reports confirm the opinions of complainers who have had to fight for their right to think they were uncomfortable when they were. Some folks tried pretty hard to make them think it was only imagination, and they were really having a fine time, in spite of their supposed cold feet and gooseflesh.

Dr. E. F. Ward used very delicate instruments to determine just exactly the temperature of the skin in different locations and the relation of these temperatures to a feeling of general comfort or one of general discomfort. He found that the temperature of the skin of the forehead and of the neck a little to the side were a good index of comfort.

If the accurately taken skin temperature in these two locations ranged between 87.8 and 89.6 degrees Fahrenheit the person felt uncomfortably cold. On the other hand, when the temperature of these regions were recorded as 95 to 96.8 the person felt warm, had a fever, or was too hot for some other reason. The normal range of temperature of the skin, measured in these regions, was between 88.7 and 95.9 Fahrenheit, and the temperature at which there was the greatest feeling of comfort was 92.3.

The mother who judged of whether or not her child had fever by feeling the skin of the forhead seemed somehow to have hit on a good plan. Of course, the method came to her out of folk practice. It grew up in the day when we had no thermometers and we checked on complaints of fever by the feel of the brow.

Some of the mothers also learned that another dependable place to feel was the side of the neck down toward the chest. The method goes wrong if the mother's hands are wet or cold, or if the child has had cold cloths on his head, or has been fanned.

Bit by bit evidence accumulates that the blood supply to different parts of the body and, therefore, the heat of different parts, is subject to constant change. Some of these changes register as discomfort. Some, as liability to disease.

DUE TO AN INFECTION.

R. S. M. writes: I am a boy of 17, and I have a touch of arthritis, which, I was told, is more like rheumatism.

1. Is this true?
2. Is it curable?
3. Am I allowed to bathe in salt water or cold water?
4. What is the cause of this disease? Mine is mostly in the hips.

REPLY.

1. It is customary to call all forms of arthritis rheumatism.
2. It ought to be.
3. Probably so; but your physician will know better than I.
4. Some infection. The infection enters the body through the mouth and nose, the digestive organs, pelvic organs and occasionally through other gateways.

(Copyright, 1930.)

What Will I Give?
If it's Embroidered—
If it's appliqued—
If it's trimmed with fine lace—
If it's pure milanese glove silk—

it's a most acceptable gift for any fastidious woman. Bloomers, panties, pyjamas, gowns, chemises—$3.95. Vests at $3.

Grey Shops—Second Floor.

We Park Your Car While You Shop With Us.

The New JELLEFF'S

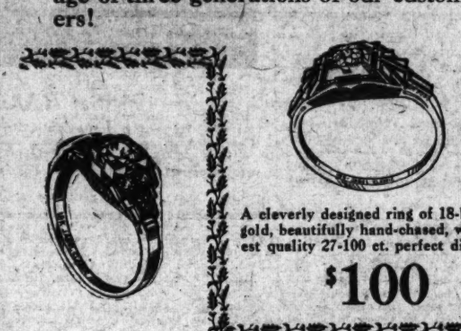
Goldsmith's
DIAMONDS

The perfect gift! Only the very highest quality of diamonds are sold here, and each is priced to give you the utmost value. That's why we enjoy the patronage of three generations of our customers!



A cleverly designed ring of 18-k white gold, beautifully hand-chased, with finest quality 27-100 ct. perfect diamond.

$100

Perfect, finest color 27-100 ct. diamond in all platinum ring with 4 small diamonds.

$150

Other Solitaires $50 to $2,500

An exceptionally lovely, brilliant 52-100 ct. diamond of finest quality and perfection, set in a fashionable ring with smaller diamonds.

$250

—CHARGE YOUR GIFT PURCHASES—

Goldsmith & Co.
1225 F Street, N.W.
NEAR THIRTEENTH STREET

YOUR NAME
What Does It Mean?

By HARRY A. DEFERRARI, Ph. D.

THE personal and family name "Harvey" (also spelled "Hervey") is the English form of the French "Herve." "Herve" is derived from the Germanic "Heriwig," which was an old personal name meaning "army-war." Some authorities believe that "Herve" is derived from the Breton language and means "bitter" and "severe," but this does not seem probable. As a personal name "Harvey" was extremely common in England up to the beginning of the fourteenth century, after which time it fell into disuse. However, within the last two centuries it has again become popular because of the growing practice of using family names for personal names. Old English records frequently show the Latinized forms "Herveus" and "Harveus." The Hundred Rolls mentions the names of Harvey Dunnyng, Warin Hervi, Robert Hervei and Herveus le Gros.

The family name "Dibble" is found in the earliest English records. It is a shortened form of the personal name "Theobald." "Theobald" is ultimately of Teutonic origin, and means "people-bold." A certain William Dible is mentioned in the Hundred Rolls.

The family name "Zepp" is of German origin. It is a diminutive form of the earlier "Zapfe." "Zapfe," which still exists as a family name, really means "spigot" and "tap," and was first given as a nickname to persons who sold beer. In certain parts of Germany it has now taken on the extended meaning of "the drinker."

The personal name "Algernon" is of French origin. It was obviously first given as a nickname since it means "with the moustache."

Watch this column every day. Your name will appear here.

(Copyright, 1930.)

For Those Who Like
HOME MADE CANDY

Through a special arrangement with the publisher, The Washington Post is privileged to offer a limited number of copies of

"Home Candy Making"
By F. E. CHASE
An Attractively Bound Booklet That Normally Retails for $1

For Only
25c

And the Coupon Printed Below.

The 122 pages of this booklet contain complete instructions for making candy at home and formulas for all varieties that can conveniently be made in the ordinary kitchen.

Copies Can Be Obtained at the Office of The Post or Will Be Mailed to Any Address With the Receipt of 5c Additional, to Cover Postage.

USE THIS COUPON

NAME .....

ADDRESS .....

This coupon and 25c will be accepted as full payment for the booklet "Home Candy Making," by F. E. Chase.

The Washington Post
"The Capital's Greatest NEWSpaper"

SHOW GIRL — Old Ben, Just in From Africa — By J. P. McEvoy and J. H. Striebel

WITH DIXIE GOING TO LEAD THE BIG CHRISTMAS FETE, PAGEANT AND HIGH SOCIETY KNOCKING AT THEIR DOOR— ALL LOOKS ROSY FOR THE DUGANS
WE'VE GOT SO MANY INVITATIONS TO DINNERS, BALLS, AND WHAT NOT, UNCLE RED — WE'LL JUST HAVE TO THROW A PARTY OURSELVES SOON
YOU SAID IT! —ONE THAT'LL MAKE THE TOWN SIT UP! —AND HANG THE EXPENSE
BUT DOWN STAIRS A STRANGER FROM DISTANT AFRICA ARRIVES
SO THERE IS OLE RED'S DIGGINS—BLAST ME HIDE! WID A GENERAL STANDING GUARD! AYE, AYE, THERE!
A GENTLEMAN TO SEE MR. RED DEVIL DUGAN
WHAT! IT CAN'T BE— YES! — BEN WHISKERS!!! WHY BEN, YOU OLD LEATHERSKIN! WHAT BRINGS YOU HERE?!
I'VE PLENTY T'TELL YA, RED—BUT I'D BETTER LIKE T'TALK IN PRIVATE
HE LOOKS TERRIBLY SOLEMN —WONDER WHAT HE'S GOT TO TELL UNCLE RED
? ?
McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N. Y.

HEALTH HINTS FICTION RECIPES

FEATURES OF INTEREST TO WOMEN READERS

SOCIETY PATTERNS CHILDREN

Hollywood Screen Life

By HUBBARD KEAVY.

Hollywood—Had the men who go to equatorial jungles in search of film thrills lived in other ages they probably would have been first class adventurers, discoverers of new continents or maybe even seekers of the legendary Holy Grail.

EDWINA BOOTH

There are about a half dozen of these who bring to the world every few months a story previously untold in celluloid that has been obtained at the risk of their health and sometimes their lives.

F. W. Murnau, who directed the artistic "Sunrise," is back from the South Sea Islands with "Tabu," and Ernest Schoedsack recently returned from the Antipodes with one called "Jungle War."

The African jungle is the background of "Trader Horn," directed by W. S. VanDyke, who took a company including Harry Carey and Edwina Booth to the actual location. Much of that story is being re-shot here owing to poor film and changes in the story.

Mileage.

Schoedsack is a typical example of the movie adventurer. In ten years he has traveled 150,000 miles in 41 countries.

He started piling up mileage when, at 17, he ran away from his home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and came to Hollywood. He was a cameraman for two years, when the war started.

Armistice Day found Schoedsack in Paris with a desire to go places and film things. There was plenty of thrilling material in Europe at that time, including the bolshevik revolution. Schoedsack was captured by Russian soldiers, but with others he shot his way out of a prison camp.

Secret Trips.

A three-year expedition around the world in a 90-foot yacht ended when a storm threw the boat onto the coast of Arabia. It took the cameraman and his companions fourteen days to reach habitation.

Fourteen months ago Schoedsack, accompanied by his wife and a cameraman, left without a single good-by for an unannounced destination.

In a roundabout way months later business friends learned that Schoedsack was in Borneo. He is getting ready to go again, but he hasn't said where.

Guiding Your Child

By MRS. AGNES LYNE.

FORCED LEARNING.

The intelligent young mother of today is much impressed with the need of teaching the toddler to help himself.

In consequence she frequently expects far too much and forces him laboriously to struggle with buttons, water-taps and shoestrings long before he is interested in handling these things.

Whenever a child is forced to do something in which he is not interested and which requires of him a great deal of conscious effort he is likely to acquire distaste for the task. Six months or a year later he would do the same things eagerly and competently at the first trial.

The distaste which a child thus acquires later on prevents successful accomplishment. The little child who is forced to go through the motions of self help before he is interested in them may really be slower in learning to wait upon himself than the child whose mother gives no particular thought to the matter.

The same principle holds good for forcing children to learn reading at an early age. Some children learn to read without help at the age of 4 or 5.

Others are not psychologically ready for the task even when it is already included in the school curriculum. In many schools the time when the child is taught to read is set not by his age but by his own evidenced interest in learning to do so.

All forced learning is uphill work. The time to teach a child anything is when he himself is eager to learn.

Wives of Tomorrow

FRANCES M'DONALD

Temporary Marriage.

IF all the theories relative to marriage and associated miseries were laid end to end we would still not have any solution of the problem. And one reason is that all the theorists speak of marriage as if it were any ordinary contract. It is not and it never will be.

Laura, who wrote this column some time ago, berating a wife who refused to give up her husband so that Laura might marry him, faithfully represents these theorists. Laura declared that the wife "did not matter," only love matters and now the husband loved Laura—and not his wife. We want to know who decided that "only love matters," and since when? The man involved is the father of two small children. Do they matter? Where do all these loosely hinged theories come from?

Just listen to the correspondent who calls herself "Free Woman." Did you ever hear such senseless reasoning?

Dear Frances McDonald:

Do you realize that we are no longer living in the dark ages or the day of woman's slavery? Laura, who wrote you regarding the primitive attitude of a certain wife, received scant comfort from your reply, I feel sure. I have no hope that you will publish my message to Laura but perhaps by reading some modern views, you may yourself benefit thereby. In the first place, the law of the land recognizes the rights of all the Lauras who happen to be unlucky enough to meet their fate subsequent to his marriage to some one else. The law frees the man. Why then would you, if you had your way, chain him to a woman he no longer loves? Are you above the law—or beneath consideration? Which?

You tell Laura in effect that she has no rights. All the rights are for the woman who happened to see him first. What is the idea? Is Laura to live her life beyond the pale because you and a few other antiquated busybodies believe the old love until death formula? Could you promise honestly to "love till death?"

Marriage is the business of no one but the two persons involved. Only brazen impertinence accounts for the interference of others. Laura is right in her estimate of the female who insists upon holding a man who is sick of the sight of her and in love with another woman. Decency demands that she relinquish the man. Love alone justifies possession. I know whereof I speak. Let Laura claim her man, and let him face the world like a man with the woman he loves, instead of meekly dragging at the heels of the one who seeks to hold him without the least moral right.

FREE WOMAN.

And all this would be fine if it were not so far from fact. In the first place the "law of the land," in granting divorce, is not recognizing the rights of the "Lauras" but the rights of the wives involved. Divorce is granted to the injured party—usually with damages in the form of alimony. So we are not aligned against the "law of the land."

Second, marriage ceases to be the business of only two people when children are born. That particular marriage then becomes the business of unaccountable generations to come. And any child on earth matters more than any love on earth. A child has a claim upon humanity that outrates any claim. A child is a victim of the acts of others. A helpless victim of the biologic urge. And the child's rights come before the romantic adventures of those who brought him into being. Truth to tell, the so-called loves of most philandering fathers last just about long enough to upset the home, wreck the child's nerves, then it is time for another big thrill. Marriage involves the rights of the helpless. That is why it interests busybodies like us!

Indoor and Outdoor Gardens

By JANE LESLIE KIFT

A WREATH FOR EVERY GARDEN.

THINK what the effect would be if this were true. It would, indeed, be a case of "shout the glad tidings."

We can not all have a Christmas tree, but surely we can have a wreath and a few sprigs of green. Somehow Christmas would not be merry without them. Not until we hang our wreaths and arrange our other holiday decorations do we really seem to enter the Christmas spirit.

The kind of wreaths we select is merely a matter of taste. In the Eastern and Southwestern portions of our country some of the berry-bearing shrubs are most popular; in colder places spruce or pine are used. Any Christmas greens are lovely.

The pine wreaths, with their little bunches of dull brown cones peeping out from among the shadows, seem to bring us a special message from the woods. Their very fragrance is suggestive of the great outdoors. Small hemlock or spruce branches lend themselves to wreath making.

The beauty of the evergreen wreaths is always enhanced by a bow of scarlet ribbon. If you are decorating an empire wreath always place the bow about the base or widest portion. If perfectly circular you may tie the bow any place. Always use a good quality of ribbon for this purpose, and be careful to choose a scarlet red—never a red with a tint of blue in it. I suggest a good quality of ribbon because on a Christmas wreath the quality always shows.

Red immortelles make brilliant wreaths, but we can not forget that they are dried flowers, so we never enjoy them quite as we do those made from evergreens. Did you suggest that they are more durable? Well, I must grant that one point in their favor. And should they fade they can be made easily as bright as when you purchased them by merely dipping them in a pan of dye.

If you do use red wreaths of any of the various varieties of dried grasses, never tie them with a red or white ribbon. This may be a popular fad but it is not an artistic one. A dark green bow with an added sprig of evergreen or artificial holly always enhances the beauty of any red wreath and carries out the Christmas color scheme. Some of the imitations of heather or even the real dried heather, looks well tied with a bow of Scotch Tartan. This was quite popular last year and bids fair to be much sought after this year. Such a wreath will be sure to gladden the heart of a Scotchman. Heather, when dried, somehow does not seem as cheerful as other blossoms; but it is unique, and, after all, to many that always makes an appeal.

(Copyright, 1930.)

Like Butterflies

the cyclamen blossoms emerge from their tight little cocoon buds, and hover on curved stems over the plant.

If you've never watched the exquisitely soft petals of mauve or white or delicate peach unfold day by day, you have a treat in store for you.

You will find directions on soil and care in a leaflet prepared especially for readers of this column, and which you may have simply by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope for mailing to

JANE LESLIE KIFT,
Care of The Washington Post.

All readers' questions on growing and care of indoor and outdoor flowers and floral decorations for social functions will be answered by Miss Kift, directly in this column if addressed in care of The Washington Post, or directly to readers if a self-addressed stamped envelope is supplied.

AFTER SHOPPING
a teaspoonful gives appetite for dinner. Also delicious on grapefruit.
ANGOSTURA
DR. SIEGERT'S

Fairy Tales Praised As Aiding Imagination

Vienna, Dec. 14.—Fairy tales are the most important literature of childhood, Prof. Karl Buhler has remarked in defense of this type of stories for children.

The fairy tale encourages rapid and varied changes of the image content, and it is full of sudden transformations of all kinds, from cook to poodle, from princess to lively red geranium, from giant to wolf, the professor says in a book he has written, called "The Mental Development of the Child."

Secure reliable help quickly with a Post Classified Ad. National 4205.

Men's Grimy Trousers Start Coed's Ruction

Palo Alto, Dec. 14.—The coeds at Stanford University have expressed indignation over the dirty-trouser fad of the males, which they say should be prohibited, according to a recent survey.

While dirty cords may mean a saving in men's laundry bills, it has increased the cleaning expenses of the coeds, the fair ones exclaim.

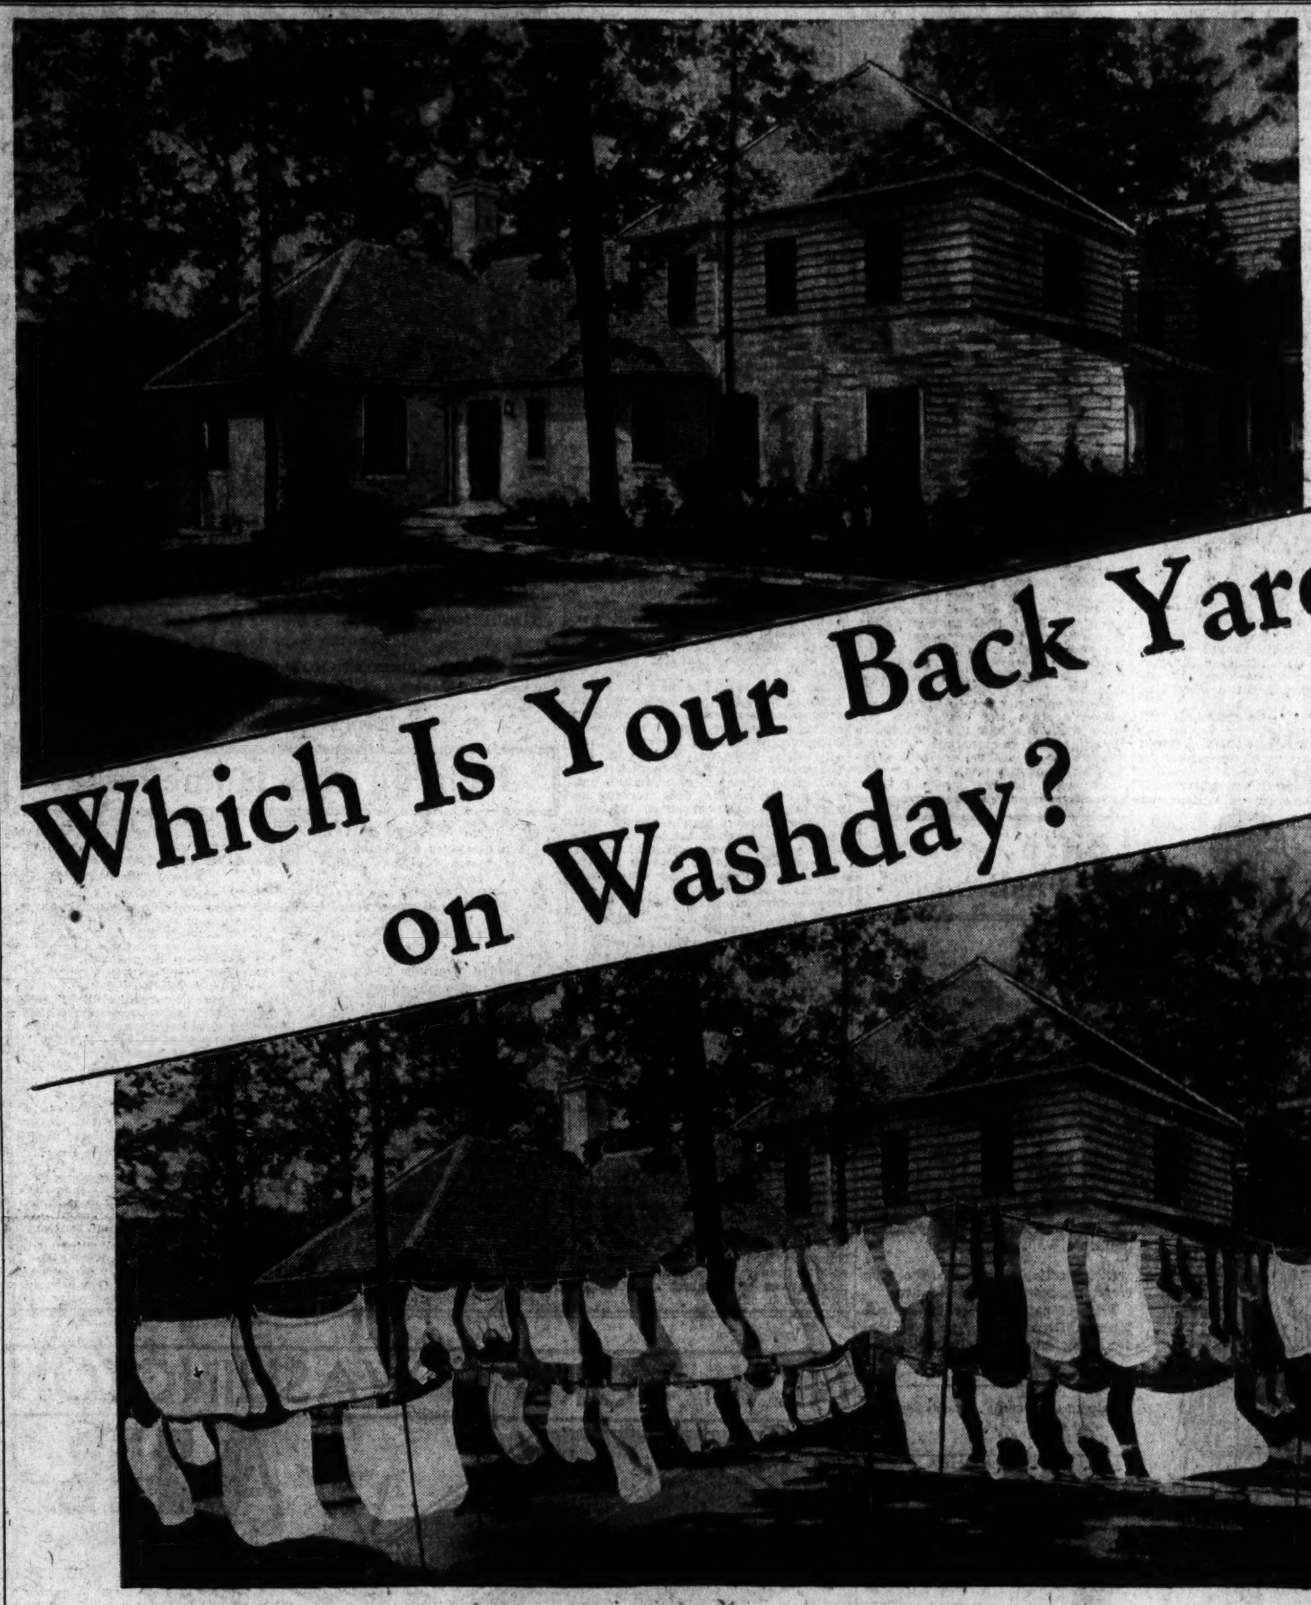
The chairs in the library and classrooms have become so darkened by the rubbing of dirty cords, the coed survey states, that the average flannel skirt is due for the cleaner after wearing it one day.

Muscles Make Noise Like Static on Radio

London, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The sound of muscles in action has been broadcast by radio here.

Bryan H. Matthews, talking on animal electricity, demonstrated the strength of electricity in his own body of amplifying the current and passing it to a loud speaker. With varying degrees of muscle action the volume of sound, which seemed to radio listeners much like ordinary static, increased or lessened.

Post Classified Ads. render invaluable service to readers and advertisers.



Which Is Your Back Yard on Washday?

MANHATTAN Relieves You of the Entire Washday Burden and Saves You Money By Saving Your Clothes

NO MORE washday drudgery. No more upset households. No more frayed dispositions—when you send your clothes to Manhattan. You'll find this the happiest, healthiest and—most important of all—the most economical way to settle washday. Here, in Manhattan's famous Net Bag System of Washing, your clothes get the best possible care. And in three days your things are home again. The column at the right tells how to banish the work and worry of washday and save money in the bargain.

PHONE DECATUR 1120

MANHATTAN LAUNDRY

"We Save You Money by Saving Your Clothes"

Modern Laundry Saves Money By Saving Clothes

Manhattan Expert Explains Net Bag System

FAR SUPERIOR TO OLD HOME METHODS

Clothes Actually Look Better And Wear Longer

Present-day laundry methods, which preserve clothes as well as clean them, are far superior to the old home method of rubbing and scrubbing, according to Mr. E. F. Wesely, chief of the Research Department of Manhattan Laundry. Mr. Wesely attributes a large part of the Manhattan Laundry's success to their Net Bag System of washing.

Manhattan Laundry, long a pioneer in developing better laundering methods, adopted the Net Bag for washing clothes six years ago. Clothes, they agreed, could be washed just as clean in net bags and would wear longer if rubbing and scrubbing were eliminated. Today, Manhattan still features the Net Bag System, and the activities of the Laundry's Research Department are constantly directed toward the perfection of cleaner and safer methods of washing clothes. Manhattan Laundry justly deserves the slogan: "We Save You Money by Saving Your Clothes."

Manhattan famous Net Bag System of washing, as described by Mr. Wesely, follows: First, the clothes are assorted according to their color and material into individual net bags which bear the customer's name and contain only that customer's articles. Safe in the nets and protected from all metal or other hard surfaces, the clothes go into the washers. Here they are subject to the gentle cleansing action of swirling hot suds which penetrates every single thread of each garment and loosens every particle of dirt. Only the purest of Palm Oil soaps and soft, filtered water are used in washing, after first having been inspected and tested by the Research Department. Many rinsings of fresh, clear water follow, removing every speck of dirt from the clothes and leaving the fabrics refreshed and clean. They are then dried, starched where necessary and ironed by the most modern methods.

That clothes wear longer and look better when washed in Net Bags has been proven by test after test. For instance, two shirts, exactly the same, are washed fifty times each, one in a net bag, the other by hand. At the end of the test the net-bag washed shirt showed absolutely no signs of wear, while the hand-washed shirt had become a sad combination of rough edges, torn seams and broken buttons. Other tests on all sorts of wearing apparel are being carried on regularly and in every case show the Net Bag System to be far superior in preserving the original sheen of the cloth. At Manhattan the Nets Get the Wear and the Clothes Get the Wash.

THREE-DAY COLLECTION DELIVERY

Manhattan Renders This Additional Service With No Extra Charge

Quite another Manhattan feature which has found great favor with Washington housewives is their 3-Day Collection and Delivery Service. In this highly developed system your clothes are collected one day, laundered to your order the next and delivered to you promptly the afternoon of the third day. For instance, if your clothes are collected Monday morning they are delivered Wednesday afternoon; called for Tuesday, back home Thursday, and so on. No delay. No worry. You know when you'll get your clothes when Manhattan has them. And there is no additional charge for this extra service.

A SERVICE TO FIT EVERY PURSE

They Save You Money By Saving Your Clothes

Manhattan offers the housewife a wide selection of economical services—from Complete Finished Family to individual piece work. There is a service to fit every need and purse, and they all save you money by saving your clothes.

Damp Wash is the most inexpensive service of all. It costs only 5 cents a pound, and as small as an 80-cent bundle can be sent. Clothes are returned damp, ready for the line. THRIFT-T is another inexpensive service. Flat pieces are all ironed, but the wearing apparel is returned damp. Only 8 cents a pound with a minimum bundle of $1.

In the Rough Dry all the flat pieces are ironed, wearing apparel comes back ready to be ironed at home. Minimum bundle, 75 cents, only 10 cents a pound. Economy is another popular service. Everything machine ironed, flat work ready for use. Men's shirts, 10 cents each additional. Few other articles may need retouching. Minimum, $1.25, only 12 cents a pound.

All Ironed Ready to Use. This covers all classes of Family Finished Laundry Service. These Ready-to-Wear services are reasonably priced according to the degrees of niceties required. Our telephone operators will be glad to give any information regarding them.

There are many other Manhattan services to serve the housewife's every need. Shirts and Collars, Table and Bed Linens, Blankets, Rugs, Curtains and Dry Cleaning and Dyeing. They are all economical. They Save You Money By Saving Your Clothes.

HEALTH HINTS
FICTION
RECIPES

FEATURES of INTEREST to WOMEN

HOME HINTS
HOROSCOPE
FASHIONS

JEAN'S SANTA CLAUS—By Julie Anne Moore

CHAPTER XXV.

Jean did not know how long she sat there, her face buried in the crook of her arm on the desk. But when at last the hall door opened and she turned quickly to meet Sandy's questioning stare, she felt as if she had been wakened from a prolonged dream.

One hand on the back of her chair, the other grasping the edge of the desk, she watched him, waiting.

For a time Sandy stared at her curiously, questioning her unexpected appearance at the office, she thought. Then he took off his coat, threw it across a chair and laid his hat on top of it. His movements were slow, mechanical, and it was perfectly obvious that he was only vaguely conscious of what he was doing.

Jean thought that he was about to enter his office, but presently he faced her and said in a strangely strained voice: "The world is full of trouble, Jean * * *" He was looking at her, but there was that emptiness in his eyes that told her he was seeing nothing. "I thought," he added after a moment, "we had been brought close enough to tragedy when Fargeson was killed. Now * * *"

"You mean * * * Marcia?"

He saw her now. His eyes held hers, silently asking how she had divined his thoughts. "Lionel told you she was here?"

She noded. "There was a telephone call for you a little while ago."

He asked abruptly: "Do you know who it was * * *?"

"Yes * * * Police headquarters."

Sandy started nervously. Then, quietly: "They told you about * * * her?"

Jean nodded. "They found your card in her purse * * * Sandy * * *"

"Yes * * *?"

"How did you know about it * * *?" She knew she had no right to ask him, but she had to know.

Calmly he told her: "I was there, Jean. I * * * saw her."

Imperceptibly Jean drew back, avoiding his eyes.

Sandy must have seen what was in her mind, for he suddenly turned and walked across the floor, his hands deep in his trouser pockets. As suddenly he came back to her and dropped into a chair.

"Jean * * *"

She turned slowly and saw the pleading in his sober eyes.

Sandy said then: "I gave you reason to suspect me in the Fargeson * * * affair. To save someone else. But I'll swear I won't let you think I * * * I had anything to do with Marcia's death. * * * Will you believe me if I tell you the truth?"

But before she could answer, he went on: "You know what Marcia was. You knew it before I did. Remember the charges you made against her here? I thought you were mad, Jean. Don't forget I had known Marcia for almost a year and I thought she was everything noble, and beautiful. * * * But after you had gone that day, I made up my mind to learn the truth. I had never understood her friendship with Fargeson. He wasn't our kind, and I distrusted him. But she insisted he was one of the odd friends she had made in the Village; and I believed her. I believed her even after he had been killed and the papers had identified him as Sampson, the wholesale criminal. I thought she had simply been taken in by him. But——"

He hesitated as if trying to arrange his disordered thoughts. Then: "You know better than I can tell you what a fool I've been. But I couldn't bring myself to believe that Marcia had deceived me. * * * I went to see Miss Wood the same afternoon you were there. I showed her a photograph of Marcia. She couldn't be sure. Perhaps she was afraid of being dragged into the murder investigation. Perhaps she was trying to protect little Ellen. But when I left her it was with a feeling that you had made a dreadful mistake.

"A detective could have done a better job of it, of course; but feeling as I did about Marcia, I couldn't bring myself to that. You understand, I was prejudiced * * * in favor of Marcia. I couldn't believe what you had said of her, and I suppose I didn't want to believe it, even if I had thought there were grounds for suspicion——"

Jean said evenly: "You mean, * * * you loved her, so much, so much ——?"

He shook his head firmly. "No! I know now that I never loved her; and even if I did I should have loved her no longer after what I saw. * * *" He checked himself abruptly. "After Fargeson was murdered, I mean. Even an innocent friendship with a man of Fargeson's character was enough to undermine anything approaching love. * * * It was simply that I had befriended her, Jean, and had come to admire and respect her, and to believe in her implicitly."

"Then you still think I said what I did about her without really knowing?" Jean asked coldly.

"No, no! That was the hell of it, Jean. I didn't want to find out that instead of being a beautiful woman of impeccable character, she was an unutterable fiend. And yet, on the other side, I knew in my heart that you could never have accused her as you did unless you had been convinced of the truth of what you said. * * * In desperation, I finally went to the apartment last night to have it out with her, to ask her bluntly if she was Fargeson's wife, if she and Fargeson had conspired to * * * to rob me and ruin my character. But she wasn't at the apartment * * *"

Jean said: "Suppose she had been; do you think she would have admitted it?"

"Wait * * * I left a note asking her to come here to the office first thing this morning. * * * I don't know how much Lionel has told you; but she came * * *"

"And you asked her?"

Sandy nodded slowly. "But I didn't put it in the form of a question. I lied to her. I told her that I had positive proof that she was Fargeson's wife * * * She denied it, of course, but I saw the truth in her eyes. I saw it, and felt it, but until after almost an hour of storming she admitted it, I gave her the benefit of the doubt."

"Then she * * * she did admit it?"

"Yes. Everything * * * Fargeson—or Sampson—she said, had selected me as an attractive blackmail victim and had planned the whole thing. But after she had gotten me where they wanted me they delayed. Chiefly because she was getting a generous monthly allowance out of me, and Fargeson decided it would be more profitable to wait until I showed signs of growing tired of the arrangement. That would be time enough, he thought, to begin the gamble for bigger stakes. Marcia told me they were going to demand a cool half million for the return of all my letters and a promise of silence."

Jean gasped: "A half million dollars? But why, should they think you would pay for silence? Silence about what?"

"The truth is," he told her, "that I wouldn't have paid a dollar. But you see they had what they thought was enough to ruin both me and the I. P. P. in the eyes of the conventional * * * proof that I had 'kept' Marcia, in that I had given her some $50,000 during the past year. The letters were more damaging, the sort that any young man writes to a young woman with whom he thinks he's in love."

Jean's lips did not move, but her eyes said, "Poor, blind fool!"

"I know what you're thinking of me," Sandy told her. "But let me finish. * * * According to Marcia's story, Fargeson grew impatient and wanted to start blackmail at once. Then * * * it sounds ridiculous, but she almost persuaded me that she meant it * * * she said she realized suddenly that she had fallen in love with me and couldn't go on with their plan. She said she resorted to every possible excuse to delay Fargeson without admitting she would not be a party to his conspiracy. Then * * * as fate would have it * * * the night I took you there, Fargeson went to the apartment determined to force her to give him my letters. He wouldn't be put off and because she could think of nothing else to do, she said, she told him to wait while she went to her room for the letters. When she returned to the living room, she declared, he had been shot * * *"

Sandy suddenly got to his feet and leaned against the desk. "Do you know what she had the audacity to ask me here this morning? * * * She wanted me to marry her and make her 'an honest woman' * * * And when, with the best grace I could muster under the circumstances, I refused, she * * " he smiled grimly, " * * she tried to kill me."

"What! * * * Are you serious?"

Sandy nodded slowly. "Grabbed my paper knife and came very near to putting it through my heart * * * I suppose I lost my temper then. All I'm sure of is that I very nearly broke her wrist getting the knife away from her. Then I opened the door and told her to get out before I called the police. It was all I could do to keep from throttling her pretty throat. I * * * I must have been very nearly insane. After all I've done for her, and she * * * tries to kill me!"

"Yes," said Jean, with a return of the old suspicion, "she left and two hours later you followed her. * * * Why?"

Sandy said quickly: "To get my letters. What else? I meant to tear up the apartment if necessary. But * * * Well, you know what I found when I got there. She * * *" the telephone was ringing, but he ignored it * * * "she was lying on the floor in her bedroom * * * dead!"

Jean lifted the telephone, but did not take the receiver from the hook. "And the letters?" she asked, quickly.

Sandy took a neat bundle of letters from his coat pocket and tossed them to the desk. "They were on the floor beside her. She was apparently getting ready to put Fargeson's plan into effect."

At last Jean put the receiver to her ear and answered. Then: "Yes, I found Mr. Clause. * * * He * * *, he's on his way now. He'll be there in a few minutes, I'm sure."

"Police headquarters again?" Sandy asked quietly.

Jean nodded. "You'd better go immediately. They asked me to send you when they called before."

Like a man moving in a dream, Sandy got into his coat, took his hat, and walked toward the door. Hand on the knob, he turned back to her. "You believe what I've told you, Jean * * *?"

For an instant she met the challenge in his eyes, then looked off with a curious little jerk of her head. How could she believe him? The night Fargeson was killed, he was in the apartment building, if not in the apartment. She had seen him there and he had lied to her when she had told him as much. This morning he and Marcia had quarreled. He had left the office in such a temper that Lionel had been afraid he would do something irrational. This afternoon Marcia was murdered, and he admitted he had gone to the apartment, had seen her * * * dead * * * before anyone else knew of it. And yet * * *

"Sandy * * * it's all so hopelessly confusing. If only * * *"

Sandy said softly: "You mean, Jean, that the evidence is against me * * *?"

He had opened the door when Jean suddenly leaped from her chair and ran after him.

"Sandy * * *! Of course, I believe you * * *" She checked herself abruptly and took her hand from his arm. "But," she said then, a little coldly, "it's blind faith * * * I don't * * * understand anything."

Without a word, Sandy took her head between his hands and put his lips to her soft hair.

(Copyright, 1930.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

Will Study Rural Hygiene.

Geneva, Dec. 13 (A.P.).—The problems of rural hygiene will be studied on an international basis by a European conference called by the League of Nations for April 23, 1931, at Geneva. The conference delegates will include sanitary engineers, representatives of farmers' associations and health officers.

Fifth Avenue Fashions

It's vivacious!

The skirt is given new animation through two circular peplums posed around it just below the smooth-fitting hipline.

The panel effect from neck to hem is decidedly slimming feature.

This fascinating model of crepy patterned woolen in dark green may be copied exactly.

Style No. 802 comes in sizes 16, 18, 20 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust. The medium size takes 4⅛ yards of 39-inch material with ¾ yard of 39-inch contrasting and 7¼ yards of braid.

Other suitable fabrics are canton crepe, marocain crepe and velvet.

Price of pattern 15 cents. Address Fashion Department, The Washington Post, 406 World Building, New York City.

Inclosed is 15 cents. Please send to Write name clearly.

Street and Number.

City. State.

Pattern No. Size.

HOW IT BEGAN... By Russ Murphy

CHRISTMAS SEALS..
GODFREY OF LORRAINE, IN THE CRUSADES, SAW THE DOUBLE-BARRED CROSS IN JERUSALEM AND ADOPTED IT AS HIS COAT OF ARMS... WHEN THE INTERNATIONAL TUBERCULOSIS CONFERENCE WAS HELD IN 1902, DR. SESSIRON OF PARIS PROPOSED THE ANCIENT LORRAINE CROSS AS THE EMBLEM OF THE MOVEMENT.
BRIDEGROOM... THE WORD "GROOM" COMES FROM THE ANCIENT DUTCH "GROM" WHICH MEANS "A YOUNG MAN.... THUS STABLE GROOM MEANS "YOUNG MAN OF THE STABLE" AND BRIDEGROOM MEANS "YOUNG MAN OF THE BRIDE", ETC.
TO SHOW THE CLOVEN HOOF...
AN OLD TRADITION SAYS SATAN HAD THE CLOVEN HOOF OF A GOAT. HE COULD DISGUISE EVERY PART OF HIS BODY EXCEPT HIS FEET... FREQUENTLY WHEN TRYING TO TEMPT PEOPLE, HIS WILES WOULD BE EXPOSED BY THE CLOVEN HOOF.

TOMORROW—Saving One's Bacon; Why the Ship's Cat; Giving Him the Keys to the City.

If you have other ideas as to HOW IT BEGAN, write to Russ Murphy, care of The Washington Post. If you want to see how some other particular custom or saying began, let Russ Murphy know and his answer will be illustrated in this series.

Helping the Homemaker

BY LOUISE BENNETT WEAVER.

Shoulder of Lamb.

Stuffed Shoulder of Lamb
Mashed Potatoes
Creamed Carrots and Peas
Bread Currant Jam
Head Lettuce Russian Dressing
Peach Pudding Cream
Coffee

Stuffed Shoulder of Lamb.

Shoulder of lamb, about 5 pounds.
2 tablespoons flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
¼ teaspoon paprika.
1 cup water.

Have shoulder blade removed from lamb, leaving pocket which can be stuffed. Add the stuffing and sprinkle the lamb with flour, salt and paprika. Fit into baking pan. Add the water. Bake 15 minutes in hot oven. Cover with lid, reduce the heat and roast two hours. Baste frequently during the roasting.

Stuffing.

4 tablespoons butter.
2 tablespoons chopped onions.
2 tablespoons chopped celery.
2 cups bread crumbs.
½ teaspoon salt.
¼ teaspoon paprika.
2 tablespoons chopped parsley.
2 tablespoons hot water.

Heat the butter in frying pan. Add the onion and celery and cook slowly until browned. Add rest of ingredients. Mix lightly with fork.

Russian Dressing.

½ cup stiff mayonnaise.
2 tablespoons chopped ripe olives.
2 tablespoons chopped dill pickles.
2 tablespoons chili sauce.
2 tablespoons catsup.
1 tablespoon horseradish.
1 tablespoon lemon juice.
⅛ teaspoon salt.

Mix ingredients and chill. Serve on head lettuce or tomato salads. When adding chili sauce to this dressing it is best to pour it into strainer and use only the thick part.

Peach Pudding.

2 cups flour.
4 teaspoons baking powder.
1-3 teaspoon salt.
½ cup sugar.
¼ teaspoon nutmeg.
½ cup peach juice (from can).
2 eggs.
1 cup diced peaches (canned).
4 tablespoons butter, melted.

Mix the flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and nutmeg. Add peach juice and eggs and beat 3 minutes. Add rest of ingredients. Pour into shallow, greased pan. Bake 20 minutes in moderately slow oven. Serve warm and cut in squares. Other canned fruits can be used instead of peaches.

XXVII

BUYING MORE BUT SPENDING LESS

Even when money is scarce and everybody is trying to stretch incomes as far as possible A&P stores are crowdedjustlikethis.

More people are buying food in A&P stores today than ever before. Old customers are paying less for what they buy than they paid last year. And new customers are getting more for what they pay.

The ranks of A&P customers go right on growing in bad times as well as in good, because the public likes to get full value for its money.

Money goes far in A&P stores—not fast.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

NEW YORK • WASHINGTON

NOW - - DE LUXE 18-Passenger Planes

Starting December 15, new, giant airplanes will fly three times daily over the EASTERN AIRway between New York and Washington—with stops at Philadelphia and Baltimore. Travelers between these cities can now journey in the country's most luxurious air liners accommodating 18 passengers in perfect comfort.

Deeply-upholstered, tilting armchairs, heated soundproof cabin, smoking compartment—these are a few of many advantages of traveling via EASTERN—"the line that flies your mail."

Reservations at all principal hotels and travel agencies. Or, Phone for Rates and Information.

Washington Airport, National 3646

New York, Washington, Atlanta and Boston Service

COLONIAL AIR TRANSPORT, Inc.

(Read Down)		(Read Up)
Lv. 9:45 a.m.	Boston	Ar. 6:45 p.m.
Lv. 12:30 p.m.	Hartford	Lv. 3:00 p.m.
10:40 a.m.	Newark
1:25 p.m.
Ar. 11:35 a.m.		Lv. 10:00 a.m.
Ar. 2:34 p.m.		Ar. 11:50 a.m.

EASTERN AIR TRANSPORT, Inc.
New York (Hotel Pennsylvania-Bus)

Lv.	8:15 a.m.	Lv. 11:10 a.m.	Lv. 1:50 p.m.	Ar. 10:40 a.m.	Ar. 2:25 p.m.	Ar. 5:40 p.m.
	9:00 a.m.	12:00 noon	2:35 p.m.	9:55 a.m.	1:40 p.m.	4:55 p.m.
	9:50 a.m.	12:50 p.m.	3:25 p.m.	Lv. 9:15 a.m.	Lv. 1:00 p.m.	Lv. 4:15 p.m.
	10:45 a.m.	1:45 p.m.	4:20 p.m.	8:20 a.m.	12:05 p.m.	3:20 p.m.
Ar.	11:05 a.m.	Ar. 2:05 p.m.	Ar. 4:40 p.m.	Lv. 7:55 a.m.	Lv. 11:40 a.m.	Lv. 2:55 p.m.
Lv.	11:15 a.m.					Ar. 2:45 p.m.
Ar.	12:10 p.m.					Lv. 1:50 p.m.
*Lv.	12:40 p.m.					*Lv. 12:20 p.m.
	2:25 p.m.					Ar. 11:55 a.m.
	3:15 p.m.					Lv. 11:15 a.m.
	3:55 p.m.					10:30 a.m.
	4:15 p.m.					10:15 a.m.
Ar.	5:35 p.m. (4:35 C.S.T.)			(7:45 C.S.T.)		Lv. 8:45 a.m.

Washington
Richmond
Greensboro
Charlotte
Spartanburg
Greenville
Atlanta

*Gas and Lunch.

EASTERN AIR TRANSPORT INC.

AMUSEMENTS

R-K-O KEITH'S
NOW PLAYING
FAST AND LOOSE

FIRST CONCERT
PHILHARMONIC
SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA OF N. Y.
ARTURO
TOSCANINI
Conducting
TOMORROW—4:30 CONSTITUTION HALL
Program—SCHUBERT Symphony in B minor; BACH RESPIGHI Passacaglia; BRAHMS Symphony No. 1. Tickets $3.25, $3.00, $2.75, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00. T. Arthur Smith, 1330 G. in Homer L. Kitt.

RIALTO
9TH at GPE
Slaves of STYLE AND FASHION
Playing at Love in EXTRAVAGANCE with COLLYER LLOYD HUGHES

"Radio Joe" and his
"BUDGET BOYS"
WMAL Every Tues., 7:30 P.M.
(See Tuesday Post for Program.)

XMAS SHOPPERS
PARK YOUR CAR AT Downtown Parking Garage
613 G St. N.W.
35c for 3 hours

Enna Jettick Melodies, Every Sunday, WJZ
Enna Jettick Songbird, Tuesdays, WRC

Exclusively
ENNA JETTICK
SHOES FOR WOMEN
YOU NEED NO LONGER BE TOLD THAT YOU HAVE AN EXPENSIVE FOOT
$5 $6
177 Sizes and Widths
AAAAA to EEE
Sizes from 1 to 12
Fitting by Enna Jettick Experts with Latest Scientific Foot Measuring Devices
Rubber Footwear in Extreme Sizes.
Exclusively
ENNA JETTICK
1337 F STREET N.W.
WASHINGTON.

COLDS
Carry this handy remedy with you
For colds and simple headaches, carry Grove's Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets with you. They are easy to take, and quickly break up colds and headaches. The quinine has a tonic effect, the laxative is very mild. You need both.

Get them in 30c box at any drug store.
Grove's Laxative
BROMO QUININE Tablets

FILM TIME TABLES

Feature pictures are presented on the following schedules at the theaters named:

Palace—"Passion Flower," at 12 noon, 2:17, 4:39, 7:31 and 9:53 p. m. Stage shows at 1:28, 3:50, 6:42 and 9:04 p. m.

Earle—"Divorce Among Friends," at 12 noon, 2:25, 4:45, 7:35 and 9:55 p. m. Stage shows at 1:20, 3:40, 6:35 and 9 p. m.

Fox—"Oh, for a Man," at 11:15 a. m., 1:41, 4:07, 5:28, 7:54 and 10:20 p. m. Stage shows at 1:05, 3:31, 7:18 and 9:44 p. m.

B-K-O Keith's—"Fast and Loose," at 11:42 a. m., 1:44, 3:46, 5:48, 7:48 and 9:50 p. m.

Columbia—"Grumpy," at 11 a. m., 12:50, 3:05, 5:20, 7:30 and 9:45 p. m.

Rialto—"Extravagance," at 11 a. m., 12:45, 2:30, 4:20, 6:10, 8 and 9:50 p. m.

Metropolitan—"Captain Thunder," at 11 a. m., 12:48, 2:35, 4:35, 6:13, 8 and 9:50 p. m.

Tivoli—"The Big Trail," at 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7:35 and 9:35 p. m.

Ambassador—"Captain Thunder," at 6:30, 8:15 and 10 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS

LOEW'S COLUMBIA
NOW PLAYING
"GRUMPY"
with CYRIL MAUDE
ADDED ATTRACTION
LAUREL and HARDY
in "ANOTHER FINE MESS"

FOX
THE LAST WORD
THE BIGGEST SHOW IN WASHINGTON
NOW
She could resist anything but temptation... in
OH, for a MAN
With Jeanette MacDonald
Reginald Denny, Warren Hymer, Marjorie White
John Hix's "Strange As It Seems" On Our Stage... 11 Sets of Twice as Fanchon & Marco's SEEING DOUBLE IDEA
with C. & C. STROUD Brunsell's Orchestra
Rea & Dee

EARLE
Stage Shows 1:15, 3:30, 6:45 & 9 P.M.
Now Showing
WINNIE LIGHTNER
ON THE STAGE
The Original "GOLD DIGGER"
—IN PERSON—
OTHER STAGE ATTRACTIONS
DAVE HARRIS & CO. HARRIS & FRANK GAYNOR & BYRON MAXINE DOYLE
ON THE SCREEN
"DIVORCE Among FRIENDS"
IRENE DELROY-JAMES HALL

WARNER'S METROPOLITAN
Now Showing
"CAPTAIN THUNDER"
A WARNER BROS. VITAPHONE PICTURE
FAY WRAY
VICTOR VARCONI
ANDY CLYDE COMEDY
VITAPHONE VARIETY
MOVIETONE NEWS REEL

SHUBERT-BELASCO SEATS ON SALE NOW
Com. Xmas Night through New Year's to Jan. 3.
John Drinkwater's COMEDY HIT
"BIRD IN HAND"
MAIL ORDERS NOW Nights: Orch., $3; Mezz., $2.50; Bal., $1.50, $1; Gal., 50c. Matinees—Orch., $2; Mezz., $2, $1.50; Bal., $1; Gal., 50c.

GAYETY—BURLESK
JEAN BEDINI
And His
"PEEK-A-BOO"
Revue

Let SANTA

bring them news hot off the press...
GIVE
subscriptions to
The Washington Post
for 1931

SPORTS The Washington Post. SPORTS

WASHINGTON: MONDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1930. 13

ROCKNE'S ALL-STARS ROUTED BY PRO ELEVEN, 22-0

Westbrook Pegler Says

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—At my first glimpse of him, close-up, Knute Rockne had the typical appearance of the old, punched-up preliminary fighter who becomes doortender in a speakeasy and sits at a shadowy table in a corner near the door at night, recalling the time he fought Billy Papke in Peoria for $30. His nose is a bit mashed and his skull is more nude than otherwise. Maybe he was a preliminary fighter. I have heard so, but never have thought to ask him about it.

Anyway, he was a professional football player in a day when a man had to be either a brave believer in the principle of independence or a kind of reprobate to take the promoter's shilling.

On this night, several years ago, he was sitting at the head of a table in a small, compact and chummy gathering of New York alumni of the University of Notre Dame, nervously gulping draughts of smoke from a soggy cigar butt. Frank Wallace, then a recent alumnus of the university, who has lately written a football novel, called "Huddle," about Rockne and the Notre Dame teams, was the master of such little ceremonies as there were. He would cast an eye about the room and light on some cringing and apprehensive victim and say, "And now we are going to hear from Brother So-and-So." Thereupon, Brother So-and-So would rise slowly and begin, "Well, fellows, I haven't got much to say, I didn't expect to be called on for any speech. I just came down here to see old Rock and some of the fellows and have a couple of drinks."

REPUTATION IS JUSTIFIED BY ROCKNE.

Then, after some more hemming and hawing, painful to all concerned, Brother So-and-So would allow his voice to doe away in a blurry mumble and sit down, reaching for the quart to refresh his glass and to compose himself.

It was not until Brother Wallace—they were all brother to one another—called upon Brother Rockne for some remarks that Brother Rockne began to justify his reputation. He spoke in a jerky manner, as though he felt that it was all nonsense for him to try to enlighten or entertain those fellow alumni of his, but there was a light of humor in his eyes and a plain, frank intelligence in his comments and, altogether, it was like an old, battered oil can giving champagne.

I have mentioned the drinks at this meeting merely because drinks are customary at all alumni jollifications and at most reunions of the old athletes, including the coaches. There is belief that such occasions are enlivened by nothing more stimulating than tea, coffee and buttermilk, but this is a mistake. However, I do not recall whether Mr. Rockne himself used to drink with the boys in his social moments or abstain. Nowadays, I suppose, he does abstain, because his health has not been good for a year and more.

DOESN'T RATE SELF VERY HIGHLY

But I am sure that any one who really wants to know whether Knute Rockne likes a drink or whether he used to take a few now and again can find out by asking him. On the morality of liquor he is a liberal, unlike Mr. Stagg and Mr. Yost, who take prohibition seriously and even testify to its fine effects.

I see Mr. Rockne as a modest man who does not think much of himself, who is constantly amazed to find himself a great national celebrity, and who, therefore, wants to make all the

Continued on Page 14, Column 5.

Apaches Bow To Celtics 13 to 0

Alexandrians Upset Champions Before 3,000 Fans.

Virginia, Team Aided by Marines, in Triumph.

By WALTER HAIGHT.

ALEXANDRIA is laughing up its sleeve this morning as far as the sandlot football situation in this section is concerned. The good fairy was on its side yesterday. Charlie Corbett, Alexandria's own Tex Rickard, played the leading role. He fluttered about the Celtic dressing room just before the game, touching the players with his magic wand. And what do you think appeared? Why, just what Alexandria was wishing for—eleven big, strong, healthy football players.

O-o-o-oh, grandma! What a fine back field you have! All the better to beat the Apaches with, came the answer. And it was.

Some 3,000 fans witnessed the kill. The St. Mary's Celtics, augmented by at least six Marines, rubbed the noses of the Apaches in the football book to the tune of a 13-to-0 triumph over the District champions. The victory was the first scored by a team wearing the green of the Celtics over the Apaches and the first time that an Alexandria club has beaten the holder of the local title.

Celtics Show Sudden Improvement.

There was no question about the superiority of the Celtics as displayed yesterday. The Apaches battled and battled, but while they managed to get out of the game only two touchdowns in the red, their efforts, especially in the first half, were like trying to catch the Johnstown flood in a thimble.

The Celtics received the opening kick-off. A leather-lunged quarter back with a Yankee accent yelled a few numbers and they were on their way, clicking off six first downs as they went to a touchdown. Wood was credited with the score and Brown missed the try for goal.

While the Celtic backs may have been strangers to the majority of those present, they appeared to be brothers in that opening drive. There were no long runs and no passes. Short line gains, sandwiched between reverse and spinner plays, rolled up a steady stream of yardage.

Celtics Make Second Touchdown.

The quarter was almost over before the Apaches earned possession of the ball for the first time. They could not get under way and Rauber punted back to the Celtic 30-yard line. From this point the second touchdown had its beginning. The same style of play featured the march into Apache territory, but this time a 40-yard run by Brown on a reverse play accounted for the touchdown. He got away after it appeared that he would be thrown for a loss.

To add to the worries of the Apaches' rooters, Ty Rauber was forced to leave the game just before the half as the result of a leg injury that ended his football efforts for the day.

But the Apaches came back in the

Continued on Page 14, Column 8.

Army-Navy Peace No Nearer

Situation Unchanged by Keen Struggle for Charity.

No Ill-Feeling Shown But Tradition Is Not Followed.

By HERBERT W. BARKER.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The thirty-first Army-Navy football clash served its purpose in earning something like $600,000 for the unemployed, but there were no indications today that it would lead to any permanent renewal of athletic relations between the two Government academies.

When negotiations for the game were completed it was emphasized it would affect in no way the dispute over eligibility rules that drove the academies apart after the 1927 football game. For the sake of charity, both were willing to bury the hatchet for one game, provided they were given the privilege of taking it up again as the final whistle blew. And that, apparently, is precisely what both have done.

No Ill Feeling Evidenced.

It has been generally understood that the Navy was prepared to take the initiative and either force a showdown on the eligibility dispute or take steps toward reconciliation, but the Army was believed to be unreceptive to any agreement which would not give the cadets the same free scope in eligibility rules they always have enjoyed. The game itself was a hard-fought affair, but there was no evidence of ill feeling on the part of the combatants themselves. There were a good many penalties, but no more than were to be expected in a contest so closely fought.

One incident after the game was significant. Tradition calls for the winning cheering section to march across the field at the conclusion of the game and pelt the losers with whatever missiles happen to come to hand. The losers keep their seats and accept philosophically what comes. Yesterday this tradition was ignored. The Midshipmen remained seated but the cadets failed to start the customary bombardment. Although it took a fourth-quarter 57-yard dash by Ray Stecker to bring victory to the Army, 6—0, there was no question that the better team won. Army piled up 12 first downs to three for the Navy and gained 182 yards by rushing, to 63 for the Navy. Time and again the cadets marched down deep into Navy territory only to find a scrappy Navy defense in the way.

Fumble Brought Navy Big Chance.

Navy's one big chance to score came shortly after Stecker had broken loose for his spectacular touchdown. Bowman fumbled one of Bowstrom's long punts and Byng, Navy star, recovered the ball on the Army 26-yard line. Navy tried four passes in a vain attempt at least to tie the score and possibly win, but the alert Army defense broke up all of them, and Navy's chance had gone.

Grover Whalen's committee on ar-

Continued on Page 14, Column 8.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS —By John Hix

635
048
CAN YOU ARRANGE 8 MATCHES TO FORM 2 SQUARES AND 4 TRIANGLES—WITHOUT CROSSING ANY?
—Solution to-morrow
Walter WILLIAMS—newly elected president of the University of Missouri—
NEVER WENT TO COLLEGE!
853
THIS STEEL SHIP WEIGHING 8800 TONS WAS BUILT AND LAUNCHED IN 55 DAYS!
THE HARD SHELL CRAB HAS NO SHELL....
© McClure Newspaper Syndicate
439
356

THERE'S an old saying that when a dog bites a man it's not news, but that when a man bites a dog it is. Perhaps the same idea applies here. When a college man becomes a newspaper man it's not news, but when a newspaperman becomes a college president—that is! Particularly, if he never went to college. President Williams started with the University of Missouri 22 years ago. He founded its school of journalism.

• • • •

The so-called shell of a crab is really a crust of lime that accumulates on the skin. It will not stretch so that, as the crab grows, it must cast off its outside covering every year until it has attained its full size.

• • • •

When the war came to us in 1917 one of the first things this country needed in a hurry was ships. And shipbuilding, usually a slow process, became a high-speed race. It was during those hectic days that this 8,800-toner was turned out in less than two months.

• • • •

Any reader wanting further proof of anything depicted here should address John Hix, care of The Washington Post, and inclose a stamped and self-addressed envelope for reply.

JOHN HIX.

"Strange As It Seems," by John Hix, a short subject with sound, is now on the bill at the Fox Theater. This is the third series of the adaptation of The Post's popular cartoon which is being shown on the screen.

Tomorrow: 222 points in 44 minutes on the gridiron.

Colors give added realism to strange things and happenings illustrated by John Hix on a full page in The Sunday Post.

50,000 AID CHARITY AS FRIEDMAN LEADS GIANTS TO TRIUMPH

Team Play Smothers Efforts of Ramblers' Greatest Heroes.

Four Horsemen Fail; Pro Line Shines; $150,000 Gate.

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor).

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—For the benefit of charity, the great and the former great of Notre Dame's brigade of football stars of the past ten years assembled today to furnish another sensational gridiron show, but no eleven of them at any time of the game proved a match for the crack professional league team of New York Giants, led by Benny Friedman, Michigan's former All-American quarter back.

The red-helmeted, smooth-working Giants battered and passed their way to a decisive victory, 22 to 0, over the gallant but somewhat disorganized array assembled especially for the occasion by the master of Notre Dame, Knute Rockne, and his corps of aids.

The game was for the benefit of New York's unemployed, the second charity contest in as many days. Despite freezing weather, it attracted an enthusiastic crowd of 50,000 spectators to the Polo Grounds. Former Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Mayor James J. Walker were conspicuous in the gathering that contributed to gate receipts estimated at more than $150,000.

Rockne Inspiration Not Enough.

Rockne, bundled in blankets on the side lines, pulled the strings for a collection of performers whose names have been written large in Notre Dame football history, but it took more than that to make any impression on the rugged, hard-bitten team of professionals.

The famous "four horsemen," Stuhldreher, Crowley, Miller and Layden, with five of the "seven mules" in the forward line, started the game. Later, Frank Carideo, this year's all-America quarter back, and his running mate, Bucky O'Connor, hero of the victory over Southern California a week ago, entered the fray, along with Jack Elder and nearly a full array of the 1929 undefeated Notre Dame team.

It was a brilliant individual parade but, the teamwork, usually so conspicuous in any gridiron performance by a Notre Dame team, was missing. Rockne tried at least three full combinations but none clicked or even threatened to cross the Giants' goal. The fleet Elder failed to get loose and his passes were battered down by a defense in which his old Army rival, Christian Keener (Red) Cagle, was prominent.

Friedman Outstanding Star.

Cagle gave the big crowd a few thrills with several good punts, but Friedman's polished and effective performance was the outstanding individual feature. The former Wolverine ace, playing only in the first half, scored two of the three Giant touchdowns and added one extra point with his talented toe.

He twice crossed the Notre Dame goal line in the second period, once on a short buck across tackle and, shortly afterward, on a twisting 18-yard dash through the whole all-star team. Both were the culmination of marches half the length of the field.

The third touchdown was tallied in the third period on a spectacular 30-yard forward pass, Moran to Campbell, who grabbed the ball in the end zone with Harry Stuhldreher on one side and Bucky O'Connor on the other.

In the opening quarter, Stuhldreher was trapped behind his own goal line, before he could get off a kick, and tackled by Bill Owen for a safety.

The professional line was entirely too much for the Notre Dame array, despite heroic individual work by bare-headed Jack Cannon, 1929 all-American; Ted Twomey and Adam Walsh and other notables. The Giants sifted through so fast that they broke up most of the plays called by Stuhldreher and Carideo before they could get under way. Several times the all-stars were set back from 15 to 25 yards in a sequence of three running plays by the hard charging professionals. It was a magnificent exhibition of line play.

THE SUMMARY

N. D. All Stars.	Positions.	N. Y. Giants.
C. Collins	L.E.	Badgro (S.C.)
Joe Bach	L.T.	W. Owen (F.U.)
K. Anderson	L.G.	Caywood (St.J.)
Adam Walsh	Center	Murtagh (C.)
Noble Kizer	R.G.	Comstock (C.)
Rip Miller	R.T.	Grant (N.Y.U.)
Ed Hunsinger	R.E.	Campbell (St.T.)
Harry Stuhldreher	Q.B.	Friedman (M.)
Don. Miller	L.H.	Sedbrook (F.U.)
Jimmy Crowley	R.H.	Wibera (N.W.)
Elmer Layden	F.B.	Feather (K.A.)

Notre Dame All Stars	0	0	0	0	0
New York Giants	2	13	7	0	22

Touchdowns—Friedman (2), Campbell. Points after touchdown—Friedman (place kick). Moran (place kick). Safety—Stuhldreher. Substitutions—(Notre Dame) Ike Voedisch for C. Collins, Ted Twomey for Bach, John Law for K. Anderson, Tim Moynihan for Walsh, Jack Cannon for Kizer, John McMullen for R. Miller, Frank Carideo for Stuhldreher, Jack Elder for Crowley, Jack Chevigny for Don Miller, Paul O'Connor for Layden, Rex Enright for Chevigny, Joe Nash for Moynihan, Ed Wynne for O'Connor, Joe Maxwell for Voedisch. C. Walsh for Hunsinger. F. Jones for Law, (New York Giants) Red Cagle (Army) for Sedbrook, Burnett (Emporia) for Feather, Westoupal (Nebraska) for Murtagh, S. Owen for W. Owen, Gibson for Comstock, Hilpert for Badgro, Moran for Friedman. Referee—Tom Thorp (Columbia). Umpire—Ed. Thorp (De La Salle). Field Judge—Jack Hennessey (Brown). Linesman—Jack Reardon (New Hampshire).

IN THE COLLEGE CORNER

By JACK ESPEY

LOCAL football mentors attending the meeting of Southern football coaches last week at Durham talked plenty of shop but did little shopping, as they had hoped they would, for 1931 games.

Dutch Bergman, whose Catholic U. schedule is still one-third incomplete, found no chance of securing a Southern team for a game next fall. He did, however, receive some encouragement concerning a 1932 contest.

Jim Pixlee, of George Washington, and Tommy Mills, of Georgetown, also attended but, as they said, spent most of the time renewing old friendships and founding new ones. Both of these men hope some time to schedule Southern teams. They believe the clubs from Dixie would prove strong drawing cards in the Capital.

Pixlee, before going to Durham, had attended the Six Six Conference meeting in Kansas City. Something in the way of new football relationships for George Washington may develop in the West. It is possible that one Six Six team will meet the Colonial eleven here next fall.

G. U. Hard Put for Reserves on Court.

Georgetown is in a tight fix for reserve talent on the court. On account of classroom deficiencies, three of Coach Colrick's players were forced to turn in their suits. They will be given an opportunity to gain eligibility later through "make-up" tests.

As a result of the losses, the squad has but one center—Paul Dillon, veteran of the 1929-1930 quintet. Dillon is the lone Hoya tosser over 6 feet in height. And in view of the importance of getting the tap, Dillon's presence at all times in the regular line-up is most necessary.

But despite their handicap in height, the Hoyas managed to grab the leather many times off the backboard of the enemy in their first two games last week.

Emile Bozek plays basket ball with as much abandon and fearlessness as he does football. His presence on the court insures a lot of scrappy action for Georgetown. While not the most polished basketer, Emile plays no second fiddle when it comes to putting out energy and he's likely to make himself one of the most valuable members of the Hoya squad before the season closes.

Marines-Gallaudet May Meet on Gridiron.

Quantico Marines and Gallaudet may get together in football next fall. The Quantico outfit will have one-third of the all-Marine eleven of 1930, which by order of Brig. Gen. Ben H. Fuller, has been disbanded.

The Quantico Team will have a schedule featuring games with college teams, just as did the Quantico teams back in 1922 and 1923.

Gallaudet is finding it difficult to schedule games with colleges in its own class hereabout. It seems as if the Blues are paying a penalty for enjoying a successful season.

Jim Bausch's connections with the insurance business were well known throughout Six Six circles when he entered Kansas, but no complaints were made about him until he became a good football player.

In football, the mighty are persecuted.

It seems the secret of Notre Dame's success was revealed when the New York Giants polished off Rockne's collection of graduates. The former Irish stars didn't have IT—team work.

Draft Not Cause of Baseball Breach, Says Nat Owner; Predicts Early Peace

By FRANK H. YOUNG.

CLARK C. GRIFFITH, Washington Club president, has returned from the baseball battle front in New York declaring that the fight between the majors and the five big minor leagues—the American Association, International, Pacific Coast, Western and Three-Eye—is a war in name only. "Take it from me," he said, "the argument will be settled long before the 1931 season gets under way and I'm willing to bet plenty on this."

"The five 'rebel' leagues made the mistake of depending upon a 'soap box' orator from the Pacific Coast to lead them in their argument and he got them nowhere; in fact, he did their cause more harm than good and they, themselves, know this now.

Expects Minors to Make Move.

"The majors plan no more meetings with the minors for draft discussion, but it's my guess that the leagues who are cutting up will come to their senses and make a bid for peace separately, if not together. I personally know, for instance, that the owners of six American Association Clubs are willing to bury the hatchet right now and that they probably will swing their league in line."

Griffith declares that the majors do not regard these five recalcitrants as "outlaws." "Under an agreement which they already have accepted, we can draft from them any players who have ever seen major league service," he explained, "and, as in the case of the Washington Club, the big timers will meet them in spring exhibition games and otherwise deal with them. Until they accept unlimited draft, however, we have agreed among ourselves to buy no players from them or to sell them none. Of course, as in the case of George Sisler, Saturday, they'll occasionally get a player simply because no one else wants him."

Sees Controversy As Test.

While the cause of the squabble between the American and National Leagues, on one side and the five big minor leagues on the other, presumably is the refusal of these minor circuits to accept unlimited draft, according to the Nat owner, this subject is merely an excuse to test their strength with the big timers.

"As far as the majors are concerned, they are fighting for the principle on which organized baseball was founded," said Griffith, "that of giving all players a chance to advance in their chosen profession. As for the minors," the Nat owner declared, "they all have ulterior motives which they are keeping well hidden.

"As for the draft itself," the Nat owner explained, "it practically means nothing to the majors. Only one player may be drafted from a class AA club and he isn't claimed until after they have sold all of their best players. How many drafted players make good in the majors?" he asked, answering the question by saying "practically none."

Raising Draft Price Would Not Help.

"As for raising the draft price," Griffith declared, 'this would not help them any, as it would simply raise the general standard price of a few men. If we paid $10,000 for draftees, when we sent 'em back, as we often do, it would cost the minor club the relative difference between the present $7,500 and $10,000. Also, a raised draft figure would automatically increase the trading value of any players who failed to make the grade and were sold to the minors. Now, when sending players to the bushes in part payment in deals, their value is rated according to the draft figure, which means we would get more for them if the draft price were raised. So, you see, there's practically nothing to this draft argument."

The Nat owner was not successful in his recommendations to the rule committee regarding the "zoning" of ball parks so as to standardize home runs, but he did score in one respect, the league having ruled that a ball must be held "securely," rather than "momentarily" to be considered as a legal catch.

Price, Tackle, to Captain Army Eleven Next Season

WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Meeting in the baggage car of their special train on the way home from New York this morning, the lettermen of the Army football squad elected Jack Price, of North Fort Dodge, Iowa, captain of the 1931 football team.

Price has been regular left tackle on the Army team for the past two seasons. He was 20 years old last month, weighs 220 pounds, and is 6 feet 3½ inches tall. He played through the entire game yesterday in Army's triumph over the Navy.

Price won his appointment as 1928 honor graduate of the Northwestern Military and Naval Academy at Lake Geneva, Wis., and entered the Academy in 1929. He was a member of his plebe football, track and wrestling squads. Last year he won a major letter in track as well as in football. His specialty in track is the shot put. In the Cadet Corps, Price is a corporal, the highest rank a member of his class can hold.

Maj. Ralph I. Sasse, Army head coach, in praising "Polly" Humber, retiring captain, at the meeting at which Price was elected, said that Humber had made Ray Stecker's touchdown, which beat the Navy, possible by taking out the Navy guard.

There was no demonstration at the station when the team reached West Point, as the Cadet Corps was at dinner, but the Cadets made up for the lack of it when Humber led the squad into the mess hall, suspending all eating operations to cheer every player.

Paying Athletes Is Success, Tennessee Conference Finds

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—While college officials in other conferences are worrying about secret subsidizing of athletes the Smoky Mountains Athletic Conference declares a four-year experiment in open tendering of financial aid to athletes is a success.

Recently many prominent educators, aroused by various "scandals" in college athletics, have declared themselves in favor of financial aid to athletes similar to scholarships, but officials of the Smoky Mountains Conference four years ago decided that the system of prohibiting athletes from receiving jobs, loans or money was a failure.

The conference is composed of seven east Tennessee colleges. W. O. Lowe, Knoxville attorney, is commissioner of the athletic conference.

"It is well known," he says, "that competition between universities for good athletes has become so keen that friends of many universities and colleges are putting up considerable money to pay athletes.

"As a result athletes attend schools which pay them the most money and are encouraged to lie about the financial aid they are receiving.

"Because of local influence of supporters and friends of the school, authorities refrain from trying to find out the facts about their athletes."

Lowe, as conference commissioner, passes upon the eligibility of players.

"Our new rules," he explains, "require every athlete to answer the direct question: Is he receiving any money, loan, gift or job or anything of value from any one except his mother or father?

"Gifts, loans and jobs up to school expenses, about $300, have been ap-

Continued on Page 14, Column 7.

WEST MEN'S WEAR

"AS FINE AS HUMAN HANDS CAN MAKE"

It's always better in the long run to buy Clothes of the highest

QUALITY

When you purchase a suit here, you obtain the finest ready-for-wearing clothing produced. It is properly made of the best materials. It will last longer and look better from start to finish. It will give you the utmost clothing satisfaction at its price.

ENTIRE REGULAR STOCK OF SUITS

AND TOPCOATS

Were	NOW	Were	NOW
$35	$28	$60	$48
40	32	65	52
45	36	70	56
50	40	75	60
55	44	80	64

20% LESS

FRUHAUFS INCLUDED

Formal Wear Excepted

Sidney West, Inc.

14th & G Sts.

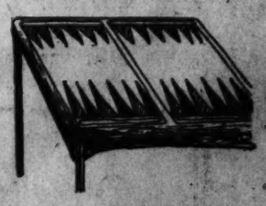
EUGENE C. GOTT—PRESIDENT

Backgammon Card Table Covers

$1

A splendid gift . . . though quite inexpensive. Fasten to top of table. Stainless and waterproof.

Fifth Floor—The Hecht Co.



THE HECHT CO.

[The Store of Practical Gifts]

F Street at 7th NAtional 5100

MIAMI MEET ATTRACTS HIGH GRADE OF HORSES

Best Stables To Seek Purses

Over 400 Horses Are Already Stabled at Hialeah Park.

Number to Be Doubled by Time Meet Opens Next Month.

Special to The Washington Post.

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 14.—Although the inauguration of the Miami Jockey Club's 1931 racing season is a month in the future, more than 400 horses are already quartered at Hialeah Park, awaiting the bugle call. When the season gets under way, every one of the 950 available stalls will have an equine occupant. And they will be the best collection of racers to be campaigned at any winter course in two decades.

This is indicated by the class of animals already upon the scene of action. They constitute, in the main, consignments from many of the country's famous racing establishments, many of which have never before engaged any of their horses in a winter campaign. The list of owners reads like a Belmont Park or Saratoga register.

Representative Stables Ready for Opening.

A majority of the larger establishments now here include quite a sprinkling of coming 2-year-olds, and as a matter of fact the youngsters in some stables are as numerous as the more mature horses. It may be that from among these juveniles there may be developed a horse of high quality Mrs. M. P. Allen's Vanderpool, one of the best of the country's 1930 2-year-olds, had his first racing at Hialeah Park, and was easily the champion of the local juvenile division.

The following list will furnish a fairly good idea of the representative character of the stables now quartered at Hialeah Park: Joseph E. Widener, Cornelius Vanderbilt (Sonny) Whitney, George D. Widener, Willis Sharpe Kilmer, Jefferson Livingston, Greentree Stable, Wheatley Stable, Belair Stud, Marshall Field 3d, H. C. Phipps, H.W. Maxwell, Keeneland Stud, Brookhurst Farm, R. L. Gerry, Justa Farm Stable of G. W. Elkins, George Odom, Bob Odom, Bud Fisher, Nevada Stock Farm, Everglade Stable, R. H. Davis, jr., John F. Schorr, Frank M. Bray, C. W. Hay, George M. Hendrie, Will Travers, Andy Blakely, G. C. Winfrey, Etowah Stable of W. R. Cox, R. Hyams, J. F. Byers, Bob Shannon, T. R. McCaffrey, W. E. Caskey, jr., C. Koerner, George Arvin, C. H. Trotter, A. Swenke, R. Gallet, A. G. Robertson, Mose Lowenstein, Walter K. Franc, C. R. Hamilton, John Lowe, Coldstream Farm, Brandon Stable and Bert Williams.

Some of the better known establishments that have not yet arrived but are due in the next fortnight are Rancocas Stable, Mahopac Stable, Mulrich Stable, Mrs. R. T. Wilson, jr., J. P. White, Preston and Selby Burch, C. Buxton, P. T. Chinn, T. P. Hayes, J. Simon Healy, Tennessee Stable, Bob Smith, W. A. Shea and Jim Arthur.

Many Women Owners Send Horses to Miami.

A notable feature of the Miami winter season will be the large number of women whose colors will be frequently carried in the various events. Conspicuous among the number is Mrs. Payne Whitney, owner of the Greentree Stable, which, under the care of Trainer Ed Haughton, is one of the largest and best strings now at the track. The Greentree horses are taking their training in a manner that gives promise of early success. The stable's juvenile division is a noteworthy one, and the youngsters have given every evidence of quality.

Mrs. Parker Corning, wife of Representative Corning, of New York, is another woman of prominence who will have her colors carried during the meeting. She is the owner of an upstanding chestnut yearling colt by Apex, out of Fayetta, in the keeping of Trainer George Odom. The latter thought the colt good enough to enter him in the Nursery Stakes No. 1.

Mrs. V. M. Duncan has had her colors carried to victory on quite a number of occasions, both at Miami and on the Eastern tracks. Her horses are in the capable hands of Trainer Will Travers. Clean Play, the best-known of the Duncan string, is a familiar figure on the Miami track, the 7-year-old having been raced here in stakes and handicaps since the 1927 season. He is eligible to a number of this season's stakes.

Mrs. H. E. Thomas, a recent newcomer to racing, owns a couple of horses that ought to make good this winter. Farr has been named by her for the Florida Derby, and she has entered Jack Berry in the Jockey Club Stakes. Mrs. T. R. Queen, Mrs. B. C. Hart, Mrs. W. E. Martin and Mrs. George Carroll are among the other fair owners to race at Miami.

25-to-1 Shot Is Victor As Auteuil Races End

Auteuil, France, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—This was getaway day at Auteuil, ending the metropolitan racing season for 1930. The thoroughbreds now will do their racing at the French Riviera at Nice, Monte Carlo and Marseille.

Today's feature, the Daniel Duestler Steeplechase, a steeplechase handicap for all ages at 2¼ miles, was won by Ivry, with Prince Henri second and Millicnaire third. There were thirteen starters, but seven fell in the sticky going.

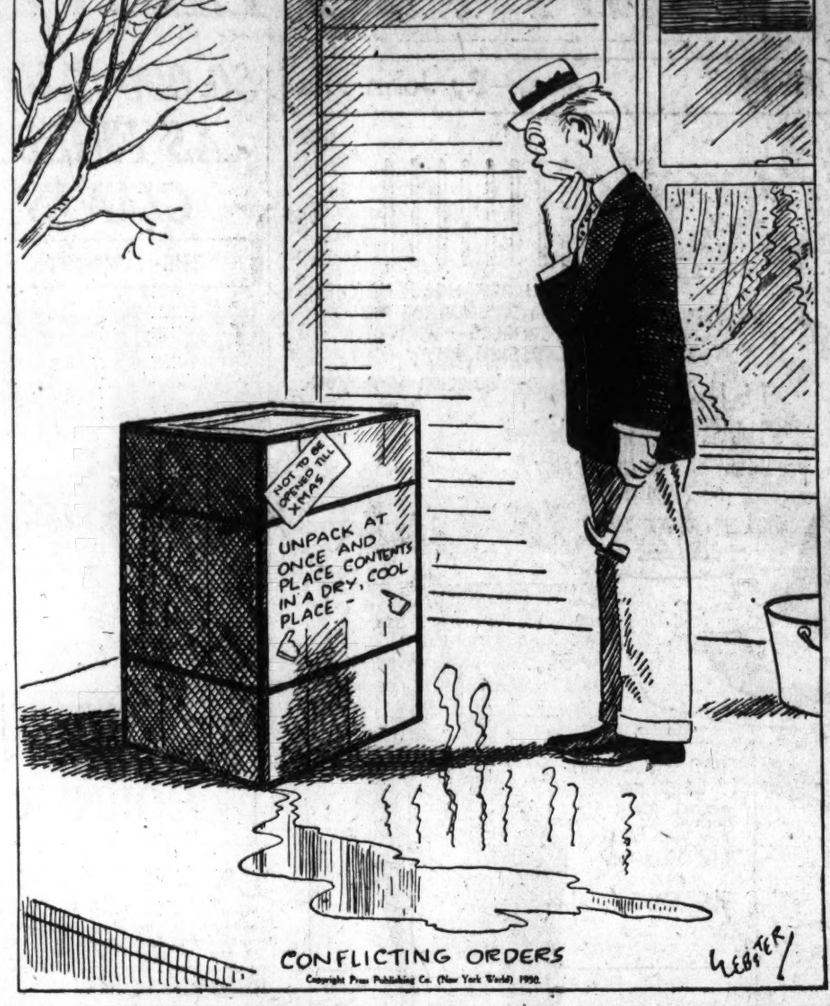
Ivry, a 4-year-old son of Antivari, out of Inflorescence, was an outsider, at 25 to 1 in betting, but won easily by a length.

PROPOSALS

WASHINGTON SUBURBAN SANITARY District. Contract No. 83-W. Furnishing cast iron fittings. Sealed proposals for furnishing 75 tons of cast iron fittings for water pipe will be received at the office of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, Tower Building, Fourteenth and K streets northwest, Washington, D. C., until 3 p. m., MONDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1930, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read. Specifications obtainable from Robert B. Morse, Chief Engineer of District, Hyattsville, Md. T. HOWARD DUCKETT, EMORY H. BOGLEY, J. DONALD CLAGETT, Commissioners.

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry
ROSSLYN LOAN CO
End Key Bridge — Rosslyn, Va.
J. F. Cooper, Mgr., formerly with H. K. Fulton. ROSSLYN CAR TO DOOR.

The Timid Soul —By H. T. Webster



Boots and Saddle's

(Reg. U. S. Patent Office)

—Jefferson Park Selections—

By J. B. SNODGRASS.

THE Bayou Rigaud allowance purse for all aged horses, at a mile and sevnty yards, has attracted seven well-balanced nominations at Jefferson Park today, which features the program. The track is good, and the weather clear. Cornelius V. Whitney's 3-year-old colt, SKIRL, which on December 3 beat Ell Weir, Battle Ax and others at this distance, seems to stand out in this field, and will be ridden by E. James, leading jockey at the winter track.

SKIRL takes up seven pounds weight for the contest, over his previous effort, which should not bother him, for he led all the way in his last to win by three lengths in 1:44. He will be the favorite in the race, but may pay 6 to 5. BOCARATONE, beaten a nose by the filly, Scone, from the same stable as SKIRL, should be the contender. BOCARATONE is very fast at times, and was a stake-winner in Maryland. THISTLE FYRN appears best of the others, and should get third money. She was second to DARK ABBOT in her last start.

FIRST RACE—The card is opened by a dash of six furlongs for maiden 2-year-olds. EYE WHITE looks much the best, having run Poison Ivy to a nose finish Friday last in an all-aged race. He was second choice in the large field, and belongs to the F. P. Letteller Stable. BULLY has been backed in his starts at this track on Latonia form, and should be the contender, but is last on the eligible list and may not get a chance to start. THISTLE VIC was backed last out, and showed speed for a half mile, but quit.

SECOND RACE—Another top-heavy field starts in the second race, six furlongs, and is for all-aged horses. The frequency of races for horses of various ages is due to the fact that horses now racing as 2-year-olds are virtually three, and in fact most of them in actual time, are now past that age, and in a fortnight will be classed as three. This race offers nothing over which to enthuse, but SINCERELY looks best on his last race, finishing third to My Hobby the first day of the month. That was a fast race. ARROGANT will be the contender, and should make it a close finish. RUFE McLAIN is probably next best.

THIRD RACE—The third race is an allowance affair for 2-year-olds. The C. V. Whitney filly, CHENE beat Bob Rogers and other older horses last week, and seems to stand out in this race. ZAILA won her race the other day by five lengths and should be the contender. LITTLE LOVE also won her last start, beating Yarrow by half a length. There is much speed in the race but CHENE will be the popular favorite.

FIFTH RACE—The fifth race for fillies and mares promises a close contest. CURTSEY, a beaten favorite, should win if she runs back to her Maryland form. She is a highly bred filly, recently from the J. E. Widener stable. MADCAP MARVIN, which ran second to FRANK FULLEN Friday, will be a dangerous contender. The race will make her favorite, but CURTSEY did not run to her best form in her recent start. LILLIAN T. has a chance among these, and can go the route of a mile and a sixteenth. She should be as good as third.

SIXTH RACE—EAGER PLAY is selected to win the sixth race. He was beaten a length by Frank Fullen and Madcap Marvin Friday, and on that effort seems to have the edge on this large field of p'aters. BRIDEGROOM did not run near his best form last time out, and can do better. He is rated the contender, but may run sorely again. REJUVENATION has been backed all through the Maryland season, but failed. He may show improved form in this race. He has been tabbed for third.

SEVENTH RACE — LANSQUENET, scratched the other day from a race he might have won, is better placed in the seventh event today. He was third on Thursday to Water Fowl, and finished in front of Vole. JOHN T. D. has a chance for the second money, but will have BLACK ON WHITE to contend with for the place.

MERIDIANS COP.

Special to The Washington Post.

Alexandria, Dec. 14.—The Meridian A. C. Football Team, of Washington, experienced little trouble this afternoon in trimming the Pirates here, 18-0. Watson was the star for the victors. He scored two touchdowns. The game was played on Guckert's Field.

Meridians.	Positions.	Pirates.
Trundle	L.E.	Anderson
Ruedi	L.T.	Smith
Cleveland	L.G.	Meredi
Askin	Center	Arnold
Kemper	R.G.	A.Fones
D.Seafide	R.T.	R.Schriver
Manuel	R.E.	Ayres
Whalen	Q.B.	B.Fones
V.Seafide	L.H.	W.Schriver
Watson	R.H.	Payton
Lurig	F.B.	Clarke

Meridians ..... 6 6 0 6—18
Pirates ..... 0 0 0 0—0

Touchdowns—Whalen, Ruedi (2). Substitutions—Beahm for Cleveland. Referee—Miller. Umpire—Pyne. Head linesman—Tinkle.

NORTHERN JUNIORS WIN.

Special to The Washington Post.

Alexandria, Dec. 14.—The Virginia Juniors lost their first game of the season on their home field, the shipyard grounds, today, falling before the attack of the Northern Juniors, of Washington, 7-6. A drop kick by I. Leverton for the extra point defeated the Alexandrians.

North Jrs.	Positions.	Virginia Jrs.
J.Graves	L.E.	E.Humphries
W.Colborn	L.T.	Gensmer
B.Fuglister	L.G.	Lipscomb
J.Evans	Center	McKelligi
S.Bornick	R.G.	Mendleson
B.Pulliam	R.T.	Simpson
B.Sargeant	R.E.	Newton
R.Leverton	Q.B.	Pulliam
F.Hunter	L.H.	Travers
R.Mayer	R.H.	Mahoney
P.Leverton	F.B.	Sheeds

Northern Juniors ..... 7 0 0 0—7
Virginia Juniors ..... 0 0 6 0—6

Touchdowns—J. Groves, Travers. Point after touchdown—R. Leverton. Substitutions—(Northerns) Beck for Hunter, Ross for Evans, Robey for Pulliam, Pigg for P. Leverton. (Virginia) G. Gensmer, Beach, Harper, S. Jackson, B. Jackson.

Montana State Loses Star Basketball Team

Bozeman, Mont., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The Montana State College Basket Ball Team that yielded to few quintets in the country is no more.

The sharpshooting aces all have been graduated. The? were Frank Ward, agile center; Ashworth "Cat" Thompson, speedy blond forward, and Ward's slightly less famous brother, Orlando Ward, forward.

"Brick" Breeden, smothering guard, who captained the team at its height, was graduated two years ago.

These four, with the aid of strong reserves, won two Rocky Mountain titles, and their passing leaves Coach Schubert Dyche with the problem of carrying on with new material.

200 Women Players In Basket Ball League

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Twenty-four squads with more than 200 players already entered have been organized in the Birmingham Women's Basket Ball League for the winter sport.

Teams are entered by commercial establishments, churches, park districts and business schools, Miss Agnes Coughlin, director, said. The league is under auspices of the park and recreation board.

JEFFERSON PARK ENTRIES.

(FOR MONDAY.)

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; for 2-year-old maidens.

1	*Shonna	107	7 Awkward Boy..112
2	Quick Thinker	116	8 Smoky B.....112
3	*Sir Hector	107	9 Fortune.....112
4	Yarrow	116	10 Bainbridge.....112
5	*Thistle Vic	107	11 Shas. Charmer..112
6	Stabiliger	116	12 Good Friend....112

Also eligible—

13	Brig	112	16 *Ere White....109
14	*Principio	114	17 *Dick Chevly...107
15	Surpass	112	18 Bully.....112

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; for all ages.

1	Rufe McClain	113	7 Ring True....113
2	*Thistle Marty	106	8 *Sincerely....107
3	Sunmeta	115	9 Sir B.....104
4	*Sun Persian	113	10 *R. Mc Gnome.110
5	Daph. Beaman	113	11 *Ed Lark.....108
6	*Solicitor	99	12 *Title Oak.....108

Also eligible—

13	*Arrogant	113	16 *Marabou....113
14	Molerito	113	17 Mosque.....115
15	*Pasan Laddie	110	18 Mac Fogle.....115

THIRD RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; the Wayside; for 2-year-olds.

1	Onrita	109	5 Too Much Talk..110
2	Little Love	109	6 Chene.....105
3	Zaila	107	7 Jimmie I.....108
4	Bright Comet	109

FOURTH RACE—One mile and 70 yards; purse, $1,000; the Bayou Rigaud; allowances; for all ages.

1	Skirl	107	5 First Mission...105
2	Tarzan	95	6 F. Ambassador..107
3	Sister Zoe	102	7 Bocaratone 109
4	Thistle Fyrn	109

FIFTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-old and upward fillies and mares.

1	*Sandy Lady	104	5 *Grey Gull.....100
2	*Mad Marvin	111	6 Fair Orb.....102
3	Curtsey	109	8 *Lillian T.....106

SIXTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	*Agapanthus	105	7 Scot Free.....106
2	*Bear Cry	108	8 *Bobby Fowers.105
3	Nani Hawaii	111	9 *Mary Dan.....102
4	Rejuvenation	110	10 *Bridegroom 109
5	*Play Ball	109	11 *Hula.....106
6	*Gov. Seth	109	12 My Dan.....110

Also eligible—

13	*Boom	105	16 *Cry Baby.....106
14	*Eager Play	109	17 *Lena M.....102
15	Red Face	114

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $800; claiming; for 4-year-old and upward horses and geldings.

1	Willy Welch	104	7 *Judas.....104
2	*Matt McCoey	106	8 *Hillock.....104
3	*Harpoon	107	9 Lansquenet.....109
4	Silk on White	109	10 *Seven o Sixty.104
5	*John T. D.	104	11 *Rusticate.....104
6	*Yarsee	107	12 *Griff W.....107

Also eligible—

13	Wyvis Elliot	104	16 *Firth of Tay..107
14	*Prightful	104	17 *Jim McMahon.104
15	*Jeb	104	18 Golden Arrow..109

THE POST'S CONSENSUS AT JEFFERSON PARK

	1st Race	2nd Race	3rd Race	4th Race	5th Race	6th Race	7th Race
Boots and Saddle Wash. Post	Eye White Bully Thistle Vic	Sincerely Arrogant Rufe McLain	Chene Zaila Little Love	Skirl Bocaratone Thistle Fyrn	Curtsey Madcap Marv. Lillian T.	Eager Play Bridegroom Rejuvenation	Lasquenet John T. D Black on White
Louisville Times Associated Press	Eye White Bully Shas. Charmer	Pasan Laddie Ring True Arrogant	Chene Bright Comet Zaila	Skirl First Mission Thistle Fyrn	Curtsey Madcap Marv. Sandy Lady	Eager Play Bridegroom Agapanthus	Seventeen Sixty John T. D. Harpoon
Trackman Racing Form	Yarrow Surpass Eye White	Arrogant Sincerely Pasan Laddie	Chene Zaila Little Love	Skirl Bocaratone Tarzan	Curtsey Madcap Marv. Grey Gull	My Dan Bridegroom Mary Dale	Yarsee Rusticate John T. D.
Handicap Racing Form	Eye White Bully Good Friend	Arrogant Pasan Laddie Sincerely	Chene Zaila Bright Comet	Bocaratone Skirl First Mission	Grey Gull Madcap Marv. Curtsey	Mary Dale Governor Seth Agapanthus	John T. D. Seventeen Sixty Griff W.
Davenport Racing Form	Yarrow Shonna Eye White	Molerito Arrogant Sincerely	Zaila Chene Little Love	Skirl Bocaratone Tarzan	Curtsey Madcap Marv. Lillian T.	Eager Play Boom Play Ball	Billy Welsh John T. D. Lansquenet
Sweep Racing Form	Yarrow Eye White Shonna	Molerito Arrogant Sincerely	Chene Zaila Bright Comet	Skirl Bocaratone Thistle Fyrn	Curtsey Madcap Marv. Lillian T.	Hula Eager Play Mary Dale	Lansquenet Black on White John T. D.
Welsh Running Horse	Yarrow Shonna Good Friend	Sincerely Ring True Arrogant	Chene Zaila Bright Comet	Skirl Bocaratone Thistle Fyrn	Curtsey Fair Orb Madcap Marv.	Governor Seth Mary Dale Bobby Powers	John T. D. Lansquenet Harpoon
Purchase Running Horse	Yarrow Eye White Fortune	Arrogant Molerito Sincerely	Chene Zaila Bright Comet	Skirl Bocaratone Thistle Fyrn	Curtsey Madcap Marv. Grey Gull	My Dan Eager Play Boom	Harpoon Lansquenet Griff W.
Consensus	Yarrow Eye White Bully	Arrogant Sincerely Molerito	Chene Zaila Bright Comet	Skirl Bocaratone Thistle Fyrn	Curtsey Madcap Marv. Grey Gull	Eager Play My Dan Bridegroom	John T. D. Lansquenet Seventeen Sixty

D. C. NETMEN IN INDOOR VICTORY

Defeat Legion Team, 6-2, in League Debut in Baltimore.

Special to The Washington Post.

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 14.—Washington's Indoor Tennis Team defeated the American Legion netmen of Baltimore today by the score of 6 matches to 2 in the first test of the Winter Indoor League for the District men. The matches were played on the wooden courts within the Fifth Regiment Armory.

Although winning by a safe enough margin, the District players showed obviously the lack of indoor playing facilities in Washington. Almost to a man, the D. C. racqueteers were unaccustomed to the peculiar bound of the indoor ball, two of their ranks, Considine and Yeomans, meeting defeat at the hands of unheralded players.

Considine, Yeomans Defeated.

Bill Buchanan, Washington luminary, put his team in the van early in the day by turning back Harold Fallmer in straight sets, 6—3, 6—2.

But this slight advantage was quickly offset by the losses of Bob Considine, District champion, and Clyde Yeomans to Louis Levin and Wilson Duvall, respectively.

Considine's defeat by Levin was wholly unsuspected. The District player led at 5—3 in the first set but the next seven games went to his hard-hitting opponent. Considine rallied slightly at the end but Levin was not to be denied and won after having been at match point five times. Considine's stroking was of poor calibre throughout.

Dooly Mitchell's defeat of Alex Keiles was one of the bright spots of the day, the Washington star exhibiting most of his hard driving attack from the start and keeping it up to the end. Keiles hung on desperately to each game but was forced to yield at 7—5, 6—4 to the superior placement of Mitchell.

It was a free-swinging bout, with both players hitting out and taking chances. Mitchell's serving was especially severe, while his ground strokes, although not as steady as usual, were of high order.

Shore at Best in Beating La Fleur.

The closest, and in many respects the best match of the day, was the win of Frank Shore, Washington junior champion, over Ed LaFleur. Shore played practically at the top of his game to turn back the thrusts of the big Baltimorean, and deserved to win.

LaFleur's aggressiveness could not be withheld in the second set, and it fell to him at 5—7, but Shore had saved enough to finish off matters at 8—5 in the third.

Shore's sharply sliced forehand drive behind which he took the net earned him many easy set-ups to stow away once the barrier had been reached.

Bud Markey, former Notre Dame tennis captain, playing his first match indoors, was impressive at times against Harold Fox and proved to be the bulwark of the Yoemans-Markey combine which later in the day took the measure of Fox and Follmer.

SINGLES.

Dooley Mitchell (W.) defeated Alex Keiles, 7—5, 6—4; Louis Levin (A. L.) defeated Bob Considine, 7—5, 5—7, 6—3; Frank Shore (W.) defeated Ed LaFleur, 6—3, 5—7, 8—6; Bill Buchanan (W.) defeated Harold Fallmer, 6—3, 6—2; Wilson Duvall (A. L.) defeated Clyde Yeomans, 6—2, 6—4; Bud Markey (W.) defeated Harold Fox, 6—2, 6—2.

DOUBLES.

Considine and Shore defeated Levin and LaFleur by default; Mitchell and Buchanan defeated Keiles and Duvall, 7—5, 5—7, 8—6; Markey and Yeomans defeated Fox and Follmer, 6—3, 6—4.

SAYS PEGLER

Continued From Page 13.

money he can while he can, lest the public suddenly get next to him. He has a certain kind of confidence, but not much assurance, as though always apprehensive that some one will put him to the necessity of proving that he is a great man. Sometimes, when he predicts that his team will lose a football game, he merely wants to tighten up his players, but I imagine that most times when he says such things he is actually low-rating his own as he privately low-rates himself.

If he were fully assured of his importance he would not burden himself with some of the obligations that he constantly assumes. Last winter, in Florida, for instance, some promoter imposed on Rockne's reputation to declare a "Knute Rockne night" at a dog track, and Knute, not wishing to seem arrogant or ungrateful, was intending to be present, although the state of his health was pretty bad, just so the promoter and the promoter's customers would not think Rockne had snubbed them. On another day, although it was dangerous for him to be on his feet, some high school principal prevailed upon him to visit the school and address the students on sport. The compliment, he thought, deserved the sacrifice, and it was not long after this that he was on his way back home to see his doctors about a relapse.

Of course, Knute now gets more good football players from whom to select his teams than any other coach in the land, but it is the success of the Rockne teams that brings them there. A young football player who wants to play with the best team in the country or none at all goes to Notre Dame.

Rockne is so good and draws such good players that he can afford to insist upon the strictest amateurism and he tells of calling up a business man in South Bend who had given a switchboard job to one of his stars to complain because the boy's pay was too high. A certain amount, about $10 a week, was all right. The boy needed the money and the work was worth it. But $25 was an indirect subsidy.

Gradually Mr. Rockne has developed into a showman and this has necessitated some little change in his natural character for his platform appearances. But there is money in this and there is no telling what work he will be induced to try in time, while his market is good, for he wants to be independent.

CUMULATIVE SUCCESS IS RESULT.

FANS INSIST ROCKNE IS HERO.

If the public insists on regarding him as one of the greatest Americans of his time and paying him a fortune for chattering the same sort of conversation that he normally gives away by the hour to his friends, far be it from Mr. Rockne to dispute the customers or refuse their money.

MILLER OLDEST MACKMAN.

Bing Miller, right fielder, now is the oldest man on the roster of the world champion Philadelphia Athletics. He is 36.

Capital City Soccer Race Tightens as Rosedale Wins

Rockville Routed, 6-1; Fashion Shop Beats Silver Spring; Army and Gaithersburg Tie; Marlboro Wins.

SOCCER—MAIL—

By RICHARD S. TENNYSON.

ROSEDALE'S Soccer Club ran up a season's record score in defeating the league-leading Rockville Team yesterday, 6 to 1. The Marylanders now lead the Northeast kickers by but 1 point, and, since Rosedale has five more games to play and Rockville but two, it gives the local kickers a better than even chance to capture their first league championship.

In other Capital City games, Willie Mann's young Fashion Shop Team continued to flash its speedy brand of soccer to stop the luckless Silver Spring squad, 1 to 0, and Army shocked the Gaithersburg booters when they held the fast Maryland club to a scoreless tie. Marlboro defeated the Washington-Concords in a fast exhibition game, 2 to 1.

Despite the record-breaking score rolled up by Rosedale at the expense of Rockville, it is really not indicative of the strong stand made by the Montgomery County lads. In the first half the victors were held to two goals, one of which was more or less of a fluke. The other was one of the best shots of the day, off the toe of Earl Burdette.

Bennett Makes Goal.

Starting the second period, stocky little Joe Bennett made one of his sensational dribbles from midfield and booted the oval by Heim for the third marker. After this the losers put on steam and kept the leather in Rosedale territory for about ten minutes, but the stone-wall defense of Burdette, Wilson and Giddings held them off.

When Rosedale again got on the offense Henry Irving scored the fourth marker with a neat twist off the side of his shoe. Irving also scored the fifth goal, from a penalty, and Cosh ended the Rosedale scoring spree in the last five minutes of play from a penalty. Rockville's only score was from a penalty also.

For the seventh consecutive time this year Silver Spring played well enough to win the average soccer game but lost by the same one-goal margin. With any breaks at all the score would have been a scoreless tie. Some day Silver Spring will get a break and some of the highly touted teams will get the surprise of their lives.

Fashion Shop is composed almost entirely of former junior high players and Manager Mann had not hoped for the success he is having this year, his plan being to build up for next season. Copper, Watson and Ordey played cleverly for the winners as did their only veteran, Wolf.

Hoover Stars for Army.

It was a case of too much Hoover that enabled the Army booters to hold Gaithersburg to the 0 to 0 tie. This worthy, playing right back for the Soldiers, was in action nearly the entire 90 minutes of play to stave off the determined Gaithersburg attacks. Jones, at goal, also played well, his saves resembling some of the agile blocks he made three years ago when he was all-star material.

Magruder, the Gaithersburg goalie, was also called upon to demonstrate his agility to stop many of the stiff shots from the boots of Petrie and Linn. Gloyd, Waters and Ward also played well.

The Marlboro eleven was a little too fast for the Washington-Concord veterans. Their style of play had the combination playing forward lines of the losers baffled during most of the afternoon. Wells was the outstanding member of the victorious eleven, while the Konnell brothers flashed a brilliant game for the vanquished club.

Tonight the Capital City League will meet in Room 2, District Building. President Duvall has sent out a special request for Sergt. Jones, of the Army Team, to be present. At the meeting Silver Spring will request permission to play at Newport News on December 27.

Rosedale.	Positions.	Rockville.
M.Burdette	Goal	Hall
F.Wilson	R.B.	Herman
E.Giddings	L.B.	Walters
Vernon	R.H.	Becker
Hook	C.H.	Coleman
Clanton	L.H.	Case
E.Burdette	O.R.	A.Gandy
Irving	I.R.	F.Collins
Bennett	Center	Rems
Cosh	I.L.	Steinberg
Harding	O.L.	Edmonston

Goals—Bennett (3), Irving (2), Cosh, Steinberg (from a penalty). Referee—Ben Kail (D. S. R. A.). Time of periods—45 minutes. Substitutions—Hutchinson for Coleman.

Fashion Shop.	Positions.	Silver Spr.
Watson	Goal	DeVries
Lavery	R.B.	Abel
Trundle	L.B.	Kelly
Copper	R.H.	Coleman
Thomas	C.H.	O'Meyer
Ordey	L.H.	Cowell
Mileo	O.R.	Bell
Parker	I.R.	Dyer
Brooks	Center	Gunn
Wolf	I.L.	VanHorn
Nuthall	O.L.	Smith

Goals—Parker. Referee—Jack Caldwell (D. S. R. A.). Time of halves—45 minutes.

Army.	Positions.	Gaithersburg.
Jones	Goal	Magruder
Hover	R.B.	Ward
Jackson	L.B.	Hall
Craig	R.H.	Plummer
Gardner	C.H.	W.Walker
McCalley	L.H.	Watkins
Mier	O.R.	Gloyd
Linn	I.R.	Waters
Petrie	Center	R.Walker
Ornel	I.L.	Griggs
Vacant	O.L.	Reid

Referee—Joseph Eisler (D. S. R. A.). Substitution—Hershey for Griggs. Time of halves—45 minutes.

Marlboro.	Positions.	Wash.-C'cord.
G.Buck	Goal	Heise
M.Buck	R.B.	J.Burton
R.Mitchell	L.B.	Caswell
M.Wyville	R.H.	Beyer
Deck	C.H.	G.Faulds
Bult	L.H.	Lamont
L.Mitchell	O.R.	McBain
C.Wyville	I.R.	L.Konnell
Bowie	Center	Turner
P.Wyville	I.L.	E.Konnell
Wells	O.L.	Beyerlin

Goals—Bowie, Wells, McBain. Referee—John Malloch (D. S. R. A.). Time of periods—45 minutes.

J. C. C. Quintet Bows In Baltimore, 32-23

Special to The Washington Post.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 14.—In a game that was nip and tuck from start to finish, the Young Mens Hebrew Association basketball team defeated the Jewish Community Center quint, of Washington, by the score of 32 to 23. The local cagers started out in whirlwind fashion, chalking up 10 markers before the visitors succeeded in ripping the cords. After getting started, however, the Washingtonians sped up their game quite a bit and soon brought their score within striking distance of the Blue Star dribblers. The ultimate winners were equal to this threatening gesture and with Becker and Rosenberg finding the range for a quartet of successive baskets, drew away to a commanding lead.

Frenchie Cohen, University of Maryland player, was the big gun for the Capital squad, with 11 tallies to his credit. Time and again he brought the crowd to its feet with sensational shots from mid-court. Sol Capan stood out on the defense for the Baltimore Hebrews, smothering play after play, besides totaling 7 points.

	G	FG	P		G	FG	P
Becker,f	4	1	9	Levin,f	1	0	2
Richman,f	2	0	4	Hirsh,f	2	0	4
Cohen,c	0	1	1	Cohen,f	8	1	17
Rosenberg,c	2	1	5	Tash,f	0	0	0
Caplan,g	3	1	7	Lester,c	0	2	2
Miller,g	1	1	3	Milton,c	0	1	1
Mazer,g	1	1	3	Goldblatt,g	1	0	2
				Wallenstein	0	0	0
Totals	13	6	32	Totals	10	3	23

Referee—Hyatt.

Bow and Arrow Hunters Get Own Deer Reserve

Blaney, Mich., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Proponents of the bow and arrow are to have 7,000 acres of Blaney Park in which to hunt deer, unmolested by the crack of the modern rifle.

The number of persons who prefer the bow and arrow method of hunting is increasing materially, according to the president of the company that owns the land set aside. They are, however, experiencing difficulty with the competing riflemen.

The bow and arrow hunter depends on skill and stealth in stalking his prey, and the crack of rifles makes it difficult for him to get within proper range.

Roanoke Viscose Five Plans Invasion Here

Special to The Washington Post.

Roanoke, Va., Dec. 14.—Roanoke is backing its Viscose Silk Mill Basket Ball Team, independent champions of this section for the past three years, in its 1930-1931 campaign. Since 1926 the Viscose aggregation has been under the management of Freddy Franks, recreational director at the plant, and has engaged in 106 contests. Of this number, 88 have been victories and 18 defeats, for an all-time percentage of .830. Last year the Silk Millers won the Southwest Virginia Gold Medal tournament, as well as the city-wide championship, without a defeat. The team will enter both events again this season.

The Viscose outfit is open to meet all independent or college teams in Virginia, Maryland or the District of Columbia. Manager Franks would like to arrange a trip to the National Capital, playing the strongest teams possible. Teams interested are requested to write Manager Fred Franks, Viscose Corporation, Roanoke, Va.

ESKIMOS SCORELESS; STILL UP.

Seattle, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The Seattle Eskimos failed to score a single goal in their first three games this year in the Pacific Coast Hockey League and yet were tied for second place. In the league one point is scored for a tie and two for victory. The team tied two.

COAST STAR IN FIGHT FEATURE

Baer Meets Schaaf at Garden Friday; Other Bouts.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Max Baer, latest heavyweight sensation from California, makes his New York debut in Madison Square Garden Friday night, meeting Ernie Schaaf, rugged Boston battler, in a ten-round fracas.

Baer has been hailed in the West as a "second Jack Dempsey!" His record shows only one defeat in 27 professional starts and 24 knockout victories. He hopes to stop Schaaf in four or five rounds, which is something the best of Eastern heavyweights have failed to do.

There are few other bouts of general interest on the week's schedule. Con O'Kelly, Irish heavyweight, tackles Al Friedman, of Boston, at Boston, tomorrow night, and Jackie Fields, former welterweight champion, meets Bucky Lawless of Syracuse, N. Y., in a ten-rounder at Detroit Friday.

Other Bouts on Schedule.

Other bouts on the national schedule include:

Monday—At New York, Lenox S. C., George Hoffman, New York, vs. Raoul Rodriguez, Spain, heavyweights, 6.

Tuesday—At Fresno, Paulie Walker, New York, vs. Indian Jimmy Rivers, Los Angeles, welterweights; ten. At Indianapolis, Del Fontaine, Winnipeg, vs. Johnny Wagner, Port Scott, Kans., middleweights, ten, and Red Holloway, Indianapolis, vs. Frankie Hughes, Kenosha, Wis., junior welterweights, eight. At New York, St. Nicholas Arena, Ted Sandwina, Sioux City, Iowa, vs. Stanley Poreda, Jersey City, heavyweights, ten.

Wednesday—At Toledo, Ohio, Roger Bernard, Detroit, vs., Jackie Cohen, Rochester, N. Y., featherweights, ten.

Thursday—At Cincinnati, Billy Angelo, Leiperville, Va., vs. Charley Cobb, San Diego, welterweights, eight. At New York, Olympia Athletic Club, Jimmy Slavin, New York, vs. Miki Gelb, Hungary, featherweights, ten.

Friday—At New York, Madison Square Garden, Joe Banovic, Binghamton, vs. Bob Olin, heavyweights, and Angel Cliville, Porto Rico, vs. Vittorio Livan, Italy, middleweights, each ten. At St.

SEAMAN GUNNERS UPSET MERCURY ELEVEN, 13-6

Sailors Gain Victory in 2d Half

Poor Kicks Lead to Both Scores for Gob Eleven.

Bricker, Hanschman Stars in Victory of Gunners.

By JOHN V. HINKEL.

A SCRAPPY band of Seaman Gunners from the Washington Navy Yard raked the good ship Mercury fore and aft with a withering barrage of line bucks and forward passes yesterday afternoon on the Silver Spring field to blast into oblivion the District championship aspirations of the Southwesters by a 13 to 6 score. More than 1,500 people saw the title-winners in the unlimited section of The Post's 1930 Capital City Football League suffer their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Sailors. It was also the first time the Mercury goal was crossed this fall.

The triumph was the seventh out of nine starts for the Gunners, who also have tied one and lost one. By virtue of their victory, the Tars earned the right to meet the Apaches for the District title. An agreement of time and place for this game is expected to be reached sometime this week.

Off to a sluggish start, the Sailors did not get down to serious business until the second quarter, when they came from behind to score and then to hold the whip hand for the rest of the contest. The Mercurys appeared to be severely affected by their three-week layoff from active competition.

Unable to gain consistently with their running attack, the Mercs were forced to resort to the air. It was a pass which led to their lone touchdown and it was aerial heaves which reeled offff most of the yardage they registered during the battle. Fourteen passes wer tossed by th th Mercs, eight of which wre successful, for a total of 123 yards. One was intercepted and the rest knocked down. The Sailors took to the air five times, completing three attempts, for 21 yards.

Each team was inside the other's 30-yard line in the first five minutes of play, the Gunners on a poor Merc punt and the Southwesterns on a recovered Sailoref umbie. Both, however, could progress no further. Toward the end of the period Garilli, Merc guard, scooped up Hanschman's fumble on the Gunners' 24-yard line. Lewis then flipped a 10-yard pass to Dechard i nthe next play, who weaved his way for 23 years before he was brought down 1 foot from the Sailo'ar goal. A short line buck put Lewis across for the six-pointer. A pass, Lewis to Dechard, for the extra point, was incomplete.

A poor Mercury punt in the second quarter put the Tars in position to knot the count. Standing on his own 8-yard strip, Self was late in getting off a punt on last down because of a bad pass from center. His effort was partially blocked and the ball bounded outside on the Southwesters' 11-yard mark. Bricker, of the Gunners, made 4 yards at right tackle and then shot through the same place to cross the Merc goal standing up. Bell failed to place-kick the point after touchdown.

On the fourth play of the third period, Pigg, Gunner center, blocked and recovered Lewis' kick on the Mercury's 9-yard line. Bricker collected 8 yards on three tires off-tackle, and Bell on fourth down was stopped inches from a touchdown. Lewis then punted outside on his own 33-yard mark. Several short passes put the ball on the Merc's 11-yard strip and Bricker bucked his way to within a foot of a six-pointer. Bell plunged through center for the score. He also drop-kicked goal.

A well-placed kick by Bricker, which went outside on the Southwesters' 1-yard line, almost led to another Sailor touchdown later in the same quarter. Lewis was hurried in getting off his punt and his effort went outside on Mercury's 22-yard strip. Bricker and Bell then battered their way on successive line plunges to the 1-foot mark where the Sailors were held for downs.

The Mercurys unloosed a puzzling pass attack in the last quarter which the Sailors were hard put to check. With Lewis passing, and Dechard and Handcock receiving, the Mercs once put the ball on the Gunners' 39-yard strip, where they were held for downs, and again on the 26-yard mark, where Hanschman intercepted a heave to end the threat. Lewis in the last minute of play twice passed to Dechard for gains of 8 and 15 yards, respectively.

Bricker and Hanschman, of the Sailors, were two of the best ball carriers to display their wares on a District gridiron this season. Pigg, center; Cook, quarter, and Hall, end, also were prominent in the winners' play. Lewis, Kelliher, Creel, Dechard and Handcock played the best football for the Mercs.

Mercurys	Positions.	S. Gunners.
Kelliher	L. E.	Hall
Hanniboe	L. T.	Herr
Garilli	L. G.	Bradley
G.Limerick	Center	Pigg
Acquolini	R. G.	Rohrer
Creel	R. T.	Johnson
C.Limerick	R. E.	Shellaut
J.Lewis	Q. B.	Cook
Dechard	L. H.	Bell
Handcock	R. H.	Hanschman
Self	F. B.	Bricker

Mercurys ..... 0 0 0 0—0
Seamen Gunners ..... 0 7 6—13

Touchdowns—Lewis, Bricker. Point after touchdown—Bell (drop-kick). Substitutions—(Gunners) Valdez, Kaskiski, Galluszka, Pierce, Skols, Harvey. (Mercurys) Spaulding, McAfee, Russo, Wedge, Clark, Licarione, Wiltshire, Freschi, Wilver, Simpson, Bertolini, Barry, Clagett, Carrick, Rudolph, Shriber. Referee—O. Mitchell (Gonzaga). Umpire—E. Stevens (Gonzaga). Head linesman—M. Stevens (Md.).

Alcova Eleven Wins North Virginia Title

Alcova Motors won the northern Virginia 150-pound championship yesterday afternoon by defeating the Del Ray Athletic Club gridders, 6 to 0, on the Del Ray field. Jerry Augustine went off-tackle for 43 yards and the only touchdown of the battle late in the final period. Howard Augustine, G. Joseph and Prairie, of the winners, and Utterback and McClaren of the Del Rays, were the mainstays of their respective teams.

Alcova Mot.	Positions.	Del Ray.
C.Goldblatt	L.E.	McCulloch
Mosley	L.G.	Parsons
Prairie	L.G.	Edelin
Nelson	Center	Sheffield
Chewning	R.G.	Pritter
Vie	R.T.	Eddington
Kingman	R.E.	Williams
Hall	Q.B.	Nixon
James	L.H.	Frances
Frord	R.H.	Utterback
Boyer	F.B.	McClaren

Alcova Motor Co. ..... 0 0 0 6—6
Del Ray Athletic Club ..... 0 0 0 0—0

Touchdown—Augustine. Substitutions—(Alcova) Howard for Frord, Joseph for James, Jennings for Prairie, Sarle for C. Goldblatt, McAtee for Prairie, Willis for Augustine, (Del-Ray) Blair for Parsons, Hammerall for Blair. Referee—Dreyfus (Tulane). Umpire—Cohean (Tot. A. A.). Head linesman—Fritz (North Va. A. A.).

Capital City Grid League All-Star Teams Selected

ALL UNLIMITED SECTION TEAMS.

First Team.	Position.	Second Team.
Limerick (Mercurys)	L. E.	Woodruff (Brookland)
Niland (St. Stephens)	L. T.	King (Seat Pleasant)
C. Butler (Seat Pleasant)	L. G.	Girton (St. Stephen's)
Grant (Brookland)	C.	Creel (Mercurys)
West (Alpha Delta Omega	R. G.	James (Brookland)
Hanniboe (Mercurys)	R. T.	Crouch (St. Stephen's)
Licarione (Marions)	R. E.	J. Miles (Seat Pleasant)
Holden (Brookland)	Q. B.	Scrivener (Alpha Delta Omega)
Augustine (Seat Pleasant)	L. H. B.	Self (Quentins)
Wiltshire (Mercurys)	R. H. B.	Williams (Alpha Delta Omegas)
Eggleston (Quentins)	F. B.	Zumbo (St. Stephen's)

HONORABLE MENTION.

Ends—Kelliher (Mercurys), Evans (Brookland), and Farrell (St. Stephen's).
Tackles—D. Weir (Brookland), and Shaw (St. Stephens).
Guards—Warren (Brookland), and Borden (Marions).
Center—O. Rehin (Seat Pleasant).
Quarter Back—Berging (Marions).
Half Backs—Voorhees (Brookland), Hoffman (Marions), Handcock (Mercurys), Self (Mercurys), and Shapiro (Alpha Delta Omega).
Full Back—Ratke (Seat Pleasant).

ALL 150-POUND SECTION TEAM.

First Team.	Position.	Second Team.
Raffo (Centennials)	L. E.	Hay (Northern Preps)
R. Vernon (Palace-D. G. S.)	L. T.	McClaren (Del Ray)
A. Marks (Northern Preps)	L. G.	Cristie (Wolverines)
Winters (Wolverines)	C.	Newman (Columbias)
Travers (Brentwood Hawks)	R. G.	Streets (Northern Preps)
Flanegan (Centennials)	R. T.	J. Peters (Palace-D. G. S.)
Histon (Centennials)	R. E.	Holt (Brentwood Hawks)
Busslnk (Centennials)	Q. B.	Serrell (Northern Preps)
W. Fellner (Brentwood Hawks)	L. H. B.	Williams (Brentwood Hawks)
Healey (Columbia)	R. H. B.	B. Reagan (Palace-D. G. S)
Tonker (Palace-D. G. S.)	F. B.	E. Reed (Northern Preps)

HONORABLE MENTION.

Ends—Lynaugh (Mardfelds), and Dawson (Potworth Pennants).
Tackles—Wilson (Brentwood Hawks), and Stoner (Potworth Pennants).
Guards—Grant (Northern Preps), Mothershead (Palace-D. G. S.), Seagnell (Centennials), and Parsons (Del Ray).
Center—M. Stone (Palace-D. G. S.), and S. Fellner (Brentwood Hawks).
Quarter Backs—Hengstler (Columbias), and Nixon (Del Ray).
Half Backs—E. Scanlon (Palace-D. G. S), Marshall (Northern Preps), Utterback (Del Ray), Pieffer (Columbias).
Full Backs—C. Mehler (Potworth Pennants, and M. Frinks (Del Ray).

By JOHN V. HINKEL.

A PREPONDERANCE of evenly-matched teams in each section featured competition in The Post's 1930 Capital City Football League, which came to an official close last Sunday. With the possible exception of one club in the 150-pound division, handicapped severely by internal dissension, there was little to choose between the several teams in both sections. This was brought out by the unusually large number of tie games played, and also by the fact that the overwhelming majority of victories were scored by one touchdown or even less.

UNLIMITED SECTION.

The Mercurys won the unlimited title by the slimmest of margins while the Centennials found the going just as rough in the 150-pound section.

Naturally, with such a galaxy of evenly-matched clubs in each section, the task of picking the all-league teams was made doubly difficult. Each outfit boasted at least three outstanding players, most of them four or five. So, to simplify what otherwise would have been almost an impossible task, The Post asked the coach and manager of each club to submit an "all-opposition" team, composed of players from other elevens who showed best against their particular outfit.

Two points were awarded for each first and one point for each second place selection. The results were tabulated carefully and the players receiving the most points under this system were given the coveted berths.

As befitting a championship club, the Mercurys received the most positions on the first all-unlimited team. Three places were awarded the Mercs, while both Seat Pleasant and Brookland received two. Each of the other clubs was accorded one place in the voting.

Perhaps the most outstanding player of the whole unlimited series was Johnny Holden, Brookland captain and quarter back, who was honored with the signal-calling berth. Weighing less than 160 pounds, Holden was a brilliant field general, a fearless and deadly tackler, and a real triple threat back in every respect.

Grant, of Brookland, Given Center Berth.

Grant, of Brookland, earned the center berth by his fine defensive and offensive work in every game. A lightweight, like Holden, Grant's work in every game left little to be desired.

Limerick, end, and Hanniboe, tackle, of Mercury, had no superiors at their positions. They were excellent blockers and strong on the defense. Hanniboe, in addition, was more than adept with his toe. Their teammate, Harry Wiltshire, quarter back, was one of the best running backs in the section. As a field general he was not the equal of Holden, but his ball-carrying abilities earned him a place on the first team.

There were four Seat Pleasant players who bulwarked the play of their club all season—Augustine, quarter back; C. Butler, guard; King, tackle, and J. Miles, end. Augustine and Butler made the first team and J. Miles and King were awarded berths on the second.

Playing his first year in unlimited competition, "Ike" Licarione, Marion end, stamped himself potentially as one of the best wingmen ever to appear on a District sandlot gridiron. In snaring forward passes and getting down under punts he had few equals.

West, of Alexandrians, Great Wingman.

West, end; Scrivener, quarter back, and Williams, half back, of the Alpha Delta Omegas, had the misfortune of performing with a team which clearly earned the title of being the hard-luck club of the section. Even at that West made the first all-section and his two mates achieved berths on the second.

One of the tackle positions on the all-section went to Niland, of St. Stephen's, who was the mainstay all season of the Saints' line.

"Jumbo" Eggleston, stocky Quentin line-smasher par excellence, more than merited the first-string full back berth. In backing up the line on the defense, he was without an equal.

150-POUND SECTION.

There were two players in the 150-pound division who stood out above all others in the all-section voting. These men were "Buddy" Raffo, end, and Charlie Finnegan, tackle, both of the champion Centennial outfit. Each received the highest number of votes from other coaches and managers in the division.

As a forward pass receiver and as a broken-field runner, Raffo had no peer in the section. Finnegan stood head and shoulders above the other 150-pound division linemen.

Busslnk, quarter back, and Histon, end, were other Centennial players honored with berths on the all-section. Busslnk perhaps was the outstanding triple threat of the division. His field generalship at times, however, was only mediocre. Histon's end play on the whole was usually above reproach.

Palace-D. G. S. Contributes Two "All-Stars."

Palace-District Grocery Stores' contributions to the all-section were R. Vernon, tackle, and Tonker, full back. Vernon was a deadly tackler and a good blocker. Tonker was a hard-hitting, clever ball-carrier with a nice change of pace. His kicking at times bordered on the sensational.

W. Fellner, half back, and Travers, guard, were two big reasons why the Brentwood Hawks almost won the section title. Fellner was a triple threat back in every sense of the word, and Travers was a consistent star in the Brentwood line.

The Columbias' clever back, Joe Healey, who could run, pass and kick with the best of them, was accorded one of the half back berths. Healey was the backbone of the Columbia team all season.

A scrappy, clever Northern Prep player, A. Marks, clinched one of the first string guard berths with his all-around performances in the line.

Winters Rated Best Center Among 150-Pounders.

The center berth on the all-section was well merited by Winters, of the Wolverines. An accurate passer and a fine offensive and defensive player, Winters led the play of his team in each game.

The Del Rays, Potworth Pennants and Mardfelds failed to place a single player on the first team. McClaren, of the Virginians, however, was awarded a position on the second team.

Pitt-Purdue Advance Date of Court Meeting

Special to The Washington Post.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 14.—At the request of Purdue University, the game between the Boilermakers, Western Conference champions, and the Pitt Panthers, who lost only two games out of 25 played against the country's best basket ball teams last year, will be played December 30 instead of January 3 as originally scheduled. This announcement was made at the University of Pittsburgh today.

Moving up the Purdue game makes Dr. H. C. Carlson's schedule even harder than it originally appeared. The Panthers meet the champions of the East, Syracuse, December 27, and three days later the champions of the Middle West. And before and after these major engagements are tough foes of the court.

The Panthers start their Western trip at Milwaukee, December 17, and then jump to Lincoln to meet Nebraska the 19th and in Omaha with Creighton on the 20th. Dartmouth plays on Pitt's floor the 23d, and then after the Syracuse game com t Purdue on the 30th and Indiana on January 1.

Pitt has a comparatively green team with Hyatt, Zehfuss, L. Cohen and Baker of the 1929-30 team gone. The hard games coming so early in the schedule makes the task of the Panthers most difficult.

CHARLES TOWN LEGIONS WIN

Martinsburg, W. Va., Dec. 14.—In by far the best game staged in this section since the basket ball season opened, Lefty Willis' Charles Town American Legion quint nosed out the Hagerstown Y. M. C. A. five, 30 to 27. The game was played in Charles Town.

The Interwoven Athletic Club, champion of Martinsburg, defeated the Frederick De Molays on the local high school floor, 32 to 30. Each club used eleven players during the game.

NORTH TO SEE TECH CAGERS.

Atlanta, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Georgia Tech's 1930-31 basket ball team will engage the Knights of Columbus in Brooklyn on December 30 and meet a Temple quintet in Philadelphia January 3. Prior to these games the Yellow Jackets are to meet the Arundel Club in Baltimore.

Handley High Holds Banquet for Gridmen

Special to The Washington Post.

Winchester, Va., Dec. 14.—The annual banquet of the Handley High School Football Team was held last night in the school cafeteria, with Douglas Cather, 1930 captain, acting as toastmaster, and D. F. Stultz, manager of the Northern Virginia Power Co., as guest speaker. A captain for next year's team was not chosen, it having been decided to adopt an experiment now being tried out by many institutions of selecting a captain for each game played the coming season, and then picking the season's captain at the close of the schedule.

The faculty was represented by Garland R. Quarles, principal; James Yates, of the physical education department, and John Parsons and Otis A. Sergent, coaches. Monograms to outstanding players will be presented an an assembly this week, it was announced. Out of nine games played, the Judges won four, lost three and tied two.

HACK WILSON INVITED.

Shepherdstown, W. Va., Dec. 14.—Officials of Shepherd College announced today that Hack Wilson, Chicago Cubs' star, as well as the most valuable player in the National League, had been extended an invitation to attend the annual football banquet at the college next Thursday night and speak to the guests. At his home in Martinsburg today, Wilson said he would accept the invitation.

WALTONS ELECT OFFICERS.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Dec. 14.—The Martinsburg Chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America held its annual meeting here and elected, for the ensuing year, L. A. Ruckman, former high school teacher, president; W. F. Hopper, vice president, and W. H. Eavenson, secretary-treasurer. In an effort to increase the chapter's membership a committee was appointed to stage a campaign.

INSURE TENNIS PLAYERS.

London, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Insurance for tennis players, costing $3 annually is being written by Lloyds. The policy, effective only on tennis courts of Great Britain, pays $2,500 for accidental death or permanent disability and $1,250 for partial disability.

INTRA-MURAL BOXING AT V. P. I.

Eight Champs Crowned as "Out of Military" Team Wins.

Special to The Washington Post.

BLACKSBURG, Va., Dec. 14.—Eight intramural boxing champions were crowned this week at Virginia Polytechnic Institute in the second annual regimental ring tournament, held under direction of Prof. M. Buford Blair, director of physical education.

Final bouts, staged before several hundred cadets in War Memorial Hall, culminated a full week of preliminary matches. Seventy students participated in the tournament.

Henry Yaggi, veteran varsity basket ball player, showed a lightning-fast punch to defeat Farley in the 135-pound event. Pritchard, winner at 145 pounds, finished strong to defeat Williams, who was a star on the University of Virginia freshman mitt team last winter.

"Out of Military" Team scored 18 points to win the tourney; Headquarters and G Companies tied for second place with 10 points each, followed by I Company with 8; L Company with 6, and B and K Companies with 5 each.

Final round results:

112-pound class—Chester Gratz, Richmond, 1929 champ, K Company, won Judge's decision over J. W. Berry, Staunton, L Company, in extra round.

115-pound class—F. J. Giles, Norfolk, out of military, won decision over R. C. Etheridge, Back Bay, G Company.

125-pound class—Ben Sheren, Portsmouth, Headquarters Company, won decision over J. V. Rodenbeck, Glenside, Pa., G Company, in extra round.

135-pound class—H. J. Yaggi, New Philadelphia, Ohio, out of military, won decision over J. K. "Lefty" Farley, South Boston, G Company, in extra round.

145-pound class—A. B. Pritchard, Norfolk, B Company, won decision over J. Williams, North Garden, I Company, in extra round.

160-pound class—J. H. Bailey, Kinsale, Headquarters Company, scored technical knockout over John Looney, Roanoke, out of military, in second round.

175-pound class—G. C. Hoffman, Orange, I Company, won decision over R. M. Garrett, Irvington, H Company, in extra round.

Unlimited class—Al Seamon, Pontiac, Mich., out of military, scored technical knockout in extra round over M. W. Sifford, Nace, L Company.

Woman Golf Pro Gives Cheer to Slim Sisters

Palm Beach, Fla., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—A woman should not be discouraged because she is slim, says Bessie Fenn, woman golf pro and manager of the Palm Beach Golf Club.

Miss Fenn says that the small, slight woman has just as much chance to hang up a good score as her larger and more athletic sister. "It all depends upon the strength of the wrists," the pro said.

One of the few women golf professionals in the United States, Miss Fenn has played a good game of golf since she was 7 years old.

Her father was the late Arthur H. Fenn, famous pro of earlier days. He won the Lennox Cup in 1896 and received it from the hand of President McKinley.

The Weather

TODAY'S SUN AND TIDE TABLE

	A.M.	P.M.
Sun rises	7:19
High tide	3:55	4:28
Sun sets	4:47
Low tide	10:33	11:14

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Weather Bureau.
Washington, Sunday, Dec. 14—8 p. m.

Forecast for the District of Columbia and Maryland—Cloudy Monday; Tuesday partly cloudy; not much change in temperature; moderate northerly winds.

For Virginia—Mostly cloudy Monday and Tuesday; not much change in temperature; moderate northerly winds.

A disturbance of considerable intensity is central about 400 miles east of the Del aware coast, moving northeastward and attended by winds of gale force. The disturbance that was central over eastern Colorado Saturday night has moved southeastward to northern Texas. Fort Worth, 29.86 inches. High-pressure area of considerable intensity is central over southwestern Ontario. Sioux Lokoout, 3072 inches. Pressure is also high over the Plateau. Voise, Idaho, 30.60 inches. During the last 24 hours snows have occurred in New England, the Lake region, the upper Ohio Valley, the upper Mississippi Valey, the Plains States and at scattered points in the northern and central Rocky Mountain region. The temperature has fallen over Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Elsewhere temperature changes have been slight.

The outlook is for considerable cloudiness Monday and Tuseday ni the Washington forecast district, in the rain in Tennessee and portions of the South Atlantic States on Monday. Temperature changes will be unimportant.

Local Weather Report.

Temperature—Midnight, 40; 2 a. m., 40; 4 a. m., 37; 6 a. m., 36; 8 a. m., 36; 10 a. m., 37; 12 noon, 39; 2 p. m., 39; 4 p. m., 39; 6 p. m., 39; 8 p. m., 39; 10 p. m., 38. Highest, 40. Lowest, 36.

Relative humidity—8 a. m., 75; 2 p. m., 65; 8 p. m., 65. Rainfall (8 p. m. to 8 p. m.), none. Hours of sunshine, none. Per cent of possible sunshine, none.

DEPARTURES FROM NORMAL.

Accumulated excess of temperature since January 1, 1930, 974 degrees.

Excess of temperature since December 1, 1930, 24 degrees.

Accumulated deficiency of precipitations since January 1, 1930, 20.15 inches.

Deficiency of precipitation since December 1, 1930, 0.76 inch.

Flying Weather Forecast.

Washington, D. C., to Long Island, N. Y.—Partly cloudy sky Monday; moderate northerly winds up to 1,000 feet and moderate to fresh northerly at 5,000 feet.

Washington to Norfolk, Va.—Partly cloudy sky Monday; gentle to moderate northerly winds up to 1,000 feet and moderate northerly at 5,000 feet.

Washington, D. C., to Dayton, Ohio—Cloudy sky Monday; gentle to moderate northerly winds up to 1,000 feet and moderate northerly at 5,000 feet.

Temperatures and Precipitation.

Temperatures and precipitation for 24 hours ended Sunday, 8 p. m.:

	Highest Sun. night.	Lowest Sat. Sun. 8 p.m.	Rainfall.
Washington, D. C.	39	36	....
Asheville, N. C.	40	32	....
Atlanta, Ga.	48	36	....
Atlantic City, N. J.	40	36	....
Baltimore, Md.	38	34	....
Birmingham, Ala.	54	36	....
Bismarck, N. Dak.	20	16	....
Boise, Mont.	30	18	....
Buffalo, N. Y.	36	22	0.10
Chicago, Ill.	36	30	0.03
Cincinnati, Ohio	38	34	....
Cheyenne, Wyo.	32	26	0.06
Cleveland, Ohio	32	32	0.04
Davenport, Iowa	34	28	....
Denver, Colo.	50	28	0.32
Detroit, Mich.	32	26	....
Duluth, Minn.	24	14	0.02
El Paso, Tex.	58	44	....
Galveston, Tex.	68	56	....
Helena, Mont.	38	34	....
Indianapolis, Ind.	36	34	....
Jacksonville, Fla.	66	46	....
Kansas City, Mo.	42	30	....
Little Rock, Ark.	50	38	....
Los Angeles, Calif.	62	52	....
Louisville, Ky.	40	36	....
Marquette, Mich.	26	20	0.12
Memphis, Tenn.	44	34	....
Miami, Fla.	70	60	....
Mobile, Ala.	62	44	....
New Orleans, La.	68	48	....
New York, N. Y.	40	36	....
North Platte, Nebr.	32	28	0.16
Omaha, Nebr.	32	30	....
Philadelphia, Pa.	42	36	....
Phoenix, Ariz.	68	40	....
Pittsburgh, Pa.	34	30	....
Portland, Me.	44	44	0.02
Portland, Oreg.	46	32	....
S. Lake City, Utah	32	28	....
St. Louis, Mo.	36	34	....
St. Paul, Minn.	28	24	....
San Antonio, Tex.	74	50	....
San Diego, Calif.	76	48	....
S. Francisco, Calif.	58	48	....
Santa Fe, N. Mex.	52	22	....
Savannah, Ga.	60	44	....
Seattle, Wash.	52	42	....
Springfield, Ill.	34	32	....
Tampa, Fla.	62	52	....
Toledo, Ohio	34	28	0.06
Vicksburg, Miss.	54	42	....

River Bulletin.

Harpers Ferry, W. Va., Dec. 14.—Potomac and Shenandoah Rivers clear.

British Auto Driver Hopes to Attain 250 Miles Per Hour at Daytona Beach

Capt. Malcolm Campbell, British automobile speed king, has asked the American Automobile Association to sanction speed trials, in which he hopes to make 250 miles an hour, some time during January or February at Daytona Beach, Fla.

By OSCAR LEIDING.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Capt. Malcolm Campbell, only living man who officially ever has driven an automobile faster than 200 miles an hour, is expected to come back to the United States for an attempt to shatter the existing record.

On the 14-mile ribbon of sand where the late Sir H. O. D. Segrave shot his Golden Arrow at 231.36 miles an hour in 1929, he will try early in 1931 to regain the automobile crown of "King Speed" he once held for 62 days.

He took the title for "the flying mile" from his fellow Britisher, Segrave, in 1928 when he piloted his Napier-Bluebird at 206.956 miles an hour, only to have an American, the late Ray Keech, raise the mark to 207.552 miles an hour.

Segrave returned the title to Great Britain in 1929 with a speed that stood rockfast against the assaults last March by Kay Don, another British champion, in his Silver Bullet.

Capt. Campbell will come back to the world-famous battleground of speed with a goal of 250 miles an hour. A special racer has been designed, partly new but with some bits of his old machine.

It will hove a motor called a Schneider Cup type supercharged Napier, rated at 1,400 horsepower. Wind tunnel tests have decided the design of the stream-lined body.

The new chassis will have the propeller shaft to one side, allowing the driver to sit in between it and the frame. There will be a directional fin in the rear and a radiator in the front.

Capt. Campbell, expecting to have the car ready in January, as late as November 20 made overtures to the American Automobile Association to sanction his trials for the time when Daytona's sands are hard packed, between January 1 and February 15.

Plans for a speed carnivel have not been approved by the association, but it is held likely that there will be an American challenge to England's land-speed supremacy by Harlan Fengler and Peter de Paolo, veteran speedway drivers, who are constructing a 48-cylinder thunderbolt.

While the association has received official word from only Campbell, it is understood that there may be other American entrants, including a car built by J. M. White, Philadelphia, who backed Keech with the ill-fated White Triplex that was demolished last year when it carried Lee Bible to death.

Basket Ball Hopes of G. W. Placed in Sophomore Stars

Crack 1929 Yearlings, Led by Conners and Burgess, to Dominate This Season's Team; First Test Due Tuesday.

(This is the fifth of a series of articles dealing with prospects of local college basket ball teams.)

By JACK ESPEY.

ONCE more it looks as if George Washington must depend on its sophomore athletes to carry it successfully through a sports season. Just as the Colonial supporters and coaches figuratively placed the burden on the shoulders of the husky 1929 freshmen at the beginning of the late football season, so do they now contemplate the basket ball campaign.

It is entirely possible that every regular position will be filled by sophomores when Coach Jim Pixlee sends forth his basket ball team to open the Colonial court activities tomorrow night against Shenandoah College in the H Street Gymnasium.

Available from the 1929 yearling squad which blazed a trail of victory through local college freshmen and scholastic ranks are Jack Conner, Forrest Burgess, Billy Wells and Lee Carlin, forwards; Fred Mulvey and Clyde Romig, centers, and Llyle Sturtevant and Wayne Chambers, guards.

Fenlon May Get Regular Job.

This does not complete the list of likely looking sophomore talent as there also is present Johnny Fenlon, the scrappy youngster who jumped to local recognition in a few short weeks during the last football season. Fenlon did not play with the Colonial frosh last winter, but he is basketer of real merit and right now ranks high among the varsity candidates. He is a guard.

Remaining of the 1929 varsity are Dick Castell and Jack Perry, both of whom perform at guard. They face the sternest sort of opposition from the newcomers. In fact, it will not surprise if they give way to a pair of the sophs, although not without lively arguments.

What George Washington lacked so strikingly last season it should possess in quantity and quality this year. This is scoring strength. With Burgess and Conner, the Colonials need have no fears about finding the basket, be it afar or near.

Burgess Noted as Crack Shot.

For several years past Burgess has thrilled local followers of basket ball with his Dead-Eye Dick stuff as a member of the quintets of Central High and American University. He served one season on the American varsity when he was a freshman at the Methodist institution in 1928.

Conner is a veteran courtman, probably the most experienced in local college ranks. Before entering G. W. he played for several years in fast Midwestern circles and once performed with the Hillyards, national A. A. U. champions.

Both Burgess and Conner are two-handed shooters; that is, each can sink the ball either left or right handed. They also are clever passers and speedy runners with the knack of cutting quickly for the basket. It takes a fast trio of teammates to keep up with them.

Starting Line-Up Puzzles Coach.

Coach Pixlee is undecided about the starting line-up. The center position is giving him considerable worry, as he has had a hard time choosing between Mulvey and Chambers. The latter plays the center position as well as he does a guard role, and he has height, weight and speed to earn him consideration for the regular nomination. Mulvey, while a little more experienced in the duties of the pivot job, is not as heavy as Chambers.

In the guard positions Pixlee also has a choice, but height may prove the determining factor with Zahn, Chambers and Sturtevant holding an edge over the rest.

All of George Washington's home games will, as in the past, be held in the H street gymnasium, which can accommodate about 800 spectators.

COLLEGE BASKET BALL PROGRAM THIS WEEK

TONIGHT.

Columbus U. vs. Shenandoah College at Central High School.

TUESDAY.

George Washington vs. Shenandoah College at G. W. Gymnasium.

Catholic U. vs. Maryland State Normal at Brookland.

WEDNESDAY.

Columbus U. vs. Shepherd College at Shepherdstown, W. Va.

FRIDAY.

George Washington vs. Baltimore U., at Baltimore.

Catholic U. vs. Rider College, at Trenton, N. J.

SATURDAY.

Catholic U. vs. Manhattan College, at New York City.

Haverford Gains Two Places on Star Team

Haverford, Pa., Dec. 14.—Two Haverford booters found berths in the 1930 All-Opponent soccer team released by Coach James McPete, Scarlet and Black mentor, early this week. Booters from Penn, Lehigh, Swarthmore, and Princeton filled the remaining places on his stellar team. Penn led the list with four men placed, Swarthmore equaled the Main Liners with two, while each of the other colleges mentioned had a single man on the team. The choice this year was rendered unusually difficult because of the fact that most of these teams were very nearly equal in caliber to one another, with few outstanding men.

From Haverford, Capt.-elect Potts, who for the last several years has been one of the mainstays in the back field, received a well-earned position at right full back. The other Haverford man to receive a position was Capt. Pennybacker, whose brilliant work at center half was responsible for most of the season's victories.

Lions Mix Books With Football Under Little

New York, Dec. 14.—Pointing out that football and athletic attainments always have gone hand in hand with scholarship at Columbia, Dean Herbert E. Hawkes, of Columbia College, addressing the Varsity "C" Club, said "it may be stated that under the leadership of Louis Little, our scholarship standards among football athletes has been higher than ever and the cooperation between the football authorities and the faculty closer than ever.

"If this sort of thing continues," Dean Hawkes added, "we will soon be hearing of our football team as 'the young Columbia savants.'"

One of the features of Lou Little's coaching regime at Columbia during the past season has been his insistence that the players should not neglect their studies, and feel that they could "catch up" when the season was over. Dean Hawkes declared that as a result of this attention to scholastic requirements, remarkably high standings had been achieved, and it was learned that only one of the entire football squad is now on the danger list.

Many reliable firms present exceptional offers in Post Classified Ads every morning.

SHENANDOAH QUINT HERE IN 2 GAMES

Plays Columbus Tonight and G. W. Tomorrow.

TWO games here tonight and tomorrow night will afford a comparison of teams representing the Washington Collegiate Conference and teams of the older local college group. Shenandoah College, of Dayton, Va., will furnish the opposition in both games, meeting Columbus, of the conference tonight in Central High School Gymnasium, and George Washington, representative of the other class, tomorrow night in the H street gymnasium.

Columbus, victor in its opening conference engagement last week, is hopeful of making as impressive a showing against Shenandoah as George Washington is expected to make tomorrow night.

Conference Teams Seek Wider Field.

It is the contention of Washington Collegiate Conference teams that they play just as good basket ball as do the teams of wider local reputation. Furthermore, they claim they are entitled to places on the schedules of the others, but that their requests for games with few exceptions have been denied.

Tonight's game, starting at 8 o'clock, is the first of two scheduled this week by Columbus. On Wednesday the Crimson quintet opposes Shepherd College at Shepherdstown, W. Va.

Shenandoah tomorrow night will be the inaugural opponent for George Washington, which has practically a sophomore team this season. Coach Jim Pixlee, who just took over the court coaching reins at the downtown institution, has not yet picked his starting line-up. However, it is though certain that Burgess and Conner, star forwards of the 1929 G. W. freshmen, will be among those answering the opening whistle.

Catholic University's five, strengthened by the recent return of John Hickey, last year's regular center who failed to report at the beginning of practice, will open its campaign tomorrow night in a game with Maryland State Normal.

Georgetown Five Inactive This Week.

The starting Cardinal line-up will be composed of Hickey, center; Capt. Joe Walsh and Johnny Oliver, forwards, and Lester Sheary and Lou Spinelli, guards. The last two mentioned are sophomores, the others being veterans of the 1929-1930 team.

Georgetown, which won its first two contests last week, is not scheduled for competition this week, but faces a strenuous program of practice mapped out by Coach John Colrick. The Hilltop squad, reduced to ten because of classroom failures, will receive a welcome addition this afternoon when Johnny Bozek reports.

Bozek, whose brother Emile helped win the Baltimore U. game last Saturday night, has never played varsity basket ball at Georgetown, despite the fact that he entered the Hilltop three years ago with a fine reputation as a basketer. He is a center.

Gallaudet, loser in its first couple of contests last week, also is slated for a week of hard drill. The Blue will resume competition on December 27 in a clash with Southeastern University.

American, which won its opener, and Maryland, which has not begun practice yet, are not due for action until the second week of January.

'BAMA TO SEE RED.

Pullman, Wash., Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The Washington State College Cougars will live up to their new name of Red Devils when they represent the West against Alabama in the Tournament of Roses New Year's Day football battle, for they will be outfitted in red from head to foot.

Allen and Lauri Win In Title Pocket Billiards

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Bennie Allen, of Kansas City, won his second game in the world's championship pocket billiard tournament in the first afternoon game today, defeating Tommy Boatman, of Portland, Oreg., by 125 to 120, in 22 innings. Allen won with an unfinished run of 25. This was Allen's second victory in six games and Boatman's fourth defeat in five games.

Onofrio Lauri, of Brooklyn, moved into second place by defeating Arthur Woods, of New York, in the second afternoon game, 125 to 70, in 17 innings. This was Lauri's fourth victory in five games and Woods' second defeat in five games. Woods fell to fourth position. Ralph Greenleaf, the defending champion, is in third place, with three games won and one lost. Erwin Rudolph, of Chicago, is leading with three victories and no defeats.

Pasquale Natalle has been drawn to meet Boatman in the first game tomorrow afternoon, while Greenleaf will oppose Woods in the second. Rudolph and Lauri are scheduled to clash tomor

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

BURR McINTOSH
OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHER OF SECRETARY TAFT'S EXPEDITION TO THE ORIENT WILL GIVE AN ILLUSTRATED LECTURE AT DALY'S THEATER, NEW YORK, TONIGHT, WITH MORE THAN 200 BEAUTIFUL STEREOPTICON VIEWS.
(Copyright, 1930, by The Bell Syndicate Inc.)
12-15
MISS JANE COWL, FORMER ERASMUS HALL (BROOKLYN) GIRL WHO IS GOING TO COLUMBIA PREPARATORY TO THE STUDY OF DRAMATIC ART, WAS TWENTY-ONE YEARS OLD YESTERDAY.
CHRISTMAS IS ONLY 10 DAYS OFF!
BUY NOW! THIS BEAUTIFUL WELSBACH PORTABLE LAMP
$2.50
THE OLD AUTOGRAPH ALBUM
Long may you live,
Happy may you be,
And have husbands
One-two-three
LEON CALMONT— NEW YORK.

DECEMBER 15, 1905.

The stock market yesterday reached the highest level of the year.

Congress threatened an investigation of hazing at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

In a statement on proposed revision of football rules, Walter Camp laid stress on the need for a measure to prevent tackling below the knees.

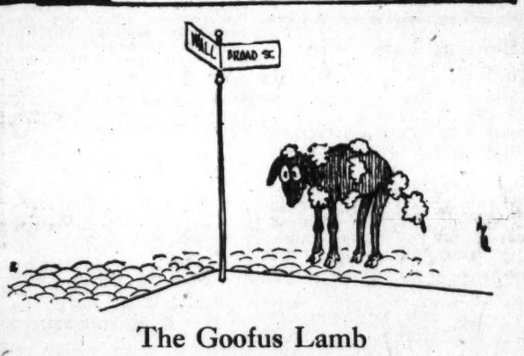
Counselor Walter Townley and his wife, Lady Susan, were injured slightly when their automobile upset on Military road.

Public Printer Stillings, newly appointed, announced a "reform" movement in the Government Printing Office.

GOOFUS ANIMALS

By HERBERT KIRK. Drawings by NAT Ballier

Trade-Mark Registered U. S. Patent Office



The Goofus Lamb

Take pity on this shorn Lamb,
A Wall Street wind took toll of him;
It sheared the wool right off his back
And almost tore him limb from limb.

Confused and battered here he stands,
Untempered to the wind and sore;
But wait, his wool will grow again
And he'll come gamboling back for more!

Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

ACROSS.

1 State as so
5 Parasites
9 In what manner
12 Dreadful
13 Units
14 Species of ground pine
15 Executive officer of a college
16 Hazarded
18 Lateral
20 Unruffled
21 The last
23 Kitty
24 Third note
25 To rub
27 Suffers
31 Ostrich
33 First name of Douglas, heroine of "Lady of the Lake"
35 Bind
36 Makes as clear profit
38 Artistic
40 Near
41 Worthless person (colloq.)
43 Certain fruits
45 Intersecting
48 Employs
49 Rough, tough men (slang)
51 Capital of Latvia
54 Custom
55 Faithful
56 Paradise
57 River in Wales and England
58 Serf
59 A size of paper

DOWN.

1 Subjoin
2 To show rivalry
3 Obliterate
4 Fails to follow suit when able
5 Bathe
6 To chill
7 Blamed
8 Large public park in Colorado
9 Compensation for services
10 Heated chamber
11 To walk in water
17 Either of two constellations
19 Small fresh water fish
21 Forebode
22 To mimic
23 Whimpers
26 Persons of advanced years (colloq.)
28 A neuter object
29 Untruthful person
30 Collections
32 First musical note, old form
34 Short sleeps
37 Mark left by a wound
39 Gazed amorously
42 Join
44 Apart
45 Shirt button
46 Facility
47 One of an Indian tribe
48 One for whose behoof, but not in whose name a suit is brought 50 Brook
52 Anything precious
53 An, or one

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS.

L	A	C	■	F	R	A	M	E	■	C	A	S	E	S	■	P	A	P
E	R	E	■	I	O	T	A	S	■	A	D	O	R	E	■	A	V	E
G	E	N	U	F	L	E	C	T	■	R	E	D	A	C	T	O	R	S
■	■	T	R	E	E	■	E	D	E	N	■	T	I	T	■	■	■	■
T	R	U	S	S	■	C	A	E	S	O	■	T	R	I	S	E	C	T
A	E	R	A	■	S	E	A	M	Y	■	S	N	O	O	■	C	E	E
T	A	I	■	C	H	I	T	S	■	S	I	R	E	N	■	T	A	N
A	D	O	■	H	A	L	E	■	I	D	E	S	■	E	S	T	E	R
A	E	N	E	A	S	■	B	E	L	L	E	■	M	A	D	E	S	■
■	■	O	N	E	■	A	L	A	T	E	■	M	A	N	■	■	■	■
L	A	C	E	S	■	B	L	A	T	S	■	V	A	C	R	O	A	N
A	R	E	S	■	H	A	I	O	S	■	R	A	N	K	■	I	V	A
H	E	N	■	B	O	R	N	E	■	S	I	D	E	S	■	C	A	R
A	N	T	■	L	O	N	E	■	A	C	T	E	D	■	S	W	I	N
S	T	U	P	O	R	S	■	B	L	E	E	D	■	G	A	O	L	S
■	■	■	R	U	T	■	M	A	I	N	■	A	L	I	T	■	■	■
A	R	I	S	T	I	D	E	S	■	T	A	E	M	U	L	O	U	S
C	U	E	■	E	R	O	D	E	■	E	E	L	E	S	■	M	L	I
E	N	T	■	R	A	R	E	R	■	D	R	E	A	M	S	■	Y	E	T

(Copyright, 1930.)

BUCK ROGERS, 2430 A. D. — Escapes Gleaming Jaws — More strange adventures in a full color page every Sunday. — By Phil Nowlan and Dick Calkins

NO SOONER HAD I LEFT OUR SUBMERGED CRAFT TO EXPLORE THE SUNKEN RUINS OF ATLANTIS, THAN I WAS ATTACKED BY A HUGE SHARK. ONLY THE ROCKET MOTOR OF MY DIVING SUIT SAVED ME.
COPYRIGHT JOHN F. DILLE CO. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
I STREAKED FOR ONE OF THE SUBMERGED BUILDINGS.
I'LL SLIDE IN THIS PORT— I'M FISH-BAIT IF I DON'T MAKE IT!
PUT-PUT-PUT
BUT I MADE IT— AND SHOT THROUGH INTO THE INKY BLACKNESS BEYOND.
THAT WAS A NARROW SQUEAK!
I FOUND MYSELF IN A ROOM FULL OF STRANGE MACHINERY. THE SHARK COULDN'T GET THROUGH THE ENTRANCE.
CORAL FORMATIONS HAVE GROWN OVER EVERY THING! THIS PLACE HAS BEEN ABANDONED FOR CENTURIES! YET THAT MACHINE LOOKS MODERN!
BY DICK CALKINS
TO BE CONTINUED 6OT.

GASOLINE ALLEY — Don't miss this feature in colors in The Sunday Post. — Now We're All Square

BY THE WAY, PHYLLIS, YOU WERE JOLLYING SKEEZIX AND ME ABOUT WHAT WE CARRIED IN OUR POCKETS. LET'S SEE WHAT YOU'VE GOT IN YOUR HANDBAG.
CERTAINLY.
SHOPPING LIST, PEN KNIFE, NAIL FILE, ROUGE, LIP STICK, POWDER—
POWDER PUFF, HANDKERCHIEF, PERFUME BUSINESS CARDS AND ADDRESS BOOK.
KEYS, PURSE, MIRROR—
CALLING CARDS, STAMPS, COMB, PEN, PENCIL, TALLY CARD, GUM.
BUT I DON'T USUALLY CARRY GUM. SOMEBODY GAVE ME THAT.
SHE WILL TALK TO US, WILL SHE?
-KING
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.: Copyright, 1931, by The Chicago Tribune.

MINUTE MOVIES — (All rights protected by the George Matthew Adams Service. Trade Mark Registered U. S. Patent Office.) — By Ed Wheelan

HELLO EVERYBODY! THIS IS STATION WMMS, WHEELAN'S MINUTE MOVIE STUDIO WITH ART HOKUM AT THE "MIKE"!
WMMS
I HAVE SOME IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS TO BROADCAST TO MINUTE MOVIE FANS!!
IN KEEPING WITH OUR POLICY OF PRESENTING A CONSTANTLY VARYING PROGRAM, WE ARE ABOUT TO OFFER A MOST NOVEL AND UNUSUAL FEATURE!!
STARTING ON ALL MINUTE MOVIE SCREENS TOMORROW WE WILL PRESENT A BEAUTIFUL ALL STAR FILM VERSION OF THE FAIRY TALE CLASSIC "CINDERELLA" FEATURING MISS HAZEL DEARIE IN THE STELLAR ROLE!!
HERE IS A HOLIDAY PRESENTATION TO THRILL AND DELIGHT THE KIDDIES AND TO STIR HAPPY MEMORIES IN THE HEARTS OF GRANDMA AND GRANDPA!!
WE HAVE SPARED NO EFFORT OR EXPENSE TO MAKE THIS PICTURE A "SUPER-SUPER-SPECIAL" SO DON'T MISS IT!
WE ARE PLANNING ALL SORTS OF SPLENDID SERIALS AND SPECIAL FEATURES FOR 1931 AND AS THIS IS THE LAST TIME WE WILL BE ON THE AIR DURING 1930, ON BEHALF OF ED WHEELAN AND—
-HIS MINUTE MOVIE STARS, I WISH YOU ALL A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!
HEALTH TO ALL
12-15

BOBBY THATCHER — Until Dawn! — By George Storm

AS BILL BOUND PASCOE'S FEET THE UNSEEN HAND OF MOTT DIAMOND WHISKED THE STOLEN MONEY FROM THE TABLE AND DASHED OUT THE CANDLE TO THWART PURSUIT.....
NO, YOU DON'T PASCOE!
THERE WAS NO WIND TO DOUSE THAT LIGHT! BETTER WAIT'LL MY EYES GET USED TO THE DARKNESS!
BELIEVING FRIENDS OF PA'SCOE WERE ABOUT TO ATTEMPT HIS RESCUE BILL DID NOT RELIGHT THE CANDLE, BUT CROUCHED OVER HIS CAPTIVE, COVERING THE DOORWAY OF THE CABIN WITH PASCOE'S RIFLE UNTIL DAWN
GONE! EVERY DOLLAR OF IT!... MY BACK WAS TURNED; WHY DIDN'T THEY SHOOT? ..... WELL, I STILL HAVE PASCOE AND HIS SIGNED CONFESSION!
(Copyright, 1930, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

THE GUMPS — Follow the Gumps in the colored Comic Section of The Sunday Post. — Help! Help!

NOW DARLING— WE SIMPLY MUST CUT DOWN ON OUR EXPENSES— AND YOU'VE GOT TO HELP ME—
WELL- I'M WILLING TO DO ALL THAT I CAN—
GOSH— I HATE TO BE NAGGING— I LIKE TO SEE YOU HAVE ALL THEM PRETTY THINGS— AND IT'S WINTER— AND I KNOW YOU NEED A LOT OF NEW CLOTHES AND ALL THAT— BUT, JUST LAST MONTH I PAID $450.00 FOR THINGS YOU BOUGHT—
BUT I HAD TO HAVE THAT DRESS— AND PART OF IT WAS FOR THE BALANCE I OWE ON MY FUR COAT—
NOW- I'M NOT COMPLAINING- UNDERSTAND- AND THIS MONTH- DO YOU KNOW WHAT THE BILLS ARE FOR YOUR CLOTHES? I'M NOT KICKING- I'M NOT SCOLDING YOU- BUT JUST TO LET YOU KNOW— $275.00 FOR THE MONTH—
WELL- THAT'S HELPING YOU- ISN'T IT? I SAVED YOU $175.00 THIS MONTH—
SIDNEY SMITH
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1930, by The Chicago Tribune.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER — See the Winkle family in colors in The Sunday Post. — A Dead Give-Away

Baby Mine

MAW AND ME STARTED OUR CAMPAIGN IN OCTOBER SO WE THINK WE HAVE MADE POP CHRISTMAS-CONSCIOUS BY THIS TIME.

I'LL REPORT AT THE OFFICE AND THEN GO RIGHT DOWN TO THE PIG IRON MINING CO. AND CASH THESE SHARES! I'LL TAKE A PEEK AT THE BOSS' PAPER AND SEE WHAT TODAY'S MARKET PRICE IS, FIRST!!
BUY XMAS SEALS
PRIVATE
DEC. 15
GEE, YOU'RE A LUCKY KID! I DON'T BLAME YOU FOR HURRYING UP TO COLLECT YOUR FORTUNE! GOSH, I WISH I OWNED THAT STOCK!!
BARNABY BIBBS
DAILY-DAILY.
BIG FAILURE!
PIG IRON MINING CORP.
INSOLVENT
PRES. FRANK FORSYTHE DISAPPEARS
WARRANTS OUT FOR HIS ARREST
SHARE HOLDERS LOSE MILLIONS
DISTRICT ATT'Y OPENS SAFE
DEPOSIT BOXES FIND THEM EMPTY. HIS DISAPPEARANCE
PRES. FORSYTHE A FUGITIVE, BELIEVED ON BOARD SHIP BOUND FOR EUROPE!
MINING CORP CLOSES DO
THOU
SH
WELL DOT, YOU GET YOUR WISH! HERE'S THE STOCK! IT'S YOURS!!
SNIFF SNIFF
BRANNER

Select Gifts for Select People Will Be Found in "Holiday Hints"

CLAIRVOYANTS

37 Years' Successful Practice in Washington, D. C.

Martha Spencer

MOST REMARKABLE READER OF HUMAN DESTINY OF THE PRESENT AGE.

It may be of vital interest to you to know the outcome of your present DILEMMA; the happiness of your future life may depend upon the right solution and proper advice WITHOUT A QUESTION WILL TELL YOU THE OBJECT OF YOUR CALL, NAMES OF FRIENDS, RELATIVES AND ACTUAL FACTS CONCERNING YOUR LIFE AND CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH YOU KNOW TO BE ABSOLUTELY TRUE. Hours, 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. MRS. SPENCER WILL REFUSE TO ACCEPT ANY FEE UNLESS SHE GIVES UT-MOST SATISFACTION. THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR MY READING.

924 14th St. N.W.

CLAIRVOYANT THE MAN WHO KNOWS

Two Entrances, 606 12th St. N.W. 1203 F St. N.W. Up One Flight Over Woolworth's 5c & 10c Store.

This strange man sees the way and tells it all. Just what your life has been. Just what it will be. Tells you when and whom you will marry; whether husband, wife or sweetheart is true or false. Tells as to changes, travel, lost or absent friends, divorce, wills, deeds; whether it is best to buy or sell. Will tell the good and the bad. A visit will convince you of his wonderful power.

Something tells you this is the man. You feel the impulse to call. Do not delay.

Auctions

Auction Sales

MONDAY, DECEMBER 22.
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers, 1431 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, BEING A TWO-STORY BRICK DWELLING CONTAINING SIX ROOMS AND BATH, KNOWN AS 210 SIXTEENTH STREET SOUTHEAST.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust recorded in Liber No. 5548 at folio 18, of the Land Records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned will sell at public auction in front of the premises on MONDAY, DECEMBER 22, TWENTY-SECOND, 1930, AT THREE O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises situated in the District of Columbia, being lot numbered ninety-two (92) in Harry A. Kite's Subdivision of lots in square numbered ten hundred and eighty-seven (1087), as per plat recorded in the Office of the Surveyor for the District of Columbia in Liber 15 at folio 36, upon the following terms:

TERMS OF SALE: Said property is subject to a deed of trust securing an indebtedness of $4,000, now past due, and said property will be sold subject to deed of trust indebtedness. All cash over and above said deed of trust. Interest and taxes to be paid or adjusted to date of sale. A deposit of $250 will be required at the time of sale. All conveyancing, recording, &c., at the cost of purchaser. Should title not be found good, sale to be consummated within thirty (30) days from day of sale, otherwise deposit will be forfeited and property resold at risk and cost of defaulting purchaser after five (5) days' advertisement of such re-sale in some newspaper published in Washington, D. C.

S. FRANCIS SAUL,
WILLIAM F. BENSON,
Trustees.
925 15th Street N.W.
P-dec 10,12,13,15,16,17,18,19,20,22

Announcements

Lost 8

DOG—Wire-haired fox terrier, female puppy, 4 months old. Thursday evening; marked black, white and tan. Reward. Phone Cleve. 2336.

DOG—White male terrier with black ears, named "Ginger;" tag 17474. Cleveland 4705. Reward.

LARGE carnelian ring, Friday evening; reward. Call Adams 8103 or Apartment 304, 1443 Spring road.

PIN—On December 4, diamond and platinum circle bow pin containing 3 calibre emeralds; $150 reward for the return or information leading to the recovery. Apply Fischer & Fischer, 808 Edmonds Bldg. Phone Met. 2311.

POCKETBOOK—Blue, on 14th st. near Decatur, containing prescription for eyeglasses and cash; reward. Cleveland 5862.

ROUND diamond and opal scarf pin. Liberal reward. Metropolitan Club.

SEALYHAM terrier; white; female; collar and leash; near Dupont Circle. Return to 2119 R st. nw. Telephone North 2684. Reward.

SILK BAG—Containing eyeglasses, Sunday afternoon. Reward. Return to Mrs. D. H. Smith, 1930 Calvert st.

STEAMER ROBE—Lost vicinity of the Park Lane and Dupont Circle. L. F. Shank, 918 Park Lane.

WATCH—Gentleman's, gold. Dec. 11, from Takoma Ft. to downtown on Capital Traction line. Reward. Shop, 2547-W. 19 Grant ave., Takoma Pk., Md.

Personals 11

BULOVA WATCH BRACELETS costing up to $90 for $15; Elgin and Waltham watch bracelets, $10 each. Livingston & Co., Rooms 304-5, 1319 F st. nw.

DETECTIVES—Expert secret service since 1845. Natl. 4610; evenings Adams 1931. Bradford Intelligence Service, 302 Transportation Bldg.

I WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY debts contracted by any one other than myself. PASQUALE A. MAGGIO.

LISTEN in on Katherine K's Health Garment broadcast, over WJSV every Wednesday between 9 and 9:15.

MONEY advanced on pawn tickets, diamonds, jewelry, antiques, silver, gold and watches. Livingston & Co., 1319 F st. nw. National 5849.

WANTED—Traveling companions to Chicago or Milwaukee, by middle-aged man; experienced driver; leaving in Buick about December 20. Can accommodate three to share expenses. References exchanged. Call immediately. Box 77, Washington Post, or Adams 9084.

WANTED—Two men passengers to share expenses; leave for Miami, Fla., this week. Mr. Werner, Adams 2083. References exchanged.

Clairvoyants—Spiritualists 12

LICENSED BY DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

DR. JANE COATES
READINGS BY APPOINTMENT.
1473 MERIDIAN PL. NW. COL. 6237

MADAM RENA,
Colored European Medium.

The lady who was born with natural gift, to read everyone's life like an open book. To help you in all your troubles and secret affairs. Don't waste $1 entitles you to a $3 reading. Satisfaction guaranteed. Hours, 4 to 9 p. m. 419 M st. nw., apt. 2. District 1737.

MADAM MEDHI.

If in trouble, unhappy, worried over business, family or love affairs, this gifted palmist and clairvoyant will truthfully advise and help you; tells the past as you alone know it, the present as it is, and the future as it will be; tells full name of whom you will marry, how to gain and hold a good position, just what to do to be successful in life. Don't mistake the number, 943 Penna. Ave. N.W. Readings, $1.

28 YEARS' CONTINUOUS LICENSE.
28 YEARS ON 14TH ST., WASH., D. C.

CARLETTA Astro-Psychic Mentalist

MOST REMARKABLE READER OF ASTROLOGY OF THE PRESENT AGE.

922 14th St. OVER CLAFLIN'S OPTICAL STORE.

Positive guarantee has been in Washington two years before any that are here at present time. Without a question, will tell you the object of your call, names of friends, enemies. Revelations that will astound you in affairs of life, business and love. Carletta is the very best in the profession.

Automotive

Automobiles for Sale 22

BUICKS—An inspection of our fine used Buicks will convince any one of their value. 1015 14th st. nw. 1111 14th st. Stanley H. Horner, National 5600.

BUICK—1930 Master Six 5-passenger 4-door sedan; 124-inch wheelbase; has a new car appearance throughout; you can buy this car at a great saving during our special sale; $1,095. Emerson & Orme, 17th and M sts. nw.

BUICK—Low prices on all used cars; large selection awaits you. Emerson & Orme, 17th and M sts. nw.

BUICK—1929 Master Six 5-passenger coupe; in perfect mechanical condition; with spotless upholstery; nearly new tires; looks and runs like a new car; sacrificed at $995. Stanley H. Horner, Inc., 1015 14th st. nw.

BUICK SEDAN, 1926, clean throughout and a value at $200 down, bal. $20 month. Call West 1134.

BUICK—1926 Master Six 5-passenger 4-door sedan; this car is good for 50,000 miles; it was carefully driven by its original owner and shows very little wear; has always received attention and is therefore in A-1 condition; reduced to $395. Emerson & Orme, 17th and M sts. nw.

BUICK—1926 Standard Six 5-passenger 2-door sedan; newly finished in grey duco; upholstery like new; original owner having always used seat covers; in good mechanical condition with good rubber; $495. Stanley H. Horner, Inc., 1015 14th st. nw.

CHEVROLET, Fords and others; new low prices; $25 up. R. L. Taylor, 1901 14th st.

CHEVROLET—Sedan, 1926; fully equipped; in good condition; positively one of the best buys in the city; $100; will accept $35 cash and $10 monthly covers insurance and all charges. At my home any time. 2752 Woodley pl. nw. Col. 1245.

CHEVROLET.

Large assortment of late model Chevrolets and Fords at greatly reduced prices. See and compare these cars today.

BARRY-PATE MOTOR CO.
2525 Sherman Ave. nw. Adams 6000.

ESSEX—Coach, 1925; good transportation; $15 cash, $3 weekly. 712 H st. se. Lincoln 3881.

FORDS—And other makes; low prices and easy terms. See Mr. Redman for your next used car. Parkway Motor Co., 3040 M st. nw.

FORD—1930 Fordor 3-window sedan. Trunk rack, seat covers, wire fenders. This car is like new and must be sold at once. 1276 Oates st. ne. Phone Lincoln 8360-W.

FORDS—1930 coach and sport coupe, 1930 conv. sport coupe, can not be told from new; all carry 90-day guarantee; $450 each; 1926 coach, perfect throughout, $300; terms; no trades. See Mr. Barnes, 1709 14th st. nw. Decatur 2300. Open 9 p. m.

FORD—1930 coach; in splendid condition throughout; low mileage; a real bargain for $350; will accept small down and monthly payments. Call Mr. Herfurth, Col. 1706.

HUDSON sedan; popular 1929 model; 127-inch; royal red; unusually good condition and appearance. Driven only by original owner. Your opportunity. Phone Nat. 2769 for appointment.

HUDSON AND ESSEX—A large selection awaits your inspection; excellent buys at reasonable prices. Lambert-Hudson Motors Co., 24th and M sts.

MARMON—1930 model 69 sedan; de luxe equipment; driven only a few thousand miles; car is guaranteed; guaranteed; car in trade. Neumeyer Motor Co., Inc., 1519 Conn. ave. Decatur 1762. Open evenings.

PIERCE-ARROW—Resale cars. Special prices this week. Pierce-Arrows. Packards, all body models; special reductions. Harry Sommers, Inc., 1727 Conn. ave. Potomac 0638.

PONTIAC—1930 model, 4-door Sedan; low mileage, like new; bargain to person who has to go to Florida. Call Wisconsin 3588-W or Metropolitan 0258.

REO—Flying Cloud and other late models at low prices. Buy here. Dick Murphy, Inc., 1724 Kalorama rd. Adams 9700.

STEARNS-KNIGHT—Roadster. Beautiful and unusual new job; driven only a few thousand miles; car is like new; a rare buy for cash. Rear 1174 16th st. nw. Decatur 3103.

STUDEBAKER—A choice stock of used cars will be found at Lee D. Butler, Inc., 2155 Champlain St. Columbia 5050.

1930 OLDS convertible roadster; de luxe model; 16 months to pay. Simmons Motor Co. Pot. 3866.

HUDSON TOWN SEDAN
Very late 1929, beautiful black Duco finish, tires run only 12,000 miles; cost $1,535 new; our price, $695; terms.

AUTO MART
1318 14TH ST. N.W.

"FAMOUS" USED CARS
"LOW DOWN PAYMENTS."
EASY MONTHLY PAYMENTS.
Ourisman Chev. Sales Co.
825 N ST. NE. LINCOLN 10200

A XMAS SUGGESTION
A Little Cream
Or Gas and Oil

If you buy one of our Blue Seal Used Cars, you'll lose a little cream that you would get if you bought a new one, but you will save enough to buy all of your gas and oil in 1931.

Because of this, one of our Blue Seal Used Cars purchased now will become not "Holiday Expense" but a wise permanent investment for all the family.

Dodge Sedan, 1926, a good, dependable, low-priced car. $90.00 cash or a small down payment and a little each week.

Willys Knight Sedan, thoroughly reconditioned; all new tires; original finish. Here's a new "Just one of this" popular model in stock." A small down payment or your car in trade and $7.50 per week.

Willys Coach, late 1929; new tires; thoroughly reconditioned and at such easy payments you can't afford to drive an old model car this Xmas.

And 30 more to choose from.

MID-CITY SALES CO.
1827 14th St. N.W.
1711 14th St. N.W.
Open Evenings and Sundays.

Automotive

Auto Trucks, Tractors, Trailers 23

CHEVROLET—Truck, 1927. In good running condition; will sell cheap. 8427 8th st. nw.; phone Georgia 1601.

REAL USED TRUCK BARGAIN.
1930 6-cyl., 1-ton White, repossessed; had only few months' use, practically new, $1,350.
THE WHITE CO.
2101 N. Y. Ave. N.W. West 2655.

Garages, Parking, Storage 29

GARAGE, BRICK
2643 WOODLEY PLACE N.W.

Wanted—Automotive 32

WE BUY any make car; highest price paid. The Auto Mart, 1318 14th st. nw. North 9177. Open evenings and Sundays.

CASH FOR YOUR CAR
Without a doubt I pay the highest prices in the city. If your car is not paid for, I will pay your unpaid balance and give you the difference in cash. No delay.
SEE MR. BARNES
1729 14TH ST. N.W. DEC. 2300

Business Service

Business Personals 38

AUTO GLASS INSTALLED, mirrors and furniture tops, mirrors resilvered. National Glass Shop, 911 New York ave.; Natl. 9720.

Painting, Papering, Decorating 48

FOR DECORATING, paperhanging, painting, call Walter A. Johnson, 1006 Kenyon st. nw.; Columbia 3516-J.

Professional Services 50

EXCESSIVE fat reduced; alcohol rub; spinal and nerve treatments. Dr. Della Ledendecker, 3038 O st.; West 1120.

SWEDISH MASSAGE—For ailments; insomnia, rheumatism; general body building. Adams 7064, daily, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Employment

Help Wanted—Female 56

BOOKKEEPER and clerk wanted; also comparative shoppers (2); cashier, lingerie saleswoman and investigator. Wash. Business Bureau, 239 Bond Bldg., 14th & N. Y. ave.

COOK—First-class plain, for one lady and help; must have best references. Box 72, Washington Post.

GIRL—Wanted for general housework, including washing and ironing. 3150 P st. nw.

LADIES with pleasing experience; easy, dignified work; good pay; apply room 317, 916 G st. nw., Sunday, 2 to 5. Other days, after 6:30.

LADIES, we will place a few women on our local sales force; start at once; commission and bonus. Apply Neat Silk Hosiery Mills, 1319 F st. nw.

Help Wanted—Male 57

BARBERS—White; at once. 9 Randolph pl. ne.

BARBER—Italian; first-class; $26 week; steady job for good man. 3032 M st. nw.

BOYS and men, aged 14 to 35, with bicycles; for work as telegraph messengers. Apply Mr. Smith, 1317 New York ave. nw.

CLERK—Comptometer operator, $115 mo.; and other clerical positions. Wash. Business Bureau, 239 Bond Bldg., 14th & N. Y. ave.

MEN are making $100 weekly selling well-known make electric refrigerator. Leads furnished. Apply Mr. Truex, 736 13th st. nw., between E and F s. nw.

NEED 4 men experienced in house-to-house canvassing; must be willing to work 8 hours per day; apply room 317 Mather Bldg., Monday, 1 to 3; other days, after 4:30.

SALESMEN—Solicit delinquent accounts, paid daily; room 318, District National Bank Bldg. New company.

SALESMEN—Due to reorganization we will place several men for our annual bargain sales; good money and permanent position; about $35 a week to start. Apply Neal Silk Hosiery Mills, 1319 F st. nw.

SHOEMAKER wanted. Apply 3112 M st. nw.

4 MEN, magazine experience, for road crew; also 4 men for city crew; easy sales; apply Sunday from 1 to 3, other days after 6:30, room 317, 916 G st. nw.

50 CHAUFFEURS
To men willing to give the public the utmost in courtesy and safety we have the most liberal proposition in the city. Apply
BELL CAB CO.,
1317 L ST. N.W.

Help—Male or Female 58

POSITIONS always open. Employment Service Bureau, 917 15th st. nw. Suite 406. Nat. 0821.

Situations Wanted—Female 60

COLORED cook and general housekeeper wants regular work; references. Columbia 5466.

COOK—General housekeeper, maids, laundress, experienced mother's helper and nursemaid. "Domestic," Decatur 2419.

COOK—First-class, experienced white woman, best references; wants work, city or country. Phone Nat. 9677.

DAY OR WEEK work wanted by first-class laundress or good cook. Pot. 3348, 1251 23d st. nw.

Persons advertising for "Situations Wanted" are warned to exercise careful investigation of persons offering positions where cash deposits are required to secure employment.

Situations Wanted—Male 61

PLACE as janitor or housework; care for furnace; floors waxed by reliable colored man. Phone North 7181.

Financial

Real Estate Loans 66

SMALL PAYMENTS, QUICK SERVICE; 1st 2d and 3rd trusts in D. C. Loans in nearby Md. and Va. No red tape. DR. A. HENRY, INC., 1016 Eye st. nw.

PLENTY OF MONEY. QUICK ACTION
BRODIE & COLBERT,
1707 EYE ST. Realtors. Natl. 8875.

FIRST AND SECOND TRUST LOANS.
C. WILEY.
Investment Bldg. Natl. 9111.

$8,000 AVAILABLE FOR FIRST TRUST. On owner-occupied, modern, brick house located in D. C. Not over 50% of valuation.
J. E. DOUGLASS CO.
1621 K St. N.W. Met. 5677.

Post Classified Ads are arranged in numerical and alphabetical order for your convenience

Instruction

Instruction Classes 73

NEW DAY—The Boyd School has meant a NEW DAY, a new life, new hope to thousands of office workers. Boyd Courses are easier to learn, shorter because more modern, interesting for they are today methods. The student gets something each day out of the course. Boyd graduates are in constant demand. New classes NOW forming. Boyd Secretarial School, 1333 F (Opp. Fox Theater). Nat. 2338.

Live Stock

Dogs, Cats, Pets and Supplies 77

COCKER Spaniels; lovely red puppies, 7 weeks old. Thoroughbreds. 1823 M st. nw.

JUST RECEIVED—Few young Mino birds from East India, the talking kind; also good singing canaries. Schmidt's Pet Emporium, 712 12th st. nw.

SPANIEL PUPPIES—Springers; pedigreed; prize-winning strain. Call J. Arcaro, Linc. 2810-J, before noon.

Horses, Cattle, Other Stock 78

PONIES—Five, beautiful; Shetland; also saddle horse; cheap. Washington Riding School, rear of 2025 L st. nw. North 9004.

Merchandise

Articles for Sale 82

STOCK FEED MOLASSES—50-gal. drums, $11 delivered; best and greatest stock food ever discovered; equal to corn and cheaper; cash with order. The J. J. Garvey Co., New Orleans, La., Dept. W.

Jewelry, Watches, Diamonds 93

PIN—Platinum, with 32 small diamonds; for $300; diamond ring, $85; as need money at once. Met. 4076 after 5 p. m.

Wanted—To Buy 100

BOOKS—Highest prices for all kinds, in any quantity; "bring them" or phone Met. 5415. The Original Pearlman's, 933 G st. nw. NO BRANCHES.

APPAREL of all kinds for rummage sale. WILL PAY CASH.
M. Cohen. Met. 9764-7749. 1233 7th st. nw.

USED CLOTHING BOUGHT.
(Men and ladies.) Highest prices paid.
HILL BROS., 1345 B st. nw. Fot. 0680.

GOLD, SILVER, WATCHES, DIAMONDS and old jewelry needed for our mfg. dept.
SELINGER'S Full cash value paid.
814 F STREET.

Household Goods

Furniture 104

HANDSOME walnut library davenport table, 54 inches long and 27 inches wide. Originally cost $50. Will sell for $10. In perfect condition and will make suitable Christmas gift. Write box 58, Washington Post.

OWNER leaving city, must sacrifice excellent bedroom furnishings, chairs, bedside tables, lamps, dressing table and rugs; also smaller Pesturia table glass, kitchen chairs and curtains; can be seen on Sunday, between 10 and 4, and week days, 6 to 7 p. m. 6431 38th st. nw., Apt. 306 (4900 block of Conn. ave.).

SELLING out contents of 9-room house, 83 W st. nw.

Wanted—Household Goods 112

FURNITURE—If you want to get full value for your furniture, send to D. Weiss, 78 years of fair dealing. Phone Dist. 8112.

I AM in immediate need of a quantity of good, substantial, used furniture; can pay cash. Metropolitan 3051.

Musical Merchandise

Organs and Pianos 114

PLAYER ORGAN—Beautiful mahogany, electric; demonstrator, slightly shopworn; regular established price, $1,750; and 10 reproducing rolls. Our "buy-now" price, $875. A marvelous value. Every home should have a piano for Xmas. You can trade in your old piano and pay the balance in 30 months. Nat 3699. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

PIANO—Mahogany, grand; well known make; condition like new; used short time; our sale price, $395; former price, $675; pay $12 monthly. Nat. 3699. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

RENT A PIANO
$25 will rent a piano from us for an entire year. Place one in your home today. Homer L. Kitt Co., 1330 G st. nw.

Talking Machines 118

PHONOGRAPH—Beautiful, brand new, $250 model, fully guaranteed; now $29 to close out quickly. Nat. 3699. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th st. nw.

Business Equipment

Typewriters, Billing Machines 126

TYPEWRITERS—Underwoods, special rental rate $4 monthly, three months $9. All machines carefully inspected by experienced servicemen. Underwood Typewriter Co., 1413 New York ave. nw. District 1830.

Rooms for Rent

Rooms—Furnished 134

A WARM PLACE TO STAY.
THE WESTMINSTER, 1607 17th St. NW. Lovely, warm rooms; newly decorated; each with bath or running water; elevator service; beautiful parlor; $7 to $10 weekly.

ARIZONA HOTEL—310 C st. nw. Block off Pa. ave., nearly furnished rooms; lobby 3 baths on each floor; 1 shower bath; continuous hot water; $4 week up; transients, 75c and $1.

ATTRACTIVELY furnished; large living room; fireplace; dining room, kitchen, breakfast alcove, 3 bedrooms, 2 baths; garage. Adams 10121.

BILTMORE ST. NW., 1822—Conveniently located furnished room, one or two refined ladies; low rental. Apt. 43, after 6 p. m.

BILTMORE ST. NW., 1850 — Attractive living-bedroom, southern exposure, semi-private bath, for 2 or 3 young men; also sunny single room. Columbia 5044.

CHEVY CHASE — Attractive double or single corner room; semi-private bath; gentlemen; in family of two; new home. Cleveland 2277.

CHEVY CHASE CIRCLE—Large room; 5 windows; semiprivate bath; gentleman; quiet home; garage; telephone. Cleveland 2810.

CLIFTON ST. NW., 1209—Front room; southern exposure; hot water; semiprivate bath; 2 car lines; gentlemen; $5 week. Adams 8094.

CLIFTON ST. NW., 1447—Convenient location. Attractive, bright, sunny front room; twin beds; next bath; also single room. Adams 3807.

CONN. AVE., 2521—Near Shoreham Hotel; beautifully furnished room; for one or two gentlemen; garage; references.

E ST. NW., 202—Newly furnished, decorated rooms; running hot water, hot-water heat, gas electricity; light housekeeping.

EUCLID ST., 1348—Apt. 1; well furnished sunny rooms for one or two gentlemen; no other roomers; call after 6 p. m.

EYE ST. NW., 2134—Attractive front room; near bath; $3.50 week; use phone; convenient. West 0561.

F ST. NE., 617—2 rooms, light housekeeping; near bath; elec.; reasonable.

FAIRMONT ST. NW., 1315—Room with private bath, continuous hot water, unlimited phone. Columbia 4502.

FLORIDA AVE. NW., 2148—I will rent a bright room in my nice home to gentlemen, with board optional; all conveniences.

GARFIELD ST., 2623 (near Wardman Park)—Desirable double and single rooms, second floor. Adams 1098.

GRANT PLACE NW., 920—Nice, clean sleeping rooms, $3.50 per week.

K ST. NW., 1627—Near Carlton Hotel. Attractive home; single or double rooms; private or semiprivate bath; men only.

KALORAMA RD. NW., 1867—Colonial mansion; attractive single or suite rooms; private bath; see to appreciate.

KENYON ST. NW., 1338—Large or small room, all modern improvements, private bath; same floor; hot-water heat; gentlemen preferred.

KILBOURNE PL. NW., 1715—Attractive large front room; semiprivate bath; plenty heat and hot water; suitable for 1 or 2. Col. 4528.

KILBOURNE PL. NW., 1708 (between Kenyon and Lamont)—Front room; plenty heat and hot water; $18 month. Adams 4714.

L ST. NW., 1824, Apt. 2—Choice room in private home; reasonable; best location in city. Call forenoons or evenings.

M ST. NW., 1329—Convenient location; large second-floor front rooms overlooking Thomas Circle; $15 to $20 month.

M ST. NW., 1404 (Thomas Circle)—Large, well-kept, newly decorated room; also single front room, second floor, $5 week.

N ST. NW., 1301—Large, sunny room, second-floor front, semiprivate bath, within walking distance downtown.

N ST. NW., 2019—Nicely furnished front room, southern exposure; twin beds; also single room with running water. Phone service.

NEAR Interior Dept.: 2 rooms, 1st floor rear; housekeeping; semiprivate bath; $35, includ. gas, electricity. Met. 4014.

NEWTON ST. NW., 1625—Comfortable room for gentleman in owner's home; 2d floor; adjoining bath; $20 per month.

NEWTON ST. NW., 1486—Apt. 34; attractive large room, near bath; "homelike;" no other roomers; gentlemen. Col. 7783.

O ST. NW., 1213—Within walking distance downtown; large, clean, attractive 2d-floor front room, kitchenette; $8 week.

P ST. NW., 1747—Attractive, single front room; near bath; plenty heat and hot water; reasonable. Dec. 0996.

QUE ST. NW., 2217—In quiet, attractive home; one double, one single room. References.

ROSWYN, Va.—Private family, attractive room, ten minutes from Wash.; breakfast; one, two; reasonable. Box 74, Washington Post.

SCOTT CIRCLE—1821 N. Y. Exceptionally nice room; well-kept home; steam heat; continuous hot water; convenience; transients considered.

Many of these offers will receive quick response this morning. A Post Classified Ad will do the same for you.

Holiday Hints

Gifts for Her

ALMQUEST GOODS—Hats, $1.95 up; leather hand bags, $1.95-$2.95. Costume jewelry. Almquest, 1415 G st. nw.

ANNIVERSARY CLOCKS—Gold plated, encased in glass. Wind once a year. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

ART COURSE—A gift that means a career. Give her a scholarship to the Livingstone Academy, 1333 F st. nw.. Met. 2883.

BEAUTY BOXES—Jeweled atomizer sets; imported perfumes; holiday sets. Emile, Inc., 1221 Conn. ave.; Decatur 0920.

BIRTHDAY RINGS—Stones for every month set in fine modern mountings. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

BLACKISTONE FLOWERS—A beautiful Poinsettia plant; special value, $3.00 and $4.50 each; decorated. Blackistone, Inc., 1407 H st. nw.

BON BON DISHES — Beautiful hand-painted china. Exquisite designs, $2.25 up. Sherratt's, 608 13th st. nw.

BRIEF CASES—All leather, in black or brown, $3.00 to $25.00. A serviceable gift. G. W. King, 511 11th st.

BROOCHES—Made of hand-painted china, with gold clasps, 50c up. Sherratt's, 608 13th st. nw.

BUICK—New in color and style. The interior trimmings will please. Give her a Buick. Useful 365 days a year. Stanley H. Horner, 1111 14th st. nw.

BULOVA WATCHES—We will show you the watch you want to see at your home. Call us at Metropolitan 0693. Anderson Bros., Inc., 717 12th st. nw.

BUSINESS TRAINING pays. Boyd courses are easier to learn, fascinating, shorter. Grads in demand. Classes now forming. Boyd School, 1333 F nw., National 2342.

CANARIES—Our beautiful, guaranteed songsters will surely please her. Atherton's Pet Shops (two stores), 612 "F" st. nw. and 1404 Irving st. nw.

CLOCKS—Odd timepieces not found elsewhere. Largest selection in city. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

COOKE FLOWERS—Cut daily, artistically arranged, corsages, bouquets, baskets, plants. A cheering gift. 1707 Conn. ave.

CROWN JEWELS—Reproductions of famous court jewelry mounted in sterling and platinoid. Genuine jade, lapis, coral, calcedonia. Orders for artistic designs. Imported French tapestries. LAFAYETTE GIFT SHOP, 525 14th st. nw.

DIAMONDS—Clearance sale; must be sold at very low price; all sizes. Slavin's Jewelry Store, 943 17th st. nw.

ELECTRIC CLOCKS—The latest designs of Seth Thomas, Telechron, Herschede. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

ELISE GIFTS — Imported cocktail sets, lace doilies, costume jewelry; restrings-in knotting beads. Elise, 1243 Conn. ave.

EUREKA VACUUM CLEANER—Here is a gift that she will appreciate. It will save many hours of useless labor and fill a real need. The Eureka Special, $29.50. With your purchase you may also own the handy Eureka Junior, for cleaning stair carpets, draperies, mattresses and automobile cushions, for only $12. Potomac Electric Appliance Co., 14th and C sts. nw. Phone National 5800.

FLOWERS for Christmas; potted plants and cut flowers. Alex B. Garden, 17th & Minnesota ave. se. Line, 0474.

GRANDFATHER CLOCKS—In modern and antique designs. Ideal for the home. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

HOME—Make their Christmas happiest by giving them a deed to this modern brick dwelling, containing 6 large rooms, bath, hot-water heat, electric lights, side and rear alley. Price, $5,750; very reasonable terms can be arranged. John F. Donohoe & Sons, 314 Pa. ave. se., Realtors.

INSURANCE—Fire, theft, automobile, casualty, bonds, marine, tornado, plate glass, burglary, accident, health, liability, compensation, surety. Woodward & Lothrop, 10th, F, G and 11th sts. nw.

JEWELRY—Antique and modern; specializing in hand-made Florentine work. F. Pini, 1305 Conn. ave., second floor.

LIEBSTER FINE FURS. Wonderful values in fur coats and scarfs. Liebster, 718 13th st. nw.

MIRRORS—Latest things in gold and Gaelens Blue, made to any pattern. Gaside Mirror Co., rear 2119 18th st. nw

MUSICAL VANITY BOX—Filigreed gold craft. Were $12, now $6. Union Barber and Beauty Supply, 511 11th st. nw.

PHILLIPS-LOUISE GIFTS—Hats, $1.00 to $5.00; gowns, half price; rare costume jewelry, half price. 1727 L st. nw.

QUILTED ROBES, 14.85; rayon, satin, pastel colors or black. All sizes. J. B. Jones & Co., 1219 G st. nw.

ROTHROCK GIFTS—Christmas cards and novelties. 1746 Pa. ave. nw.; 411 11th st. nw.

RUSSIAN PEASANT WARE of early decorated, wood, 25c to $1. Green Door Gift Shop, 1623 H st. nw.

SEWING MACHINES—Reconditioned automatic drophead, with the famous White rotary action, $18 up. White Sewing Machine Co., 809 H st. nw.

SUBSCRIBE for The Washington Post. A gift that will last 365 days. Particularly of interest to women. Delivered by carrier in Washington daily and Sunday, $8.40 per year. Mail subscriptions, one year, daily and Sunday, $10 in Maryland and Virginia; all other States, including Mexico and Canada, $12 yearly. Address The Washington Post, Washington, D. C.

TOASTERS, Waffle and Electric Irons make everlasting gifts that say Merry Christmas every day in the year. Fully guaranteed. Specially priced. Penn Improvement & Electric Co., 911 7th st. nw. Met. 0612.

TRAVELERS' CHECKS—An ideal gift with the courteous service of the American Railway Express Co., 1414 F st. nw.

TYPEWRITER—Corona, made in beautiful colors. The perfect gift for husband, wife, son, or daughter. Useful, instructive. Will last for years. L. C. Smith & Corona Typewriters, Inc., 1018 15th st.

WRIST WATCHES—Largest selection of Gruen, Hamilton, Elgin, in city, $25 up. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

Gifts for Him

ART COURSE—The gift that means a career; give him a scholarship to the Livingstone Academy, 1333 F st. nw. Met. 2883.

BIRTHDAY RINGS—Stones for every month set in fine modern mountings. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

BUICK—A 1931 coupe; an almost unlimited choice of color options and individual distinctions; a Christmas gift always to be remembered. Stanley H. Horner, 1111 14th st. nw.

BULOVA WATCHES—We will show you the watch you want to see at your home. Call us at Metropolitan 0693. Anderson Bros., Inc., 717 12th st. nw.

CLOCKS—Odd timepieces not found elsewhere; largest selection in city. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

DESK CLOCK—Mahogany, beautiful design. An ideal gift for a man. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

GLADSTONE BAGS—All leather, well lined, various colors and sizes. "Priced" from $8.75 to $40. G. W. King, 511 11th st.

HATS—Specially priced at $2.95. Wm. Paul Smith, Inc., 1107 11th st. nw., 440 9th st. and 1404 N. Y. ave.

SUBSCRIBE for The Washington Post. Associated Press news fresh every morning. The sport pages, real estate and financial news always to the point. Delivered by carrier in Washington daily and Sunday, $8.40 for one year; $10 per year by mail to Maryland and Virginia. All other States, $12 per year. Address The Washington Post, Washington, D. C.

SUITS MADE TO ORDER—Finest in workmanship and material. J. M. Stein & Co., 13th st., below F.

TYPEWRITER—All makes of portables in colors, complete with case, $5 a month. District Typewriter Exchange, 715 H st.

TYPEWRITERS—Special Christmas offer: A $15 adding machine given free with each purchase of a portable typewriter; any make, any color. This offer also applies on the Special Bar Portable at $50. The Walcott-Taylor Co., Inc., 1714 H st. nw. Met. 5846. Terms.

WRIST WATCHES—Largest selection of Gruen, Hamilton, Elgin in city, $25 up. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

WRIST WATCHES—15 jewel, latest style case; metal band, $25; reduced to $10.75. Philip Franks, 812 F st. nw., upstairs.

WRIST WATCHES—30-40 per cent discount on new Elgin, Waltham, Illinois. The Watch Shop, 906 14th st. nw.

Gifts for Children

BEDROOM SLIPPERS—Infants' and children's; all colors and sizes; open evenings; the Baby Mode, 1770 Col. rd.

BICYCLES—New and used bicycles, priced from $10 up; also velocipedes. Just see the Washington Cycle Store, 912 9th st. nw.

BUICK—For the boy or girl, a sports sale model Buick roadster will make them the happiest children in the neighborhood. Stanley H. Horner, 1111 14th st. nw.

Holiday Hints

Gifts for Children

BUSTER BROWN SHOES—Boys and girls; neat and durable; $1.50 to $3.95. Gritz Dept. Store, 3600 Ga. ave. Ad. 6822.

DOLL HOUSES—Butcher built; electrically lighted; completely furnished. 3006 11th st. nw.; phone Adams 6343.

Gifts for the Family

A SUGGESTION—Let us repair your radio for Christmas. Columbia Radio Service Co., 2214 14th st. nw. North 4170.

BILLIARD and pocket tables, all sizes. Conn Billiard & Bowling Supply Co., 810 9th st., District 4711.

BUICK—Each member of the family will remember a Buick Christmas gift. A sound investment, and the pleasure of riding in a late model Buick. Stanley H. Horner, 1111 14th st. nw.

CHRISTMAS CARDS—24 quality greetings, with name, $2.15 up. Visiting cards, invitations, announcements, &c. Goodhearts, Printers, 1216 H st. nw.

CHOW PUPS—Beauties; perfect bears; cheap; will hold for X-mas. Silver Spring, 205.

CREAM AND SUGAR SETS—Made of finest gold plated china, $10. Sherratt's, 608 13th st. nw.

DOG FURNISHINGS—Don't forget the dog this Christmas. A complete line at G. W. King's, 511 11th st. nw.

ELECTRICAL Christmas home decorations, lamps, shades, appliances. Tuberville, Inc., 1730 Conn. ave. North 9407.

EUREKA VACUUM CLEANER—Here is a gift that will be appreciated. It will save many hours of useless labor and fill a real need. The Eureka Special, $39.50. With your purchase you may also own the handy Eureka Junior, for cleaning stair carpets, draperies, mattresses and automobile cushions, for only $12. Potomac Electric Appliance Co., 14th and C sts. nw. Phone National 5800.

EYE GLASSES—To suit the eyes and pocketbook of all. Now if you need glasses see me. Keefe Optical Co., 802 F st. nw., Room 1.

FLOWERS for Christmas; potted plants and cut flowers. Alex B. Garden, 17th & Minnesota ave. se. Line, 0474.

GRANDFATHER CLOCKS—In modern and antique designs. Ideal for the home. Paul's Watch Shop, 1322 G st. nw.

HOME—Make their Christmas happiest by giving them a deed to this modern brick dwelling, containing 6 large rooms, bath, hot-water heat, electric lights, side and rear alley. Price, $5,750; very reasonable terms can be arranged. John F. Donohoe & Sons, 314 Pa. ave. se., Realtors.

OIL PAINTINGS—Framed; lovely for gifts; prices from $5 to $50; may be seen at artist's home, Met. 3257.

MONDAY MORNING — The Washington Post. — DECEMBER 15, 1930

ROBBERY EPIDEMIC NETS THIEVES $825; ONE VICTIM BEATEN

Taxicab Driver Is Felled by Man Who Attempts to Rob Him.

2 ALLEGED BURGLARS ARE SEIZED BY POLICE

15 Watches Stolen When Brick Is Hurled Into Jeweler's Window.

Taxicab bandits and sneak thieves obtained $825 from seven victims yesterday. In an attempted hold-up of a taxicab, William A. Murray, a driver, 31 years old, was injured in a struggle with the bandit at Nineteenth and E streets southeast. Two alleged housebreakers were arrested by Headquarters detectives during the day.

Murray, who lives at 1317 Farragut street northwest, was treated at Casualty Hospital last night for injuries to his left elbow. He told police that he was bailed by a colored man at New Jersey avenue and K streets northeast, and directed to drive to Nineteenth and B streets, near the District Jail. When they arrived, the colored man jumped from the cab and stuck a "hard object" against Murray's back, and demanded his money. The two men grappled, and in the melee Murray's alleged assailant struck him and fled.

Alleged Burglars Seized.

The alleged housebreakers are Albert Ignatius Daniels, colored, 23 years old, of Rhode Island avenue near Ninth street northwest, and Clarence Minor, colored, 21, of the Whitelaw Hotel.

Daniels is charged with entering the homes of Ethel Ward, 1857 Monroe street northwest; Charles M. Fling, 26-A Todd place northeast; Clarence Ruffner, 4717 Eighth street northwest; James Balonturos, 927 Quincy street northwest; Stephen Ball, 622 Jefferson street northwest, and Myer Herman, 3913 Fourteenth street northwest. Minor is chagred with complicity in the Monroe street housebreaking.

Entering through a door which had been left unlocked, a burglar robbed Charles Gwinn and Arthur Ward, roomers at 1222 New Hampshire avenue, of approximately $45, they told police.

Tailor Shop Is Robbed.

The tailor shop at the Shoreham Hotel, Connecticut avenue and Calvert street, was broken into and robbed of clothing valued at nearly $300, according to a report made to police by Herbert M. Cornwell, manager. The loot consisted of suits and overcoats.

Smashing a plate glass show window with a brick, a robber looted the display of a jewelry store at 701 Seventh street northwest of fifteen wrist watches. Informed of the robbery, Max Smith, manager of the store, estimated the value of the watches at approximately $400.

Two apartments in the building at 318 East Capitol street were entered by burglars, police reports indicated. William Fant and Edgar E. Boyd were the victims. The apartment had been ransacked, but nothing was missing. Fromt he Boyd apartment clothing valued at $45 was stolen. Entrance was gained through windows which were unlocked.

While walking on Barry place, near Eighth street northwest, Helen Earle, colored, of 7126 Alaska avenue northwest, had snatched from her arm a pocketbook containing $25 and the keys to the Alaska avenue home. She told police a Negro took the purse.

Audition Winners Named After Test

Dayton and Ohio Entrants Capture Awards by Atwater Kent.

New York, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—The finals of the fourth national radio audition, sponsored by the Atwater Kent Foundation over the National Broadcasting system were held tonight, the first prizes going to Carol Deis, a soprano, of Dayton, Ohio, and Raoul E. Nadeau, barytone, of New York City.

The first award in both classes, consisted of $5,000 cash, gold decoration and two years' tuition in an American conservatory, or its equivalent, to each.

Miss Deis, a Dayton secretary, who also has done choir and concert singing, used Delibes' "Indian Bell Song" in her appearance before the microphone.

Nadeau, a 22-year old barytone, who is the first singer from New York City ever to reach the nals of the competition, sang Massenet's "Vision Fugitive."

Aged Woman Revived From Gas Fumes' Effect

Overcome by coal gas fumes from a furnace in the basement of her home, Mrs. Bobbett Haas, 81 years old, 715 Shepherd street, yesterday was revived by the Fire Department Rescue Squad and taken to Emergency Hospital for further treatment.

Her condition is reported not serious.

Berlin Policeman Kills Youth.

Berlin, Dec. 14 (A.P.).—Fighting near the Berlin police headquarters at Alexanderplatz last night resulted in a policeman's shooting a youth, who died after removal to a hospital. The trouble arose as a hostile crowd manhandled the officer, who was alone. He fired in self-defense.

Free Barbering for Jobless.

Frank Bottazzi, who operates a barber shop at 623 Seventh street southwest, announced yesterday that he will give all jobless men who come to his shop today shaves and haircuts gratis.

Band Concert

UNITED STATES MARINE BAND, Auditorium, Marine Barracks, at 4 p. m. today.

March, "On Dress Parade".....Chambers
Overture, "Di Ballo".....Sullivan
Caprice, "La Lionjera".....Chaminade
Selection, "Sicilian Vespers".....Verdi
Dances from "Henry VIII".....German
Morris Dance.
Shepherds' Dance.
Torchlight Procession.
Descriptive, "Hunting Scene".....Bucalosi
Marines' Hymn. "The Halls of Montezuma"
"Star-Spangled Banner"

Longest Wed Couples Of Community Sought

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kramer, of 741 Thayer avenue, Silver Spring, Md., golden wedding celebrants this year, are parents of nine children, the youngest now 29 years old and the eldest 48.

Entries Begin to Appear in Competition for Post Trophy.

Several new names submitted as entrants in The Post's contest to find the longest wedded couple in Washington and its environs were received yesterday in spite of the Sunday delayed postal collections. The contest was announced in yesterday's edition of the paper in connection with the publication of the photograph of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ladd, golden wedding celebrants.

Today is presented a picture of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kramer, of 741 Thayer avenue, Silver Spring, Md., parents of nine children who are now between the ages of 29 and 48 years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kramer are native Washingtonians. They celebrated their golden wedding August 19 last.

Washingtonians are urged to send in the names, addresses and photographs, if possible, of couples eligible to the contest.* A silver cup with the engraved compliments of this newspaper will grace the home of the contest winners. The contest is open to resident of nearby Maryland and Virginia.

If a picture of the couple to be entered is not obtainable a staff photographer from The Post will call upon request. In its effort to locate the Capital's longest married couple, The Post will interview members of civic associations, clubs and other social groups.

If you are a member of one of these bring up the subject of The Post's quest at the next meeting of your society. It may develop that hte contest winner is a member or officer of that group.

Although it may seem a long time for marital bliss to obtain in these times when divorce courts are grinding out separations in seemingly wholesale lots, there are many Washington brides of more than 50 years ago still wearing the same golden circlet and now the happy mothers of busy Washington families.

ELKS' LODGES HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Negro Groups Eulogize Their Departed Members in Sermon and Song.

THANATOPSIS IS RECITED

Memorial services of colored Elk lodges were held last night, Morning Star Lodge and Forest Temple at Francis Junior High School, Columbia Lodge and Columbia Temple at Armstrong High School, and W. Bruce Evans Lodge and Love Temple at the First Baptist Church, Deanwood. Each of the services followed a procession to the auditorium. Rudolph Burrel, as chairman of the Morning Star exercises, introduced W. B. Harris, master of ceremonies.

Eulogies were delivered by the Rev. W. L. Washington and Edna Marshall. The Thanatopeis was said by Fannie Green. Musical numbers were rendered by the Elks' band and choir, Clara Gardner, Thelma H. Simms, Crescendo Male Chorus, Alberta Brown, Lawrence B. Curtis, Forest Temple Glee Club and Trio. The lodge of sorrow was opened and closed by Dr. Leo S. Holton, exalted ruler.

Opening ceremonies at the Columbia Lodge exercises were conducted by Herbert E. Jones, exalted ruler, while closing ceremonies were conducted by Aleytha B. Williams, daughter ruler of Columbia Temple. Following an invocation by the Rev. Frank Williams, the mistress of ceremonies, Georgia Henry, was introduced by Edward Turner, chairman of the memorial committee. The address of welcome was made by Mrs. Gabrielle Pelham, of the Community Centers Department.

Nannie H. Burroughs, president of the National Training School, at Lincoln Heights, responded. Eulogies were delivered by Joseph H. Munnerlyn and Luella Johnson. James Ross recited the "Thanatopsis," assisted by the lodge quartet. Musical numbers were rendered by Columbia Band, the Imperial Quartet, of Alexandria, Va.; Columbia Temple Chorus, Pauline Robinson, Clyde Oliver and a quintet from the People's Congregational Church.

W. Bruce Evans Lodge and Love Temple were welcomed by Martin L. Jackson, the response being made by Doswell Brooks, commissioner of education for southern Maryland. J. Oliver Hill delivered the eulogy. A sermon was preached by the Rev. Leon S. Wormley. Prince Washington, exalted ruler-elect, recited the "Thanatopsis." A history of the lodge and temple were given by Harrison Goodrich and Katie Castor. Others who spoke were W. S. Crouse, district deputy, and Lottie Kellum.

Musical numbers were by the Harmony Four, W. H. Swann, Loise Brown, Hattie Givens and T. H. Ward. The invocation and benediction were said by the Rev. L. H. Hall.

American Legion Names Annual Ball Committee

The annual ball of the District of Columbia Department of the American Legion will be held at the Mayflower Hotel January 23. Maj. E. H. Hale is head of the committee in charge. He is assisted by Capt. Thomas J. Frailey, Maj. Julius I. Peyser, Capt. John Lewis Smith, Thomas E. Franklin, Dr. Milburn F. Fowler, Russell Clarkson, Forest F. Bartl, Bernard C. McGee, Sam Berlin and Martin A. Dyer.

YOUNG NURSE FOUND SICK FROM POISON

Came Here to Seek Work; Was Recommended by Representative.

HAILS FROM MICHIGAN

A woman, who gave the name of Miss Thelma Baker, 26 years old, a nurse, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., was found in an unconscious condition yesterday morning on the mezzanine floor of the Washington Hotel.

At Emergency Hospital, where the young woman was taken, it was stated she was suffering from the effects of a strong dose of poison. She was found shortly before noon by an employe of the hotel, who was attracted by her moans. Police were summoned atnd she was removed to the hospital, where her condition is regarded as serious.

According to Miss Margaret Hauber, secretary to Representative Frank P. Bohn, of Michigan, Miss Baker had been in Washington only a few weeks. She was a graduate nurse, Miss Hauber said, and had come here to seek employment. She carried a recommendation given her by Representative Bohn.

At the hospital where she was questioned by police, Miss Baker said she "had nothing to say," and refused to divulge any information about herself. Police say she took the poison in an effort to end her life.

Miss Baker, was a graduate nurse of the War Memorial Hospital at Sault Ste. Marie. Her mother, Mrs. Hattie Baker, two brothers and one sister live in that city.

Relief of Idle Discussed By St. Vincent Society

Relief of the unemployed in Washington was discussed yesterday at the quarterly meeting of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in the Church of the Nativity. Breakfast in the school hall followed the 8 o'clock mass.

Of 481 applications for work received, 103 persons have been placed in positions, it was announced. The treasuries of the conferences in Washington have been almost exhausted, it was said, by relieving the families of the unemployed.

Today's Happenings

Meeting—Delaware State Society, 8 p. m., Thomas Circle Club.

Meeting—Lincoln Park Citizens Association, 8 p. m., Bryan School, B street near Thirteenth southeast.

Meeting—West End Citizens Association, 8 p. m., Western Presbyterian Church, 1911 H street northwest.

Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sanders, Pan-American room, Hotel Mayflower.

Party—Society of St. Vincent de Paul, 8 p. m., auditorium of St. James Church, Rhode Island avenue and Thirty-seventh street.

Meeting—Monday Evening Club, 8 p. m., gridiron room, Willard Hotel.

Banquet—Yankee Division Club of Washington, 8 p. m., Army, Navy and Marine Corps Country Club.

Dinner—Women's City Club, 6:30 p. m., 22 Jackson place.

Luncheon—Alpha Delta Phi, 12:30 p. m., University Club.

VERDICT EXPECTED BEFORE WEEK-END IN SMITH CO. CASE

Defense Will Conclude Its Testimony Tomorrow; Rebuttal Doubted.

PITTS EARNED MONEY INVOLVED, JURY TOLD

Former Officials Also Claim Destroyed Records Were Without Value.

Unless some unexpected development occurs, a verdict in the $5,000,000 F. H. Smith Co. conspiracy trial will be returned this week. The defense has announced that it will conclude presentation of its testimony by tomorrow at the latest, and the prosecution expects to offer little, if any, testimony in rebuttal.

The case, involving three former officers of the Smith company—G. Bryan Pitts, former chairman of the board; C. Elbert Anadale and John H. Edwards, jr., former vice presidents—dragged to the end of its third week Saturday. The opening day of its fourth, and what promises to be its last week, holds considerable interest in the prospect that Mr. Pitts will be called to the witness stand to testify in his own behalf.

Defense Claims Revealed.

As the case of the defense slowly unrolled last week, it became fairly evident along what lines the former official's testimony would be laid.

So far, each defense witness has forged at least one more link in the chain of evidence which has been introduced to show that the majority of the alleged embezzlements in the 95 items of the Government's bill of particulars were legitimately earned by Mr. Pitts and that the balance were not handled by him at all, but were merely day-to-day transactions in the conduct of the firm's business.

It is not expected that Mr. Pitts will deny having used the majority of the items named. On the contrary, every move of the defense indicates that he will acknowledge having used the funds, but will link together previous defense testimony to show that they were earned by him and properly charged on the books of the firm.

Record Burning Explained.

As to the concealment charge, the defense has introduced testimony indicating, first, that the important records which are said to be missing were on hand and available after the Government charges they were destroyed, and, second, that whatever records were destroyed were old and useless papers which every business house discards after their usefulness is ended.

Government counsel are Nugent Dodds, Assistant Attorney General, and Neil Burkinshaw, assistant district attorney. Representing the three deefndants are Wilton J. Lambert, Frank G. Raichle, Rudolph H. Yeatman and George D. Horning, jr.

Girls Escape From School Home.

Three girl inmates of the Industrial Home School, on Wisconsin avenue northwest, escaped yesterday from the institution, and are being sought by police. The girls were seen getting into an automobile near the institution. They are Edna McInturf, 13; Catherine Hall, 14; and Lula Hatch, 13 years old.

PROTECTION URGED FOR FAMILIES OF UNEMPLOYED MEN

Miss Grace Abbott Suggests Jobless Insurance as Medium.

SAYS LEADERS MUST DISCOVER REMEDIES

Chief of Children's Bureau Asserts Body Can Not Fill Requests.

Children of this and future generations should be protected from effects of unemployment through some permanent method of remuneration, Miss Grace Abbott, chief of the Children's Bureau, declared last night at the Friends Forum at the Friends meeting house.

Miss Abbott suggested that a form of unemployment insurance, with children named as beneficiaries, could be introduced in some parts of the country. She added that she does not think this extreme is necessary in Washington.

Must Find Remedy.

"Our industrial leaders," she went on, "must find a remedy for industrial depressions, just as doctors are expected to find methods of preventing cancer and tuberculosis or any other disease. Nobody should rest until these goals are reached."

Miss Abbott painted a pathetic picture of child suffering throughout this because of unemployment, country and other parts of the world

Unableto Fill Requests.

In her annual report, Miss Abbott draws attention to the fact that the Children's Bureau during the past year was unable to comply with many requests from public and private agencies. These included requests for State-wide or local investigations, consultation in the field, summaries of material in the files of the bureau, and for other kinds of assistance.

Miss Abbott, in her report, asks for additions to technical and clerical staffs. Among accomplishments of the bureau during the year she lists a maternal mortality study in fifteen States, a child labor tabulation showing a general increase in 1929, and a study of juvenile court statistics from 98 courts covering more than 46,000 delinquency cases.

Reserve Planning New Year's Party

Officers' Association Will Greet 1931 at Hotel Festivities.

The annual New Year's eve party of the Reserve Officers Association, which will be held in the ballrooms of the Raleigh Hotel, will far excel those of the past in brilliancy and numbers attending, according to Maj. Charles Demonet, president of the District of Columbia department.

With noise-makers, caps, balloons, bells, horns and other novelties and with music furnished by the Army and Marine Orchestras, the 500 guests who are expected to be present will give the New Year a hearty welcome

Maj. Demonet said that it had been necessary to impose limitations because the demand for reservations the last two years had been greater than the supply available. More than 150 reservations have been made to date.

THE ONCE OVER

By H. I. PHILLIPS

NOTES OF A SHIP NEWS MAN TRYING TO COVER PROF. EINSTEIN.

(Assuming that the distinguished visitor was as frightened and as elusive as had been indicated.)

BELGENLAND sighted down the bay. No trace of Prof. Einstein aboard. Skipper is having ship searched.

• • • •

Municipal tug is alongside liner, but reception committee is unable to get in touch with savant. Mrs. Einstein says he was last seen climbing up ship's rigging. Am having rigging searched.

• • • •

Note just found on table in the professor's stateroom reads, "I am not aboard the Belgenland. It was an optical illusion."

• • • •

First mate has just found the professor hiding under canvas in a starboard lifeboat. Identification from photographs simple, but the professor insists he is a man named Boompole.

• • • •

Prof. Einstein is positively identified by his wife. He looks over side of ship and sees municipal tug full of city officials, notables and Tammany politicians. Asks what boat it is. Is told it is the welcoming boat. Emits loud groan and disappears down a ship's funnel.

• • • •

Newspaper reporters have swarmed aboard Belgenland. They ask for Einstein. They are told he jumped down funnel. They jump down after him.

• • • •

The Belgenland is now docking. Fifty photographers have boarded her and are chasing the professor up and down companionways. He insists it is all a mistake and that he is really a concert pianist traveling incognito.

• • • •

The photographers have cornered him and are insisting that he pose for them, sitting, standing and jumping.

• • • •

THE professor endures it all up to a point where a tabloid photographer asks that he pose in a one-piece bathing suit of yellow and black, discussing bent space with a notorious movie actress whose legs have just been insured for a million dollars.

• • • •

There is quite an argument. A news-reel photographer is trying to force the professor to pose for the American public chasing two vaudeville actresses up a mast. The professor is getting quite furious.

• • • •

Fourteen more reporters have just come aboard. The professor has jumped overboard. He is rescued by motion picture men and forced to make a "talkie" while climbing into a rowboat.

• • • •

The professor is now on American soil. And he regrets it more than words can tell.

• • • •

A reporter has just asked him what he thinks of our American girls. The professor's temper is coming to a boil.

• • • •

Grover Whalen is now talking to Prof. Einstein. The professor is calling for his earlaps.

• • • •

Motorcycle police are surrounding them. The professor asks why the motorcycle cops are there. He is informed that there is to be a parade to City Hall. He breaks away and regains the Belgenland, disappearing down an open hatch.

• • • •

Now searching ship again.

• • • •

Have found professor under a stove in ship's kitchen. He says it is more comfortable there. Am trying to coax him out by offers of two new problems in higher mathematics.

THE PLAYFUL MAKE-UP MAN.

(From the N. Y. Daily News.)

NOTRE DAME, 27, CALIF., 0.

Santa Barbara, Calif.—A slight earthquake was felt here today at 5:25 p. m. No damage was done by the quake, which lasted 30 seconds.

Whaddya mean, no damage?

• • • •

"EDDIE" CASEY has been named the new head coach at Harvard, with "Big Ben" Ticknor assistant line and center coach. Selling of the Yale bulldog short is already reported.

Sign on a William street restaurant in New York: "Closed on account of a dead bank-roll."

What Judge Lindsey is chiefly interested in, many people suspect, is companionate bishops.

A Cleveland doctor announces that he has created a parentless living thing. Well, somehow, it seems pretty terrible to think of an Al Jolson of the future singing mammy songs to a test-tube.

EX-ORGAN PUMPERS, ATTENTION!

OLD Chet Shafer, founder, and Grand Diapason of the Guild of Former Organ Pumpers, is out again with his annual report.

The Grand Diapason reports that the guild was unsuccessful during 1930 in efforts to force the London Disarmament Conference to place hot mince pie on the Agenda, but that otherwise it was a year of guild progress. That is has not escaped the depression, however, is indicated by the following chapter of the report:

"Julius Rosenwald and James Couzens have recently submitted a proposal to realign the capital structure of the guild by retiring all outstanding No-Par, Nonparticipating, Nonrefunding, 7 per cent, Prior Lien, Four-Ply Noncurling Drivers' Licenses (a senior obligation). The proposal directs the issuance of Optional Purchase Warrants, which will be 36 by 24 by 18 inches in dimension, thus to have the largest square footage of any security listed on the stock exchange."

(Copyright, 1930.)

Jesus' Influence Held Basis of Revelations

Rev. W. A. Shelton Sees All of Science and Invention as Utilization of Things That Have Always Been, Through Divine Grace.

Methods by which Jesus reveals Himself to mankind were discussed yesterday in a sermon delivered by the Rev. W. A. Shelton, pastor of the Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church South. Taking his text from Hebrews 1:1-4, Mr. Shelton said:

Revelation is itself a wonderful word. It connotes dawn, the fleeing of darkness; gray light flooding a landscape. It takes us back to Genesis and the proclamation "Let there be light," and the breaking day across a fathomless gulf of chaotic darkness—out of the formless coming form and order, and from the unlovely coming beauty, day, and the unfolding purposes of God.

Jesus, in His very nature, is revelation. His name is the Greek equivalent of the Hebrew word Joshua—salvation. Joshua was not only the deliverer from desert solitude and drabness, but a leader who conquered the land and settled the people in a place of opportunity and self-conscious realisation of citizenship. Jesus saves. He saves not only from destruction, but to an unfolding life of usefulness and beauty.

Growth Revelation.

Growth is itself a revelation. An acorn is a cold, dead-looking thing, but under the influence of the sun's warming rays it bursts open and, unfolding, reveals the beauties and utilities potentially stored there. The chrysalis is a very unlovely object, until the spirit within awakens and it doffs its dead coat and spreads wings of glorious beauty, seeking fellowship with the flowers. An egg lies like a dead stone till, under the fertilization of life from above, it breaks with joyous life and sings among the branches of the forest. All life is a revelation.

The darkness of the night veils our eyes from the brighter light, till the stars come out on the blue screen of heaven. The mind unfolds and grasps the reins of a universe. Nature had its revelation. Philosophy did its best. Science turns its light upon earthly realities. The lawgivers and prophets, with the writers and fathers of old, each contributed to the revelation of God in every phase of human experience. And then Jesus came in a saving revelation that brought philosophy and science into right relationships, founded human brotherhood, laid the foundation of civilization and brought immortality to light. He showed us God. "Shew us the Father," said Philip, "and we shall be satisfied." That was exactly what Jesus was doing at that very moment. "What is God like?" Is He like Ra or Marduk or Baal or Buddha? Is He like the portrayal in the Old Testament? We hope to find at last that He is like Jesus.

No Erroneous Religion.

God has always been trying to reveal Himself to mankind. Through pagan forms and myths of old, seizing upon whatever of unfolding there is in human minds, He has utilized that dawning to declare His presence. There have never been any erroneous religions (that is, except those developing in Boston, Chicago or Los Angeles). Those religions which we call pagan have ever been the highest attempt of that particular pepole to realise the divinity which they felt stirring in them and to find from above some satisfaction for the longing for higher fellowship, and the answer to an age-old heart cry of conscious need.

The true definition of myth is just this: It is the formulation of a people's belief in an unseen and supernatural power, which in some way relates itself to the worshiper. We have sometimes arrogated to ourselves a sort of patented creed that shuts out as unworthy and evil all who disagree with us. But not so with Jesus. He picked up every human aspiration and longing and fulfilled it—filled it full. He made it alive and revalued it. One of our difficulties is thinking that Jesus has been in the world only since His coming to Bethlehem. But He says: "Before Abraham was, I am."

When the "morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy," at the laying of the corner stone of creation, Jesus was present. "In the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God." This is true! Therefore, Jesus, everywhere and always, universal and eternal, is present wherever and whenever any seeker offers the best sacrifice he knows, on the best altar he knows, with the best fire he knows, to the best god he knows. And that same Jesus will find a way—His own way—to at least pass by so that the worshiper may touch the hem of His garment and feel virtue come into his soul.

Process of Revelation.

Jesus has always been revealing Himself. He has been the very process of revelation, in all ages, and is now and will forever remain the Great Revealer. He is the "Sun of Righteousness," the Light of the World, and it is only in that light that humanity will be able to find its way. Science is not opposed to this, but is one of His agencies of revelation, the revelation fo material things. Philosophy is an attempt to find out reality, and it finds Jesus. Psychology undertakes to discover the human mind and its activities and habits, but its answer is, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

There is no such thing as invention. It is but the discovery of things that are and have ever been. Jesus discovered humanity and led it forth to civilization, and Christian civilization has been able to discover these marvels which we call inventions. Modern cities, modern learning, achievement in every field of endeavor is the result of the influence of Jesus. He came into the world as the sun dawns out of the night and quickened it into life and beauty, growth and utility.

Human knowledge has been quickened, by his presence and influence, to work as His servant in the process of revelation. His great discovery to men has been the revelation of themselves to themselves.

Army Band Player Reported Missing

Wife Says He Grieved Over Inability to Buy Gifts fro Children.

Police last night were asked to locate Charles D. Hershey, a member of the United States Army Band, who has been missing from his home, 1352 Four-and-a-half street southwest, since early Saturday night.

His disappearance was reported by his wife, Mrs. Helen Hershey, who said he left home while she and her three children, Karola, 8 years old; Carl, 9 years old, and Willie, 10 months old, were asleep in an adjoining room.

Hershey, who recently returned from an extensive tour with the Army Band, was said by his wife to have been despondent because his salary would not permit him to buy Christmas presents for the children.

"The Other Wise Man" Read at Vesper Service

The ninth annual reading of Henry Van Dyke's "The Other Wise Man" was given yesterday by Miss Mary P. Burrill, instructor in dramatics at the Dunbar High School, at a special vesper service in the Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel, at Howard University. The reading followed a candle light procession to the auditorium in which women of the university participated.

Christmas carols were sung by a vested choir under direction of Lulu Vere Childers, with Camille Nickerson at the piano. The exercises were under general supervision of Miss Lucy D. Slowe, dean of women.

Bettelheim Will Unveil Plaque to Soldier Dead

Capt. Edwin S. Bettelheim, former chairman of the Veterans of Foreign Wars' Mission to Northern Russia, will unveil a bronze plaque on board the S. S. President Roosevelt in New York Harbor today, at a ceremony commemorating the anniversary of the return of the V. F. W. mission with the bodies of 75 American soldiers who lost their lives at Archangel during the World War.

The plaque will be presented to officials of the United States Lines by Paul C. Wolman, of Baltimore, commander in chief of the organization. It will be accepted by Commander Joseph E. Sheedy, executive vice president of the line, and Capt. Theo Van Bee, commanding the S. S Roosevelt.

Mrs. Harmon's Funeral To Be Held Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Harmon, who died Friday in her eighty-third year, will be held today at the home of her son, Artemas C. Harmon, 2840 Twenty-seventh street northwest. The Rev. George F. Dudley, of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, will conduct the service.

Mrs. Harmon will be buried in Arlington Cemetery by the side of her husband, John M. Harmon, who served in the Civil War with the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment. She was born and reared in Washington and was active in church and social circles. As a girl of 13, when she lived on Capitol Hill, Mrs. Harmon ran to greet the troops reaching Washington in 1861 in response to President Lincoln's call for volunteers.

SEVEN ARE INJURED BY CAR CRASHES IN WASHINGTON REGION

Elderly Victim of Former Accident Dies; One Seriously Hurt.

ALEZAZNDRIA COLLISION OVERTURNS ONE AUTO

Four Given Treatment After Machnie Hits Culvert Near Four Corners.

Automobile accidents in Washington and nearby Virginia and Maryland yesterday caused injuries to seven persons, one of whom is believed to be in a serious condition.

Fredrick Ockershausen, 73 years old, of McLean, Va., who was injured on December 8, in an accident in Virginia, died yesterday at Georgetown University Hospital.

After the accident he was taken to him home where he remained for a week. His condition became worse and he was removed to the hospital, where it was found that he had a fractured skull.

One Seriously Injured.

Elbert Bradford, of 600 Third street northwest, was seriously injured when the automobile he was driving was struck by an alleged hit-and-run driver on Washington street, Alexandria, late yesterday afternoon.

The car driven by Bradford turned over twice, after being struck by the other machine, which sped off without stopping, police said. Bradford's car and the other were said to have been racing each other at the time.

Bradford was taken to Alexandria Hospital and treated by Dr. M. D. Delaney. He was reported to be suffering from back injuries and possible internal injuries. An X-ray examination will be made today. Bradford is a plumber.

Sisters Are Treated.

Lillian and Jeanette Cohen, sisters, who live at 1855 Calvert street northwest, are in Emergency Hospital, suffering from injuries received when the automobile in which they were riding struck a culvert near Four Corners, Md.

Joseph A. Petty, 53 years old, of 7002 Connecticut avenue, of Chevy Chase, Md., and Mrs. Teresa Petty, 52 years old, wife of the driver, were slightly injured in the crash.

Mr. Petty was driving the car north on the Colesville Pike, when he lost control of the machine and it struck a culvert near the side of the road. Mr. and Mrs. Petty were treated by Dr. H. H. Howett, of Silver Springs. They suffered minor injuries.

Machine Overturns.

The Cohen sisters were brought to Emergency Hospital. Lillian Cohen suffered injuries to her back. X-ray pictures will be made to determine whether her spine is broken. Jeanette Cohen suffered body injuries.

John F. Matthews, 17-year-old Negro, of Fort Washington, Md., was critically injured shortly after 8 o'clock last night when his automobile overturned on the highway several miles from his home. He was brought to Providence Hospital by John Butler, of Washington, who arrived on the scene shortly after the accident. Matthews had not recovered consciousness late last night, and hospital authorities pronounced his condition serious.

Louis Andrews, 21 years old, Negro woman, of 606 Third street northwest, was slightly injured last night when the automobile in which she was riding overturned at Sixth and G streets northwest, when it struck another automobile The second car failed to stop after the accident. Frank Trigg, 21 years old, colored, of 1605 Fifteenth street northwest, was driving the first car.

New Reciprocity Club Announces Its Program

A new civic association known as the Reciprocity Club has been organized in Washington under the leadership of Arthur C. Smith, it was announced yesterday. The club will meet once a month at the Mayflower Hotel.

Its purpose, as explained by President Smith, "is to construct a better understanding among the members and to create a desire that each member shall succeed in his respective field, having in mind continually the motto 'not what I am but how great is our brother,' and constantly aiding his fellow man."

Employment Relief Demand DueToday

People's Lobby to Tell Congress Government Is Responsible.

A demonstration demanding immediate adequate relief by Congress for the victims of unemployment will be held today by delegates of the People's Lobby, of which Prof. John Dewey is president.

Senator Jones, majority leader, will see the delegation in the Senate appropriations committee room in the Capitol at 9:30 o'clock, Senator Robinson at 11 o'clock, Speaker Longworth at 11:30 o'clock in his office. Representative Garner, minority leader, will receive the delegation in the morning.

In the afternoon, the delegates from each State will interview their senators and House delegations. Tonight the subject of "What Congress Should Do Now on Unemployment" will be discussed at the Playhouse, 1814 N street northwest.

Among the delegates who will participate in the demonstration are Norman Thomas, of New York, director of the League For Industrial Democracy, and one-time presidential candidate on the Socialist ticket; N. P. Alifas, representing the International Association of Machinists; Clarence Senior, of Chicago, secretary of the National Socialist Party; Charles W. Erwin, of New York, representing the Amalgamated Clothing Workers; Miss Zella W. Newcomb, president of the Ergatocrats Club; A. E. Linn Gale, president of the Washington Open Forum; Mrs. Walter Campbell, representing the District of Columbia Single Tax Club, and Benjamin C. Marsh, representing the People's Lobby.

Hart to Make Address To Antisaloon League

David A. Hart, assistant United States attorney in charge of prohibition cases in Police Court, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Antisaloon League of the District of Columbia tonight in the Grace Reformed Church, Fifteenth and O streets northwest.

The early part of the meeting will be devoted to the election of officers and discussion of committee reports. Each church organization is entitled to five representatives in the league. In announcing the meeting, President Andrew Wilson said "attendance of pastors is especially desired and urged. Please let us have the encouragement your presence will give."

Former Clergyman Starts Atheism Drive

Albert D. Bell, former Baptist clergyman, who was ordained in 1928 by Aimee McPherson, addressed the Washington Open Forum yesterday on atheism. He is now secretary of the Junior Atheist League of America.

Mr. Bell, a native of Chester, Pa., explained how he became an apostle of Aimee McPherson. He is in this city to direct a campaign against "religious superstition," on the eve of Christmas.

Y. W. C. A. Girl Reserves Stage Holiday Program

A Christmas program of song and story was given by the Girl Reserves of the Y. W. C. A., yesterday afternoon at the District Training School for Girls.

Eighteen members of the glee club sang, under the direction of Miss Mary M. Burnett. Miss Mabel R. Cook, girl reserve executive, told the story of "The Song of the Christ Child."

Jewish Scholar to Review Novel at Round Table

Ben-Zion Emanuel, Jewish educator, will review "The Great Crane," a Hebrew war novel, at a meeting of the Round Table to be held in the Jewish Community Center tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock.

As the book has never been translated into English, Mr. Emanuel will have the double task of translating and interpreting. The public is invited.

Rescue Squad Saves Boy Overcome by Gas

Two-and-a-half-year-old William A. Brown was playing about the kitchen of his home, 419 Twelfth street northeast, yesterday. He turned on the gas range.

The child was quickly overcome by the fumes and was unconscious when found. He was revived by the Fire Department Rescue Squad.

Vital Statistics

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Charles A. L. and Selda Cohn, boy.
Than O. and Frankie Porter, boy.
Lloyd L. and Mary L. Connelly, girl.
Joseph and Jane Clenik, girl.
John E. and Elisabeth I. Moran, girl.
John T. and Jane C. Costello, girl.
James P. and Lavinia H. McNally, girl.
Benjamin D. and May A. Hodges, boy.
Clarence L. and Mildred Bahr, boy.
Jasper and Ninetia Giannola, boy.
Marion R. and Marion A. Dyer, girl.
William F. and Hester Stansbury, boy.
William and Ines Washington, boy.
Floyd and Mary Grinage, boy.

BIRTHS REPORTED.

Sarah B. Temple, 80 yrs., 636 K st. ne.
Mary A. White, 79 yrs., 1234 K st. se.
Dora Gladstone, 68 yrs., 1307 Varnum nw.
Floyd E. Whitlock, 42 yrs., Providence Hospital.
Dorothy H. Gress, 34 yrs., 2809 R. I. ave. ne.
Pearl Mahaney, 33 yrs., Tuberculosis Hos.
Saul Wohl, 2 yrs., Providence Hos.
Thomas E. Vaughn, 62 yrs., Freedmen's Hospital.
Josephine Holden, 51 yrs., Gallinger Hos.
Walter Jackson, 48 yrs., Freedmen's Hos.
Alfred Simmons, 45 yrs., Gallinger Hos.
Junius Wilson, 35 yrs., St. Elisabeths Hos.
Charles Jackson, 32 yrs., 638 D st. nw.
Juanita Little, 3 yrs., Children's Hos.